Apollo Club Sings With Althouse

The splendid choral work of the Salem Apollo club, the dramatic singing of Paul Althouse, tenor, accompanying and solo work of Rudolf Gruea, the artistic work of Mrs. Julia Harms in her obligato number with the club, the sympathetic accompanying of Ruth Bedford and last of all of the generalship of Dr. John R. Sites combined last evening to present a program which completely satisfied the crowd of people which filled the armory.

Going from the group of Apollo club numbers to the soloists numbers the audience was kept in a continual maze of artistry. Its only response audible to the singers being the applause which was so enthusiastic at all times that only a prolonged applause could be taken as signifying a special appreciation.

And the artists were liberal in their encores. "Omnipotence" the opening number of the club with Mrs. Julia Harms, dramatic soprano, singing the obligato proved a magnificent number with Mrs. Harms' voice rising clear and sweet above the accompaniment of the well modulated male voices.

Paul Althouse long anticipated stepped out next with a solo group sung in French and with an encore "Drummer Boy." "Just to show that I can sing in English" was his way of explaining the sudden transition. And with his first number he was greeted with the greatest enthusiasm.

"Lovely Night" and "Mighty Lak a Rose," by the club found such favor that the last number was repeated. The diction and interpretative quality of the singing was noticeable throughout the entire program, effects which are difficult to achieve with thirty-four voices.

The dramatic and powerful quality of the next Althouse number, a French aria from La Boheme was majestic. As the artist sang he lived his part and gave a reality and beauty to the number that won instant recognition from the listeners. His encore was "Someone Worth While," Ward Stevens.

With beautiful expression and with sympathetic treatment the club sang, "Forsaken" and a lullaby with the club quartet. The quartet arrangement was particularly lovely and effective. Before speaking of the Greek numbers it might be interesting to know that next year Mr. Gruea plans to go on a concert tour and this in his last season as an accompanist.

He responded to his group which was wonderfully artistic with the Etude Black Key, Chopin, which introduced a very novel departure from the usual numbers. The next club group which included the Tinker song was sung in a lighter strain with the audience responding accordingly.

Instead of singing "Come Not When I Am Dead," Althouse sang by request "The Blind Ploughman," a favorite on last year's program. "On Sunday" was another unique encore which took so well last year.

The club singing "In Vocal Combat" attained perhaps more beauty in their singing than at any other time during the evening. The blending and softness of tone achieved was marvelous. "The Great Awakening" finished the program as sung by Althouse. For last encore he gave, "If I Were a King of Ireland," Fay Foster.

"You Will Forget," and "Song of the Trees" were two outstanding numbers sung by the club, the unity and beauty of them the result of careful direction by Dr. Sites and the untiring work of the club. Too much cannot be said of this organization and of its director whose ability is unquestioned.

Oregon Agricultural College.—Feb. 21.—Ivel Bailey, daughter of Mrs. Della Smallwood of Salem, announced her engagement to Joseph Wilcox of Los Angeles, Cal., at the Delta Zeta house. Miss Bailey is a sophomore in home economics. Mr. Wilcox is a junior in agriculture, a member of Delta Phi Sigma and Alpha Zeta honorary fraternity.

Guy O. Smith returned yesterday morning from San Francisco after making a brief business trip. He left here Saturday evening for California.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Stafford were hosts last evening for the members of the B. E. club, five hundred being the diversion of the evening. The club colors, red green and white were used in the decorations of the rooms where cards were enjoyed. Mrs. Orin Watkins and Daisy Cochran assisted the hostess when later she served a lunch to her guests.

High score was won by Mrs. F. E. Turner and Charles Shaw. Low score went to Dr. O. L. Scott and Mrs. Edward Pandrich. Members who were present for the party were, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keene, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Spang, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Turner, Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Davies, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Stafford. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pandrich and Mrs. G. H. Taylor. In two weeks the club will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Shaw.

The coming of the Chicago Grand opera company to Portland beginning March 19 will perform songs lasting three days of interest to music lovers throughout the entire state. In Salem there are many people who plan to motor to Portland for one or several of the operas. Mrs. Donald Spencer of Portland was in Salem yesterday and in talking of the opera learned of a number of Salem folks who plan to attend.

Among those who have reserved seats for the opera performances are, Mr. and Mrs. William Burghardt, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. David W. Eyre, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hofer, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thelmsen, Mrs. Sanford, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Blehous, Professor and Mrs. E. W. Hohnson. This is a very incomplete list because many others are planning to motor to Portland to participate in this three days of music which will surpass anything Portland has had heretofore.

Mrs. J. M. Poorman and Mrs. E. G. Emmett of Woodburn motored to Salem yesterday for the Healy-De Jardin wedding.

Members of the young married people's club of the First Presbyterian church met Tuesday evening in the church parlors for a six thirty pot luck supper and social evening. About fifty guests enjoyed the evening program for which was called "For the Better or Worse." A talk on the better and one on the worse created a great deal of merriment. Musical numbers were given by H. B. Glaisyer and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott.

Members of the committee who had charge of the entertainment were Mrs. Glen Adams, Mrs. Robert Scott, Mrs. Roy Barker, Mrs. Francis Wilson, Mrs. Charles Sigmund and Mrs. C. E. Crandall.

Mrs. C. W. Kent and Helen Kent of Portland motored to Salem yesterday and were guests for the Healy-De Jardin wedding. While here they visited with other friends.

H. Sutherland, a banker of Alberta, Canada, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. Woodruff for a few days. Mr. Sutherland is an old friend of the Woodruff family.

A benefit dinner is being planned by the Y. W. C. A. for the last week in this month when an effort will be made to raise money to help rebuild the Y. W. building in Japan destroyed by the recent earthquake. The date has not been set as yet but plans are partially formulated.

The membership list of the Y. W. C. A. was examined at the meeting of the membership committee Tuesday evening at the association room and plans were made for the personal canvass to be made during the next month or so in an effort to sign members on the new cards. With no dues required the prospective member has only to sign a card signifying the activity preferred and faith in the work of the organization.

The young people are going to celebrate Washington's birthday in the tabernacle on Ferry street Friday afternoon and evening. They are expecting a goodly number of out of town friends from Hood River, Portland, Newberg, Silverton, Dallas, Albany and Brownsville. There will be a good string of orchestra and plenty of singing. The speakers are all out of town men, Rev. Stieglitz, Dr. Webber, Rev. J. Crook, J. Kirk. The meetings are open to all.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Roberts will be hosts this evening to the members of the Thursday evening bridge club.

Army Nurse Saw Two Presidents Die.

Ruth Powderly, U.S. Army nurse.

Miss Ruth Powderly, U.S. Army nurse, was in constant attendance upon Warren G. Harding when he died in San Francisco. Later returned to Washington, she was summoned to the bedside of Woodrow Wilson and constantly ministered to him until death ended his struggles. She also nursed Mrs. Harding on the occasion of her nearly fatal illness, and was a member of the Harding party in Alaska.

One of the most attractive of the week's events was the fourteen place luncheon Tuesday for which Mrs. George Waters was hostess in compliment to her house guest Mrs. Alice Crane of Portland. Mrs. Crane is a former Salem resident and the guests numbered her old friends. Spring flowers in effective arrangement centered the daintily appointed table around which the guests were seated.

Matrons who enjoyed the affair and later a few hours of visiting were Mrs. Alice Crane, Mrs. J. D. McCully and Eula McCully of Hood River, Mrs. A. N. Gilbert, Mrs. E. E. Waters, Mrs. William Mullen, Mrs. E. Cooke Patton, Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Miss Florence McKinney, Mrs. E. Hofer, Mrs. Eugenia Gillingham, Miss Nellie Taylor and the hostess.

With covers laid for seventeen, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Wain were hosts Tuesday evening for the members of the Cherry City club and Mrs. Kitty Graver for a dinner party and later evening of cards. Four tables of five hundred were arranged for the evening and after a few hours of play honors went to Robert Downing and Mrs. Ed Hartley. Red carnations and pussy willows were used as a centerpiece for the dinner table. The club will meet again during March.

Mrs. Alice Crane of Portland will be the house guest for the next two weeks of Mrs. George Waters. Her many friends here are planning a number of very informal affairs in her honor, and she will be given an opportunity to meet her old friends.

Mrs. J. D. McCully and her daughter, Eula McCully of Hood River returned to Portland today after spending several days here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Cooke Patton and Mr. and Mrs. Hal D. Patton. The McCullys arrived here Sunday evening for their visit.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Fry, Sr., and Mrs. Kittle Graver left yesterday morning for San Francisco, California, where the Fry expect to remain for about three weeks. Mrs. Graver after spending two or three days in San Francisco will leave for Pennsylvania where she expects to visit for about two months before returning here. Mrs. Raymond Walsh and her two children, Priscilla and Raymond, Jr., of Eugene will be at the Fry home during their absence.

About sixty members of the Marion Lawrence class of the First Presbyterian church enjoyed Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. B. E. Carrier. After a short class session readings by Lloyd Waltz were enjoyed and latter piano numbers played by Lucille Crockett. Assisting the hostess later in serving refreshments were Mrs. U. G. Boyer, Mrs. C. F. Wilson and Mrs. James Sykes. The next meeting will be held in March.

Business Women Have Big Banquet

With about sixty members in attendance the Salem Business and Professional women's club met last evening for a chicken supper at the chamber of commerce rooms and a short business session following. In charge of the banquet plans were Mrs. S. H. Isherwood, Mrs. J. H. Brewer and Miss A. E. Lyons. A number of guests were also entertained.

Hostesses for the evening were Jane Philpot, who took Dr. Mary Purvine's place, Miss Ellen Hobson, Julia K. Webster and Mrs. Ella Schulz Wilson. Reports from the different committees were heard and the Stuart Walker play committee reported a very satisfactory settlement with the company. Many of the members attended the Apollo club concert and so the meeting was shortened for that purpose.

At the next meeting in March a play will be given by members who work in the state house. There will be no dinner.

Mrs. E. A. Young of Albany and her father, Vessie Wilkins of South Dakota are the guests today of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Adams. They motored here from Albany last evening planning to remain over today.

Mrs. B. O. Schucking was hostess this noon for a charming luncheon party given in honor of Mrs. Alice Crane, the house guest of Mrs. George Waters.

At the Page ranch near Chomawa Saturday evening one of the most attractive of Valentine parties was given with Addison Page and Maybelle Page hosts. The house was decorated with Oregon spruce and spring flowers and pussy willows and formed a pretty background for the three tables of five hundred arranged in the living room.

Mrs. William Harpole won the card prize and Mrs. Fannie Neckerman took the consolation prize. The guests for the evening were, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Brotherton, Mr. and Mrs. William Harpole, Mrs. Fannie Neckerman, Louise Werner, Charlotte Werner, Joseph Dorn, Lester Harpole, Lafayette Harpole, and the hosts.

A jolly dancing party was the Tuesday evening given by the Tilicum members at the Darby hall. In the form of a masquerade party, merriment ran high during the evening and an unusually good time was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Spencer of Portland were in Salem yesterday for a short time transacting business and visiting with friends.

Teams on the Y. W. C. A. drive are still working and will continue throughout the week in the hopes of reaching the $5000 goal by the end of the week. A more vigorous drive was carried out last week with the women now working at odd times.

The Thursday bridge club will meet next week with Mrs. John R. Sites as the hostess entertaining with a luncheon and afternoon of cards.

CLINE WINS OVER KRACHE

Portland, Or., Feb. 21.—Gene Cline of Oakland won a ten-round decision over Ted Krache of Hoquiam, Wash., here last night. The Oakland boy kept a straight left in Krache's face throughout the fight, making the husky logger mumber regularly.

Though Cline was able to reach Krache with ease, his punches seemed to lack power. In the closing rounds Krache tried to break through the Oaklander's defense, and he almost succeeded, knocking Cline half way through the ropes in the eighth. Krache had an edge in the final rounds, but the California had built up a big lead in the early rounds.

Approximately 50 aspirants to the Salem high school track team turned out yesterday afternoon in response to the first call issued by the coach, Arlos Hayes, ex-Stanford star, who lives on a farm near Salem. Hayes is putting himself in shape for the Olympic tryouts and will workout with the members of the squad. There are no lettersmen available this year as they were lost through graduation.

COOLIDGE URGED TO ALLOW POLAR FLIGHT

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 21.—A resolution calling upon the Washington state delegation in congress to request President Coolidge to rescind his previous action and give immediate orders to the advance expedition for the North pole flight of the dirigible Shenandoah has been prepared for forwarding to the national capital by the Alaska committee of the Seattle chamber of commerce.

This Pretty Girl Defies Age By Using Ordinary Buttermilk To Beautify Her Complexion

Tells Druggists not to take anyone's money unless this delightful new vanishing cream quickly shows a decided improvement.
Buttermilk Cream creates beauty almost like magic. The most wonderful thing about it is the fact that whilst it turns the dull, most lifeless complexion to radiant beauty and makes red or rough hands or arms snowy white, yet there is not the slightest sign of its use after application. It actually vanishes from sight and the most heated atmosphere will not produce the least shininess or greasiness of the skin.
No matter whether you are troubled with a poor complexion, wrinkles, puffiness around the eyes, freckles, crows feet or lines around the mouth, ugly finger nails, or just a simple roughness of the face, hands or arms caused by wind or sun, you will find that any or all of these troubles will quickly disappear with the use of Howard's Buttermilk Cream.
To prove this to your complete satisfaction, get a small quantity today at your favorite toilet goods counter with the understanding that they will freely return the purchase money to any dissatisfied user.
Beautiful actresses say, "A short massage with Howard's Buttermilk Cream at night before retiring is all that is necessary."
