

The Woman's Page

Edited by MISS JULIA AUSTIN. Phone 82

Wedding Event Of Afternoon

For a birthday dinner for G. A. H. comrades and to observe flag day the members of the Woman's Relief Corps followed by the state fair grounds followed by a program of music and readings. About twenty five comrades were among the sixty guests seated for the picnic luncheon.

Mrs. Louisa King, patriotic instructor, with Mrs. La Moine R. Clarke, Mrs. Jennie Jones and Mrs. Hattie Cameron read pieces about the significance of flag day.

Mrs. William H. Lytle was hostess for one of the smart informal affairs of the week on Thursday when she invited a few friends for tea to honor Mrs. William Kiltz, Jr., of Vancouver, B. C. Bowls of lavender daisies were most effective in the rooms where the guests congregated for a chat and cup of tea. Miss Lou Thompson and Mrs. Fred Thielsen assisted the hostess during the afternoon hours.

Enjoying the tea and social hours were Mrs. William Kiltz Jr., Mrs. Dan Fry Jr., Mrs. J. Robert, Mrs. Sherman Thompson, Miss Lou Thompson, Mrs. William B. George of Pasadena, Mrs. T. A. Lively, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Mrs. Anabel Bush, Mrs. Robert Kinney of Astoria, Mrs. Ada Strong, Mrs. Fred Thielsen, Mrs. William H. Burghardt Jr., Mrs. Phyllis Shuler, Mrs. James Linn, Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. Louis Lachmann and Mrs. O. C. Locke.

For the pleasure of Mrs. Frances Newberry, Mrs. U. G. Shipley was hostess for an informal afternoon yesterday inviting matrons of St. Paul's Episcopal church to spend the time visiting and with their needlework. Mrs. Newberry is leaving Salem about the first of July with her husband to make her home in Santa Rosa, California. Her son, Clarence Newberry, has been for the past two years.

Poppies and pink roses formed attractive bouquets for the living rooms where the afternoon was spent. At the tea near the hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. Amos Strong, Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner and Mrs. H. D. Chambers.

Mrs. Henry H. Hartman left Wednesday for Wapakoneta, Ohio, where she will spend the summer visiting with her son, Clem Hartman. Mrs. Hartman is making the trip via California, where she will stop to visit with friends. She will also visit with friends in St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stadelman and daughter, Joan, and Miss Ruth Williams motored to Salem, Wednesday, and were guests until Friday of Miss Zoe Stockton and Mrs. J. L. Stockton. Returning to their homes in The Dalles, Friday, Miss Stockton accompanied them to spend a few days there.

The past matrons association will meet Friday evening, June 27 at the home of Mrs. James Godfrey with the following hostesses, Mrs. W. M. Smith, Mrs. Margaret Witchen, Mrs. Cordelia Capper and Mrs. Ida Niles.

Miss Leora Smith left Wednesday for Grangeville, Idaho, where she will spend the summer with her father and sisters. She has been spending the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Carey Martin.

Mrs. W. Frank Crawford offered her home Wednesday afternoon for the matrons of the Zen's mission society were hostesses for a silver tea, inviting the women of the Brush College Helpers to be their guests. An informal musical program was given during the afternoon and chatting entertained the guests until lunch was served at a late afternoon hour.

The children of the Brush College Sunday school will give their Children's day program on Sunday morning at the school house.

Richard Lyman of Cleveland, Ohio, was the guest this week for a few days of W. Earl Shafer. Mr. Lyman went on to Portland yesterday. Both boys were students at the University of Oregon the past year.

Miss Marie Messenburg and Miss Gussie Messenburg of San Francisco stopped in Salem this week for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shafer. The young women were returning south after a trip to Chicago and return over the Canadian Pacific route. Before leaving for their California homes today they also visited with W. T. Hogz of Scotts Mills.

The Venetas Reales club met in the M. W. A. and R. N. A. club rooms at the fair grounds for an all day quilting Wednesday. A delicious pot luck dinner was served at noon to Lela Sharp, Rhoda Baker, Julia Boddick, Anna Simmons, Laura Macklin, Doris Swarber, Bertha Loveland, Susie Darmonet, Anna Bennett, Dora Schmitt, Ida Keene and Agnes Coenber. Ida Keene and her daughter, La Belle Keene, the business session. Bouquets of a variety of garden and wild flowers decorated the rooms where the pleasant social afternoon was spent. Mrs. E. J. Huffman gave the paper for the afternoon "Educational Facilities of South America."

Mrs. W. D. Smith of chapter A enjoyed the afternoon with the women. When a lunch was served late in the afternoon Mrs. William Hughes and Mrs. Frank Churchill presided at the coffee urns.

Drama Class Entertained With Tea

An delightful close for the winter of drama study the members of the class were guests of Mrs. William H. Burghardt on Tuesday. Planned as a garden tea the weather was a bit chilly and so the women formed an intimate circle in the living room and studied for the few social hours the charming Pollock and Mellicande by Maeterlinck.

Art bowls of yellow tea roses were artfully in the orchid and gold tinted living room and in the dining room where the tea table was set orchid shaded with rhododendrons were used. Mrs. W. E. Kirk, leader of the study class presided at the tea table while the hostess was assisted by Miss Mable Robertson and Mrs. Fred Thielsen.

The members of the class are Mrs. A. N. Bach, Mrs. John McNary, Mrs. Ray L. Farmer, Mrs. William Hamilton, Mrs. Sam Kozler, Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Mrs. John Albert, Mrs. E. C. Richards, Mrs. R. J. Hendrick, Miss Edith Hazard, Mrs. Mistle Beatty, Mrs. W. E. Kirk and Mrs. William H. Burghardt.

Guests who enjoyed the afternoon were Mrs. Fred Thielsen, Miss Frances M. Richards, Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Miss Helen Pearce, Miss Mable Robertson, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Mrs. Clifford Brown, Miss Maude Covington, Mrs. Russell Brooks of Belfast, Ireland.

Mrs. Roy B. Bishop of Portland with her three children has been spending the week in Salem at the C. P. Bishop home.

For the pleasure of Mrs. William Kiltz, Jr., of Vancouver, B. C., and Mrs. Roy Bishop of Portland, Mrs. William H. Burghardt entertained most informally with luncheon Thursday setting places for Mrs. Fred Thielsen, Miss Lou Thompson, Mrs. Bishop, Mrs. Kiltz and the hostess.

Miss Lucille Thompson is spending the week with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Thompson. Miss Thompson is here from Portland.

Mrs. E. K. McCoy of Reedport, Oregon, is visiting for a few days with relatives in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Brasfield of Winnebag, Nebraska, are in Salem visiting with a number of relatives. This is Mr. Brasfield's first visit for a number of years and Mrs. Brasfield's first visit to the coast. They are dividing their time while here with Mrs. George Brasfield, Fred Brasfield, Mrs. E. A. Thompson and Mrs. A. W. Lightfoot.

Mrs. H. G. Carson and daughter Betty of Saskatoon, Canada, went to Portland for two days this week. Mrs. Carson formerly lived in Portland and is visiting in Salem for a month or so.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Durbin plan to leave early next week for a motor trip of about three weeks to Yellowstone National park.

Mrs. William Brown and Mrs. W. H. Dancy motored to Tillamook beaches and Gearhart this week spending Tuesday and Wednesday. They visited with Mrs. W. H. Eldridge at her cottage at Gearhart. Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Dancy will leave Monday for another short motor trip going to Crater Lake, stopping first in Ashland and other southern Oregon cities. They plan to be gone until about Thursday.

Mrs. H. G. Carson of Saskatoon, Canada, and her two children Betty and Fred, with Mrs. F. S. Anusson, Jean, Ruth and Billy Anusson will leave for Newport about the first of July to spend a month there. The women have secured a cottage for a month in which to enjoy their stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boetticher stopped in Salem for a time Friday morning to see Mr. and Mrs. Carlton K. Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Boetticher were on their way to Hay City where they will spend a few weeks. Their wedding was an event of Thursday evening in Eugene. Mrs. Boetticher was before her marriage, Ruth Sanborn.

About twenty members of the Woman's Relief Corps plan to go to Hillsboro Tuesday for the W. R. C. state convention and the G. A. R. encampment which will be in session there for three days. This is the fortieth annual convention and a great deal of interest is being taken in it. Members of other patriotic orders will also participate.

Mrs. Henry W. Meyers invited Mrs. U. G. Shipley and Mrs. J. Shelly Saugman to be her guests for this week she was hostess for the matrons of the Thursday bridge luncheon club. After the three table card game the hostess Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Ords, Ruth Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Roy McDaniel of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kroner and family of Dayton.

A party of Salem folk left today for Elkhorn region above Taylor's grove on the Santiam where they will spend the week end. The party included Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Needham, Mr. and Mrs. U. Scott Page, Mr. and Mrs. Roma C. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Harley O. White and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kozic.

Leave For European Trip Sunday

Starting their summer trip which will take them over the continent, Miss Mary Eyre and Miss Kovena Eyre will leave for Portland tomorrow morning accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. David Eyre, who will motor with them to Portland. From Portland they will go to Chicago via the Northern Pacific and after two days take the lake trip to Montreal from where they sail on July 5 on the "Doric" for Liverpool, England. They also plan to make stops in Toronto, Ottawa and other points of interest.

In Portland the travelers will be joined by Miss Jeanette Kleizing, a teacher of the Salem high school, and in Chicago they will meet other friends from Los Angeles, who will make the trip with them.

Arriving in England the party will visit throughout the country and Scotland going on to Switzerland, Holland, Belgium, Germany and Italy before arriving in Paris, where they will attend the Olympic games in August. They expect to sail for home about September 1, reaching Salem about the middle of the month.

Miss Kovena Eyre is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Eyre and she is making the trip with her aunt, Miss Mary Eyre, a teacher in the Salem high school. Returning to the United States they plan to visit in New York, Boston, Washington, D. C., and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shafer will motor to Cottage Grove tomorrow to attend the Powell family reunion. The association has just been formed and Mr. Shafer is one of the members.

Miss Beadie Buell, bride elect, was the honor guest for a miscellaneous shower when the matrons of the Brush College Helpers met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Arnel Smith. About thirty matrons enjoyed the afternoon and the honor guest received some lovely gifts, roses and wild orange bouquets decorated the rooms very prettily for the party.

At the tea her hostess was assisted by Mrs. Harvey Stanton, Mrs. Scrie Buell and Mrs. Buell in serving a lunch to the members of the club and the additional guests. This will be the last of the club meetings until fall when the matrons will meet to resume their regular sessions together.

Two evenings have been set aside next week by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Churchill for musicales at the woman's clubhouse, June 24 and 25. On Tuesday evening when the advanced students will be presented the Polyhymnia sextet will assist as well as Miss Lena Belle Tartar, contralto. The sextet includes Mrs. Harry Style director, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Miss Gussie Niles, Eva Ferree, Mrs. Ira Darby, Mrs. W. B. Babcock, Dr. Angeline McCulloch, Mrs. L. R. Springer, Mrs. J. R. Pennington, Mrs. D. M. Hendricks, Mrs. W. H. Bretz of Woodburn, Mrs. Claude Van Slyke, Mrs. Homer Ingrey and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Martin (Eunice Brown) whose wedding was an event of June 11 have left to make their home in Klamath Falls. Mr. Martin is employed by the United States Forest Service. Mrs. Martin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Brown of Milwaukie, Oregon, and was employed in the supply division of the secretary of states office.

Mrs. Blanche Whittemore of Baker is in Salem at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Henry E. Morris. Her husband will remain here until Mrs. Morris is better.

Closing Recitals Pleasing

For the second recital Miss Turner was assisted by Miss Violet, soprano, Barbara Barnell and Eldon Riddle, vocalists. The two programs were distinctive and were very much appreciated by the many friends who heard them. Miss Turner is leaving Friday, the 27th, for New York city, having studied at a previous time at the New England Conservatory in Boston and with Carl Baermann, piano and Eugene J. R. Despain, violin, as well as Louise C. Elson in theoretical work.

The piano students appearing on Wednesday evening were Gertrude Winegar, Gertrude Rioslette, Mildred Halseth, Oral Violette, Ellen Savage Goodenough, Morris Powell, Lillie Smith, Ferno Twedie, Wilma Morrison. The violin students playing were Marjorie Wunder, Mildred Scott, Fred Kropela, Margaret Eddy, George Steiner, Virginia Kropela, J. R. Despain and Harold Rupert.

The violin ensemble includes Wilbur Jones, Donald Stegund, Marie Frame, Joan Evans, Robert Needham, Cleo Seeley, Ray O'Brien, Minnie Peterson, Levi Ousman, Eldon Riddell, Marjorie Wunder, Margaret Eddy, William E. Moses, Bernice Cowden, Mary Talion, Delight Heath, George Stoner, Harold Rupert, Kenneth Rickman, Mildred Scott, Clarice Harner, Fred Kropela, J. R. Despain, Jerry Calaba, Mrs. M. Woolley, Isabelle Graeg, James J. Potter, Vina Emmett and Verna Wood.

The violin students were Delight Heath, Bernice Cowden, Robert Needham, Joan Evans, Vina Emmett, Kenneth Rickman, Marie Frame, Mrs. Ruby Miller, Donald Stegund, Eldon Riddell, Verna Wood and Mildred Scott.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Danison, when Glizze Danison became the bride of Harry W. Kroner. At eight thirty o'clock to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Gale Jones, a cousin of the groom, the bridal couple took their places beneath a canopy of ferns and roses where the wedding ceremony was read by Rev. Roy McDaniel. Mr. and Mrs. Roy McDaniel acted as attendants. Dorothea Graham was the ring bearer. Getting ready for the ceremony was a bride of just a year. Before her marriage she was Miss Polly Palmer of New York and Colorado. Lieutenant Melville has been on the U. S. S. Relief at San Pedro.

Mrs. Seymour Jones has invited the Daughters of the American Revolution to meet with her on Saturday, June 28, for a picnic luncheon and flag day program. The picnic will also be the last gathering for the members until in the fall.

The membership committee of the Y. W. C. A. will meet at the association rooms on Tuesday evening, June 24th, at 7:30 o'clock. This is the last meeting of the season and it is desired that every member be present.

Mrs. Seymour Jones has invited the Daughters of the American Revolution to meet with her on Saturday, June 28, for a picnic luncheon and flag day program. The picnic will also be the last gathering for the members until in the fall.

The membership committee of the Y. W. C. A. will meet at the association rooms on Tuesday evening, June 24th, at 7:30 o'clock. This is the last meeting of the season and it is desired that every member be present.

Mrs. Denton Has Two Musicales

The woman's club house never looked more attractive than it did on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week when students of Mrs. Walter Denton gave two very delightful musicales, and the program numbers were as pleasing to the ear as were the flower baskets to the eye. Playing their best the pupils gave two very delightful programs bringing to the attention of their parents and friends the progress they have made during the year.

A combination of blue delphinium, Madonna lilies, pink lavender and white canterbury bells, apricot, sprays formed lovely baskets of flowers for the pediculate and for the stage setting.

Students who took part in the Thursday program were Margaret Steiner, Dorothy Marsters playing a duet, Violet Dusenbury, Virginia Berger with readings, Elsie White, Benetta Edwards, Grace Collier, Esther Nafziger, Alice Colard, Mildred Nafziger, Alice Hill, Gretchen Thielens, Margaret Steiner, Mark Waldespeit, Phyllis Day, Mrs. Martin Ferechettian soloist, Frances Hodges, Helen Ashleman, Laura Crabb, Mildred Brunk Greenbaum and Esthel Benner.

Friday evening the following students were presented, Dorothy Stafford and Mrs. Denton, duet, John Hughes, Roberta Mills, Dorothy Stafford, Dorothy Kleopinger, Virginia Holt, David Eyre, Virginia Berger, reading, Benetta Edwards, Dorothy Marsters, William Gahedro, Elsie White, Virginia Berger, Helen Ashleman, Helen Day, Phyllis Day, Gretchen Thielens, Helen Ashleman, Margaret Steiner, Gretchen Thielens and Mrs. Denton.

Until fall the women of the Golden Hour club will not meet in regular session since their final meeting was observed this week when Mrs. Allan Cleveland entertained with a one o'clock luncheon and afternoon of sewing and chatting on Thursday. Early in July the matrons have planned an extra picnic party including their husbands as guests. Mrs. J. R. Pemberton and Mrs. Homer Ingrey will act as hostesses.

A basket of marigolds centered the luncheon table around which were seated the following eight members, Mrs. Fred Ellis, Mrs. L. R. Springer, Mrs. J. R. Pennington, Mrs. D. M. Hendricks, Mrs. W. H. Bretz of Woodburn, Mrs. Claude Van Slyke, Mrs. Homer Ingrey and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Martin (Eunice Brown) whose wedding was an event of June 11 have left to make their home in Klamath Falls. Mr. Martin is employed by the United States Forest Service. Mrs. Martin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Brown of Milwaukie, Oregon, and was employed in the supply division of the secretary of states office.

Mrs. Blanche Whittemore of Baker is in Salem at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Henry E. Morris. Her husband will remain here until Mrs. Morris is better.

Yellowstone Park Opened

Gardiner, Mont., June 21.—Yellowstone Park was officially declared open for the season of 1924 yesterday when Commander John Quinn of the American Legion released the iron chain barring the way through the great stone entrance at Roosevelt arch.

CHURCHES

UNITARIAN—Rev. Martin Perceatman, minister. Services are held in the woman's club building, corner of 17th and Commercial streets, Church street, Sunday school at 2 p. m. Devotional services at 11 a. m. Subject of the sermon "The Human Ruzard." Mrs. M. Perceatman will sing "The Lord Is My Light." Mrs. W. A. Denton, at the organ.

CHRISTIAN AND MISSIONARY ALLIANCE—Tabernacle on Ferry street, near Church street. Pastors H. E. Caswell and Mrs. Caswell. The services are now in the morning instead of the afternoon, during the warm summer months. Sunday school 10 a. m. B. M. Scoob, superintendent with a good corps of teachers. Preaching service 11 a. m. Subject, "The Incarnation." Devotional services, 7:45 opening with song service. The evening services are informal and strangers are made to feel at home. Week night services are Tuesday and Friday at 7:45. Saturday evening is in charge of the young people. They are making up a very profitable study on "Soul Saving."

GLAD TIDINGS MISSION—343 1/2 Court street, C. B. Johnson, pastor. Sunday school at 2 p. m. Services at 2 and 8 p. m. Rev. Eric Davidson of Portland will study with us and will speak. Bible study Tuesday evening. Cottage prayer meeting at North Howell Wednesday evening. Young people's meeting Thursday evening. Full gospel message. We pray for the sick. Come and get a blessing. Every-body welcome.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE—First Church—Dunbar & Hughes hall, over J. C. Penney store, Sunday morning services at 11 o'clock, Sunday evening at 8. Subject of lesson sermon "Is the Universe Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" Sunday school at 10 a. m. Wednesday evening testimonial meeting at 8 o'clock. Reading room 203 Masonic Temple, open every day except holidays and Sundays from 11:15 to 1:30 p. m. All are cordially invited to our services and to our reading room.

CATHOLIC—Rev. J. R. Busk, pastor. Communion mass at 7:30 children's mass at 8:30 and high mass and sermon at 10:30. All are invited to the church during the summer months. If you are not enrolled with any other Sunday school, enroll with us. Morning worship 11 o'clock. There will be special music by the choir and the direction of Prof. E. W. Hobson, with Prof. T. S. Roberts at the organ. This is the church of good music. Sermon by the pastor on the subject: "Restoring the Radiance of Religion." Special welcome extended to visitors and strangers. Evening service at 7 o'clock. Second and third chapters meet together for class of special instruction under Miss Findley. First chapter will be led by Miss Faith Friday. Evening service at 8 o'clock. The pastor will preach on the subject, "What Hinders?" Mid-week service Thursday evening 8 o'clock.

CENTRAL CONGREGATIONAL—South 19th street, Harry W. Johnson. Sunday school and morning worship at 10 a. m. and morning service at 7 o'clock. Preaching, "God So Loved the World." Thursday evening prayer meeting in the home of Mrs. Welford, 1429 Ferry street.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL—Liberty and Center. W. C. Kantner, minister. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Classes for all ages under competent leadership. Holy Communion, superintendent. Morning worship at 11 a. m. Sermon subject "Life's Open Door." Evening service at 8 o'clock. Would you like to visit Yosemite Park? There will be an opportunity to do so Sunday evening. A fine musical presentation of Yosemite will give you that privilege. Come and see it. A brief address on "The Faithfulness of God."

ST. PAUL'S—(Episcopal)—Corner Church and Chenioketa streets. Rev. H. D. Chambers, pastor. There will be the usual services. Holy Eucharist at 7:30 a. m. in the chapel. The second service is at 11 a. m. with a short sermon by the rector and music by the vested choir. All are most cordially invited to worship with us at the above hours. The church school meets at 9:45 a. m. and all children are invited. The services of this church for Sunday are as follows: Sunday school at 9:45, E. A. Rhoten, superintendent. A Bible school with a message for all ages. Young worth league meeting at 7. Epworth people of the community are all welcome. Morning worship at 11 o'clock. Sermon subject "The Kingdom of God is Within You." This is another short sermon based on the hymns of the church. You are cordially invited to attend all these meetings and to make this your church. Christian fellowship, good preaching, excellent music, a happy greeting, a sincere purpose to make the Kingdom of God real make all the work of this church. Come with us.

SCANDINAVIAN M. E.—15th and Mills streets. On Sunday morning at 8 o'clock Rev. C. M. Elfrsson from Tokoy, California, will preach. Sunday school at 10 o'clock. Gust Anderson, Supt. The Epworth League meets 7:15 with Estelle Erickson as leader. In the evening at 8 o'clock the Sunday school will render a Children's Day program. The girls will meet Tuesday evening Prayer meeting Thursday evening 8 o'clock. We invite you all to these meetings.

FIRST UNITED BRETHREN—Corner Twelfth and Madison Sts. Sunday school 10 a. m. Classes for all ages. Preaching 11 a. m. Evening service, "Discovering the Christian Endeavor 7 o'clock, subject, "Discovering the Christian Endeavor." Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 8. Rev. E. Poling, pastor. Preaching at 8. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 8. A class leader G. A. Wells. You are invited to attend and take some part in all of these services. We are beginning a new conference year and would be pleased to meet those who are looking for a church home. All are welcome, come and bring your children. C. W. Tibbets, pastor.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN—Ward Willis Long, minister. 9:30 a. m. Sunday school. 11 a. m. sermon "Tears and Triumphs of the Faith." by the minister. Special music by the choir. "Aurora," put on strength. Rodgers, sung by the quartet; and organ numbers: Prelude, Cui Bonomo, Franzoff; and Bartle, Guilman, played by Mr. Arnold. 7 p. m. Christian Endeavor societies. A service for each age. 8 p. m. popular evening service. "What is Religion?" Special music by the choir. Special music by the choir and congregational singing. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Out in one hour.

HIGHLAND FRIENDS—Highland Ave. and North Church street. I. G. and Ida J. Lee, ministers. Bible school at 10. Bible school arranged with classes for all ages and separate rooms for most of them. A special class for mothers who have babies, taught by a mother who has a baby. Morning worship and preaching at 11. Mr. Martin of the American Sunday School Union is expected to speak at the morning service. Christian Endeavor at 7 and preaching at 8 p. m. Florence Frazier Snow is expected to bring the message in the evening. Prayer meeting on Thursday at 8 p. m. The public is cordially invited to any or all our services.

FIRST BAPTIST—Rev. Ernest H. Shanks, pastor. Children's Day program consisting the morning worship. Assembly in departments at 2:45. Adoration at 10 and all out by 12 noon. Program of songs, recitations and exercises by the bible school. Anthem by the choir. Soloists, Miss Ruth Sheldahl, Miss Ruth Keene and the Little Children. Evening worship at 8 o'clock. Sermon, "The Hand That Wrote the Word." Anthem: Hark, hark, my soul, Shelly, Violin solo, Berceuse, Tynsky, Miss Helen Selig. Solo numbers and live-song service. The B. Y. P. U. meets at 7 p. m.