CLASH OF BEARS

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 11.— With four thousand bleacher seats added to the regular 40,000 of the stadium at the University of Washington were all reported sold and with nearly 2000 prayerful old grads back at alma ma-ter for the annual homecoming, this city is waiting in the throes of hope for the starting gun of a football game with the University of California this afternoon.

The 72 to 3 mangling that the Golden Bear inflicted upon the Muskles last year is in the front of the minds and on the tips of the tongues of the Washington fans. A few have a cheering memory of the 72 to 0 rending that the Huskies marked up on bruin in 1915. Each time the winning team was under a coach in his first year at the institution, An-Latham Smith at California and Enoch Bagshaw at Wash-

'Hearts Haven'

Clara Louise Burnham who wrote of Life us we all Live it Every day.

A gripping story of an unhappy man, who was poisoned by hate, in spite of three great loves. Then came a new force and the light of happiness, broke thru the clouds of despair. It's a picture that gives you a bigger, broader, cleaner view of life and will make life seem sweeter.
