Miss Byrd Appears On Programs

Under the caption, "Oregon Artists Succeed in New York Maelstrom," Francis Burke, in a special article to the Oregonian, has this to say of Winifred Byrd: It is astounding how many artists of Oregon origin have won or are striving for success here. One meets them everywhere. There is Winifred Byrd, who comes from Salem. She is a serious, attentive figure at all of the important concerts when she is in town, looking youthful and artistic with a tam on her bobbed hair and sandals on her feet. Miss Byrd spent the summer near New York, coming in to play the Liszt "Hungarian Rhapsody" with the Philharmonic orchestra under the baton of Willem Van Hoogstraten, out at the stadium. And, by the way, only those marooned on Manhattan island in midsummer can know the joyous relief of sitting in that great half circle under the moon and stars in the cool of the evening, listening to great music.

Miss Byrd also had a week at the Capital theater, where they have a policy of presenting well known artists for seven day engagements. Miss Byrd played the Grieg concerto with the fine Capital orchestra twice a day during her week, and she enjoyed the enthusiasm of a real movie audience. She has a good season ahead, booked for her by Haensel & Jones, and after her appearance December 16 at a musical Intimate at Sherry's will not be heard here again until her recital in March. Miss Byrd's indomitable spirit and her colossal capacity for work have gone far to justify the sobriquet fixed upon her by Huneker—"the little devil of the keyboard."

Mr. and Mrs. Claire Simmer formerly of Salem, and now living in Portland will spend the Christmas holidays in California. They left for southern California this week.

Mrs. E. L. Harris and daughter, Greta, will spend the Christmas holidays in Salem at their home here. Mrs. Harris has been making some special work at the state normal school.

Christmas Programs Announced

Among the happy events at Christmas time are the programs planned by the churches and the different institutions, which include Christmas carols, cantatas, tableaux, all filled with the spirit and interpretation of Christmas.

Two more programs of interest are ones at the South Salem Friends church Christmas eve, and the one which was given at the Oregon state school for the deaf, Tuesday evening.

The program at the deaf school included songs and tableaux, alternating with a tableau and then a song telling the story. The music was excellent and the tableaux were picturesque and colorful. The tableaux all told the Christmas story, with the Christmas songs familiar to everyone.

The pupils who took part in the tableaux were Mary, Virginia Winn; Joseph, Charles Boyce; Wise Men, Teddy Brickley, Clarence Tyler, Tom Makaki; King Herod, Earl Berry; Shepherds, Leo Johnson, Alexander Service, Willie Pitts, Lester Peterson, Everett Yeager.

Friends who assisted with the music, etc. were Miss Ina Riggs, Miss Mary Riggs, Miss Ethel Riggs, Miss Jessie Wilbur, Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Swabb, Mrs. Edmondson, Mrs. Smith.

The male quartet included: Mr. Armstrong, Mr. Carpenter, Mr. Pruitt, Mr. Becket, Mr. McLeod, Baby McLeod.

Margaret King, Richard Smart, Billy Lindstrom, comprised the junior quartet.

Ushers were Eileen Beaudoin, Lucille Kan, John Powell, Paul Hostetter.

The committee in charge were Miss Morris, Miss Thomas, Mrs. King, Bonita Tussing, Echo Gardner, Allie Campbell, John Wens, Henry Brelje, Tom Makaki.

Sunday the South Salem Friends church will have their program and the offering which will be taken will be given to the associated charities. The program is as follows:

Opening song, "Joy to the World;" Scripture reading and prayer, the pastor; A Christmas scene, first Christmas Eve; recitation and song, "Merry Christmas Bells;" exercise, Mrs. Kightlinger's class; song, "Away in a Manger;" Ruth Pearson; recitation, "Christmas Gifts;" Paul Brown; exercise, Ross Miles; class; song, male quartet; recitation, "Christmas Bells;" Ruth Pearson; Christmas story describing scenic background, Maxine Elliott; Christmas treat for all, Lindley Edmondson and Victor Ahalt distributing; Anthem, choir.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts were delightful hosts Sunday evening for a supper for a few of their friends.

Invitations have been issued to the University of Oregon alumni dance to be given Saturday evening in Derby hall. The invitation includes students, alumni and friends of the university, and they have been sent out especially to reach the students at the university now and the alumni in Marion county who might be interested. Arrangements have been completed for the dance, good music has been secured, and the dance promises to be one of the most attractive of the holiday season. Students from the University of Oregon will start coming home today and tomorrow and by Saturday nearly all of them will be at their homes. This is the first dance which has been sponsored by the Marion county University of Oregon alumni association and every effort is being made to make it a successful affair. The invitations may not reach all of the ex-students because of a rather incomplete list, but the invitation is extended to all friends and students.

Wallace Schel is home from O. A. C. to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Schel.

A wedding of interest which will be solemnized on New Year's day is that of Miss Rachel Buckles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Buckles to Leroy McDulin of Portland. The ceremony will be read at seven thirty in the evening at the home of Mrs. F. L. Dennison. The young couple plan to make their home in Portland where Mr. McDulin is in business. The wedding will be a small affair, with relatives and close friends receiving invitations.

The W. C. T. U. met Tuesday for a business session in the hall. Plans were talked about for the meeting January 16, which is the anniversary of the signing of the eighteenth amendment. This meeting will be a special observance of that day.

Mrs. Karl Becke was assisted this week in taking charge of the red cross stamp booth in the People's cash store by Mrs. Howard Strowbridge, Mrs. Shaffner and Mrs. Reed Rowland. Yesterday was the last day for the booth to be open and new stamps must be purchased at the booth in the post office which will be open until Saturday evening.

Mrs. M. A. Gough of Portland has arrived in Salem to be with her daughter, Mrs. T. C. Smith.

DR. JACK STARTS SATURDAY

during the holidays. Mrs. Smith will be hostess for a number of relatives on Christmas day.

Troubled with Weak Kidneys
"Have been troubled with weak kidneys since childhood," writes Mrs. G. Hyde, Benzonia, Michigan. "Now past forty and have had terrible backache and that tired out feeling, hardly able to do my work. By using Foley Kidney Pills accompanied with Foley Cathartic Tablets I soon felt like a new person." Backache, rheumatic pains, dizziness and blurred vision are symptoms of kidney trouble. Foley Kidney Pills give quick relief. (adv)
