Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Kay and Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Huntington attended to Corvallis Saturday to attend the Oregon-O. A. C. game and were entertained at a luncheon given by the administration of the alumni and a number of visitors. The luncheon was held at the domestic science room.

At the meeting of the American association of University women Saturday afternoon the time meeting was changed to the first Saturday of the month, at which time it will be possible to have the meetings in the Chamber of Commerce rooms. The attendance requires a large place to meet and this will be a very nice place for the women to gather.

Miss Frances Richards as dean of women of Willamette university, will be hostess Saturday afternoon for her annual reception to college women, with special invitations also being extended to the wives of faculty members and the wives of members of the board of trustees. This is one of the attractive formal functions of the fall for the college girls. Miss Richards will be assisted by several prominent society matrons.

Receiving with her will be Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, Mrs. George Alden and Mrs. B. L. Steevens. In the early hours of the afternoon Mrs. E. C. Richards and Mrs. W. E. Kirk will preside at the tea table and later in the afternoon Mrs. A. N. Bush and Mrs. Edith Dodd will preside at the tea table.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Erickson are leaving Wednesday for a two months trip by motor thru the southern part of California. While there they will visit friends in San Francisco, San Diego, Los Angeles and Long Beach.

Mrs. E. H. Benton of Falls City is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cory this week. Mr. Benton is in Medford and Mrs. Benton will join him there this week, where they plan to make their home.

University of Oregon, Eugene. A. Phinister Proctor, famous on the Oregon campus for his campus statue of the "Pioneer," received a warm reception when he arrived in Eugene Wednesday. The artist and his wife were honor guests at an informal reception at the alumni hall, Wednesday afternoon. He has been traveling in Alaska and he is interested in "doing" animals and Indians.

The University of Oregon alumni and ex-students banquet, reunion, looking backwards, and looking forward to the organization of a permanent group of Oregon boosters, will be held this Thursday evening at 6:30 at the Graybelle. At this time it is hoped to form a strong association of the alumni in Marion county, and to further this organization speakers from Eugene, and the Emerald quartet from Eugene will attend and help make it seem a little closer to the campus itself. Places may be reserved for the banquet for one dollar at the Graybelle or from alumni who have the sale in charge. Committees composed of alumni and ex-students living in Salem have been working for some time to make this banquet a success, and it is anticipated that there will be a large attendance.

Mrs. Joe Ramseyer of Macleay left Salem the last of the week for a month's visit with her daughter in California. She was accompanied by Mrs. Ray Richardson, of San Louis Obispo, but formerly a resident of this city. Mr. Richardson was at one time connected with the firm of Rigdon and Richardson. Mrs. Ramseyer will visit her daughter at San Louis Obispo where she is a trained nurse.

Kidney and Bladder Troubles Conquered or Money Back

For 40 years, said Dr. Carey, I have been prescribing my Prescription No. 777 (known for years as Marshroot) for kidney and bladder troubles and now that I have retired from active practice I have made arrangements with leading druggists to dispense this wonderful prescription at a moderate price, on the easy back if dissatisfied plan. Beware of kidney disease—thousands die of it every year who might be enjoying the blessings of life and health. Watch the symptoms. If you have specks floating before the eyes, puffy feet, clammy feet or moist palms, headache or dizziness, you ought to get a bottle of Dr. Carey's famous Prescription No. 777 right away. It has wonderfully benefited thousands of cases of kidney and bladder troubles and is the medicine you can always depend upon. Results are guaranteed.

NOTE—Dr. Daniel G. Carey was a practicing physician for many years and his Great Prescription No. 777 aided thousands of sufferers from kidney and bladder troubles. Hereafter you can always get this effective prescription in both liquid and tablet form at all reliable pharmacies in your country over. (adv)

Civic Art Section To Meet

The Civic Art section of the Salem Arts league will hold its first meeting for the fall on Wednesday evening, Nov. 22, at 7:30 in the educational room of the Salem public library. A very interesting program for the year has been planned, which should prove of value to those who have new homes to landscape. The meetings are open to the public and are free to all. The outline of study for the year is as follows: 1. General theory of landscape gardening. 2. Planning the home grounds. 3. Decorative planting materials. 4. Floral specialties. 5. Soil and culture. 6. Walks and drives. 7. Streets and parking. Each of these subjects will be divided into its various branches so that all points may be covered. It is hoped that many people will be interested in this phase of the league's work and will bring their landscaping problems to the meetings for discussion. The section will meet the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month.

The Lincoln-McKinley parent teachers association is meeting tonight at the Lincoln school house for their regular monthly meeting with a very interesting program planned for the evening. Meade Elliott, boy's secretary at the Y. M. C. A. will tell of boys work, and Harry Zinser, head of the boy scouts in the city will talk about scout problems. Also the children of the Lincoln school will contribute two songs to the program. E. A. Rhoten is president of the association. It was decided at the last meeting to furnish milk for the pupils in the lower grades and there will be a report of the committee at this time which was appointed to see about raising the fund for this purpose.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Miles are visiting in Tillamook for a few days as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Edwards. All P. E. O.'s of Portland, whether members of the local chapters, visiting or unaffiliated members of the sisterhood, and many other P. E. O.'s from the various parts of the state will unite in the educational day program at the Portland Woman's club house Thursday at 2 o'clock. Program: Violin solo, Miss Grace Harding; vocal solo, Mrs. G. F. Alexander; address, Dr. Edward O. Sisson of Reed college; presentation of facts of the educational fund, Mrs. A. W. Gelsy; debate, Mrs. Murphy of chapter A and Mrs. Henderson, chapter N; address, Mrs. F. C. Kent, state president P. E. O.; solo, A. G. Adams; community sing, leader, Mrs. Carrie B. Adams with solo by A. G. Adams.

As holiday time approaches thoughts for others more than ever fills the hours when different societies meet for their afternoons of business and pleasure. And so at the last meeting of the War Mothers, just as they have helped many worthy causes, they decided to have a rummage sale tomorrow, Wednesday afternoon at O. B. Gingrich's sales room.

Mr. and Mrs. William Burghardt had as their guest for dinner last Saturday evening Miss Mable Withycombe of Portland. Their other guests for dinner were Miss Elizabeth Lord and Miss Mable Robertson.

Twenty five men, members of the order of the Eastern Star will be hosts this evening for the women of the order for their regular Tuesday evening social meeting. Ralph Thompson is chairman of the committee in charge and plans for the meeting have not been divulged since it will probably be quite a surprise for the women.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hauser entertained as their guests for the week end, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Spangler of Portland. The party motored to Corvallis for the game Saturday and then spent Sunday at the Hauser home.

Last night about thirty employees of the Ladd and Bush bank motored to Silverton at the invitation of the Coolidge-McClain bank which is just opening in an attractive new building there. The Salem people were entertained at a very elaborate banquet.

Underwear Easy to Buy

When you buy children's underwear, you will choose R. A. as soon as you see it and feel its warm, durable fabric.

R. A. is cut to fit the bodies of children, without the usual binding or bunching.

The seat is extra full, the seams as strong as the fabric itself. The button holes are specially devised to keep the garment securely buttoned.

Unions, shirts and pants and waist suits—all better than the best you have seen and will wear a year longer than ordinary underwear with careful washing.

The same superior quality is shown in all styles and sizes up to extra extra sizes, in R. A. make for women. "And yet the price of R. A. is moderate."

Ask the salesgirl for R. A. —it will more than pay you in satisfaction.
