Convention Falls City Musicians Couple Are Married

Plans for the annual convention of the Oregon Music Teachers' association are now underway and definite plans have been made for the program of the convention. The local chapter here at their last meeting elected Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby, president of the organization, as their delegate. However a number of the members are planning to motor to Corvallis for at least part of the meeting which starts Friday morning December 1, and closes Saturday afternoon.

Registration will be made Friday morning at the chamber of commerce in Corvallis. At 12:15 a luncheon will be given at one of the dining rooms at which the mayor of Corvallis, N. R. Moore, and other prominent business men will speak.

At 2 p. m. talks on pedagogy, bringing out the most important things in teaching. Representatives of several branches of the teaching fraternity will set forth their views in short, constructive form, with the idea of interchanging ways and means of obtaining desired results.

At 7 p. m. a banquet will be held at Masonic hall. The speakers will be President W. J. Kerr of Oregon Agricultural college, Mrs. Ida Callahan, president of Federated clubs of Oregon; Mrs. Lillian Jeffries Petri, secretary of the same organization, and W. F. Gaskins, president of the O. M. T. A. The banquet will be followed by a program by Corvallis musicians.

Saturday, December 2, at 9:30 a. m., at the First Presbyterian church, a session will be devoted to the pedagogy of fundamental music training, with talks and demonstrations by Mrs. Laura Jones Rawlinson and Mrs. Mary Cahill Moore and others to be announced later.

At the Saturday noon luncheon Dr. Landsbury of the University of Oregon will discuss "Music in Europe." Mrs. Evelyn MacFarland McCluskey will speak on community music, and Mrs. Chas. Henline of Roseburg, will talk on the problems of the teacher in moderate sized cities.

Saturday 2:15, 3:30 will be a program of music by representative musicians of Oregon: Mrs. Jane Thatcher, piano, University of Oregon; John B. Siefert, tenor; John Claire Monteith.

The annual Harvest Home festival which is always an event of Thanksgiving time, and planned for the benefit of the Old People's home will take place this Friday at the First Methodist church. The reception committee is comprised of the members of the board of the Old People's home, and this year especially just as the new home nears completion, there is an opportunity for people to attend the festival and contribute fruit, vegetables, or any sort of foodstuffs or money to insure the comfort of the old people for the coming winter. With the coming of Thanksgiving the holiday times there is always an extra thought for the other fellow, and this is one of the opportunities in which everyone can share.

Thursday November 23d the Catholic Daughters of America will be hostesses for a "500" card party and dance in McCormack hall, 372 Court street. This is the third of a series of card parties and dances given by this organization. The motif for these parties is to promote sociability and judging from the splendid patronage afforded these social affairs this motif is appreciated by the friends of the organization. Guests are expected from Portland, Albany, Silverton, Mt. Angel, Woodburn and Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lamb had as their guests last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McCall of Portland.

Mrs. J. F. McDowell of St. Paul is the house guest of Mrs. Harry Talbot for a few days.

Nerve Shocks Cause Gas

Any form of excitement that shocks the delicate nerves of the stomach will disturb the function of that organ and produce gas, anger, fright, grief and worry, all have an evil effect upon the digestive system, hence, for want of a better term, doctors call this condition "nervous dyspepsia." Baalman's Gas Tablets are made especially for the relief of gas and stomach distress. They act in a safe, natural way upon the stomach nerves and glands, gradually helping to restore their normal strength and activity. Then this is done you will no longer suffer from gas pains around the heart, palpitation, noisier spells, rumbling, bloating, burning, sour taste or weakness after eating. Get a dollar package of Baalman's Gas Tablets from Dan J. or any other good druggist. The very first dose usually gives relief. J. Baalman, Chemist, San Francisco. (adv.)

MUTT AND JEFF Sir Sidney Must Be Spoofig.

the most original. Like the poetry of Yeats, his works are the most effective when read aloud, and while lacking the inherent music that distinguished the work of the Irish poet, the poetry of Lindsay is possessed of a virility and strength found nowhere else during the present age of prolific and, as a rule, mediocre verse writing. Indeed, the "Tramp poet" stands alone as the exponent of certain ideals and it would be hard to find verse more popular and beautiful than his "Chinese Nightingale," "General Booth Enters Heaven" and "The Congo."

Tickets for Mr. Lindsay's lecture, which will be interspersed with selections from his works, may be obtained from the two book stores, the library, or the Novelty shop on Liberty street. Admission has been placed at twenty five cents for students and fifty cents for others.

The rummage sale planned by the War Mothers is being held today at the O. B. Gingrich sales room. A large supply of clothing donated by Salem people has been received and is on sale for those who need such things. The War

Mothers have been active this fall in having cooked food sales, a pumpkin pie sale, this rummage sale, and they are planning another food sale for the first part of December. The money that they raise is used for several worthy projects which were outlined at their first meeting this fall.

The members of the Friday Bridge club will motor to Portland Friday at the invitation of two of their former members now living in Portland, Mrs. Lester Davis and Mrs. Guy Harris. A luncheon and afternoon of bridge has been planned for the women who are looking forward to having a very delightful time. The affair will be given in Mrs. Davis' apartment. The women who have been invited are Mrs. Bliss Darby, Mrs. Harley White, Mrs. William Cravatt, Mrs. Elmer Dae, Mrs. Fred Delano, Mrs. P. E. Fullerton, Mrs. Earl Fisher, Mrs. Lynn Gleason, Mrs. E. A. Kurtz, Mrs. O. A. Olson, Mrs. Claire Vibbert and Mrs. David A. Wright.

Mrs. H. H. Olinger and Mrs. Edwin L. Baker spent two days in Portland last week the guests of Mrs. Ralph Watson.

The committee headed by Mrs. Edwin L. Baker, working for the junior guild bazaar of the St. Paul's Episcopal church, met yesterday afternoon for work with Miss Alta Jones. The bazaar will be December 2, and the last of the work is now being completed. The women on the committee are, Mrs. Homer Egan, Mrs. Edward Gillingham, Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. Millar McGilchrist, Mrs. E. V. McMechan, Mrs. Poorman, Mrs. Phil Newmyer and Mrs. Clifford Irwin.

Mrs. N. E. Abbott's Sunday school class, "The Gleaners" met with Margaret DeWitz last Saturday evening for a very pleasant evening together. The girls who were present were, Gladys Shelton, Margaret Drager, Lulu Weidner, Agnes Elsie, Margaret DeWitz, and Mrs. Abbott and Mrs. DeWitz.

It Started Something

"Your medicine is the talk of the town since pulling me from the grave. I have told dozens about it and I know of at least ten who are now taking Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, all with good results. I never saw anything like it. One man who had been operated on for gall stones and had them come back, took it and says his symptoms are all gone now and he swears he is cured." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. J. C. Perry, D. J. Fry and druggists everywhere. (adv.)
