Vivid tales of missionary life in India as she found it, will be told this evening at the regular meeting of the Auburn Missionary society to be held at the Auburn schoolhouse, by Mrs. C. E. Powell, wife of Dr. C. E. Powell, of the Kimball school of Theology. Mr. and Mrs. Powell spent a number of years in missionary work in India and were forced to return to America on account of Mrs. Powell's health. Following the address by Mrs. Powell, refreshments will be served.

A great time was enjoyed together last evening by Salem and Corvallis Elks at a big meeting held here. A number of acts of vaudeville followed by several wrestling events were on the program. The names of a number of candidates for membership were read at the short business meeting. Following the program and meeting, a Johnny Jones banquet was served.

Although it has been impossible to make a complete check, all indications are that the concert given by the Women's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. at the First Methodist church last Wednesday evening, will net the organization about $125. Mrs. John Harbison was chairman of the committee which was in charge of the concert.

Robert Aspinwall, who lives near Brooks, was in Salem this morning on combined pleasure and business.

Although there is a considerable number of calls for help being received at the Government free employment bureau, operated in connection with the Y. M. C. A., there is still a large oversupply of help, according to Sim Phillips, who is in charge. Mr. Phillips expects to see the pendulum swinging more evenly within the next couple of weeks. Lack of work in and about Salem in the loganberry fields has cut down the calls for help considerably, Mr. Phillips says.

Coach Hayes is giving his high school track team hard practices now on each day which the weather permits. Tryouts will be completed in the near future after which Hayes will be able to devote his time to more individual coaching.

The Canadian Union Jack and the American Stars and Stripes will hang side by side hereafter at the weekly luncheons of the Kiwanis club here, indicating the brotherhood existing between the organizations in the two nations. N. D. Elliott, secretary, yesterday received two large beautiful silk flags, one the Stars and Stripes and the other the Union Jack. Many times the local club has Canadian visitors and it is usually their question why there is no Union Jack shown.

A number of Salem dog fanciers are making plans to attend the dog show to be held in Portland March 26-28 inclusive. The show this year will have in it about 400 of the barkers. Included, for the first time, will be a creditable number from California.

"Lincoln—His Life and Achievements in the Cause of Liberty," is to be the subject of an address to be given this evening at the Mt. Angel College by Judge Peter H. D'Arcy. During the past few weeks, Mr. D'Arcy has delivered this same address before several organizations.

Dr. and Mrs. Carl Miller motored to Albany yesterday where Dr. Miller attended the weekly luncheon of the Kiwanis club. Due to illness, Dr. Miller was unable to attend the Kiwanis luncheon here last Tuesday and the trip to Albany was made to make good his record here.

The Rev. Mrs. Mina C. Budlong, field secretary for the woman's alliance of the Unitarian church, is to speak at the meeting of the organization this afternoon to be held at the home of Mrs. Roy Burton. Rev. Mrs. Budlong, who is making her annual tour of the United States and Canada, is on her way back to Boston.

The regular meeting of the D. A. R. is to be held tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. N. D. Looney, about nine miles south of Salem on the Jefferson road. While as many of the women as possible will be taken in automobiles, it is likely that some will have to go on the one o'clock stage, which upon notice to the driver will stop in front of the Looney place.

Ivan G. Martin today filed in circuit court affidavits relative to exhibits missing in the case of Elizabeth Watt, on appeal to the supreme court, and which that court ordered produced by mandate sent to the circuit court. Martin in his affidavit sets out that he has ransacked his files for the letters but cannot find them; that they were not of considerable consequence and sets out copies of them as nearly as possible. The letters in question were sent by Martin to Mrs. Watt and had to do with the matter of a small loan Mrs. Watt wished to make out of her resources.

The date of receiving bids at the post office for the transportation of mail to and from the post office and all Southern Pacific mail trains, closes this evening after which all will be sent to Washington, D. C., where they will be opened. L. P. Bennett is carrying the mail at present. The contract calls for conveying the mail to and from the trains in a closed conveyance with either screens or curtains to protect it.

Plans for the new Parrish junior high school, to be erected on north Capitol street, were received here today and are being held at the office of W. H. Burghardt, school board secretary, where contractors may examine them. W. C. Knighton of Portland, the architect, is also keeping several copies of the plans in his office for use of contractors calling there. Bids are being advertised for at the present time and will be opened on April 2. It is estimated that the building will cost in the neighborhood of $225,000.

Fair weather with killing frosts is the forecast for tonight and Saturday. Northerly winds are also prophesied and is a rather safe guess that a continuation of the same kind of weather will be on the boards for Saturday night and Sunday. Although the days of the week for the past few weeks have been rather disagreeable, Sundays have usually been rather nice.

SERVE COUNTRY ADVISES ELIOT

Cambridge, Mass., Mar. 21.—Service to country, joy in work and early marriage were enjoined on Harvard under graduates by President Emeritus Charles W. Eliot in an address which closed the public tribute to the aged educator in honor of his 90th birthday yesterday.

"Serve the country," he said, "serve her in peace as well as in war, serve her by sacrificing money, for example, high professional earnings, in order to take public office, elective or appointive office. Use the opportunity of selecting studies which you have at Harvard to find out why you are here in what work, in what profession you can find joy in your work.

"Do not put off marriage too much. Do not wait until you think you can offer the girl you want to marry all the luxuries and privileges to which her father's home she was accustomed. When you have made up your mind give the girl a chance to tell you hers."

HALL AND DENNIS FILE FOR REELECTION

Charles Hall of Marshfield and Bruce Dennis of La Grande today filed with the secretary of state their declarations as candidates for the Republican nomination to succeed themselves in the state senate. Senator Hall is from the eighth senatorial district, comprising Coos county, and Senator Dennis the 21st district, comprising Union and Wallowa counties. Both are Republicans. Hall's platform simply states that he will serve to the best of his ability, and Dennis' slogan after his name on the ballot will promise a "square deal to every individual and every industry."

C. R. Chapin filed his statement as a candidate for the Republican nomination for district attorney of Tillamook county. In his platform he lays special emphasis on a promise of enforcement of the prohibition laws.

TILDEN THREATENS TO QUIT TENNIS PLAYING

Brookline, Mass., March 21.—Positive declaration that 1924 would be his last year as a tennis player unless the ruling against writing for newspapers should be revoked, was made last night by William T. Tilden, here to take part in the national indoor mixed doubles tournament.

Tilden said he would play with the Davis cup team this year, but owing to the rule against writers being enforced by the Olympic committee, he was ineligible to compete in the Olympic games for America.

ARIZONA IGNORED IN COLUMBIA RIVER DEAL

Phoenix, Ariz., March 21.—Charging that California "lobbyists" and representatives, "as well as power trust officials seem to consider Arizona's interests in the Colorado river as unworthy of consideration" in hearings before the house committee on arid lands, were made in a telegram sent by Governor Hunt of Arizona today to Chairman Addison T. Smith of the committee.

GLOBE PLANES FITTED FOR SEA

Seattle, Wash., March 21.—Under a cloudless sky and with the temperature 50 degrees above zero and gentle breezes moving, Major Frederick L. Martin and seven men who are to go with him from here April 1, were busy today fitting four airplanes of the United States army to rest on the ocean whenever they leave the land on a flight around the world they have barely begun.

At Sand Point aviation field, north of the city, where the four machines landed yesterday after their initial hop off Monday at Los Angeles, the giant Douglas cruisers were taxied down to a dock on Lake Washington.

GROGER CLEARED IN MURDER CASE

Seattle, Wash., March 21.—John Groger, 17, farm boy of the Kittitas valley, eastern Washington, was free today of a first degree murder charge with the admonition fresh in his mind to "go back to Ellensburg, stay there and keep off freight trains."

Deputy sheriffs who arrested Groger after Frank Tilley, pool room man at Kent, Washington, was fatally shot on resisting a holdup March 8 told Justice C. C. Dalton here yesterday when the lad was given a preliminary hearing, that they believed fear from a mob had induced Groger to make a purported confession.

Witnesses before the court said that Groger was in Ellensburg at the time of the shooting. It was added that the youthful prisoner had gotten off a freight train at Auburn, near Kent, March 9, just before he was arrested.

Miss Lena Michelson for seven years has served as wireless operator on a big tank steamer of which her father is captain.

EXPECT SPEEDY BOYS SCHOOL SITE SELECTION

Selection of a site for the new boys' training school will either be made at the next regular or special meeting of the state board of control, or will resolve itself into another protracted period of investigation and parley, in the opinions of some of those who are supposed to be closely in touch with the situation.

On the one hand they look upon the statement of Governor Pierce that the selection of a site is to be made within the very near future as indicating that there is a very definite understanding between the governor and Jefferson Myers, new state treasurer, as regards this matter, and that Myers is to go down the line with the governor for the West site, east of town, and thereby break the triangular deadlock that existed between Pierce, Sam Kozer and Mr. Hoff for months prior to the latter's death.

There are others, however, who say they know Mr. Myers too well to believe that he is going to allow the governor or anyone else to do his thinking in matters pertaining to the expenditure of state funds, and they look for the new treasurer to demand time in which to acquaint himself with the details of the negotiations that have already been made and investigate the various site available.

Another rumor which is gaining considerable circulation in state house circles is that Mr. Myers is going to ask to be shown quite clearly just why the present site cannot be used for the new school, thereby saving the state from $50,000 to $60,000.

In the meantime, the new treasurer is keeping his own counsel.

OIL PROBERS CHALLENGED

"And as far as the legislative adjudication can be effective, you have legislated the leases to be void and have legislatively imposed an injunction with regard to the property.

"You have established a policy of the government on this subject; and anything you claim would be only a detail which would not warrant the further examination of my client in this matter.

Policy Determined

"You not only say that the leases were void but the language you use is very broad and the policy you have established is very definite. You have declared the policy of this government is that the oil should be maintained in the ground as a great reserve supply to meet a national emergency. You have thus discharged all the duties placed in your hands.

"What is it your committee is investigating that entitles it to take my client, who has been here time and again with his books and papers and say 'you must testify further?'"

"Have you any jurisdiction which entitles you to do so under the standards and precedents of the American government?"

The right of congressional committees to call witnesses and papers from all over the country to aid in framing legislation, the attorney argued, never had been sustained by the courts.

Deny Senate Rights

"Has it ever been denied?" asked Senator Walsh.

"No, but it has been questioned," was the reply.

There was a long colloquy between Littleton and senators as to the right of congressional committees to summon witnesses. Sinclair's counsel contended that the committee was without power.

There was an argument among senators as to whether the committee should decide the questions raised in public or private.

Senator Spencer, republican, Missouri, suggested an adjournment to study the matter, but Senator Walsh declared it unnecessary.

Senator Bursum, republican, New Mexico, said he believed the committee "should proceed with the examination." Senators Kendrick, democrat, Wyoming and Cameron, Arizona, said they wanted time to consider it. Chairman Ladd declared he favored bringing the witness before the committee.

Senator Walsh said he wanted to give Sinclair every right that he would have in a court but he did not think the question of "fairness so eloquently presented to us," carried any weight.

The committee adjourned without deciding whether Sinclair should be questioned.

His wife, Mrs. Rita Stanton, is the private prosecutor who will hail into the Salem justice court J. H. Stanton, whom she has charged with non-support. Two small children, she says, should be supported by him. Mrs. Stanton lives at 194 south Cottage street. The complaint was filed yesterday evening. Mr. Stanton has not yet been taken into custody.

SENATORS PLAY KELSO IN FIRST SEASON GAMES

The 1924 baseball season in Salem will be officially opened Saturday and Sunday, April 12 and 13, with the Senators and the strong Kelso, Wash., team crossing bats, according to present plans "Biddie" Bishop, manager of the local club, announced this morning.

While the dates with Kelso have not been definitely signed up the negotiations have reached the point where the Washington team has consented to make the trip to Salem if its requested guarantee of $250 for the two games is met. There is also a possibility that the opener will be made a three game series extending over to Monday.

Three preliminary games are scheduled for the Senators before the Kelso clash, however. Tentatively Bishop has lined up the Oregon Aggies for a game here March 29, and two Yannigan games one for March 30 and the other for April 6 are planned.

Bishop has issued his first call for candidates for the club to report at Oxford park Sunday after noon for the first workout, and announces that anyone wishing to try for a berth is going to be given every opportunity to show what he can do, and that no favoritism is going to be shown in doling out the positions.

The five players who have so far been lined up to draw regular salaries from the club are 'Frisco Edwards, who is now on the way up from Los Angeles, Wayne Barham, "Speck" Keene, "Red" Lund and Bishop.

The workout on Sunday is to be a free exhibition and all of the fans who are interested are asked to park themselves in the grandstand and bleachers for at least a part of the afternoon.

Bishop says that he is still working on the financing of the club and that he now needs only $450 to put it over the top in first class shape.

MERGER BRINGS CHURCH WELFARE

Sunday, March 30, will mark the close of the first year's work of the united Evangelical churches, which were nationally merged at the conferences held last year. For a number of years prior to last year, there were two branches of Evangelical churches; the United Evangelical church and the Evangelical church.

The merging of the two churches here resulted in the selling of the church on North Cottage street and the remodeling and enlarging of the church at Liberty and Chemeketa streets. The latter location was chosen because of its historic feature, being the home of the First Evangelical church west of the Rocky Mountains, and also its proximity to the downtown district.

The year will be closed and all improvements on the church and parsonage paid for and not a cent of indebtedness against either, Dr. Poling said.

The final communion of the year will be administered a week from Sunday morning by Dr. Poling. Next Thursday night Dr. G. L. Lovell, district superintendent, will hold the final quarterly conference of the year.

At the annual conference, to be held at First church, Portland, April 3-6, inclusive, Bishop S. P. Spreng, of Chicago, will preside.

LUDENDORF-HITLER TRIAL NEARING END

Munich, March 21.—The trial of General Ludendorf, Adolph Hitler and their co-defendants charged with treason for their part in the "putsch" of November neared a conclusion today.

Prosecutor Stenglein demanded eight years imprisonment for Hitler, two for General Ludendorff, and from one to six years for the others. He recommended that the prisoners serve their terms in what is known as "fortress confinement" as usual for political offenders, under which prisoners have considerable freedom.

BOBBED HAIR BANDIT CAUGHT

New York, Mar. 21.—Numerous victims of a bobbed hair bandit in Brooklyn and Manhattan are ready to appear in court and try to identify a pretty bobbed hair blond captured last night after an attempt to hold up a Manhattan tailor.

She was identified by the police as the wife of Albert Guimares, friend of Dorothy Keenan, also known as "Dot" King, murdered last spring.

Guimares is serving a three year sentence in the federal prison for using the mails to defraud.

Mrs. Guimares gave her occupation as model and her name as Betty Santos. She wore a decolette gown with a rope of pearls around her neck, a sable coat, silk stockings and pumps.

She once interrupted her police inquisitors to ask for a cigarette. She puffed away while they tried to draw from her additional information.

Washington, D. C.—The first deficiency appropriation bill carrying $156,871,785 was reported by the senate appropriation committee. The committee added $2,174,000 to the bill as passed by the house.
