COLLEGE FRATS

UNITE TO BUILD MODERN CLUB

New York, Nov. 28.—College fraternity men are the latest New Yorkers to turn cliff-dwellers.
The high price of lodgings, which has driven many families from private houses into apartment houses, has caused members of various fraternity clubs to seek a common roof.
To meet this need the Fraternity clubs building, sixteen story structure, is being erected at Madison avenue and 38th street.
Members of the various clubs, nearly all of them college graduates will have their own private quarters and sets of sleeping rooms, but while they may lounge and slumber under the Greek emblems of their own brotherhoods, they will eat and exercise in a communal dining hall and gymnasium.
The house committee will comprise a representative of each participating club. National headquarters of several fraternities will be located in the building.
Serving on the honorary board of the housing committee are Newton D. Baker, former Secretary of War; Major-General Robert L. Bullard; T. Coleman DePant; Byron P. Heston; Will H. Hays, former Postmaster General; Secretary of State Hughes; Joseph E. Randall, Rev. Dr. Ernest M. Struss; Oscar W. Underwood and former Governor Chas. S. Whitman.

WALES COLLECTING PEARLS FOR NECKLACE

London, Nov. 28.—The fact that the for a necklace has furnished another topic of absorbing interest for discussion over the tea cups, and there are flutters in the hearts of those interested in the royal matrimonial plans.
