

There is no substitute for CIRCULATION
Daily average for October 6122.
Member Audit Bureau of Circulation.
Member Associated Press—Full leased wire service.

Capital Journal

THE WEATHER
OREGON: Tonight and Wednesday rain west, snow east portion; cloudy;
moderate westerly winds.
Local: Rainfall, .35 inch; max. 38;
min. 24; south wind; river—6 ft.

FORTY-FOURTH YEAR NO. 283. SALEM, OREGON, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1922 PRICE TWO CENTS ON TRAINS AND NEWS STANDS FIVE CENTS

TRAITORS ARE EXECUTED

HISTORY DUE FOR REVIVAL SAYS SHELDON

Teachers Told War Has Again Brought Subject To Fore As Primary Educational Course.

Since the end of the world war, history has again become firmly implanted as a school subject, Dr. H. D. Sheldon of the University of Oregon school of education, declared in his address on "The New History and the Teacher," before the 400 instructors assembled at the Salem high school this morning for the second session of the Marion county teachers' institute.

Dr. Sheldon's talk on history was comprehensive and dealt with the subject in its various phases. He declared that history should be as wide as human experience and should deal with the significant things in human experience. Religion, music, books, politics and economics were included in his classifications.

History, Fiction, Don't Mix. "History should be history, and never fiction," Dr. Sheldon insisted. "Forget that there is a story of George Washington and the apple tree. If you try to mix fiction and history, you'll get caught at it."

High school history, he said, should emphasize the national point of view. That the teacher must now minister to the "whole child," rather than the "intellectual child" alone, was one of the thoughts offered by Mrs. Salfie Orr-Dunbar of Portland, who is associated with the state tuberculosis association. The move to improve the child's physical welfare, she said, is not intended to throw a greater load on the teachers, but rather contemplates the organization of the older material, bringing its presentation down to date.

Points Are Outlined. The chief points emphasized in the modern health crusade, Mrs. Orr-Dunbar said, are rest, exercise, fresh air, accentuation of health habits (the bath, clean hands, clean teeth, etc.) and nutrition.

Mrs. Orr-Dunbar expressed herself as pleased that County Judge M. Bushey had gone on record favoring the county nurse plan. She also urged the teachers to support the Christmas seal selling.

WOMEN WANT TO ADOPT CHILDREN

Two Salem women wishing to adopt a child called yesterday afternoon at the office of Dr. Harry E. Morris and asked him to help them in finding a boy and a girl up to two months of age which somebody would give for adoption. In asking for help through the Associated Charities in finding the babies it was thought that some poor family would have their baby put in a place where there would be plenty rather than have the child go hungry at times and even be about proper clothing. Dr. Morris told the ladies that he did not know of any one wishing to adopt with their baby but would let them know in case one was found. Letters are treated strictly confidential.

DRUG STORES WILL CLOSE

Even the druggists of Salem to have a portion of a holiday Thanksgiving. Local drug stores will close at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and will remain closed the rest of the day, as announced this afternoon. The greater number of Salem merchants will close their shops Saturday, at least during the afternoon.

Hillsboro Youth Thought Suicide

Sick Youth Seeks Light Work to Do

The Associated Charities received a call for assistance this morning from a man about 25 years of age who has been sick with stomach trouble for some time and is just recovering and who is without funds. The young man, clean and fine appearing, did not ask for money but work—something for him until he is able to find a regular job. He asked Harry Levy, president of the charities, to aid him in the way of a place where he can work, or to let him know of any jobs such as putting in wood that he will not have to beg.

PAL OF LOCAL LAD KILLS HIM

Archie Sanford Is Fatally Wounded while Hunting With Robert Turley; is Accident, Say Officers.

Today officials were investigating circumstances surrounding the case of 14-year-old Archie Sanford, of Salem, who was Sunday afternoon shot and fatally wounded when a 12-gauge shotgun, carried by his companion, Robert Turley, was accidentally discharged while the two lads were hunting just south of the Salem city limits.

Although young Sanford died at the Salem Deaconess hospital Sunday evening, authorities did not learn of the accident until last night when they were informed, indirectly from Portland. Newspapermen who visited the hospital yesterday were not volunteered the story, but chanced upon it this morning. A preliminary survey convinced officials that the shooting unquestionably was an accident, but they were inclined to feel that some negligence had been shown in the failure to report the case. Sanford, it was said, was only a few feet from Turley when he was shot in the hip. The lads, searching for game, had been crawling through the underbrush, their guns trailing, when the trigger of Turley's gun became caught in the brush and the gun discharged. Sanford was in the lead.

Sanford was graduated from the Lincoln junior high school last year and had recently become an apprentice at the T. M. Barr plumbing shop on south Commercial street. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Sanford, 504 south Nineteenth street. Young Turley resides on Fairview avenue.

BRIDE OF DAY DETERMINED TO STAY WED

Second Wife of Tiernan Says Marriage Legal And Refuses To Be Cast Into Discard.

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 28.—Despite the fact that Professor John P. Tiernan announced last night that the reconciliation with his first wife was moving along satisfactorily, a dispatch from Marshalltown, Iowa, quoted Mrs. Blanche Brimmer Tiernan, the professor's "bride of a day," as saying that she was the latter's wife and was going to live with him. She said she expected Tiernan to arrive at the Iowa city Wednesday.

Mother Backs Her Up.

Hausell, Iowa, Nov. 28.—Mrs. Charles H. Hawn, mother of Mrs. Blanche Hawn-Rash-Brimmer, back here today from Marshalltown, Iowa, where they spent yesterday investigating the marital status of Mrs. Brimmer, announced that her daughter legally was entitled to wed Professor John P. Tiernan in their Crown Point, Ind., ceremony last Saturday.

It is "Mrs. Blanche Tiernan" definitely, said Mrs. Hawn, and Professor Tiernan and Mrs. Augusta Tiernan must settle their legal status in Indiana. "My daughter never intended to marry Tiernan when she went to Chicago last Thursday night," the mother said. "Tiernan wired her to come to Chicago that day, and she went. They had expected to be married at Christmas time, but Tiernan, I believe, got excited and the hasty marriage at Crown Point was the result."

THIRD PARTY TO MURDER SOUGHT

Bend, Or., Nov. 28.—Believing that a third party played an important part in the chain of circumstances leading up to the death of Willard Garrett near here on the night of July 1, relatives of Garrett today posted a $500 reward for information which would disclose this person's identity. In posting the notice, L. H. McMahon, special deputy attorney general who has been in charge of the case here, charged that this person has been protected by those whose duty it is to apprehend him. Ed Halverson, who was charged with Garrett's murder, was acquitted Saturday on the grounds of self defense.

127 COUNTY SCHOOLS WIN OCTOBER HONORS

Seventy-eight out of the 127 schools in Marion county had an average attendance of 95 per cent or more, for the month ending Nov. 3, according to records just filed in the office of Mary L. Fulkerson. These schools will receive within a few days and award of honor, good for the month only.

Regular Hours And Egg Diet Secret Of Clemenceau's Vigor

Chicago, Nov. 28.—George Clemenceau's secret of longevity, with a retention of vitality and endurance that would tax the energies of a man of half his 81 years, is eggs. He ordered eight of them, soft boiled, for his supper last night, and ate them. Before retiring for the night he asked for five more soft boiled eggs for breakfast at 5:30 this morning. "I am not so very tired," he said, "but I have not kept my schedule, to bed at 8 and up at 5. I go to bed and get up with the chickens. That is why eggs form my principal diet."

SLAYER LOSES UPON APPEAL

Husted Walters, convicted slayer of Jerome Palmer, Portland policeman, was denied a rehearing of his appeal before the supreme court today. The crime for which Walters was convicted was committed in Portland November 17, 1920, and Walters was sentenced to hang February 10, 1921. He was granted a stay of execution pending action on his appeal to the supreme court, which affirmed the decree of the lower court in an opinion handed down several weeks ago. Today's action by the supreme court in denying a rehearing exhausts Walters' legal resources unless an appeal should be taken to the United States supreme court.

Grand Jury To Hear Mrs. Hall At Own Request

Somerville, N. J., Nov. 28.—(By Associated Press.)—Mrs. Frances Stevens Noel Hall, widow of Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall, who was slain on September 14 with his choir leader, Mrs. Eleanor R. Mills, appeared today at the county court house, where a grand jury is considering the double murder. Friends of Mrs. Hall had circulated a petition asking that she be allowed to appear before the grand jury. That body, however, has not indicated its attitude, although special Deputy Attorney General Mott has stated that he would not permit her to appear if it were possible to prevent her. Ferdinand Davis, who claimed to have seen Mrs. Hall return home after the murders had taken place, was the first witness called today.

NEEDS OF BOYS' SCHOOL VIEWED

"The boys' training school should be an opportunity shop but it is impossible to obtain the best results when at one end of the line there are a number of older and larger boys, too old to belong in the reform school and too young for the penitentiary, and at the other end boys who ought to be in a juvenile home, with a small number belonging in the school and all living together as one big family as is now the case," declared Superintendent W. L. Kuser, of the state boys' training school, at the Kiwanis luncheon this noon. "With all three classes of boys in one institution we need the cottage system more than ever. By means of such a plan a group of boys would live in a cottage with a man and wife to father and mother them."

BOGE BOUGHT LETHAL DRUG POLICE FIND

Mystery of Death In Los Angeles Hotel Is Believed Solved; Tried To Mask Act.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 28.—Police announced today that Vaden E. Boge, who died of poisoning in a local hotel here yesterday, had himself purchased the lethal drug in a local store, had signed the record and that they believed he was a suicide. His motive was unknown they said. The police said also that they were convinced no woman was in the room with Boge, and that the luncheon for two found partially consumed on a table in his hotel room was, in their belief, an attempt on Boge's part to cloak his death with an element of mystery.

No Woman Involved. First investigation showed the lunch for two with the poison in the bottom of a nearly empty coffee cup. That, and the manner of his registration caused a cry of murder to go out and a search to be made for the woman believed to have accompanied him. The police were unable to find any trace of any woman; they did find, however, that Boge's effects had been carefully checked over and laid aside; that he had written a poem commenting on death, and that he had been despondent, according to local relatives. When the check of local drug stores today yielded the fact that he had personally bought the poison that ended his life, they announced the belief that the case was a suicide.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 28.—"Murder or suicide?" That was the question the police were asking themselves today as they continued their efforts to solve the death by poison here yesterday of a man who registered at a downtown hotel as V. E. Boge of Portland, Or., and who was believed to be V. Elwynne Boge or Vaden E. Boge of Hillsboro Or.

Information received from Portland was to the effect the dead man was 22 years old and unmarried, which, according to the police, only increased their bewilderment over his having written on the hotel register "V. E. Boge and wife, Portland, Ore." The officers said they were particularly anxious to find "the woman in the case"—if there was one.

"Wife" Not in Room. Noting the man was unaccompanied, Homer Lawton, the room clerk on duty, inquired about "Mrs. Boge." "She will be along later with the baggage," the man responded, according to Lawton. He went to his room and later ordered luncheon for two to be served there. An hour afterwards, he staggered out of the

APPORTIONMENT OF POLK TAXES IS MADE

Dallas, Or., Nov. 28.—The county assessor, Fred J. Holman, has received at his office from the state tax commission the apportionment for Polk county state tax commission assessments, the total of which amounts to $1,394,051. The tax roll for the year 1921 amounted to $1,413,415, which is a slight decrease under the apportionment just received.

Wins As Wet

Running as a "wet" candidate, Governor Edward I. Edwards, of New Jersey, has been elected United States Senator, defeating Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, President Harding's closest personal friend and advisor.

PERSHING FOR LARGER FORCE

American War Leader Urges Nation To Re-member Obligations Even in Peace Times.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 28.—An appeal to the nation to "look cold hard facts in the face and not forget our obligations in the blind hope that we may not again engage in armed conflict," marked an address delivered here today by General Pershing under the auspices of the American Defense society. "At present we do not see definite indications, but none of us can tell whether we shall have war in five, ten or twenty years," General Pershing said. "If we know now to a certainty that armed conflict would come in 20 years, there would be an immediate demand for preparations. Yet that is the approximate interval that we have had in the past between major wars. There is no reason to think that the immediate future will bring about a cessation of war, even though it

OLD RESIDENT OF SALEM DEAD

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 28.—Dillon B. Ward, prominent western Washington pioneer and founder of the Seattle Chronicle and Post, one of the first newspapers published in this city, died at his home here last night. He was 84 years old. Mr. Ward crossed the plains to Salem, Oregon, in 1853, removing to Seattle in 1896. He was among the first students of the University of Washington and later was an instructor at the university. Mr. Ward leaves his widow, Mrs. Sarah Hyles Ward, four daughters and a son, all living here with the exception of a daughter, Mrs. Karl V. Lively, a resident of Portland, Oregon.

BONUS COMMISSION PASSES UPON LOANS

At the meeting held yesterday of the bonus commission, 50 loans on real estate were made, amounting to $118,000. Cash bonus amounting to $2809 was paid to 17 men. The commission also approved 65 loans, amounting to $162,000. This is an average of about $2500 a loan. The resignation of George N. Wilbur, attorney for Hood River county, was accepted and James H. Haslet appointed to succeed Mr. Wilbur. A. C. Shute, appraiser for Washington county, sent in his resignation which was accepted and J. E. Truelinger of Hillsboro appointed to succeed.

GREEKS TAKE LIVES OF SIX EX-LEADERS FOR TREASON

British Protest Act And May Break Relations With Athens; Siberian Case Recalled.

Athens, Nov. 28.—(By Associated Press)—The six former cabinet officers and army officials convicted of high treason in connection with the Greek military disaster in Asia Minor were executed today.

British May Act

London, Nov. 28.—(By Associated Press)—The Greek former ministers condemned to death by the military court in Athens have been executed, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Athens this afternoon.

It was stated in official circles this afternoon that the immediate withdrawal of the British mission at Athens will result from the executions. Precedent Recalled. The precedent of such action by the British, it was suggested, would probably be the break in diplomatic relations with Serbia in 1903 as a result of murder of the Serbian majesties by revolutionaries.

Early in the trial the British government made representations against possible imposition of the death sentence. London dispatches said the British action had been generally resented in Athens and that the recent fall of the Zaimis ministry could be traced directly to the British stand.

All High Officials. London, Nov. 28.—A Central News dispatch from Athens says that the court martial which has been hearing treason charges against several former cabinet members, has imposed the death sentence on M. Gounaris, M. Protopapadakis and M. Stratos, former premiers; M. Theolokis, former minister of war; M. Baltazis, who has held portfolios in several cabinets, and General Hadjanekis, who commanded the Greek forces in the recent debacle in Asia Minor.

The dispatch adds that General Strategos and Admiral Goudas were sentenced to life imprisonment. Constantine Exempted. The trial of several former Greek ministers and military officials who were charged with high treason as the result of the army's recent defeat by the Turks began on November 13. The court martial was instituted by a decree of the revolutionary committee after an investigation by a special committee of inquiry had resulted in a report charging treason.

Former King Constantine was declared exempt from the charges on the ground that he was not responsible for any act that led to the triumph of the Turkish armies. It was decided that his ministers must bear the full responsibility.