

Local News

In the field most between boys of Chemawa and members of the six scout troops of the city, to be held at the Indian training school Dec. 28, the contests will include relay racing, first aid to the injured, freerunning drill, knot tying, and a sack packing contest. Another contest of interest to the boy scouts will be that of fire by friction. The high record now is 5 3-4 seconds.

Lamp shade special, values to $21 now $10.85. C. S. Hamilton. 305*

The Sunday evening service of the Liberty Street Evangelical church, corner of Center and Liberty streets will be devoted to a Christmas program given by the young people of the church. All are invited to attend. The regular morning service at 11 o'clock with G. F. Leimig, Jr., pastor, delivering the sermon will be held. Sunday school will be held at 10 o'clock as usual. A. J. Eger is the superintendent.

Reg. $5 card tables, your choice in felt or limit leather tops special $4. C. S. Hamilton. 305*

The body of Arsilio Coppo, Italian, who died here yesterday, was shipped from the Webb and Clough mortuary today to Portland for funeral services and burial.

Reg. $5 card tables, your choice in felt or limit leather tops special $4. C. S. Hamilton. 305*

Asel Hoff, a student at O. A. C., is home for the holidays, spending the time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Whittig.

1923 Calendars. Homer H. Smith. Insurance. McCornack Bldg. free.

Milton Steiner, University of Oregon student, will be with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Steiner during the holiday interim.

Capital Ice & Cold Storage Co. Space available for apple storage or other products. 560 Trade street.

Dr. Floyd Dayton of Portland will come up tomorrow to spend the Christmas week-end with his sister Mrs. James Lewis.

Oswald's Seven Sorenaders at Dreamland Christmas night. 305*

A dwelling which will cost $2000 will be erected at 2145 Maple avenue by Ray Wilbanks, of this city, according to a permit issued to him yesterday by Mark Poulsen, city recorder-elect.

Oswald's Seven Sorenaders at Dreamland Christmas night. 305*

Miss Adelaide Lake, former Salem newspaper woman who is now a member of the Portland Oregonian staff, arrived in Salem today to spend the week-end.

Oswald's Seven Sorenaders at Dreamland Christmas night. 305*

While moving north on Churest street yesterday a car driven by Orrin Smith, of Jefferson, met up with one owned by Nat Mous, of Sheridan, according to a report made to the police. There were but minor damages.

Love, the Jeweler, Salem.

Charge with passing a street car while it was receiving and discharging passengers, Willis Faught and George Schopp were yesterday sentenced by Police Judge Earl Race to pay fines of $5 each.

Bob Gordon eight piece orchestra at Dreamland rink Sat. night. 305*

Some machine backed into his truck while it was parked on Broadway yesterday, W. A. Jenkins, 1325 Church street, told the police. There was some damage.

Bob Gordon eight piece orchestra at Dreamland rink Sat. night. 305*

The largest number of transients in several days applied for free beds at the city jail last night. A total of 17 were registered by Night Desk Sergeant Ralph Davis.

Senator A. M. La Follette, in his testimony before the circuit court in the suit entitled T. B. Jones vs. Clyde B. La Follette, testified that in the good old days, farmers in the vicinity of the Wheatland ferry were not troubled much by moles and gophers. He said that the annual high water just came along and drowned out all such animals that had made trouble and each spring started in with a clear record from moles and gophers.

- COMING EVENTS
- Dec. 20.—Wednesday. Meeting of loganberry growers at Oregon Growers rooms.
  - Dec. 25.—Monday, Christmas.
  - Dec. 31.—Elks "Midnight Follies," Grand Theater.
  - Jan. 1.—New Years, Y. M. C. A. annual open house.
  - Jan. 17-24.—National Thrift Week.
  - Jan. 8.—Monday, legislative convalescence.

Hotel Bligh Arrivals

C. H. Myer, Woodburn; J. McCoy and wife, Valselt; M. E. Shilts and wife, Dallas; W. R. Kaiser, Falls City; James Hayes, Dallas; H. E. Pendleton and wife, Eugene; V. Clark and wife, Eugene; LeRoy Ledgerwood, Stayton; C. F. Focott, Portland; W. M. Killim, Portland; E. C. Brown and wife, Oregon City; W. Malo, Gervais; E. J. Bayless, city; J. Walker, Phillomath; A. M. Ingersoll, Lakewood; C. E. Newhouse, Springbrook; Jack Edwards, McClelland, Cal; Roy W. Shultz, McClelland, Cal; Geo. Edwards, Grass Valley; John Benson, San Francisco; M. Benson, San Francisco; K. Benson, San Francisco; M. Rankin, San Francisco; Chas. Youngman, Denver.

New books to be placed in circulation next week by the Salem public library include "Home Spun" poems, by Grace Hall of Portland, who has achieved considerable success in her poems. Another book is "American Music and Musicians" by Pratt, especially valuable for reference. "In the Days of Pour Richard" by Irving Bachelor has just been received. For the children there is "Down-down Derry."

Bob Gordon eight piece orchestra at Dreamland rink Sat. night. 305*

Funeral services for Earl Coulsen Flegel, Jr., four months old son of Captain and Mrs. E. C. Flegel, and grandson of Dr. and Mrs. R. E. L. Steiner, Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Flegel, Portland, who died yesterday, were held for close friends only this afternoon from the Webb and Clough funeral parlors. Rev. Blaine Kirkpatrick conducted the services. Interment was made in the City View cemetery.

Holly for sale. City View cemetery. 305

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Webb and family of this city will spend Christmas in Portland as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Buck.

Lamp shade special, values to $21 now $10.85. C. S. Hamilton. 305*

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Paulsen are expecting to have the parents of Mr. Paulsen, Mr. and Mrs. N. Paulsen, of Portland, as their guests, Sunday and Monday.

Lamp shade special, values to $21 now $10.85. C. S. Hamilton. 305*

Funeral services for James B. Hawthorne, 63, who died yesterday afternoon near Chemawa, were held this afternoon at two o'clock from the Webb and Clough chapel. Rev. W. T. Milliken conducted the services. Interment was made in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

The Commercial street ticket office stores will remain open Sunday and Monday all day, 345 Union St. 305

The body of Victor O. Westfall, 29, who died here Thursday, Dec. 21, at the home of Mrs. Ruby McDowell, 1112 Mill street, will be shipped tomorrow morning to Tualatin for funeral services and burial. Mr. Westfall with his wife and three small children were visiting with relatives here when he was taken sick.

The Song Shop will be open all day Sunday. 305*

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Shilts, of Dallas, were in the city yesterday afternoon and this morning completing their Christmas shopping. Mr. Shilts is a foreman in a small lumber mill near Dallas.

The Song Shop will be open all day Sunday. 305*

LeRoy Ledgerwood, a Stayton druggist, was in Salem yesterday and today on business.

Gifts for everyone. The Song Shop, open evenings. 305*

Margaret Seehafer, a teacher in the Turner schools, stopped in Salem last night on her way to Corvallis to spend the Christmas vacation with her parents. She registered as the guest of the Terminal hotel.

William Malo, a farmer living near Gervais, was in the city on business yesterday.

Last minute shoppers are making their headquarters at The Song Shop. 305*

Mrs. L. G. Thomas, of Independence, was in the city yesterday afternoon doing late Christmas shopping.

Salem's real gift store, The Song Shop. 305*

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ireland, living in West Salem, Wednesday evening. The arrival has not yet been named.

Dr. John L. Lynch osteopathic physician, 403 Oregon bldg. phone 1394 or 5585. 305*

The Hi-Y organization are aiding the Salvation Army this afternoon in the distribution of Christmas baskets to the poor. Paul Devers, chairman of the service committee, is in charge of the workers.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Morris are to be guests on Christmas of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Morris, McMinnville, and parents of Dr. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Seibert and small son, McMinnville, and Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Carson, Portland. Mrs. Seibert is a sister to Dr. Morris and Mrs. Phillip Carson and Mrs. Morris are sisters.

3 big closing services at the armory Sunday 2:30 and 7:30. Big baptismal service at First Christian church 7:30 Xmas (Monday) night. Public invited. 305*

H. E. Worth, a dealer in insurance in The Dalles, was in Salem yesterday on business.

3 big closing services at the armory Sunday 2:30 and 7:30. Big baptismal service at First Christian church 7:30 Xmas (Monday) night. Public invited. 305*

O. M. Baldwin, of Dallas, was an out of town visitor yesterday.

Miss Celia Bollman of La Grande is to succeed to the position of stenographer in the executive office when Governor Pierce assumes office. It has become known here. Miss Bollman has been private secretary to Pierce at La Grande for some time. Miss Violet Welburn who has been Governor Olcott's stenographer for the past four years expects to serve as a clerk to one of the numerous committees of the forthcoming legislature.

The Tumbling Midgets, a Y. M. C. A. club, basketball team are planning a barnstorming tour for the holidays. On Tuesday, Dec. 26, they will go to Newberg to meet a "Y" team and on Wednesday and Thursday they will be in Portland where they are to meet two of the Y. M. C. A. club teams. Stanley Waters is captain of the team.

The prevalence of diphtheria in the city has caused a large shrinkage in the attendance at the Y. M. C. A. classes, according to Mead Elliott, boys' work secretary. Parents of many of the boys fear that there might be boys at the "Y" who carry the germs but who themselves are not susceptible to the disease and are keeping them away.

A three page mimeograph bulletin of "Y" happenings has been put out for those interested in the work of the organization.

On Thursday, Jan. 4, the Y. M. C. A. is to open a Citizenship class which is to be open to all foreigners who are taking out their second citizenship papers, for the purpose of studying together the pamphlet put out by the government and the discussing of American principles. C. A. Kells, general secretary of the Y is to be the leader of the class. About five have already signified their intention of taking the course. Any others desiring to take the work are invited to attend. Weekly meetings will be held.

The Elk lodge would like to know of the whereabouts of N. B. Nelson. The lodge was in receipt of a telegram this morning from the Los Angeles lodge, stating it would like information as to Mr. Nelson's whereabouts, as his sister had died in that city.

"If any children are overlooked this Christmas I want them or their parents to write me a letter," Fred Erickson, chairman of the Elks' committee, said this afternoon. "We have probably missed some and we don't want to. However we can do our work next week as well as this week."

Died
HAWTHORNE—James Buchanan Hawthorne passed away at his home near Chemawa, Dec. 22, 1922, at 12:20 a. m. Mr. Hawthorne was 63 years old and is survived by his widow, Mrs. Altha Hawthorne, one son L. A. Hawthorne, and one daughter, Lucille Hawthorne, all of Salem. Funeral services were held at the Webb and Clough chapel, Dec. 23, 1922, at 2 p. m. Rev. Milliken will conduct the services. Interment in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

COPPO—Arsilio Coppo died at a local hospital Dec. 22, 1922, at 5:50 p. m. He was 41 years old. The body was shipped by Webb and Clough to Portland for burial.

FLEGEL—Earl Coulsen Flegel, Jr., infant son of Capt. and Mrs. E. C. Flegel, grandson of Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Flegel of Portland, died suddenly Dec. 22, 1922, at 8:15 p. m. The baby was only four months old. Rev. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick conducted the services for the close friends of the family at the Webb and Clough chapel, Dec. 23, 1922, at 3 p. m. Interment was in the City View cemetery.

Webb & Clough
Leading FUNERAL DIRECTORS
EXPERT EMBALMERS

Rigdon & Son's
MORTUARY
Unequaled Service

TERWILLIGER
Residence Parlors
770 Chemeketa St. Phone 724
Lady Embalmer

E. P. Truesdell of Canyon City was appointed by Governor Ritter today as district attorney for Grant county to succeed Richard N. Apple who has resigned because of press of private practice.

H. H. Corey, public services commissioner, has been notified of his appointment as a member of the western states transportation committee of the Northwest Cannery association. A. W. Stone of Hood River is the other Oregon member of the committee.

The Klamath Drainage district, comprising 13,000 acres in Klamath county, has applied to the state irrigation securities commission for the certification of $200,000 in bonds.

W. E. Moses, superintendent of the Brookings public schools, arrived in Salem today to visit friends. Tonight he will attend the University of Oregon alumni dance.

George Burris, of Eugene, is in Salem for a short time visiting his brother-in-law, Harley White. Mr. Burris is a Eugene merchant.

By kind permission of the school trustees the church services will be held in the new West Salem school building tomorrow (Sunday) commencing with the Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Epworth League devotional meeting at 6:30 p. m. With Christmas gift services at 7:30 p. m. Collection in aid of Near East relief work. Public cordially invited.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday afternoon to the following: Myron Baker of Jefferson, a woodsman and Elsie Matney. To Joe Valch of 14th and north Capitol street and Minnie Bartel of 1409 Capitol street, a canner worker. Also to A. L. Libby of 465 south Winter street, a machinist and Mrs. Olma Oswald of 484 south Winter street, whose occupation was given as that of service observer.

Jewelry stores in Salem will remain open until 9 o'clock this evening and the same hour will be the closing time for drug stores. Sunday drugstores will be open for business from 9 o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock in the afternoon and on Christmas day, from 8 o'clock in the morning until 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

A marriage license was issued this morning to James R. Humphrey of 16th and State street, Salem, salesman, and Bernice Janet Scott, of Salem, a teacher. The marriage will take place Sunday in the chapel of Trinity church, Portland.

The suit of Julia Burthard for divorce from Chester Burthard, filed Oct. 28, has been dismissed in the circuit court without costs to either party. Although married 25 years and with three children, Mrs. Burthard had filed suit for divorce, alleging that her husband was in the habit of striking her and using strong language.

Miss Laven Heald, student of the Silverton high school was in the city this morning, receiving instructions in county and civil government from Judge Busbey. Miss Heald is obliged to write a thesis of civil government and came to the capital city to get information direct.

Wanted, a 60-egg incubator, must be standard make in first class condition. Phone 4F4 evenings.

With six marriage licenses issued the past two days and a total up to date of 24 during the month, December promises to live up to its usual record for marriage licenses. The month of June with 64 licenses issued, holds top rank.

After spending a day transacting business in Portland, Judge G. E. Uarui, of the Salem justice court, returned here this morning.

Captain A. C. Hopkins, secretary of the Bonus Commission, left this afternoon for Portland where he will be met by Mrs. Hopkins to spend the Christmas vacation with the parents of both Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins who live there.

This evening Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Van Cleave, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Aspinwall and daughter, Leonard, all living north of Salem about 20 miles on the Pacific highway, will meet at the Alvin VanCleave home, located near the A. T. VanCleave place, for a social evening and Christmas tree.

Mrs. Helen Hibbard Paget, a teacher in the Boys' Training school was in Salem a short time today on her way to her home in Macley to spend Christmas.

Roy Bohler, coach of athletics at Willamette university, expects to go to Eugene to spend Sunday and Christmas with his brother, George Bohler, coach of basketball at the University of Oregon.

The Eagles club basketball team, a Y. M. C. A. club for boys, will go to Mountain View this evening where they meet a team composed of boys about the same age and size.

Time is the only money that can not be counterfeited.

EMERGENCY BOARD TO MEET HERE NEXT WEEK

Secretary of State Koser has called a meeting of the state emergency board for Friday, December 29, to consider the authorization of a deficiency appropriation of $2000 for the adjutant general's department to cover expenses incurred in giving relief to the citizens of Astoria following the fire which wiped out the business section of that city. The call has been issued at the request of Adjutant General White who points out that thousands of meals were served by national guardsmen during the emergency and hundreds of homeless were provided with beds through the Oregon guard.

Read The Journal Want Ads

LIBERTY THEATER
Leaving Tonight
Two Big Features
Henry B. Walthall
and
Harry Carey
in
"The Kick Back"
and
Ruth Roland Serial
Tomorrow
Bill Farnum

OREGON
New Show Today
GEORGE BEBAN
in
"THE SIGN OF THE ROSE"
Comedy—News
Coming Monday
"To Have and to Hold"
with Betty Compson
Bert Lytell

GRAND THEATRE
Now Playing
Harold Lloyd
in
"DR. JACK"
The laughingest picture
you've ever seen.
5 Weeks in Portland

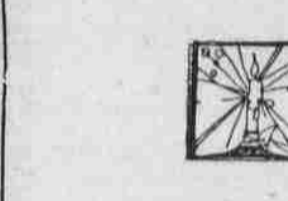

Appreciating our pleasant business relations during the past we wish you the compliments of the season and trust that the coming New Year will bring the best you have ever known in Happiness and Prosperity.

Capital National Bank
Salem, Oregon

Let us pause in the daily rush of business to consider, the day of all days.

Merry Christmas

Valley Motor Co.

We Wish to Every One a
MERRY CHRISTMAS
S. J. Gentzkow W. E. Bean
The Goodyear Shoe Repair Shop
291 North Commercial St.
(Between Court and Chemeketa)

With all kind Thoughts and Hearty Greetings at Yuletide

John J. Rottle
167 N. Commercial

VAUDEVILLE
Sunday—Monday
Latham and Rubye
"That Pair in the Air"
Jimmie, Mary and Ray
Three Aces of Vaudeville
Henry B. Walthall,
Ralph Graves, Marjorie Daw
in
"The Long Chance"
A Peter B. Kyne story
ROY STEWART in GIANTS OF THE OPEN
Comedy—Scenic

BLIGH THEATRE

WISHING YOU
A
Merry Xmas
and a
Happy New Year

Marion Automobile Co.
Open Day and Night

Phone 362 235 S. Commercial Street