Prominent Figures in American Politics

United States Senator Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama, veteran member of Congress and leader of the Democratic minority in the Senate, has announced that his health will not permit him to retain the leadership. Charles W. Bryan, brother of William Jennings Bryan, has been elected Democratic Governor of Nebraska. George W. P. Hunt, Democrat, has been elected Governor of Arizona. Friend W. Richardson, Republican, has been elected Governor of California.

Italy Starts U. S. Paper For Propaganda

Yakima, Wash., Dec. 12.—While responding to a fire call in the business section, a fire truck collided with a street car in such a fashion that Sidney Treaner was swept by the trolley from his position on the truck. He broke both legs in the fall, but his physicians say he will recover. Only slight damage was done in the blaze.

OVER DOUBLE THE NUMBER

In the eleven months ending November 30, 1922, The Capital Journal printed 39,086 paid in advance Want Ads—not including real estate and classified.

In the same eleven months the Statesman printed 19,016 Want Ads, not including real estate and classified.

There's a Reason

And its because The Capital Journal ads pay.

In every city one paper is the Want Ad medium and in Salem it's—

The Capital Journal

The Mussolinian ministry announces a policy for Italy. That is an improvement upon the "something for nothing" policy other European diplomats have pursued in recent years.
