

DEFENSE OPENS CASE IN HAYNES DAMAGE ACTION

Portland, Or., May 21.—Defense of Harry H. Haynes, Portland baker, in the $85,000 suit of Mrs. Alice E. Robertson, nurse and masseuse, was started yesterday afternoon after the plaintiff had finished her testimony and a few minor witnesses testified on her behalf.

In cross-examination of Mrs. Robertson, however, the defense made an attack on part of her allegations. She was made to admit from the stand that Mr. Haynes had shown her a locket he carried on his watch chain containing a picture of his wife and mother. A major point of the woman's case rested upon the allegation that Mr. Haynes represented himself to her as a single man and that she so regarded him during the time he was alleged to have been a wooer and following their alleged exchange of promises to wed. The defense did not bring out clearly at just what point in their relations the locket incident occurred.

An allegation of the complaint on which the nurse hoped to collect big damages to compensate for the alleged fraud and deceit practiced upon her was that Mrs. Lulu L. Haynes, wife of the defendant, showed the letters Mrs. Robertson wrote Mr. Haynes to numerous persons. For this portion of the humiliation she has said she suffered, the plaintiff asked $26,000 damages.

Mrs. Alys M. Bertrand, prominently mentioned as one of the persons to whom the love letters had been shown, was the second witness called by the defense. She never had seen the letters, she testified. Under cross-examination Mrs. Robertson would not say positively that she knew anyone who had seen the letters.

"They told me Mrs. Haynes was showing the letters to her friends and other persons," said the nurse. "Who do you mean by 'they'—"

Portland Ships Shin Bones For Mah Jongg Sets

Portland, Or., May 21.—The steamer Eryikon, sailing from Portland the 14th had as part of its cargo 484 ss, or 60 tons of cattle shin bones destined for Shanghai. Within a few months this same vessel, or others, will have this cargo to return to the United States in another form—that of Mah Jongg sets. There has been quite a heavy movement of this commodity from Portland during the last year or so. Portland is the center of the livestock industry on the Pacific coast.

The Greylock, of the Argonaut line in the intercoastal service, took a small lot of 248 bags of Oregon walnuts for delivery in New York. Very few of these have ever gone into the eastern market for two reasons—first, the groves are just coming into full bearing; and secondly, the demand locally has been so great due to the excellent quality of the Oregon walnut that there has been no surplus to ship.

The Greylock also had aboard 55 tons of Casacara bark. Imitations of this medicinal bark are found in other parts of the world, but the real Casacara bark is found only in a very limited area on the Coast range.

do you mean Mrs. Bertrand and Mrs. Krueger?" queried the defense attorney.

"No, just friends of mine," was the answer.

MANY HEAR BOYS IN CONCERT HERE

A large crowd yesterday evening attended the big concert of the Salem Boys' Chorus at the tabernacle and cheered a treat surpassed by the hopes of the most optimistic. From beginning to end, the concert was exceptional and was given without hitch. Time and again the youngsters were called back for encores. Probably one of the biggest bits of the evening was made by little Billy Utley, 1 1/2 years of age, who sang a solo.

A short talk was made by Mayor John B. Giesy in which he expressed pride in the boys of the chorus. He paid a high tribute to Dr. H. E. Epley, the director.

A handsome music roll was presented to Dr. Epley at the close of the concert by the boys of the chorus. William McIlchrist made the presentation speech.

Money taken in last night will go towards paying the salary of a boys' work secretary at the Y. M. C. A.

About 50 employees and heads of the various departments were present. C. C. Simeral, president of the club, presided. He formerly lived in Salem but is now located in Portland.

Talks of the evening were given by H. H. Stanton, superintendent of the gas plant here; D. A. Wright, superintendent of the line department, and R. W. Simeral, superintendent of the power plant. A number of Portland visitors were present and were presented with the "Trail 'em to Salem" pamphlets, the official booster booklet.

A little special entertainment was provided by F. Ray Felker, Lloyd Strausbaugh, and Fred Wilkinson.

The meeting last evening was in keeping with the plan for the heads of the various departments to meet each month and discuss work of the past month.

IDAHO BOURBONS BACKING M'ADOO

St. Maries, Idaho, May 21.—(By Associated Press.)—The Idaho democratic state convention early today adopted a resolution endorsing the candidacy of William G. McAdoo, for the democratic presidential nomination without instructing that the state's eight votes in the national convention be cast for him. The action came as the climax to 12 hours of almost incessant contests which, prior to the McAdoo endorsement fight had hinged on the candidacy of Robert H. Elder of Coeur d'Alene, for re-election as national committeeman.

The latter contest resulted in Elder's selection over Asher B. Wilson of Twin Falls by a majority of 11 votes.

The democrats in congress were congratulated on having "successfully combatted corrupt influences in government and intrusion of special interests" and Senator Walsh and his associates were praised for their part in exposing governmental scandals.

Economic relief was covered in declarations for tariff revision, membership in the league of nations were reservations and the world court, economic cooperation with Europe and passage of the McNary-Haugen bill.

served seven months. The pardon is based on letters received from Circuit Judge John C. Kendall, District Attorney Ben S. Fisher and members of the jury that heard the case. The letters state that during the trial evidence indicated that the girl was of good moral character, but that subsequent developments show that she was not of good moral character. The charge against Tolbert was assault with intent to commit rape, and the alleged offense, it is said, took place during a joy ride of several couples in which the girl voluntarily participated.

Their letter states:

"During the past three or four years we have experimented with various brands of eastern and western lubricating oils, including Zerolene oil. The results of these tests have proved to our satisfaction that Zerolene lubricates our equipment with the greatest efficiency.

"Our recent decision to lubricate our trucks exclusively with Zerolene oils has resulted in the reduction to a minimum of mechanical difficulties which were due to faulty lubrication."

Less Carbon — Better Gasoline Mileage

Why pay tribute to a superstition? The use of Zerolene, of the proper body, will not only cut down your oil bill, but give you better continuous lubrication, and better lubrication means greater gasoline mileage, less carbon, lower up-keep costs, and a longer life for your car.

Insist on Zerolene, even if it does cost less.
