When Jackie is home in Los Angeles, or at the studio in Hollywood, not a day goes by without his receiving visitors from all over the world. Sometimes it is a notable individual like Admiral Eberle, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, or Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr.; or again, it is some other famous child like Heywood Brown III; and at still other times it is a group like the crew of H. M. S. Curlew, on their world tour. Everyone who comes to Los Angeles tries to see Jackie, just as every visitor to Rome tries to see the pope, and every visitor to London hopes to be presented at court. Beyond any doubt, he is the Prince of Filmdom.

When Jackie travels, the communities he visits take the lead to their hearts. Without the formality of "the keys to the city," the entire town is turned over to the starlet. Crowds attend him and proclaim him everywhere, and every notable in the city "visits" with the young screen royalty.

It is not only in the United States but also in Europe, and, in fact, all over the world, that Jackie Coogan is hailed as the supreme artist of his time. Pick up the film publications of England, of France, of Germany, of Czechoslovakia, of Japan, or Australia, and you will find news and reviews on Jackie everywhere.

In a recent dissertation on European-American relations, Emil Lengyel, a noted statistician and political authority in Hungary, said: "Jackie Coogan is at present the talk of central and eastern Europe. The newspapers there are using columns and columns of their space in praise of the little American."

Select the style you prefer but be sure it is a Victrola

That Victrola Instruments and Victor Records are the world's finest products of their kind is universally admitted. Such things don't just happen—they are achieved. In our case contributing factors are more than twenty-five years of effort concentrated on a single purpose, enthusiastic cooperation of the greatest artists and unequalled facilities for complete manufacture in the largest plant ever devoted to the production of one musical product.

Victrola Instruments are better—Victor Records are better—used together they are beyond comparison.

Out tomorrow New Victor Records

Red Seal Records

The Bard of Armagh John McCormack 983 $1.50
Would God I Were the Tender Apple Blossom John McCormack

McCormack has never sung anything, perhaps, more tenderly, nor with a purer, fresher voice. McCormack and Victor Records both at their best.

Etude in A Minor Ignace Jan Paderewski 6438 2.00
Etude de Concert (in F Minor) Ignace Jan Paderewski

Chopin, Liszt, Paderewski—three great names of piano music on one record. Four great names—include Victor. These records are masterpieces in the art of recording.

Melodious Instrumental

Come Back to Erin Alberto Salvi 45391 1.00
Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms Alberto Salvi

Two Irish melodies by this great master of the harp. Years will not exhaust their charm, nor the beauty of this record.

Light Vocal Selections

A Roundup Lullaby Royal Dadmun 45387 1.00
Rounded Up in Glory Royal Dadmun

Two baritone songs taking inspiration from Western cowboy life, the second being a favorite with cowboy evangelists—and this record will likely prove one of your favorites.

Call Me Back Again Peerless Quartet 19228 .75
Norine Maureen Peerless Quartet

Heart-songs, for men's voices with the orchestra. Irish melody in one, and Irish metre in the word-rhythm of the other. Just issued in time for St. Patrick's Day!

Daddy's Wonderful Pal Henry Burr 19268 .75
Days of Yesterday Elliott Shaw

Songs of sentiment in the popular manner, one for tenor, one for baritone. Hard to tell which side of this record you'll like the better.

It Looks Like Rain Wendell Hall 19270 .75
Comfortin' Gal Wendell Hall

Though Wendell Hall once sang "It ain't gonna rain no mo'," he now sings "It looks like rain." If you have the first record, you'll also want this one.

Dance Records

Why Did I Kiss That Girl?—Fox Trot Paul Whiteman 19267 .75
California, Here I Come—Fox Trot and His Orch.

Two excellent fox trots. You know Whiteman's playing and Victor recording—nothing more need be said.

Mindin' My Business—Fox Trot The Virginians 19269 .75
I've Got a Cross-Eyed Papa—Fox Trot The Virginians

Lively jazz numbers The Virginians evidently find to their liking—and dancers will find this record to their liking.

My Partner's Fancy—Medley of Irish Reels John J. Kimmel 19271 .75
The Maid on the Green—Medley of Irish Jigs

"A Drink of Water" Irish Jigs Patrick J. Touhey
St. Patrick's Day dances by two masters of their respective instruments—Kimmel on the accordion, Touhey on the Irish (not the Scotch) bagpipes. Good variety—and good dancing.

Victrola No. 100 $150 Mahogany, oak or walnut

Victrola No. 260 $150 Mahogany or walnut

Victrola No. 405 Walnut, $250; electric, $290

There is but one Victrola and that is made by the Victor Company—look for these Victor trademarks.
