University Engagement Announced

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Estelle Satchwell to Professor Robert M. Gatke came as a complete surprise when it was announced Friday evening at a Christmas party for which Miss Helen Pearce was hostess. Miss Satchwell is at present teaching in the union high school at Walker, Oregon, while Professor Gatke is in the history department at Willamette university. The wedding date has not been set but it will probably be an event of the spring.

Miss Pearce entertained with a very delightful Christmas party with a gorgeous tree as the center of interest with its load of gifts for everyone. The evening was spent with games and music. The house was decorated with Christmas things, red candles, greens and flowers.

The guests who were present were Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Williston, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Panunzio, Miss Lida Fake, Miss Frances Richards, E. T. Brown, Miss Brown, Miss Satchwell, Franklin B. Loungr, Professor Gatke, Dorothy and Helen Pearce.

Kenneth Powers, a student at the Oregon medical school in Portland, is spending the holidays here with his mother, Mrs. Frank Powers.

The nine A class of McKinley school were the guests of Mrs. P. M. Gregory at her home Friday evening for a Christmas party. Mrs. La Moine Clark, principal of the school, and Miss Martha Minton, teacher were the honor guests. The young people spent the early part of the evening playing games that had been arranged by a committee from the school.

The rooms of the Gregory home were attractive with red streamers and Christmas bells with a Christmas tree of primary interest to the young people. After distributing gifts from the tree a half hour was spent before a glowing open fireplace, with candy and nuts. The members of the class who were present, Lucille Rhoten, Alberta Bohraed, Bessie Tucker, Merle McDonald, Doris Nelson, Mildred Pearson, Bernice Barlow, Harold Thomason, Kenneth Goss, Harry Walscher, William Linford, Winston Williams and Mrs. La Moine Clark, Miss Minton and Mrs. Gregory.

The fortnightly music club was entertained with a delightful Xmas party at the home of Miss Lucille Anderson, last Friday evening. The rooms were decorated in holiday trimmings and a prettily decorated Xmas tree was the center of most interest. Games were played during the evening and prizes were won by Charlotte Martin and Viola Hoover. Each guest received a dainty Xmas gift. Later in the evening refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Anderson and Mabel Deeks. The guests invited were Thelma Carey, Edith Fanning, Charlotte Martin, Faye Bartell, Doris Phinicle, Mabel Deeks, Nina Cole, Eloise Wright, Evelyn Poulson, Joy Hills, Henrietta Hutcheon, Wilda Cathalan, Viola Hoover, Creta Janz, Mable Dotson, Veda Ferrell and Miss Dotson.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tyler were hosts Friday evening for the meeting of the Hi 500 club. The Christmas tree which was the center of for much entertaining thruout the past week again held sway over the entertainment for the evening. Five hundred was played during the evening hours and high score was awarded to R. C. Kriese and Mrs. Earl Anderson. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Earl Anderson in January.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Pohle entertained as their guests for Christmas day Professor and Mrs. Garcia of Portland.

Helen Rose, who is teaching school at Warrenton arrived in Salem the latter part of the week to remain through the holidays with her parents Mr. and Mrs. George Rose.

The La Area club met last week for a Christmas celebration with Miss Marie Cook. A Christmas tree laden with things of interest proved the liveliest diversion of the evening. Needlework and social conversation passed the time until the gifts were distributed. Miss Cook was assisted in serving by Mrs. Reader, Miss Ortha Platter was a special guest for the affair.

Miss Ruth Barnes who is attending the University of Washington is spending the holiday rooms with her parents Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mills motored up the Columbia highway last week end to spend the Christmas holiday with their son and family, Waldo Mills.

Artists Exhibit Unique

An exhibit of the 250 oils and water colors of one of the most gifted painters of the west, Alfred H. Schreff, professor of fine arts in the University of Oregon, will be given in Salem about the middle of January under the auspices of the Marion county branch of the University of Oregon Alumni association.

The work of Prof. Schreff has been shown in many eastern exhibitions and collections. While several exhibitions of his paintings have been held in Eugene, there have been no showings in any other Oregon city with the exception of Portland. When his work was shown in Seattle, the fine arts critic of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, said:

"The one man exhibition of paintings by Alfred H. Schreff, professor of fine arts at the University of Oregon, is a delightful surprise to the members and their friends of the Seattle Fine Arts Society. They had previously seen a few fine examples of Professor Schreff's painting, and knew that his work was in the prize winning rank, but they did not expect to see such a generous number of salon pictures executed within the past two years. The walls of the fine arts rooms were covered with Schreff canvases the majority of which are of large size, and are all uniformly encased in Whistler and plain gold frames. It is a showing of which an artist may well be proud, and an exhibit, besides, that is winning genuine words of praise from the art public.

"Beauty of line is one of the distinguishing points in his paintings. Professor Schreff repeatedly employs the sweeping, melting curved line, that leads and holds attention within the canvas. When we note how Professor Schreff enjoys creating a rhythm of curving lines that rests and pleases the eye we need not remark that his pictures excel in composition. His skill in design has been developed in the years he has given to stained glass window decoration. He has a nice understanding of the values, and while he paints freely and evidently rapidly, his work as a whole is well finished. It is indeed a most praiseworthy exhibit of one man's work over a very short period."

The Philosphian literary society of the high school entertained the patients at the tuberculosis hospital Friday evening, Dec. 22, with a short program and a two act comedy, "The Three Chauffeurs" by Willowden Chatterton. Those taking parts in the play were, Helen Pettyjohn, Cathorne Hartley, Elaine Foster, Sarah Solof, Alice Saunders, Loreta Varley, Loyal Gray, Esther Diefenbach, Mary Drager, Lois Moorehead, Imogene Gardner, Bernice Mulvey, Esther Thompson.

The program was as follows: Vocal solo, Madeline Watson; reading, Bernice Mulvey; vocal solo, Edwin Burnside; solo dance, Lucille Pettyjohn; a stunt, by six Philosphians; duet, Clarence Davis and Madeline Watson; piano solo, Jean Hobson; vocal solo, Clarence Davis; piano solo, Clarence Wenzler.

Loyal Gray, president of the organization, acted as accompanist for the vocal numbers.

After the program the members of the club serenaded the patients of the open air pavilions with Christmas carols as these patients were unable to attend the program in the auditorium.

The University of Oregon dance Saturday evening, the first social event to be sponsored by the Marion county alumni association, was a decided success with about fifty couples in attendance. The yuletide spirit and the real Oregon spirit combined to make of it a most delightful function.

Three Oregon Knights members of an organization at the university which sponsors many student body projects were present to help with the entertaining. They were, Milton Steiner, Paul Staley and Jack Elliott.

The patrons and patronesses invited for the affair were, Mayor-elect and Mrs. John Giesy, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Judge and Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris, Dr. and Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Superintendent and Mrs. George Hug and Superintendent and Mrs. J. A. Churchill.

Tomorrow evening the Ilabeo county club will sponsor their second formal dance of the year when they entertain with a holiday party at the club house. This dance is usually a New Year's event but because of that event coming on Sunday Wednesday has been set for the dance. A dance at the Country club is also planned at the moment for a number of ways the motif for a number of very elaborate dinners given by society matrons, and with many society matrons, in Salem the diners visiting in Salem the diners will be even more numerous this time.

Carols a Part of Holidays

One of the nicest customs of Christmas time is that of singing carols throughout the community, a custom which in England was carried out during the entire yuletide, both day and night.

Members of the Women's club chorus this year sang carols bringing happiness wherever they sang and recalling a beautiful custom. Friday night a group went to the Old People's home and sang. They were: Mrs. Harry M. Styles, Mrs. J. E. Hutcheon, Miss Angela McCullough, Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Miss Eva Ferre, Mrs. V. E. Kuhn and Miss Joy Turner.

Saturday evening the Elks club, the Marion hotel, the Spa, the Graybelle and twelve private homes where either invalids or old people lived were the places chosen by a group of women who were on a carolling expedition. This group included, Mrs. C. E. Gilbertson, Mrs. E. V. McEehan, Mrs. T. H. Galloway, Mrs. Arthur Rahn, Mrs. Merle Rosecrans and Mrs. W. E. Anderson.

The hospitals were visited Sunday evening by a quartet accompanied by Miss Dorothy Pearce. The quartet was, Miss Marie Schweg, Miss Nellie Schwab, Dan Langenberg and Harry Pearson.

Holiday Wedding Monday

A holiday wedding of more than ordinary interest was the one solemnized yesterday at four o'clock when Miss Lida Fake and Professor E. T. Brown, both members of the faculty of Willamette university were united in marriage with Dr. Carl Gregg Doney president of the university reading the ceremony. The marriage service was read in Waller hall in the presence of over seventy live guests.

The bride wore a stunning gown of white satin, canton crepe, trimmed with exquisite lace, with a long veil caught with real orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet, dainty little Marie Patton dressed in a pink party frock carried the ring, while a group of young college women were the attendants, Misses Genevieve Phillips, Nell Fake, Grace Brainerd, Louise Schreiber, Helen Melburn and Helen Gatke. Professor T. S. Roberts played Mendelssohn's wedding march while Kathleen Larait sang "A Dawn Song."

An informal reception followed the ceremony after which Mr. and Mrs. Brown left for California for a short wedding trip. When they return they will make their home at 475 North Capitol street.

Mrs. Brown is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Fake, a graduate of Milwaukee-Dowser college and at present head of the home economics department. Mr. Brown is a graduate of the University of Washington and a member of the Willamette university faculty. His parents live in Washington.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Clay of San Francisco arrived in Salem Saturday and are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Bush. Mrs. Clay will be the inspiration for some very delightful entertaining this week with prominent society matrons as hostesses. Mr. and Mrs. Clay formerly lived in Salem and are being welcomed again by their many friends here.

Governor and Mrs. Ben W. Olcott will return to Salem this week after spending Christmas day with the governor's parents in Long Beach, California, where Mr. and Mrs. Olcott arrived Saturday evening after attending the governors' conference in Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. George Haltemhoff and daughter, formerly of Salem and now of The Dalles, are the holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Brown at their country home near Salem.

The various dances in Portland this week which will attract members of the college set from Salem are the two big affairs one sponsored by the students at O. A. C. and the other given by the Women's League of the University of Oregon. Two sororities will also sponsor benefit dances. The Chi Omega and the Kappa Kappa Gamma houses, both events of interest to students in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford are entertaining as their house guests Professor and Mrs. W. E. Lawrence of Corvallis. Professor Lawrence is a member of the faculty at the Oregon Agricultural college.

Mrs. Louise Koon left Saturday for Iowa where she was called by the death of her daughter Marie Patton. Mrs. Koon will remain in the east indefinitely. She was accompanied to Portland Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. Jesse George.

WASTE LAID TO CHICAGO MAYOR

Chicago, Dec. 26.—The Chicago municipal voters league in a statement made public today charged Mayor W. H. Thompson and his supporters in this city council with responsibility for an alleged waste of city funds in what is declared excessive payments to five real estate and building experts employed by the city.

In 1920 the municipal voters league charged, five Thompson real estate experts got away with $2,675,566 from the city treasury, and drew a total of $3,287,634 in three years, according to the city controller.

"Chicago's city hall gang is believed to have cost Chicago more than the Taced ring cost New York," the statement continued.

Suits have been filed in court against Mayor Thompson, the city controller and the five experts for recovery of part of the alleged wasted money paid the latter.

Dance Frock in Celestial Blue With Silver Ribbon

By MARY BROOKS PICKEN

CELESTIAL blue crepe Roma

combines with silver ribbon and tiny chalk-white beads to make this unusually smart dinner or dance frock.

The front and back are ornamented exactly alike with an unusual arrangement of the silver ribbon outlined with beads. The frock slips over the head. A bow of silver ribbon with streamers is sewed at the center-back neck line.

The skirt is of two lengthwise pieces of crepe Roma joined in the front by a ribbon panel. The fullness of the skirt and its length depend upon individual becomingness.

A wreath of silver makes the hair band.

Coral color or pale green would also be good as a foundation color if more becoming than blue.

If an afternoon dress is desired, dull green crepe Roma with bronze ribbon and beads would be attractive; also, black with black moire ribbon and bittersweet red beads makes a smart combination.

CRITICISM BACK OF RESIGNATION OF COACH WELSH

Pullman, Wash., Dec. 26.—Criticism of the Washington State college football team's record during the 1922 season in which one conference game was won, is believed here to have been a factor in the resignation of Gus Welch, Cougar coach for the last four years.

Coach Welch was handicapped during the past year by a lack of experienced material but he held to his policy of developing men rather than victorious football teams.

"My ambition has been to turn out real men, men who will make desirable citizens, as well as to turn out a satisfactory football team," Welch said after his resignation had been announced. "I believe the development of manhood should be considered of primary importance by any football coach, and that the development of a championship team should be of a secondary consideration. The win at any cost coach is not an asset to any institution."

Future plans of Coach Welch have not been announced, though he is to be married January 15 in Washington, D. C., to Miss Julia J. Carter, daughter of Congressman Carter of Oklahoma. College athletic authorities stated that no successor to the coach had been chosen.

NITTANY LIONS PRACTICE TODAY

Pasadena, Cal., Dec. 26.—Penn State's football warriors were to hold their first secret practice on Rose Bowl field today, in preparation for their New Year's day battle against the University of Southern California, slated as the annual east vs. west sports feature of the 1923 Tournament of Roses.

The Nittany Lions will have the Rose Bowl field to themselves every morning for secret work and will all use the gridiron for an hour or two in the afternoon. The Trojans, who planned to move to a local hotel late today after a final workout on their home soil, will practice in the bowl at hours which will not conflict with the easterners.

Penn State's secret practice was to be under the direction of Head Coach Hugo Besdek, who rejoined his men last night after watching West Virginia defeat Gonzaga at San Diego yesterday.

Washington.—The American Bankers' association was urged by Eugene Mayer, managing director of the war finance corporation, to take steps to stop the practice of some banks in advertising that they are not members of the federal reserve system, declaring it injurious to the public.
