MURDERED TO ATONE

father and mother slept, without any thought of violence. He dreamed that he was commanded by voices to kill his father and mother. So vivid and realistic was the dream, he said, that he awoke, went into the adjoining room and fired five shots at his mother and father. J45

Suspected by Parents
Decatur, Ga., Feb. 21—Authorities and friends of the McDowell family who know them while they resided here, today advanced the theory that Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McDowell, shot to death in St. Petersburg, Fla., by their son, Frank, suspected he had started the fire in which his sisters were burned to death on February 19, 1923, and had moved him to Florida in the hope that his mind would be restored to health in a new environment. Young McDowell, according to relatives and neighbors, had been regarded as a "queer" and an infidel. He was a close student of the works of Robert G. Ingersoll. J45

While regarded as peculiar, young McDowell is said to have made an enviable record in the schools he attended. He attended the Decatur high school, the Commercial high school in Atlanta, and Emory University as a freshman. He then went to Washington, D. C., where he attended school. After working a while in the congressional library, he returned to Decatur, where he assisted his father in the publication of the Dekalb New Era, a weekly newspaper. J45

SPECULATION IN OIL
quarters, however, it is inherent to be the view that no inherent wrong can be established from the mere fact of a stock investment by public officials as there is no proof that confidential information was the basis for the chase. Should a public accusation be made, the defense is expected to follow these lines. J45

No Inherent Wrong.
Officials who take this attitude follow the reasoning of Senator Atkins, republican, West Virginia, who said yesterday that although he had bought and sold stock he was conscious of no wrong doing. His trading, he said, "had been on the same basis as that of men engaged in all branches of industry, who depend on fortunate investment to preserve and increase their capital. J45

Nevertheless many republican senators are convinced that the public will not accept such an explanation. J45
