Seal Sale Starts In Post Office

The sale of Red Cross seal stamps began today in Salem when a booth was opened at the post office. Saturday the campaign will be launched completely when women will be stationed in the various stores and banks in charge of booths.

"The response of the women's clubs of the city to the call of the Oregon Tuberculosis association for volunteer service in the sale of Christmas seals is one of the most convincing testimonials to the value of the organization and to the enlarged vision that it engenders that I have ever known," said Mrs. Alexander Thompson, president of the Portland federation of women's organizations, "who is in charge of the booth sale in Portland where the sale of the stamps began Friday evening."

The woman's club in Salem is sponsoring the sale here under the chairmanship of Mrs. Fred Thompson and the women are readily responding to the call for their assistance.

Yesterday in the post office Mrs. Grant Bonell had charge of the sale, today Mrs. Louis Griffith is in charge and for the rest of the week Mrs. Arthur Boshen will be in charge. Next week the post office sale of stamps will be in charge of Mrs. William Walton and Mrs. Gertrude Page.

Utter, Bank of Commerce; Mrs. Ray Smith, United States National bank; Mrs. N. C. Kafoury, Kafoury store; Mrs. Carl Becke, People's Cash store; The P. E. Mrs. Cal Patton was a hostess yesterday afternoon, entertaining the members of the Thursday afternoon bridge club, and Mrs. F. G. Delano additionally. Forming a pretty setting for the affair was an arrangement of bronze chrysanthemums. High score honors fell to Mrs. E. L. Kappahn. Mrs. Clyde Johnson will be the next hostess for the club.

Club Chorus Scores Hit In Concert

The Woman's club chorus was successful last night in two ways, in giving a concert every number of which was pleasing, and in contributing to the happiness of the people in the Old People's home, for the concert was a benefit concert.

The program in itself was excellent with songs with familiar lilting strains, and songs of a more serious type, varied and well chosen, and sung through out with perfection of technique. The soloist, Steward Wendell Tully, is a baritone of real merit and his singing last night deserves great praise. Miss Tartar, so well known in Salem's musical circles sang in a manner most pleasing to the audience.

This is the club's second season under the direction of Paul Petri, with Dorothy Pearce, accompanist and it is a club to be proud of. The program for the evening was as follows:

Viking Song, Taylor; To a Wild Rose, McDowell; Love's Benediction (Irish folk song), arranged by J. Oliver, Chorus.

(a) To a Hilltop, Cox; (b) Were my Songs With Wings Provided, Hahn; (c) If I Were King, Tipton, Stewart W. Tully.

The Night Has a Thousand Eyes, Rogers; Sleep Little Baby of Mine, Darnell; Music of Spring, Dunn; Chorus.

(a) A Little Thought, Tully; (b) Forever More, Tully; (c) The Tree Toad, Tully; Stewart W. Tully.

From the Land of the Sky Blue Water, Cadman; The Moon Drops Low, Cadman; Morning, Harris; incidental solo, Lena Belle Tartar, Chorus.

The personnel of the club chorus has been changed somewhat this year and includes the following women:

Mrs. Ada Miller Harris, Mrs. Carl Webb, Mrs. Martin Ferescheta, Mrs. Harry Styles, Mrs. E. V. McMechan, Miss Nellie Schwab, Mrs. William Hamilton, Mrs. T. S. Galloway, Mrs. J. J. In their encore numbers the artists will respond with classical selections, that will add to the variedness of the program.

Miss Gilbert is another of the artists who is well known musically and socially in Salem, having visited and sung here on several occasions. Miss Gilbert was connected with the Whitney Boys chorus doing the advance work in connection with its appearance at the state fair grounds a year ago.

Mrs. James R. Linn, who has been confined to a Portland hospital for several weeks, will be brought home tomorrow evening.

Semi-annual ladies' night for the Salem Rotarians falls on tomorrow evening, when local members of the organization will entertain with a dinner in the main dining room of the Hotel Marion, the affair to begin at 6:15 o'clock. The feature of the evening will be the address by Geo. Fallis, international lecturer of Vancouver, B. C., who will use as his subject, "International Good Will." Musical numbers will follow, and it is quite probable that the function will end with dancing.

Miss Grace Taylor, president of the Salem Business and Professional women's club, was among the representatives present for the meeting of the state federation of business and professional women's clubs at the Multnomah hotel Saturday. There were representatives from all of the affiliated business women's clubs present and Miss Amelia Prichard, president presided.

This was one of a series of important meetings to be held in connection with preparations for the national convention of business and professional women's clubs which will meet in Portland, July 5-15, 1923. Inasmuch as nearly 3000 guests are expected to attend this convention extensive plans are being made by the local club, and they are being assisted by the federations of their sister states—Washington and Idaho.

Among the annual functions at Willamette university is the open house Saturday evening for which the four fraternities are hosts. The doors are thrown wide open and students and faculty are invited to call, as the guests of the fraternities. The line of march from the different fraternity houses will begin at the Sigma Tau house, then to the Kappa Gamma Rho house, thence Phi Kappa Pi house and lastly the Alpha Psi Delta. Bruce White is president of the Sigma Tau house, James Reed of the Phi Kappa Pi fraternity, Robert Notson, of the Kappa Gamma Rho, and Elsworth Anslow, president of the Alpha Psi Delta.
