

Edited by MISS RUTH AUSTIN Phone 82

Society

Mrs. Kuhn Is Hostess For Bridge

Graceful fern baskets, and gorgeous yellow and lavender shaded chrysanthemums formed an artistic background for a bridge party Wednesday with Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, hostess. Eight tables of bridge were in play during the afternoon with Mrs. Ronald Glover winning high score, and Mrs. George Hubbs of Silverton, low score. The hostess was assisted in serving a very dainty lunch by Mrs. Glover and Mrs. C. A. Vibbert.

The guests who were invited for the afternoon of bridge were, Mesdames Lynn Gleason, Harley White, Clyde Johnson, O. L. Fisher, C. N. Inman, Miller Bevier, W. I. Needham, E. C. Quinn, Roma Hunter, Mrs. George Hubbs of Silverton, Lynn Smith, Harry Wrentham, Harry Wiedmer, John E. Brophy, Ralph Glover, Roy Burton, Frank Meyers, G. C. Belinger, Max Buren, W. I. Staley, P. C. Bowersox, Phil Newmyer, C. A. Vibbert, Fred Ellis, Herbert Siff, Paul Hauser, J. R. Sites, E. T. Busselle, C. J. Green, Fred Delano, Fred Brock, Jr., F. E. Shafer, Gertrude J. M. Page, U. S. Page, Ida Niles, W. M. Smith, David Wright, Roderick, E. A. Kutz, O. A. Olson, Elmer Daue, P. E. Fullerton.

In view of the national meeting officers of the Oregon federation of Business and Professional Women are looking forward to an exceedingly active year among the clubs throughout the state. Inquiries are being received from the field regarding organization and federation of new clubs, and it is expected that most of the larger towns in the state will soon be included in the federation. Several meetings of the state board have been called to discuss plans for the coming convention. At the first meeting Miss Adella Pritchard, president, gave an interesting resume of the accomplishments of the national executive board at Chattanooga. At a recent meeting Miss Pritchard completed her organization of special convention committees.

Following the resignation of Miss Adella Pritchard as national vice president for Oregon, Mrs. G. J. Frankel was appointed to that office. While Portland has achieved a reputation as a convention city, which will be greatly strengthened by a meeting of this nature, women of the northwest, especially those who have been unable to attend previous conventions, realize that representatives from all states in the union will bring to them certain viewpoints of co-operation and organization that will be of great benefit.

Clever stunts, slugging, and dancing proved the pastime for members of the Apollo club last night when they met at the Shanghai cafe for a good time together. Prior to their banquet at the cafe the club sang a number of songs at the Salem Electric store, which were broadcasted from the local radio station. This is the first time that such a large group has sung for any station near here. The concert was of the usual Apollo club quality, which is the very best as was proved at the concert here last week. Special guests for the banquet were, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Barton, Mrs. J. R. Sites and the accompanist, Miss Ruth Bedford. The party was very successful and all of the members had an exceptionally good time.

"Royal Dadmun won unqualified success. His voice is a noble organ, ringing and resonant in quality. He sings with dignity of style and finished art," said the Buffalo Evening News, following an appearance of this distinguished baritone in that city with the Cincinnati orchestra. The Buffalo Times said that he "revealed a voice of lovely quality, well controlled and of wide range. A perfect enunciation increased the enjoyment of his work each number." Such comments as these increase the interest which is displayed in our musical public over the appearance of this fine artist which is announced for Friday, Nov. 17, tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Harding are rejoicing over the birth of a son, Wednesday morning. The baby has not been named as yet.

Mrs. Anna Culbertson who has been in New York for the past fourteen months is in Boston now for a short time, and before returning to her home here will visit Washington, D. C., Baltimore and Philadelphia.

Mrs. E. E. Millard and Mrs. W. L. Davis were joint hostesses Wednesday for a meeting of the Naomi circle of the First Methodist church at the Millard home. The women spent the afternoon sewing carpet rags, and dispensing with the regular monthly business. The circle is planning to make a quilt for the old people's home and will probably start it at their next meeting. The hostesses served delicious refreshments late in the afternoon.

Mrs. Thomas Dickey of Portland was the guest yesterday of her sister, Mrs. E. E. Millard. Covers for eight were laid at a prettily appointed table Wednesday evening when Mrs. E. A. Colony was hostess for a small informal dinner party. Centering the table was a lovely basket of copper colored chrysanthemums and smilax. After dinner the following guests enjoyed an evening of bridge, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cornoyer, Mr. and Mrs. Bliss Darby and Mr. and Mrs. Colony.

The members of the P. E. O. sisterhood in Salem with their husbands and friends will tonight motor to Chemawa where they will witness a very interesting drama involving the ideals of the sisterhood, written by one of their members, Miss Helen Crawford. After this there will be a social time at the Hall home there. A number of parties are motoring from Woodburn and Lebanon for the evening and it will be quite an elaborate and interesting affair.

Miss Alice Wood and Miss Hazel Yancey were week end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Wood. Both young women are juniors in the school of commerce at Oregon Agricultural college.

Wilkie Nelson Collins, instructor at the University of Oregon, was a visitor in Salem yesterday for a short time. Among the Salem people who will attend the annual football contest between Oregon and O. A. C. will be, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Albert, Mary Jane and Josephine Albert. They will motor over for the game Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Krause of Portland will be the week end guests of the Alberts, arriving tonight, and they will also attend the game.

Mrs. W. S. Mott was a charming hostess yesterday for the meeting of the Priscilla club at her home. The club members enjoyed a very informal social afternoon and a regular business meeting. Mrs. Dan Fry poured at the very attractively appointed table which was centered with a bouquet of large white chrysanthemums. White chrysanthemums were used further in baskets about the rooms.

Mrs. Russel Fields left for her home in Corvallis Wednesday after visiting for sometime with her mother, Mrs. J. W. Beckley. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fiske are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Veneta Louise, who was born Wednesday morning. The Fiskes live in the S. F. Apartments. Mrs. Ada Strong and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thielson motored to Portland yesterday for the day.

with thrilling situations, there is nothing objectionable in any reel. Children wishing to attend the show tomorrow are urged to be at the box office early. If necessary two exhibitions will be given, Mr. Bligh said.

SOUTHERN CAL. AND WASHINGTON TO PLAY

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 17.—The University of Washington will meet the University of Southern California on the football field either here or at Pasadena, Cal., next fall, and in 1924 the southern Californians will play the Washington eleven at Seattle, Gwynn Wilson, U. S. C. graduate manager announced.

Topeka, Kansas.—Ray Acher, manager of Jess Willard, announced he would be in Kansas City tomorrow to interview Jack Dempsey in regard to a bout next June.

SALEM KIDS TO ATTEND JOURNAL SHOW TOMORROW

Tomorrow's the day again. At 10 o'clock the doors of the Bligh theater will swing open on another Capital Journal matinee, to which Salem boys and girls holding five cents and a Journal coupon, published elsewhere, will be admitted.

The picture is the latest installment of "The Radio King," a feature attraction starring Roy Stewart which has caused considerable favorable comment among local theater goers.

"The attitude of the children on these films is always watched closely," Manager Frank Bligh said this afternoon. "Apparently 'The Radio King' has proved as popular as any serial we have ever shown. Not only by the children has it been well received—it has a great number of adult followers."

The picture is held unusually fine for presentation to youngsters since, although it is replete

SHANGHAI CAFE

162 1/2 N. Commercial Street Under new management Chop Suey and Noodles American and Chinese Dishes

BURNS

Cover with wet baking soda—afterward apply gently—VICKS VAPORUB

PEARL OIL

PEARL OIL (KEROSENE) HEAT AND LIGHT

Buy Pearl Oil in bulk—the same high quality kerosene as the Pearl Oil sold in five gallon cans.

At dealers everywhere. Order by name—Pearl Oil.

How "Ya Bettin' "??

O A C ? U OF O ?

IT'S A TOSS-UP But Here's a Sure Thing

And you'll not take any chances.

BISHOP'S Pure Virgin Wool Suits at $30

We believe these to be the best Suit Value your money can buy. Thirty dollars worth of style and quality and service for Thirty Dollars. Come in and see what we have to offer. There's a style and a color and a size that will come up to your ideas. Yes! and we can please the older gentlemen, with the more conservative taste.

Mrs. E. E. Millard and Mrs. W. L. Davis were joint hostesses Wednesday for a meeting of the Naomi circle of the First Methodist church at the Millard home. The women spent the afternoon sewing carpet rags, and dispensing with the regular monthly business. The circle is planning to make a quilt for the old people's home and will probably start it at their next meeting. The hostesses served delicious refreshments late in the afternoon.

Mrs. Thomas Dickey of Portland was the guest yesterday of her sister, Mrs. E. E. Millard. Covers for eight were laid at a prettily appointed table Wednesday evening when Mrs. E. A. Colony was hostess for a small informal dinner party. Centering the table was a lovely basket of copper colored chrysanthemums and smilax. After dinner the following guests enjoyed an evening of bridge, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cornoyer, Mr. and Mrs. Bliss Darby and Mr. and Mrs. Colony.

The members of the P. E. O. sisterhood in Salem with their husbands and friends will tonight motor to Chemawa where they will witness a very interesting drama involving the ideals of the sisterhood, written by one of their members, Miss Helen Crawford. After this there will be a social time at the Hall home there. A number of parties are motoring from Woodburn and Lebanon for the evening and it will be quite an elaborate and interesting affair.

Miss Alice Wood and Miss Hazel Yancey were week end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Wood. Both young women are juniors in the school of commerce at Oregon Agricultural college.

Wilkie Nelson Collins, instructor at the University of Oregon, was a visitor in Salem yesterday for a short time. Among the Salem people who will attend the annual football contest between Oregon and O. A. C. will be, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Albert, Mary Jane and Josephine Albert. They will motor over for the game Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Krause of Portland will be the week end guests of the Alberts, arriving tonight, and they will also attend the game.

Mrs. W. S. Mott was a charming hostess yesterday for the meeting of the Priscilla club at her home. The club members enjoyed a very informal social afternoon and a regular business meeting. Mrs. Dan Fry poured at the very attractively appointed table which was centered with a bouquet of large white chrysanthemums. White chrysanthemums were used further in baskets about the rooms.

Mrs. Russel Fields left for her home in Corvallis Wednesday after visiting for sometime with her mother, Mrs. J. W. Beckley. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fiske are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Veneta Louise, who was born Wednesday morning. The Fiskes live in the S. F. Apartments. Mrs. Ada Strong and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thielson motored to Portland yesterday for the day.

Our Art Department is Ready with the New Things

Make This a Royal Society Xmas.

Gifts for $1 or less

Effective hand made articles of wearing apparel, attractive things for the home; novelties, etc.—all delightful gifts and the wonderful part of it is, you can make them yourself—in a few hours.

Hand Embroidering is restful, a relaxation and a pleasant pastime; yet can be turned to a practical purpose.

START NOW to embroider those charming little surprises for your holiday gifts. A hand made present always bespeaks something different and carries a thought and intimacy that no other gift can.

The articles illustrated will make suitable remembrances and after you have added the simple touches of embroidery, a little lace or ribbon, you have a gift that looks not only dainty, but expresses quality in every sense. There are other beautiful and serviceable articles ideal for gifts in

Mrs. E. E. Millard and Mrs. W. L. Davis were joint hostesses Wednesday for a meeting of the Naomi circle of the First Methodist church at the Millard home. The women spent the afternoon sewing carpet rags, and dispensing with the regular monthly business. The circle is planning to make a quilt for the old people's home and will probably start it at their next meeting. The hostesses served delicious refreshments late in the afternoon.

Mrs. Thomas Dickey of Portland was the guest yesterday of her sister, Mrs. E. E. Millard. Covers for eight were laid at a prettily appointed table Wednesday evening when Mrs. E. A. Colony was hostess for a small informal dinner party. Centering the table was a lovely basket of copper colored chrysanthemums and smilax. After dinner the following guests enjoyed an evening of bridge, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cornoyer, Mr. and Mrs. Bliss Darby and Mr. and Mrs. Colony.

The members of the P. E. O. sisterhood in Salem with their husbands and friends will tonight motor to Chemawa where they will witness a very interesting drama involving the ideals of the sisterhood, written by one of their members, Miss Helen Crawford. After this there will be a social time at the Hall home there. A number of parties are motoring from Woodburn and Lebanon for the evening and it will be quite an elaborate and interesting affair.

Miss Alice Wood and Miss Hazel Yancey were week end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Wood. Both young women are juniors in the school of commerce at Oregon Agricultural college.

Wilkie Nelson Collins, instructor at the University of Oregon, was a visitor in Salem yesterday for a short time. Among the Salem people who will attend the annual football contest between Oregon and O. A. C. will be, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Albert, Mary Jane and Josephine Albert. They will motor over for the game Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Krause of Portland will be the week end guests of the Alberts, arriving tonight, and they will also attend the game.

Mrs. W. S. Mott was a charming hostess yesterday for the meeting of the Priscilla club at her home. The club members enjoyed a very informal social afternoon and a regular business meeting. Mrs. Dan Fry poured at the very attractively appointed table which was centered with a bouquet of large white chrysanthemums. White chrysanthemums were used further in baskets about the rooms.

Mrs. Russel Fields left for her home in Corvallis Wednesday after visiting for sometime with her mother, Mrs. J. W. Beckley. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fiske are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Veneta Louise, who was born Wednesday morning. The Fiskes live in the S. F. Apartments. Mrs. Ada Strong and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thielson motored to Portland yesterday for the day.

ASK for Horlick's

The ORIGINAL Malted Milk Safe Milk For Infants, Invalids & Children

The Original Food-Drink for All Ages. Quick Lunches Home, Office & Fountain. Rich Milk, Malted Grain Extract in Powder, Tablet forms. Nourishing—No cooking. Avoid Imitations and Substitutes

ROYAL SOCIETY

Embroidery Package Outfits

These packages contain materials that are always carefully selected and of the highest quality. The articles are usually entirely made, beautifully sewn and distinctly stamped with the design to be embroidered. A very easy to follow chart is given from which anyone can embroider, the directions are so simplified; and sufficient Royal Society floss is included to complete the embroidery.

Let this be a Royal Society Christmas of hand embroidered gifts that are really worth while. The recipients will be delighted and the cost to you trivial.

Royal Society Products are sold in Salem Exclusively by us

MILLER'S Good Goods

Salem's Leading Department Store

Mrs. E. E. Millard and Mrs. W. L. Davis were joint hostesses Wednesday for a meeting of the Naomi circle of the First Methodist church at the Millard home. The women spent the afternoon sewing carpet rags, and dispensing with the regular monthly business. The circle is planning to make a quilt for the old people's home and will probably start it at their next meeting. The hostesses served delicious refreshments late in the afternoon.

Mrs. Thomas Dickey of Portland was the guest yesterday of her sister, Mrs. E. E. Millard. Covers for eight were laid at a prettily appointed table Wednesday evening when Mrs. E. A. Colony was hostess for a small informal dinner party. Centering the table was a lovely basket of copper colored chrysanthemums and smilax. After dinner the following guests enjoyed an evening of bridge, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cornoyer, Mr. and Mrs. Bliss Darby and Mr. and Mrs. Colony.

The members of the P. E. O. sisterhood in Salem with their husbands and friends will tonight motor to Chemawa where they will witness a very interesting drama involving the ideals of the sisterhood, written by one of their members, Miss Helen Crawford. After this there will be a social time at the Hall home there. A number of parties are motoring from Woodburn and Lebanon for the evening and it will be quite an elaborate and interesting affair.

Miss Alice Wood and Miss Hazel Yancey were week end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Wood. Both young women are juniors in the school of commerce at Oregon Agricultural college.

Wilkie Nelson Collins, instructor at the University of Oregon, was a visitor in Salem yesterday for a short time. Among the Salem people who will attend the annual football contest between Oregon and O. A. C. will be, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Albert, Mary Jane and Josephine Albert. They will motor over for the game Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Krause of Portland will be the week end guests of the Alberts, arriving tonight, and they will also attend the game.

Mrs. W. S. Mott was a charming hostess yesterday for the meeting of the Priscilla club at her home. The club members enjoyed a very informal social afternoon and a regular business meeting. Mrs. Dan Fry poured at the very attractively appointed table which was centered with a bouquet of large white chrysanthemums. White chrysanthemums were used further in baskets about the rooms.

Mrs. Russel Fields left for her home in Corvallis Wednesday after visiting for sometime with her mother, Mrs. J. W. Beckley. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fiske are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Veneta Louise, who was born Wednesday morning. The Fiskes live in the S. F. Apartments. Mrs. Ada Strong and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thielson motored to Portland yesterday for the day.

ASK for Horlick's

The ORIGINAL Malted Milk Safe Milk For Infants, Invalids & Children

The Original Food-Drink for All Ages. Quick Lunches Home, Office & Fountain. Rich Milk, Malted Grain Extract in Powder, Tablet forms. Nourishing—No cooking. Avoid Imitations and Substitutes

ROYAL SOCIETY

Embroidery Package Outfits

These packages contain materials that are always carefully selected and of the highest quality. The articles are usually entirely made, beautifully sewn and distinctly stamped with the design to be embroidered. A very easy to follow chart is given from which anyone can embroider, the directions are so simplified; and sufficient Royal Society floss is included to complete the embroidery.

Let this be a Royal Society Christmas of hand embroidered gifts that are really worth while. The recipients will be delighted and the cost to you trivial.

Royal Society Products are sold in Salem Exclusively by us

MILLER'S Good Goods

Salem's Leading Department Store

Mrs. E. E. Millard and Mrs. W. L. Davis were joint hostesses Wednesday for a meeting of the Naomi circle of the First Methodist church at the Millard home. The women spent the afternoon sewing carpet rags, and dispensing with the regular monthly business. The circle is planning to make a quilt for the old people's home and will probably start it at their next meeting. The hostesses served delicious refreshments late in the afternoon.

Mrs. Thomas Dickey of Portland was the guest yesterday of her sister, Mrs. E. E. Millard. Covers for eight were laid at a prettily appointed table Wednesday evening when Mrs. E. A. Colony was hostess for a small informal dinner party. Centering the table was a lovely basket of copper colored chrysanthemums and smilax. After dinner the following guests enjoyed an evening of bridge, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cornoyer, Mr. and Mrs. Bliss Darby and Mr. and Mrs. Colony.

The members of the P. E. O. sisterhood in Salem with their husbands and friends will tonight motor to Chemawa where they will witness a very interesting drama involving the ideals of the sisterhood, written by one of their members, Miss Helen Crawford. After this there will be a social time at the Hall home there. A number of parties are motoring from Woodburn and Lebanon for the evening and it will be quite an elaborate and interesting affair.

Miss Alice Wood and Miss Hazel Yancey were week end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Wood. Both young women are juniors in the school of commerce at Oregon Agricultural college.

Wilkie Nelson Collins, instructor at the University of Oregon, was a visitor in Salem yesterday for a short time. Among the Salem people who will attend the annual football contest between Oregon and O. A. C. will be, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Albert, Mary Jane and Josephine Albert. They will motor over for the game Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Krause of Portland will be the week end guests of the Alberts, arriving tonight, and they will also attend the game.

Mrs. W. S. Mott was a charming hostess yesterday for the meeting of the Priscilla club at her home. The club members enjoyed a very informal social afternoon and a regular business meeting. Mrs. Dan Fry poured at the very attractively appointed table which was centered with a bouquet of large white chrysanthemums. White chrysanthemums were used further in baskets about the rooms.

Mrs. Russel Fields left for her home in Corvallis Wednesday after visiting for sometime with her mother, Mrs. J. W. Beckley. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fiske are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Veneta Louise, who was born Wednesday morning. The Fiskes live in the S. F. Apartments. Mrs. Ada Strong and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thielson motored to Portland yesterday for the day.

ASK for Horlick's

The ORIGINAL Malted Milk Safe Milk For Infants, Invalids & Children

The Original Food-Drink for All Ages. Quick Lunches Home, Office & Fountain. Rich Milk, Malted Grain Extract in Powder, Tablet forms. Nourishing—No cooking. Avoid Imitations and Substitutes

ROYAL SOCIETY

Embroidery Package Outfits

These packages contain materials that are always carefully selected and of the highest quality. The articles are usually entirely made, beautifully sewn and distinctly stamped with the design to be embroidered. A very easy to follow chart is given from which anyone can embroider, the directions are so simplified; and sufficient Royal Society floss is included to complete the embroidery.

Let this be a Royal Society Christmas of hand embroidered gifts that are really worth while. The recipients will be delighted and the cost to you trivial.

Royal Society Products are sold in Salem Exclusively by us

MILLER'S Good Goods

Salem's Leading Department Store

Friendly Warmth

Winter's chill soon vanishes when you have a good oil heater filled with Pearl Oil. The touch of a match brings a steady, friendly warmth—many hours on a single filling.

Pearl Oil is refined and re-refined by our special process, which makes it clean burning—no smoke—no odor—no dirt.

Buy Pearl Oil in bulk—the same high quality kerosene as the Pearl Oil sold in five gallon cans.

At dealers everywhere. Order by name—Pearl Oil.

PEARL OIL

PEARL OIL (KEROSENE) HEAT AND LIGHT

Buy Pearl Oil in bulk—the same high quality kerosene as the Pearl Oil sold in five gallon cans.

At dealers everywhere. Order by name—Pearl Oil.

How "Ya Bettin' "??

O A C ? U OF O ?

IT'S A TOSS-UP But Here's a Sure Thing

And you'll not take any chances.

BISHOP'S Pure Virgin Wool Suits at $30