

COLD WEATHER WARMS HEARTS OF SALEM FOLK

With Christmas fast approaching and the various drives for money which have been going on in Salem, residents of the city have not forgotten the fact that there are in Salem those who are actually in want. With cold weather of the past several days and the snow this morning, many people realized that possibly there were families in the city where through sickness or lack of work for the bread earner some children are having to go without sufficient clothing and food.

While the feeling of sympathy for the unfortunates was still burning in their hearts they called Harry Levy, head of the local Associated Charities, and offered assistance both in clothing and in money.

"We very much appreciate the spirit of the citizens of Salem in backing us in our work," Mr. Levy said. "We have been able to take care of all the cases of actual need that have come to our attention so far but with the continued cold and snow there will undoubtedly be a number of calls received in the next few days. Any one giving clothing may rest assured that it goes to those actually in need. If we receive a surplus in the next few days we will save it for later in the winter."

Those wishing to give old clothing can leave it at the associated headquarters in the rear of the Red Cross building which is located on State street opposite the post office. If it is impossible to deliver the clothing Mr. Levy said that he would see that it was collected if the donor would phone him at 176 during the day or 244J in the evening.

FOURTEEN DIE OF BURNS, 35 HURT IN TRAIN CRASH

Houston, Texas, Dec. 14.—The death of four more persons today brought the toll from last night's Southern Pacific wreck at Humble, 17 miles from here, to 14, revised figures placing last night's death list at ten. All were scalded by escaping steam. Only one of the four who died today is known to have been a white man, but others haven't been identified.

Conductor William Campsey in the smoker at the moment died instantly. M. Young, the train news dealer, also died instantly. The five others who were killed by the steam were negroes.

None of the passengers in the Pullman cars were injured. All of the dead and injured were passengers in the first and second coaches of the train into which the live steam from the switch engine's steam chest poured.

Many instances of bravery and presence of mind were recorded. One railroad man who refused to give his name entered the smoker and ran the entire length of the car, breaking windows. As a result of his bravery the steam poured out of the car and relieved the stifled victims sufficiently for them to be revived when taken out.

Harding Says Hope Of Farmers Lies In Direct Marketing

Washington, Dec. 14.—President Harding in a letter read today at the opening session of the National Council of Farmers Cooperative Marketing association, declared that he knew of "no single movement that promises more help towards the present relief and the permanent betterment of agricultural conditions" than the cooperative organization of farmers to market their products.

Washington, Dec. 14.—What its sponsors characterize as the most important movement for farmers ever inaugurated was launched here today with the assembling of the first national council of farmers' cooperative market associations. Delegates representing the associations interested in every major product, from cotton of the south to California fruit came to Washington to take part in the three-day conference.

The program included a complete review of the cooperative marketing movement in America, featuring the handling of cotton, tobacco, fruit, grain, dairy produce and other farm products. Other general topics of discussion were cooperative financing and rural credits legislation; common problems of cooperative marketing associations and how to handle them; problems of each commodity group, and cooperative education of the farmers and the public.

The program arranged for today was devoted largely to hearing addresses by Secretary Wallace, Secretary Hoover, Dr. Julius Klien, director of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce and representatives of farm organizations.

What's New on the Market

A large supply of Naval oranges from the new crop were received here yesterday afternoon and were being offered this morning at prices ranging from 15 to 20 cents lower per dozen than was being charged.

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry

For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has no equal. Easily and cheaply prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It is very easily prepared, and there is nothing better for coughs.

Into a pint bottle, put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly, and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and disappear. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness, and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

MEXICANS RILED OVER EXCLUSION

Mexico City, Dec. 14.—(By Associated Press)—A resolution protesting against the exclusion of Mexico from the Central American conference at Washington and declaring Mexico's opposition to the establishment of United States naval bases on any Latin-American coast, was withheld from the chamber of deputies last night through the intervention of the cooperistas party leader. The latter induced the framers of the resolution, who form a considerable group in the chamber, to postpone their action for a few days.

As originally framed the resolution points out that Mexico was in reality the moving spirit in the conference of 1906 which culminated in the treaty of 1907 to which Guatemala, Nicaragua, San Salvador, Costa Rica and Honduras were signatories. In view of this fact, the protesting deputies assert that Mexico as "the neighbor and brother of all the Central American republics is vitally interested in all questions affecting their welfare," and should be included in any congress in which these nations participate.

NAZIMOVA

Yellow Taffeta, Gold Lace, Copper Trimming

By MARY BROOKS PICKEN

ALONG with the three types of silhouettes, all modish for daytime wear just now, we have likewise three types of evening or party dress—the smart, fluffy, colorful type, the modish dress of velvet or lace, and the stately majestic dress of velvet or metallic cloth.

Yellow taffeta was used for this quaint and becoming type, gold lace, flowers of red and gold, and ribbon of gold and copper, all harmonizing and all entrancing in their particular parts.

The bouffant skirt is definitely here. It is quite full, especially at the hips, and is in perfect accord with the dropped shoulder and bertha-effect sleeves.

Orchid color metallic cloth with cream lace, orchid and silver ribbon, and roses of soft blue—orchid and silver also make for a beautiful color effect.

With increased cold the price of eggs can be expected to rise until it again reaches the 50 cent mark as paid by the wholesalers.
