Mrs. Truitt Is Guest Of Honor

Mrs. Warren A. Truitt of Moscow, Idaho, the house guest of Mrs. A. N. Bush, is a guest of interest to society folk and was the inspiration last week for a smart tea with Mrs. A. N. Bush, hostess on Friday, and a theater party Wednesday for which Mrs. S. C. Dyer was hostess.

About one hundred and thirty society maids and matrons were bidden to meet Mrs. Truitt on Friday between the hours of 3:30 and 5:30 at the attractive Bush home. Chrysanthemums, in varying shades of yellow and white and with green foliage were artistically arranged in the dining room, while brilliant red and yellow chrysanthemums were used in the south library. The reception rooms were unusually artistic and rich with Richmond roses arranged in art baskets.

Mrs. Bush and her guest, Mrs. Truitt received the guests while assisting in the reception rooms were Mrs. E. C. Cross, with Mrs. Charlotte Zieber, Miss Eliza Nolan, and Miss Margaret Stolz. In the dining room Mrs. Clarence Keene of Silverton presided over the tea table while Mrs. Henry Meyers had charge of the coffee urn. Mrs. W. Connell Dyer, Mrs. Prince Byrd and Miss Bruce Putnam were the assistants in the dining room.

Mrs. S. C. Dyer was hostess Wednesday for Mrs. Truitt with a theater party followed by tea served in the Peacock room of the Graybelle. The guests included for this delightful afternoon were, Mrs. Truitt, Mrs. A. N. Bush, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. E. C. Cross and Mrs. William Brown.

Miss Clara McDougal of Detroit Michigan, is the house guest of Mrs. E. A. Pruitt.

Miss Dorothea Von Berg who was the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. C. Hickman for the week end returned to Eugene last night where she is attending the university.

Miss Marguerite Gleason spent the week end at O. A. C. participating in the homecoming activities. Miss Gleason stayed at the Xi Beta house.

Mr. Lindsay Is Coming Next Week

Vachel Lindsay, the American poet, who will appear under the auspices of Willamette university and the Salem Arts league in Waller hall Monday night, is declared to be the modern representative of the troubadour and minneinger.

His first vagabond journey started at the suggestion of a friend; who told him he would have to do something out of the ordinary if he were ever to claim recognition from the editors who were breaking his heart with refusals while he stayed in New York and offered conventional verse of the kind which conventional writers furnished. So he set out in yellow corduroy trousers, sombrero and flaming tie, and offered to exchange a verse or a song for hospitality. Everywhere he studied human motives and elemental passions, and added to his store of facts illustrating principles of conduct which he might weave into his verses. His verbal rendering of his writings led him to an appreciation of rhythm which few poets have gained since the days of the minneingers. Indeed, he is the modern troubadour.

A visit to London at the close of the world war brought an appreciative comment which aroused American critics to the fact that Mr. Lindsay most truly expressed American life and in the most perfect craftsmanship of all living writers.

Mr. Lindsay will read and chant his poems and hypnotize his audience into chanting the refrains with him.

Mrs. T. S. Roberts was hostess last week for Stewart Wille, who accompanied Reed Miller soloist with the Apollo club in their concert. Mr. Wille's parents make their home in Salem and he is an old friend of the Roberts. The evening was spent very informally with a number of friends. Mr. Wille left Salem Friday evening after a few days visit to join Arthur Middleton in San Francisco. He will be Middleton's accompanist for the rest of the season. Mr. Miller after the concert here left for New York.

Spiders Are Decoration For Party

Dallas, Nov. 20.—The attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Holman at 819 Washington street was over run with spiders on Friday evening, November 17. A close search disclosed spiders in practically every room in the house. There were big spiders and small spiders, hairy spiders and others without hair. In addition to the many spiders the rooms were lined with their webs—across the ceiling and in the corners. This state of affairs can not be laid to a laxity of house-keeping skill on the part of Mrs. Holman, but merely by the fact that her daughter, Vivian, entertained a number of her school friends, both freshmen and sophomores, that evening by giving a "spider party." The idea was quite a new one in this city and gave the charming young hostess a chance to excel herself in the line of entertaining.

In an interview given to the Oregonian Mr. Dadmun expressed his appreciation of the west and spoke of the appreciation and understanding attention with which his audiences greeted him. He said of the audience of two thousand students at the University of Oregon: "The understanding attention and real appreciation which characterized this audience made me feel as if I were singing to the kind of people who gather at Aeolian hall—professional musicians, connoisseurs—to hear works of subtle modern import. It was a pleasure to sing to them."

The following clipping is taken from the Oregonian commenting upon the "Song of the Flea."

"Tanlac has been the finest thing in the world for both my husband and myself," declared Mrs. Anjusina Kelley, of 4530 Kenny St., Seattle, Wash. "My husband suffered from stomach and liver trouble and had gotten so thin and weak he could hardly walk, but Tanlac put him in the best of health and built him up so much that he had to have his clothes let out. "I had suffered for twenty years from stomach trouble and had become so weak I couldn't look after my housework. Backache, headaches and dizzy spells almost drove me distracted. Well, Tanlac did such wonderful work for my husband, that I began taking it, and besides restoring my health it actually built me up fifteen pounds. I never have an ache, or pain now and I have so much strength and energy that I easily do all my housework."
