Five New Clubs Join Civic League

With the addition of representatives from five new women's clubs, the Civic League, Macabea, W. C. T. U., Degree of Honor and Spanish War Veterans is celebrating the anniversary of its organization. Approximately 1500 women are back of the Civic League and will assist in the work of that organization. Organized recently the club met for its second session last evening at the chamber of commerce with Mrs. Richard Cartwright president, presiding. The club includes as members representatives from women's clubs of the city.

A general discussion of the city auto park occupied most of the time with committee reports. The consensus of opinion seemed to be that the native wildness of the place should be preserved in order to give added distinction to the beauty of the place. The committee on beautification of the city especially emphasized this point and received the hearty support of members. In bringing the camp up to standard the women urge the construction of a rest room and the planting of wild shrubs.

John F. Mattes and daughters, Melina and Bernice from Decatur, Ill., who have spent several weeks in California, are in the city visiting their relatives, Rev. and Mrs. G. S. Roeder pastor of the Center street M. E. church. After visiting other relatives in Spokane, they will go to Seattle, returning home via the Canadian Pacific. Mr. Mattes is president of the Decatur Brick company and a health commissioner of the city of Decatur.

Mrs. M. C. Pettys was a charming one o'clock luncheon hostess today entertaining for the pleasure of three visitors here, Mrs. George Gale of Minneapolis and her two daughters, Mrs. Charles Burdick of St. Johns, Michigan, and Dr. Minnie Gale John of Sacramento, California. Places were set for eight at the attractively appointed table where daffodils formed the centerpiece. In addition to the honor guests the matrons were, Mrs. O. A. Noyes, Mrs. J. J. Hoffman, Mrs. Carrie Buyn and Mrs. Mildred Nash.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Griffith motored to Portland and spent Wednesday.

Surprising Mr. and Mrs. Allen Frazer who leave soon to make their home in McMinnville a group of friends and members of the Sweet Sixteen club gathered at the Joe O'Shea home Tuesday evening to play five hundred. High score honors went to Mrs. Frazer. As well as cards music and dancing were enjoyed until a late hour when the hostess served a lunch.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Allen Frazer, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Rookstool, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Burrows, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Blaisdell, Mr. and Mrs. Roy McCallum, Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. Joe O'Shea.

For the meeting of the Mandarin Mah Jongg club Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Griffith were hosts, three tables of the game being in play with Richard Slater taking high honors. Just members enjoyed the evening and in two weeks they have been invited to meet as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Pope.

Mrs. George White and her two daughters, Henrietta and Dorothy motored to Portland yesterday and in the afternoon attended the grand opera performance of Salem, returning in the evening.

All of the elected delegates from Chemeketa chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution left here this morning for Eugene where they will attend the eleventh annual convention of the state D. A. R. planning to remain for the entire session which will continue until Saturday afternoon.

This afternoon registration is in order with a rousing meeting this evening at the First Methodist church in Eugene. Miss Anne Lane state regent, and Miss Hermina Schwed will be the principal speakers. Mrs. E. E. DeCou regent of the Eugene Lewis Clarke chapter will greet the visitors and members of the convention.

In addition to the elected delegates three alternates Mrs. David Looney, Mrs. B. L. Steeves and Mrs. Ed Jory will attend. Mrs. La Moine R. Clarke, vice regent of the chapter will go to Eugene Friday for the last of the sessions. The delegates who left here this morning by motor are Mrs. Elmo White, Mrs. H. T. Love, Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. R. J. Vallion, Mrs. Harry Styles, Mrs. W. H. Byrd, Miss Lillian Applegate, Miss Frances Richards.

Because of illness Mrs. O. C. Locke postponed the meeting of the Nemo five hundred club which was to have met this evening at her invitation.

Bringing Up Father
Of all the family, father is apt to be the most careless of a cough or cold, and it is the duty of mother or the girls to see that he takes Foley's Honey and Tar Compound at the first sign of a cough, cold or hoarseness. After he once tries it, finds out how effective and pleasant it is to take, he will not hesitate to use it always. Contains no opiates. Safe and sure. Has served three generations.—Adv.

Formulation of plans for music week in Salem which will follow Easter Sunday and continue for a week was of most importance at the meeting of the Salem Music Teacher's association Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Elma Weiler. Mrs. Harry Styles as president of the association presided at the business meeting.

Because of the conflict of dates between music week and the various social meetings to be held here some plans of necessity will be curtailed, however a number of recitals will be given and musical programs will be given at the different state institutions. Committees have been appointed and work is progressing on the plans for the week, which is annually observed here.

Nine tables of five hundred were in play Tuesday afternoon when matrons of Chadwick chapter of the order of the Eastern Star met for a social afternoon together. Mrs. Harry Crawford was the card honors for the games. Spring flowers were used in decorating the reception rooms and a very pleasant afternoon was enjoyed. The committee acting as hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. W. P. Babcock, Mrs. H. J. Bean, Miss Mattie Beatty, Mrs. William Gahedorf, Mrs. George Arbuckle and Mrs. Lou A. Grote.

Upon their return from a wedding trip to Lake Lyle, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Goodin, Jr., (Betty Cowden) will make their home at 1639 Court street. The marriage service was read Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. R. B. Goodin, the bride coming from Denver, Colorado. Rev. Ward Willis Long officiated with only immediate relatives of the young couple witnessing the ceremony. A wedding dinner was served after the ceremony. Mr. Goodin is traveling salesman for the Associated Oil company.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Green have been hosts for a series of most delightful parties during the past week and more. Beginning last Thursday evening with a dinner party for ten the Greens entertained again on Friday and Sunday evenings for members of the public service commission and their wives. Friday evening five hundred was the diversion with card honors going to Mrs. Herbert Hauser and Ben Forbee.

Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Green were hosts for a second dinner party with covers laid for eleven. In honor of the birthday of E. M. Hoffman another dinner was given on Monday evening with covers laid for eighteen.

MAKES FAT PEOPLE SLIM

New York Physician Perfects Harmless Method of Reducing Weight

The loss of as much as a pound of excess fat a day with no harmful results is the record made by many patients of Dr. R. Newman, a licensed practicing physician of 286 Fifth Avenue, New York, who announces that he has perfected a treatment which has quickly rid fat people of excess weight. What is more remarkable is the doctor's statement that he has successfully treated thousands of patients for fat reduction without change of diet or unnecessary exercise. It is also said that fat people who suffer from chronic rheumatism, gout, asthma and high blood pressure obtain great relief from the reduction of their superfluous flesh. Realizing that this sounds almost too good to be true, the doctor has offered to send without charge to anyone who will write him, a free trial treatment to prove his claims, as well as his "Pay-when-reduced" plan. If you want to rid yourself of superfluous fat, write him today, addressing Dr. R. Newman, 286 Fifth Avenue, New York City, Dept. R.—Adv.

Over one hundred women participated in the founder's day meeting at the First Methodist church parlors yesterday afternoon when members of the foreign missionary society were hostesses. By means of a short skit the original society meeting of fifty five years ago was reenacted, the characters in the play wearing the bonnets, and shawls of years past.

The small group of women who originated the idea of such a society met first at the home of Mrs. Flanders as played by Mrs. John L. Brady and later at the Tremont church where they heard the pleas of two missionaries, Mrs. Butler, Mrs. M. P. Paroungian and Mrs. Lols Parker, Mrs. M. C. Findley. The other members of the group were Mrs. F. B. Southwick as Mrs. Stoddard; Mrs. Gulekunt, Mrs. Merlin; Mrs. Catherine Brown as Mrs. Taylor; Mrs. R. V. Hollenberg as Mrs. Kingsbury; Mrs. Laura Adams, Mrs. Rich. Dr. Kirkpatrick took the part of Mr. Flanders and earlier in the meeting led the devotion. Mrs. Kirkpatrick represented the spirit of the mother auxiliary.

Musical numbers were furnished by the Kimball glee club and Mrs. Jeannie Corskie who played a violin number accompanied by Eloise Reed. "Isabelle's Dream of the World's Children," was presented in pageant form by members of the Senior King's Herald society under the direction of the leader Mrs. A. A. Lee and Mrs. George Gutekunst. Louise Kaufman took the main role.

At the tea hour four small tables were arranged carrying out a color scheme of yellow and violet. Matrons who presided at the tea tables were Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Mrs. Blaine Kirkpatrick, Mrs. H. F. Shank and Mrs. U. G. Boyer. Mrs. Ronald Glover was chairman of the social committee.

Mrs. William Bell was hostess at one o'clock today for a charming twenty five place luncheon in the main dining room of the Gray Belle complimenting Mrs. George Baker of Portland who is a guest in the city for a few days. Spring flowers centered the table where the guests were seated. Later in the afternoon some of the matrons and maids spent the time informally at the Bell home.

Mrs. William Walton is hostess today in the Peacock room of the Gray Belle.

Mrs. Donald Young is spending the week in Portland visiting as the guest of relatives and friends.
