BERNHARDT'S RETURN NEXT WEEK UNCERTAIN

Paris, Dec. 30.—(By Associated Press.)—Whether Sarah Bernhardt, who announced yesterday that she would return to the stage next Wednesday can persuade her physicians that she is ready for the opening performance of "Un Sujet De Roman" seems problematical.

Doctors and friends believe it may be necessary to keep her from the theater a while longer. "If I rested too long, I would not live," she asserted. She explained that she had promised Sacha Guitry, author of her new play that she would be ready to act Wednesday.

TRUCKS DAMAGE ROADS, REPORT

So many complaints have been coming in to the county court regarding damage done to newly graveled roads by trucks hauling heavy loads of wood, that it is probable the court will take action within the near future, and issue an order limiting the weight of loads that may be carried over gravel roads.

Yesterday a delegation met with the county court, calling attention to the bad condition of roads in Central Howell district, due to the hauling of heavy loads of wood.

Tomorrow a delegation will meet with the county court, to tell of the great damage being done to roads in the Woodland district, also due to the hauling of heavy loads of wood over roads that have been lightly graveled.

The county court has within its authority the right to limit the weight of loads that may be hauled over certain roads. The court issues the order and the sheriff posts the notices in the district through which the heavy hauling is done.

COKE SELECTED FOR FEDERAL JOB

Washington, Dec. 30.—Senators McNary and Stanfield have joined in recommending Judge John S. Coke of Marshfield as federal district attorney for Oregon to succeed Lester W. Humphreys, resigned. Their joint letter to Attorney General Daugherty naming Coke was sent to the department of justice Friday, and it is considered likely that the president will transmit to the senate for confirmation early next week. This will permit Governor Olcott to fill the state circuit court vacancy caused by the retirement of Coke.

A telegram of inquiry is also going out to Alex Sweek to ask if he intends to quit his land office job in January. The senators desire to select his successors immediately if he is preparing to resign, but they are not quite certain that reports of his impending retirement is correct. If these reports are incorrect, they say, he will not be disturbed until his term expires next August.

Washington, Dec. 20.—President Harding today nominated John S. Coke to be United States attorney for the district of Oregon.
