

VETERANS PLAN BIG PARADE FOR ARMISTICE DAY

The Armistice day parade will be a great one representation of every part or department that goes to make a patriotic parade will be in line. G. A. R., Spanish-American War Veterans will all be there. There will be a good crowd of school children.

The auxiliary organizations to the fighters are expected to have floats in the parade picturing their work. The Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus and Salvation Army. Major Dusebury, chairman of the parade committee, has a full program with the routes and meeting places for formation and will have all these things settled and the complete lineup will be announced by tomorrow afternoon. Grand marshal Mayor G. E. Halvorsen is sending letters to all the mayors in Marion county asking them to invite all organizations to take part. Invitations have been extended to all fraternal organizations in Salem and a good showing is looked for. The Bungalow Christian church is to have two floats in the parade and there are a number of others looked for. Besides the patriotic music and singing at the armory, Adjutant General George A. White, who is to be the speaker of the day, will bring a message that will thrill his hearers. The slumbering fires of patriotism will be fanned and that feeling in the hearts that made America unconquerable will live over again the triumphant day of victory that we celebrate November 11.

With the bands playing and the flags flying it is to be a day long to be remembered in the city of Salem.

WOMEN PROBLEM OF POLITICIANS

Washington, Nov. 7.—"What will the women do?" now is the question on the lips of innumerable political candidates and managers, and most of them admit that the answer will not be known until after the votes on November 7 are counted.

The "women's vote" is a big factor in many campaigns, congressional and gubernatorial as well as local in the present campaign, and veteran political leaders of the male persuasion at least, declare it remains an unknown factor in most cases. In many campaigns, the women, it is said, hold the balance of power and the election will swing as the feminine votes fall. "Dry" candidates, for the most part, are relying heavily upon feminine support while in some congested centers the "wets" are claiming a share or majority of the woman vote.

What's New on the Market BY FORREST GINN

A barrel of Cape Cod cranberries, said to be the best that the market can offer, were received this morning at one of the local stores. They are being held for the trade until the supply of Washington cranberries are gone. It is said that the Cape Cods will retail at about 27 or 28 cents a pound at the beginning of their season with the price advancing as the Thanksgiving day draws near.

A letter was received at one of the local fish markets yesterday stating that the fishers are having trouble in supplying the demand for Silver-side owing to the cool weather and light nights. As the nights become darker so will the supply increase. Silver-side are selling at 15 cents a pound sliced and 10 cents by the fish when there are plenty on the market.

Some fine red radishes, grown on the Lake Labish, are still to be had on the local markets. They are selling at 5 cents a bunch.

Hallbut is scarce at this time with the result that the price is high. It is selling at 28 cents a pound or two for a quarter.

Lady Finger grapes are nearly off the market. What are left are inclined to be spoiled about the stems.

Cabbage is selling now at two cents a pound. For some time previous it has been selling at 2 1/2 cents.

2-Tier Skirt and Full Sleeve in Canton Crepe

By MARY BROOKS PICKEN

ON EVERY hand 'tis heard, "The silhouette is so entirely new." And 'tis true. The full sleeve, the long skirt, and the simplicity of the waist-line, all have their part in making the silhouette seem entirely different.

"Every dress must be remade," 'tis also said. True, but never were two materials in combination so much in vogue; never before did we have novelty materials so just right for the new sleeves; never before was it possible to conceal entirely a "make-over" as at this time.

The original of this dress was of navy Canton crepe with gray embroidery of contrasting color, but it is a design adaptable to cloth or velvet and especially attractive for the latter, carrying as it does just the right simplicity.

HEAVY VOTE BEING POLLED ALL OVER LAND

New York, Nov. 7.—Early reports from various parts of the United States indicate the probability of a heavy vote in today's congressional elections. The strenuous electioneering which marked the close of the campaign in many districts would appear to have aroused very keen last minute interest in what at one time appeared to be a rather dull contest and election officials this morning were predicting unusually heavy balloting.

Political observers who have followed the campaign closely believe that there is but little chance of today's election changing the political aspect of the house of representatives or the senate at Washington though it is not improbable that the republican majority in the house may be diminished. Democratic leaders profess to see in the final week of the campaign a turning of public sentiment in their direction. Late last night the democratic committee in Washington issued a statement saying reports from states regarded as doubtful "indicate such a decided democratic trend that there will be a decisive victory in three or four senatorial elections heretofore conceded to the republicans."

The states where the democratic leaders are hopeful of making gains include New York, where they see "a last day reaction against the republican ticket" which leads to the belief that

SLAIN RECTOR IN HAPPIER DAYS

Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and his parishioners. Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall, rector of a fashionable church in New Brunswick, N. J., who was murdered with his "Wonder Heart" choir singer, Mrs. Eleanor Mills, is shown in this hitherto unpublished photograph, with members of his parish, at a New Jersey watering place. Mrs. Addison Clark, close friend of the Halls and Mrs. Mills, who accompanied Dr. and Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Mills on an auto trip just before the murder, is shown at the extreme left of the lower row.

Royal Copeland will defeat Senator Calder; Utah, where Senator King will have the support of the Mormons which previously had been expected to go to the republican candidate, Ernest Bamberger; Indiana, where "dissatisfaction among old guard republicans and the influence of war veterans" is expected to defeat A. J. Beveridge, the republican candidate, and Ohio, which they say "has been put into the democratic column by partial observers." On the other hand republican leaders this morning expressed confidence that there would be but little change in the complexion of the

BASKETBALL LEAGUE TO OPEN NEXT TUESDAY

At a meeting of the captains of the teams of the commercial basketball series last night at the Y. M. C. A. a schedule of games was drawn up which calls for the opening games to be played on Tuesday, November 14. Five teams are certain and it is likely that the O'Connell Motor company will enter a team. Should they fall there will be a vacant place for some other team.

The local business houses that have entered teams so far are Housers, Anderson & Brown, Mistland Bakery, Central Pharmacy, United States National bank, and possibly the Dodge Motor company. The schedule will be completed about Christmas and from the best players of the league the Yellowjackets, official "Y" team will be picked.

Leslie Sparks and Mike Edwards were chosen as official referees.
