

TESTS URGED TO GUARD CHILDREN FROM DIPHTHERIA

"Every Day in Every Way, I'm Getting Better and Better."

Dr. Emile Coue, M.D.

These words, introduced by Dr. Emile Coue, noted French auto-suggestion healer, are sweeping the world. He has a mental healing sanitarium at Nancy, France, and his books have been translated into scores of languages.

At the Wednesday luncheon of the Rotary club, Dr. J. Shelley Saurman was on the program to speak on diphtheria. But on account of the great importance of the forward movement for Willamette university, the dinner hour was devoted to a discussion of the needs of the university.

Dr. Saurman takes the stand that diphtheria may be prevented if tests are made. All children are not susceptible to diphtheria, but it is very essential that this should be determined by tests made by a competent physician.

If parents do not have the forethought to have tests made, then watch for the first symptoms of a sore throat. If the child becomes sick, the disease has made considerable progress. Hence the doctor advises that every child should be given the test as a matter of precaution.

If the child is found to be susceptible to diphtheria and has been in direct contact with a diphtheria case, the child should at once be made immune by the injection of antitoxin serum. However, this test, the doctor says, is likely to make the child immune for but a short time and after the immunity runs out if the individual contracts diphtheria the giving of antitoxin within a period of a few months is often rendered dangerous to the patient because of certain substances contained in the serum which contains the antitoxin.

A test given by physicians that is permanent which obviates this is the injection of a substance under the skin which makes the subject form an antitoxin of his own. This treatment is generally in three injections and requires two or three months. But the patient is given immunity for several years. This test also gives the advantage that should diphtheria be contracted before immunization from this method takes place the other antitoxin can be given immediately and produce immediate immunization.

The great thing for parents to remember is, first, that the child should be tested as to susceptibility to diphtheria. And then if susceptible, to be given proper treatment by the family physician.

TIGER'S VISIT PAYS $20,000

Washington, Dec. 21.—(By Associated Press.) Former President Clemenceau's American visit added $20,000 to the American field service fund fellowships, Stephen Bonzal, who managed the tour, announced today. The amount is the surplus of money received from lectures and newspaper articles by the Tiger after defraying the expenses of his trip.

The war time premier, it was explained, was unwilling to accept financial assistance for his mission so he accepted lecture and writing contracts to pay his way, asking that any surplus be devoted in memory of his student years in the United States to the fellowships, which are intended, among other things to stimulate friendship between France and America through the education in each country of young men from the other.

A Man's Letter to Santa Claus

If a man should write to Santa Clause with the simple faith his children do, he would probably say something like this:

"Dear Old Man—

"You and I have been filling the stockings of the universe all these years. You've got a heap of glory out of it and I don't begrudge you a bit—but if it was not for me with my little check book they'd have attacked your sleigh for toys long ago.

"The women folks are going to give me something this year—they always do, But tell them—won't you—that I'm not collecting curios.

"I do not want a collar for the dog—perfume of flowers—a box of candy—or some "eight for a nickle," cigars. But the are things I do want and need and some things I should like to have, but wouldn't buy for myself. If somebody would only give them to me, it would be great. So will you kindly give this list your attention old friend?

"First, I should like some socks—"Interwovens" perferred—of silk or wool, the dressy kinds. Then I could use a few neckties—little "Billy" my boy—you know him—has used most of mine to play "horsey" with. "Cheneys" are real good. Now about shirts—I could use a few dress ones and I'd like to have a silk, as occasionally I like to "perk" up a bit. A new Bathrobe would come in mighty handy (one I'm wearing now has had twelve birthdays and is getting shabby). Try and get a "Pendleton", they are best. I'm also getting shy on handkerchiefs. My old hat is a little behind the times and my gloves are soiled too. And here's a friendly honest-to-goodness tip. If there is anyone who wants to get in strong with me whisper this into their ear: 'I'm a worthy candidate for a new suit of clothes or an overcoat. I usually wear and prefer a H. S. & Marx.

Yours Hopefully, "A MAN"

"P. S.—And as you love me, Santa, fail not to tell these blessed givers to select my Christmas Gifts at BISHOPS."
