NORMAL SCHOOL NINE STARTS PRACTICING

Monmouth, Or., March 21.—Spring baseball practice was begun this week. Enough men turned out so that two teams were assured. The first team is to be supplied with new uniforms this year. It is expected that a good showing will be made by the normal team this year as more material is available to choose from than formerly. Those who make the first team will have to work hard for their places.

SOCIAL WORKER TALKS ON IMMIGRATION HERE

Woodburn, Or., March 21.—A study of the immigration question and a description by Mrs. R. W. Achor of her many visits to Hull house in Chicago were of chief interest at the meeting of the woman's aid society of the First Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Achor studied at the Moody Bible institute and during that time visited among the immigrants studying conditions. Mrs. J. H. Mack was hostess for the meeting of the eighteen women and later served a lunch with the assistance of her daughter, Mrs. Esther Moon. The budget system of handling finances was discussed during the business session.

PRESIDENT KERR SPEAKER

Woodburn, Or., March 21.—President W. J. Kerr, of the Oregon Agricultural college, was the main speaker for a special assembly at the high school early this afternoon. President Kerr touched on the problems of higher education. He will speak this evening at the O. A. C. club banquet.

PAST MATRONS ENTERTAIN

Woodburn, Or., March 21.—The past matrons club was hostess the first of the week for a social afternoon inviting the eight members of the Gervais past matrons club as special guests. The women who attended from Gervais were Mrs. M. D. Henning, Mrs. Sam Brown, Mrs. Booster, Miss Stevens and Mrs. James Imhah. Sixteen women enjoyed the afternoon which was entirely social after a short business session at which Mrs. E. E. Settlemeier presided. Lunch was served later in the afternoon in the Masonic temple rooms where the meeting was held.

$500 SOUGHT TO FINANCE FAIR

Dallas, Or., March 21.—An executive committee to have charge of raising $500 by April 15 if the Polk county fair is to be held this year was named Thursday by N. L. Guy, president of the fair association. W. V. Fuller of Dallas heads the body. Other members are W. L. Soehren and D. J. Howe of Dallas, C. W. Irvin of Independence and H. J. Elliott of Perrydale.

In case the committee is successful in securing the necessary support it will also have charge of the preparations for the fair. A report is expected from them in less than a week.
