Young Boy Is Success In Concert

Speaking of the radio concert given in Portland Wednesday night in which Kenneth Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Allen of Salem, was featured, the Oregonian of this morning says:

Another feature of the program which immensely pleased the listeners was the singing of Kenneth Allen of Salem, 13 year old boy coloratura soprano, who was presented by Miss Minnetta Magers, his teacher.

The solos by Kenneth Allen were broadcast after the regular program. It was not known just how far the concert was received but one wire from Russell Spicer of Willma, Minn., came in late last night announcing that he had heard Mr. Allen very clearly. Several friends and neighbors of the youthful singer at Salem also telephoned by long distance, saying that they heard his solos.

His beautiful, high pitched voice was splendidly adapted to radio singing, and in the two numbers, with flute like obbligato, the voice and instrument could scarcely be distinguished at times. The obligatos were played by H. G. Knight, flutist for the Portland Symphony orchestra, and the piano accompaniment by Eva Pittman. Mr. Allen sang "The Swallows" (Del Acqua) without obligato, and "The Wren" (Lehman) and "Thou Charming Bird" from "The Pearl of Brazil."

Mitzi, the charming little comedienne, who delighted the big audience of Salem folk at the Grand theater last night, when she came in her latest vehicle, "Lady Billy," is a warm personal friend of Miss Louise Thompson, who as "Kathryn Stair," played in Mitzi's company two seasons ago, when "Head Over Heels" was the offering.

Miss Thompson had the pleasure of spending much of yesterday with her former leading lady, and following the performance at the theater entertained with a supper party at her home for Mitzi, her husband and leading man, Boyd Marshall, and several members of their company.

Miss Thompson describes Mitzi as doubly attractive, off the stage, sweet, unaffected and charmingly wholesome.

The company left Salem this morning, being booked for an engagement at the Hellig in Portland.

Members of the Ladies' Aid society of the First Presbyterian church will meet in the church parlors Friday afternoon at half past two o'clock. Mrs. J. H. Clements is chairman of the program.

Local members of the Eastern Star went to Silverton Tuesday night, going over to assist in installing officers in the Silverton chapter. Judge George H. Burnett, grand patron of the Oregon lodge, was the principal installing officer.

Among those who motored over were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Pettys, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Mrs. Rose Babcock, Mrs. Ida Babcock, Miss Angeline McCullough, Miss Mary Chadwick, Mrs. Ida Niles, Miss Gussie Niles and Judge and Mrs. George H. Burnett.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Klinger entertained with a family dinner at their home Christmas day. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Chas. S. Huff, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bacon, A. H. Aolbert and the hosts.

Music and games, with readings and songs by the children, provided entertainment for the visitors at the Burk home in Dallas when they gathered there for Christmas dinner Monday. The guests were, Mrs. Davis of Salem, Mrs. Kezzel of Corvallis, Mrs. Clay and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Good Low and daughter, Virginia, J. C. Davis of Salem, Frank Loggan, a student at the University of Oregon, Miss Dallas Burk, Mr. and Mrs. S. Burk, Mrs. Schooley and son Harold, Earl Burk and daughter Lenora.

Dr. and Mrs. Clay Depart Wednesday

It was with the utmost regret that friends witnessed the departure of Dr. and Mrs. Harry E. Clay for their home in San Francisco Wednesday evening their visit being cut short by the unexpected summons which came from Lane hospital, calling Dr. Clay back to staff duties.

However, despite the brevity of their stay friends found time to arrange many delightful social affairs for their pleasure. An initial attention Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Bush, who entertained the Clays as their house guests, contributed a ten cover dinner Christmas eve. Crimson carnations and unique place favors—Manikins representing folk from various nations emphasized a holiday decorative motif. The guests were: Dr. and Mrs. Clay, Mr. and Mrs. Asahel Bush, Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Downs and Mr. and Mrs. W. Connell Dyer.

On Tuesday afternoon about sixty old time friends of Mrs. Clay dropped in at the tea given at the home of Mrs. E. C. Cross, for which Mrs. Cross, Mrs. Curtis Cross and Mrs. Prince Byrd were joint hostesses. Christmas decorations brightened the rooms, the tea table in the dining room being particularly attractive with its ornamentation of red candles and American Beauty roses. Mrs. A. N. Bush and Mrs. Henry W. Meyers presided at the urns and Mrs. Keith Walker Powell of Woodburn, Mrs. Harry Hawkins and Mrs. W. Connell Dyer assisted in serving. Miss Nell Thilens assisted in the reception rooms.

Many other affairs had been planned, which, had Dr. and Mrs. Clay remained longer would have added much to the pleasantness of their sojourn.

Dallas, Dec. 28.—The regular meeting of the Dallas Women's club will be held in their club room in the library building on Tuesday afternoon, January 2, starting at 2:30 o'clock. The musical numbers will include instrumental selections by the Misses Lucille Craven and Elizabeth Hayter. A vocal selection will be rendered by Mrs. Arpke.
