Popular Couple Married

One of the most outstanding social events of the year took place Saturday evening when Miss Merle Hamilton, the charming daughter of Judge and Mrs. J. W. Hamilton of this city became the bride of Allan Carson of Salem.

The ceremony took place at the beautiful home of the brides parents at the corner of Lake and Kane streets at 8:15 Saturday evening in the presence of 50 guests. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Marion Linn of Eugene, a sorority sister of Miss Hamilton's sang "Oh Promise Me," accompanied on the piano by Miss Madge Calkins, also of Eugene.

She was conducted on the arm of her father to an immense screen, massed with smiles, at one end of the living room, where the ceremony was read by Rev. L. B. Quick of the Presbyterian church. The bride was very beautiful in an elaborate wedding gown of silver cloth and silver lace with a full length wedding veil caught in an attractive head arrangement with orange blossoms.

The spacious Hamilton home was artistically arranged through out in yellow and white, with quantities of autumn leaves and yellow candles shed a soft light over the scene. About 150 guests were bidden to a reception after the ceremony, and a buffet luncheon was served by Mrs. J. W. Hamilton, assisted by Mrs. Chas. Hamilton and Mrs. Henry Richardson of Portland.

Mrs. Carson has spent the greater part of her life in Roseburg, and has many friends here to wish her every happiness. She is a graduate of the Roseburg high school, and attended the University of Oregon. She is a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Mr. Carson is the son of Mrs. John Carson of Salem, and attended the University of Oregon. He is also a graduate of Willamette law school, and a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity. He is now a partner in the law office of his brother Attorney John Carson of Salem. Mr. Carson also served overseas during the world war, for two and one half years, as a first lieutenant.

Several out of town guests were present at the ceremony among them being Mrs. Arthur Clarke of Portland, Mrs. John Carson, Attorney John Carson of Salem, Pres. Campbell of the University of Oregon and daughter Miss Jane Campbell, Marion Linn, Madge Calkins of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh F. McCammon of Salem, Mrs. J. A. Carson, Catherine Carson, Wallace Carson, of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. F. McCaine of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Richardson of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lisdale of Sutherlin, Dr. Langley of Riddle.

Many beautiful gifts were received and were on display in the dining room of the Hamilton home. One most unusual gift that caused much comment was a solid silver old Irish tea pot, hand wrought, which is 131 years old. It was the gift of Joseph Clark Baldwin of New York, who was overseas with Mr. Carson.—Roseburg News Review.

The ceremony was read in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rodwell, and Mrs. James Moorman, both women sisters of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Brown will live on a farm in Polk county. Both young people have made their home in Polk county for some time and are well known there.

Kiwanians Celebrate Birthday

The Kiwanians with their ladies will tonight celebrate their first birthday with a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts. This is also an initiation for the lovely new Roberts home. The second floor is Mr. Roberts' studio and can be opened up into a very spacious reception room. Mr. Roberts and other Kiwanians are arranging a very fine program, and they say that the women are to be Kiwanians for the evening and must be there for the splendid musical program and fun.

They have arranged for a "leased" wire and election returns will be received up until twelve o'clock. Everything will be done to make this one of the very best meetings. The birthday party had been postponed one month because too many other things interfered with the celebration on the real birthday.

This is to be a regular birthday celebration and everyone is invited to come prepared to have a good time and lots of fun.

Merciless Neuritis Hartman's Glasses Easier and Better. Wear them and see. Phone 1263. Salem, Oregon

Imps of Hades armed with red hot pitchforks could scarcely inflict more cruel, agonizing torture than that endured by many sufferers from neuritis. The sharp stabbing pains caused by this disease are usually centered about the shoulder, neck, forearm, small of the back or along the thigh and leg in the region of the sciatic nerve. Sometimes they move from one part to another, sending out lightning jabs which produce untold misery. If you want prompt relief, apply Tysmol over the part that hurts, and the pain should disappear. Tysmol is absorbed through the pores of the skin and has a soothing, healing effect upon the inflamed, diseased nerves. Contains no "dope." Guaranteed harmless. Price $1 at Dan's J. Fry's Tysmol Company, Mfg. Chemists, 400 Sutter St., San Francisco. (adv)

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Browning gave a dinner Sunday, November 5, in honor of their fifty-seventh wedding anniversary. Relatives and friends who were invited to the dinner enjoyed an excellent dinner served by Mrs. Browning herself. They were married on November 2, 1865, in Knox county, Illinois, where they spent the first five years of their married life. They then lived sixteen years in Missouri, twenty seven years in Kansas, and then the past nine years in Salem. Mr. Browning assured his guests that he won his bride without the help of a buzz wagon or even a buggy. He made his weekly trip of twenty miles each way on horseback. He said that the wedding ring was purchased eleven years later, but that notwithstanding all of this they have lived for more than half a century very happily.

Matilda Vavro and Garrett Templeton were married Saturday evening at eight o'clock at the Christian church parsonage by Rev. J. J. Evans. The bride wore a dark blue taffeta dress, with a coat and hat of the same shade. Her maid of honor, Miss Lelith Kuhn, wore a Mohawk colored pongee dress. Frank Hutcheson was the best man. TWO YEAR OLD WINS $97,345

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 7.—When Sally's Alley, W. S. Killmer's crack two-year-old filly, won the second division of the Pimlico futurity here last Saturday she brought her total winnings of the year to $97,347. Her share of the futurity was $41,615. MOVIES

Screen and stage critics who have seen the work of Douglas Carter, the colored comedian, believe he will fill the place of the late Bert Williams.

Carter, who is appearing with Owen Moore in "Love Is an Awful Thing," at the Oregon theater today is a natural born actor. So natural, in fact, that he scored a distinct success in his first picture, "The Poor Sloop," despite the fact that he had never before appeared either on the stage or before the camera.

George Cowl, playing a role in Penrhyn Stanlaw's production of "Pink Gods," which comes to the Oregon theater Thursday, did not confine his activities to acting. He has been gold-miner, lumberman and cattle-rancher, both in Canada and the United States. He started his career on the stage at 21, and has directed a number of motion pictures, as well as played in many.

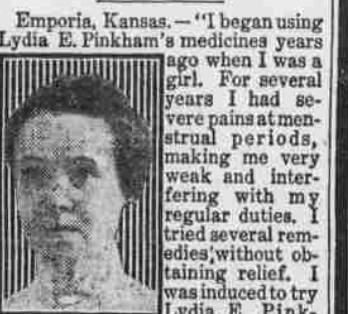

Impenetrable India, seething with intrigue and unrest, is the locale selected for "Shattered Idols, formerly titled "A Bride of the Gods," which is the attraction at the Liberty theater this week.

To the general public, Mary Alden, who plays the part of Claire Bodal in Katherine MacDonald's "Trust Your Wife," which will be shown at the Liberty theater on Friday is one of the best character women on the screen. To the screen fraternity Mary can be described in a single word, a—"trouper."

Forty different motion picture cameras were used at times in filming "Theodora," the massive

FROM GIRLHOOD TO WOMANHOOD

Woman Relied Upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Emporia, Kansas.—"I began using Lydia E. Pinkham's medicines years ago when I was a girl. For several years I had severe pains at menstrual periods, making me very weak and interfering with my regular duties. I tried several remedies, without obtaining relief. I was induced to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound by friends and it restored me to normal health. I often have occasion and do recommend your Vegetable Compound to my friends who have troubles similar to my own. You may use these facts as a testimonial."—EVA ALDRICH, 218 Union St., Emporia, Kansas.

film spectacle which will be presented by Goldwyn at the Grand theater Saturday and Sunday. In some of the scenes 25,000 people were used so that it was necessary to have photographers at every angle to assure the best results.

The Hickman Bessey Stock company have chosen a very timely bill for their show at the Bligh this week starting tonight, entitled "Love and Politics." This is a very strong bill exposing many of the crooked methods used by many politicians in order to gain the votes of the people.
