

BONELL NAMES ALL STAR FIVE OF CITY LEAGUE

Four players on the Better Yet Commercial League team which won the league championship with seven wins and two defeats were named this morning by G. R. Bonell, president of the league, among the mythical squad which will compose the official Y. M. C. A. basketball team known as the Yellowjackets. The choice of Mr. Bonell is as follows:

Forwards, Glenn Gregg and Harold Socolofsky, Better Yets, and Ray Lucas, U. S. National bank; center, A. Laiske, Anderson & Brown, and Alvin Lennon, Central Pharmacy; guards, Walter Socolofsky, Herbert Socolofsky, Better Yets, and R. Mason, Hauser Bros.

Garnet Harra, Russell Bonesteel, forwards; Kermit Thompson, center, and Ted Glrod and Robert Hatcliffe, guards, were considered and received honorable mention.

The members of the squad are to meet Friday evening at the Y. M. C. A. at 7:30 where Coach Bonell will outline plans for the coming season.

The naming of an all-star team is a very hard matter, according to Mr. Bonell as some very good basketball traits are possessed by some that others do not have. Also in playing on the "Y" gym floor it is hard for any of the players to show what they are really worth. All of the men named on the squad played exceptionally good ball all through the season and it was only through the Commercial Basketball series that several of the members named were able to show their ability. The Bonesteel Motor company was the only team that is not to be represented.

No games have been definitely scheduled but Coach Bonell is in hopes of arranging games with the Legion or town teams from Silverton, McMinnville, Dallas, Independence and Newberg. He also hopes to arrange several practice games with the Bearcat five.

The opening scenes of "The Fighting Guide," which will be shown at Bligh theatre today, reveal some of the most picturesque country obtainable in the west. William Duncan, as a heavily bearded scout, is seen leading his little party through the big open country, a party in which an English nobleman and his valet bring up the rear. A half breed Indian is the other member of the party.

Because the nobleman insists upon having "all the comforts of home," even in a far west camping ground, does not make a hit with the scout and his stoical half breed assistant. Also the fact that the nobility's valet suggests that Duncan, as the scout, wash his master's socks adds to complications which leads to a sequence of humor.

role, "Honor First," his latest feature, will open at the Liberty theatre tomorrow. Press reports from other cities where this picture has been shown accord it high praise. Many who have reviewed the feature assert that Gilbert is at his best.
The story deals with the difference in character and temperament between twin brothers, both of whom served in the French army during the war. Gilbert portrays both brothers. His work as the cowardly brother is said to be especially worth while. This characterization calls for extraordinary force in acting.

INCOMING SHIPS REPORT RECORD ATLANTIC STORM

New York, Dec. 28.—Tempests of the sort known only to seasoned mariners of the North Atlantic, against the howling power of which huge ocean liners are but flimsy cockleshells, have raged through the past week, threatening smaller vessels with destruction, wrecking steamers' dock equipment, driving fast liners out of their usual lanes and striking terror to the hearts of hundreds of passengers, according to wireless reports received today.

Relentless gales, playing havoc with the schedules of the large steamship companies, described yesterday by officers of the Cedric, the Zealand and the United States, which arrived several days late after weathering the worst storm in their history, still are whipping the waters of the Atlantic to fury.
The Manchuria and LaSavole reported today they would arrive on Thursday, two days late. The Niagara due today, reported she will try to fight her way to port tomorrow.

The Caronia reported from Halifax that she had been forced to put in there. The Mount Carroll is due here and the President Monroe in London tomorrow, both far behind schedule.

Veterans of scores of storms who guided liners into port yesterday said they had never before seen the treacherous north Atlantic in such a protracted hurricane mood.
Five reel feature comedy which has just been completed, Harold Lloyd has assembled a trio of prime favorites of the American stage and screen as his principal support besides Mildred Davis. These are Eric Mayne, John T. Prince and Norman Hammond. There is plenty of room in all three portrayals for superb acting and Lloyd considers himself fortunate in being surrounded by such capable performers. At the Grand today and tomorrow.

$10,000 GIVEN TO STATE UNIVERSITY

University of Oregon, Eugene, Dec. 28.—(Special.)—Ten thousand dollars in cash was the Christmas gift made to the University of Oregon today by a friend of the institution who lives 2000 miles from Eugene. The donor is Mrs. Alice W. Wriable of Asbury, N. J. She has requested that her gift be used as a student loan fund.

The sum is the largest benefaction received by the university since alumni and others gave $28,900 in September to launch the endowment campaign of "Ten Million Dollars in Ten Years."

President P. L. Campbell of the university is the originator of a plan whereby the Wriable gift of $10,000 may be used as a guarantee fund upon which to base loans ranging from an aggregate of $50,000 to $100,000. Thus the original gift, under the plan, may

AMERICAN CHURCH IN PARIS MADE CATHEDRAL

Paris, Dec. 28.—The elevation of Holy Trinity, the American Protestant Episcopal church in Paris to a pro-cathedral, is explained by the rector, Rev. Frederick W. Beekman, as due to the multiplication of American Episcopal churches in Europe and to the fact that Paris has the largest American community abroad.

Bishop G. Mott Williams, assigned by the authorities of the church in the United States to direct its European interests, will make Paris his headquarters.

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.
Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, throat tickle, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.
To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get a full pint—a family supply—of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.
Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes.
To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

"THE TOILERS" or "Three Generations"
Painted by Herbert de Moreau, the Third
The scene is laid in an old blacksmith shop in the outskirts of Lyons, France, where de Moreau makes his home, and when his grand father Herbert de Moreau, painter of the internationally famous painting, "The Village Blacksmith," lived and died.
This Father Herbert de Moreau, Jr., painter of the famous canvas "Never Alone", also tramped around Lyons and painted for years there; and now comes the grandson, the 3rd Herbert de Moreau, and gives to the world a canvas equal to anything produced before by the de Moreau family. In the "Toilers" he has produced portraits of all three generations, grandson, and grandfather, posed as blacksmiths in this little shop at Lyons.
De Moreau's depiction of fire light is almost miraculous, his treatment of cross lights, fire light and day light is superb. He has placed the aged grandfather in a flood of day light. When he fatigued by old age and toil has fallen asleep. The grandson looks at him and smiles, while the father is giving all his time to the red-hot iron on his anvil.
It is not a big canvas but it is a priceless one.
Herbert de Moreau III was born in Lyons, France, in 1892. He has shown with distinction in the Grand Salon, and the Colorossi.
The picture is one of a collection owned in Boston, and is brought to Salem and shown free as a New Year treat to the general public.
On exhibition for a limited time, in special settings on second floor.
