Yomarco Members Have Party

Given fictional names at the beginning of the party over fifty members of the Yomarco class of the First Methodist church last evening enjoyed an evening of stunts and Valentine games at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zimmerman. Each guest was given a name de plume taken from some well known story and thru the evening the names were used in games planned for entertainment.

Red streamers, hearts and red carnations formed a colorful background for the party, and later when a lunch was served at small tables only the light from numerous red candles placed on the tables and about the living room was used. Tiny flags also added a patriotic touch to the decorative scheme.

The hostess was assisted during the evening by Mrs. R. F. Dillen, Mrs. Blaine Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Newton, Mrs. Eric Butler. The class will meet in March at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Swafford. The following list of names comprises the class roll:

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Meleone, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Millard, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Miller, Mrs. Esther Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Simon, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Sims, Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Severn, Dr. and Mrs. Floyd Utter, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Van Orsdal, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. White, Mr. and Mrs. James West, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zimmerman, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Foley, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Foy, Mrs. Charles Rollins, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lindbeck, Mrs. Allie Mackenzie, Mrs. Lola C. Bollinger, Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Purdy, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Butler, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Mosher, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Holt, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bushnell, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Swafford.

The home of Miss Viola Hoover was a scene of a unique Valentine's party last Monday evening when members of the Dorcas class and a few friends gathered for a social evening of games and music. At a late hour refreshments were served by Miss Lucille Burton, Miss Lucie Anderson and Miss Viola Hoover. Those who participated in the celebration of the Saints birthday were, Misses Alpha Herboldt, Thelma Flako, Gladys LaBare, Clarice Ritchie, Harriett Patterson, Vera McCune, Clara Lutz, Ruth Gilmer, Mrs. Fern Wells Daugherty, Dorothy Fisher, Lucille Burton, Helen Sand, Francis Sand, Lucie Anderson, Olive Barnard, Mrs. C. T. Hoover, Viola Hoover and Messrs. Wesley Ellis, Leonard Chadwick, Ronald Craven, Clarence Parks, Walter Herboldt, Hubert Ashby, C. T. Hoover, Ray Heckert, Arthur Martin, Francis Lutz, Wayne Ray, Francis Harport, Gordon Barker, Paul Allen, Edgar Daugherty and Ethel Heuser.

About fifteen women motored to Chemawa yesterday afternoon and enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Harwood Hall who had invited the Etokta club members to be her guests for their regular February meeting. Beginning with the domestic science and art departments where punch was served by the students, the women were shown through all of the school buildings.

Later in the afternoon Mrs. Hall invited the group with a few additional guests to her home where she showed her valuable collection of Indian baskets and robes, telling many romantic bits in connection with their use and origin. She also talked of the government work with the Indians and about the school at Chemawa. Tea was served at Mrs. Hall's home by a group of Indian girls. Only a very brief business meeting was held and business matters were postponed until next month when the club will have its session at the home of Mrs. E. E. Fisher.

The girls' glee club of Willamette university will start on its concert tour through Oregon and Washington on February 23, expecting to be gone until the first of March, during which time they will give a concert every evening. Alice Wells of Portland is managing the trip and she has announced the following concert engagements: Newberg, Dallas and Portland, Oregon; Chehalis, Bremerton, Seattle, Kirkland, Klaber, Doty and Raymond, Washington. After a few days rest the club will give its home concert here on March 4. It was formerly planned to tour northern Idaho but the trip was cancelled when it was found time would not permit of such an extended trip.

Mrs. J. N. Skalte was hostess very informally yesterday for a luncheon party celebrating her twin sister's, Mrs. E. T. Hall, and her own birthday anniversaries. Places were set for four at the luncheon, Mrs. F. M. Harding, Mrs. Sophia Keene and Mrs. Skalte and Mrs. Hall.

Mrs. A. N. Moores returned Saturday evening after spending two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Kinney at her home in Astoria. Mr. Moores met Mrs. Moores in Portland Saturday and returned with her.

Mrs. J. M. Lamb of Eugene and her small daughter and son, Barbara Jane and Wilmer are spending a few days here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Barfield.

Renee Chomet, the violinist who plays here Feb. 15th at the First Christian church, is acknowledged to be one of the most beautifully gowned women on the concert stage. Hailing from fashion's home, Paris, one might say "So she ought to be," but taste is not so much of an art with every musician as it is with Mme. Chomet. The beautiful picture she makes before her audiences in, however, unadorned by diamonds or jewelry in any form, with the exception of two plain, rather heavy gold rings. These, oddly enough, she wears on the "wedding" finger while playing.

In reply to an interviewer who questioned their use, she explained that in the course of years she had become so accustomed to them that their weight had become a necessary part of her concert equipment, so to speak. On one of her recent tours in Europe, Mme. lost her rings in the washroom of a train, and the very first thing to be done on arrival at her destination was to find a jeweler's shop and procure two other rings, as nearly as possible the same weight before giving her recital that evening.

Gladys Jensen became the bride of L. Norris Bacon of Forest Grove on Sunday afternoon when at one o'clock, Reverend Millikin of Portland read the marriage service at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Jensen. In the presence of about thirty friends and relatives of the young couple, pink and white carnations and ferns formed a pretty background for the marriage service which was carried out with the utmost simplicity.

Hollis Vick played the wedding march as the couple took their place before the improvised altar of flowers and Mrs. Thompson Kohle sang just preceding the entrance of the couple.

The bride was very simply attired in a dark tulle dress carrying a bouquet of orchids, lilies of the valley and roses. Helene Grier attended the bride and her bouquet was of opelia roses and sweet peas. She wore a dark silk dress. D. L. Griener of Timber, Oregon, acted as best man.

Following the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served and informal reception held. Mr. and Mrs. Bacon will make their home in Forest Grove upon their return from a short wedding trip.

The Queen Esther society of the Leslie Methodist church will meet this evening for a pot luck supper and evening together at the home of Ethel and Ruth Hazelton.

The home missionary society of the Leslie Methodist church is meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Thomas Henderson. This is the regular monthly session.

St. Paul's guild will have a box social tomorrow, Thursday evening at the parish house at six thirty o'clock. Everyone is invited to attend and bring a basket.

The War Mothers will hold a cooked food sale on Saturday at the H. L. Stiff furniture store and they are asking that all war mothers contribute to the sale and help increase the memorial fund.

Gossard Corsets and Brassieres

The Gossard Line of Beauty

We believe that no other garments are so important to a woman as her corsets and brassieres. They, more than anything else, keep the figure youthful. Gossards—which we are pleased to show in a full range of sizes and prices—give the figure the ideal lines of the type to which it belongs. Let us show you.

MILLER'S

Campaign for Y.W.C.A. Has Started

Starting this morning the women of the local Y. W. C. A. will campaign for three days hoping in that time to reach their goal of $5000 toward their 1924 budget. To begin with the association has $1800 in pre-campaign gifts and they feel that they will meet with an equal response in their solicitation. Mrs. Harry Hawkins and Mrs. J. J. Roberts head the committees which will canvass the city.

Many articles at the association rooms are in need of replacement and some of the money will be used perhaps for equipment, but there are many needs and the women hope for good results from the campaign. Many matrons, on the board and membership roll of the association have offered their services for the drive and will make every effort in these next three days to make it a success.

In their rooms at the armory, attractively decorated with hearts and greenery in keeping with the Valentine season, the members of Hal Hibbard auxiliary were hostesses to Hal Hibbard camp and their families Saturday evening. During the evening the following musical numbers were given, piano and saxophone duet by A. F. Adams and daughter, Miss Alice, piano solos by Miss Adaline Seymour and Miss Edna Raymond, two poems "A Toast to the Flag" and "Only a Volunteer" contributed by Mrs. A. F. Adams were read by Mrs. Hewlett, piano solos "Barchetta" and "Dawes Melody" written by Brigadier General Daven were played by Miss Alice Adams a violin and piano duet by E. J. Raymond and daughter, Miss Edna, and a vocal duet by Chas. Lisle and J. R. Carruthers.

Following the program a number of Valentine stunts were enjoyed, after which refreshments were served. Mr. Carruthers of Westport, Alta., who is visiting at the Chas. Lisle home, was a guest. The regular meeting of the auxiliary will be Friday afternoon the 15th, at the home of the president, Mrs. Fred Thompson, 1875 South Commercial street. It is desired that all members attend.

Mrs. H. Hartman, Otto Hartman and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brock Jr., are occupying the Ray Hartman home on north Cottage street while Mr. and Mrs. Hartman are motoring through southern California. Later in the spring they will move into their new home which is under construction on north Sumner street.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Ellis of Portland spent the week end here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Dunsford.

Mrs. H. H. Worth was among the guests at the meeting of the Monday bridge club the past week when Mrs. Guy Irwin entertained at her home in Albany.

Mrs. Martin Fereshetian and Mrs. Casey Moore will be joint hostesses tomorrow, Thursday afternoon at the parsonage 657 Cheneketa street for the meeting of the woman's alliance of the Unitarian church. Mrs. J. M. Devers will read the play "The Gods of the Mountains" for the program hour in the afternoon.

The woman's auxiliary of St. Paul's Episcopal church will hold its regular meeting Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. N. C. Kafoury, 949 Union street.

Mrs. Beulah M. Updegraff entertained very informally Saturday afternoon for the pleasure of her mother, Mrs. Wooton, on her birthday. Seven old friends enjoyed the afternoon together in informal manner.
