

LOCALS

Fred Patton, who has been here for a short visit before leaving for Enterprise, Oregon, where he will teach in the high school and have charge of the athletic teams, left this morning for Tillamook where he will visit for a few days. Patton graduated from Willamette with the June class. He was a four year letterman in basketball and football. During his last year in the University he was head of the Associated Student body.

Dance at W. O. W. hall Friday night the 22nd. Oriole orchestra.

On a short visit to Salem and Eugene, Roy Bohler, former Willamette University coach, now assistant in the physical education department at Washington State College and in charge of all Freshman athletics, was in Salem this morning. In the absence during the summer of Dr. J. Bohler, Washington State College athletic director, Roy Bohler has had charge of the summer school work. Prospects for the athletic teams for W. S. C. for the coming year are but fair, Bohler says. White are but fair, Bohler says. White are but fair, Bohler says.

Glenn Glover, who served as deputy manager for the local office of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, has been transferred to the Eugene and Roseburg offices. Although the local Metropolitan force has been increased, no appointment has as yet been made to fill the vacancy left by the absence of Mr. Glover.

Dr. R. W. Walton, a former Salem physician, who arrived here Tuesday from Cambridge, Mass., where he has been attending the Harvard Medical school, left this morning for a brief motor trip to Southern Oregon, stopping at Crater Lake, the Oregon Caves, and Klamath Falls. Mrs. Walton had been here for several weeks. Mr. Walton is a brother of Mrs. R. D. Barton of this city. He practiced medicine with Dr. B. H. White here for several years before leaving for the east.

Three sleepers enjoyed the hospitality of the city jail last night. They gave their names as L. J. Carver, W. G. Wyatt, and James Rodgers. A plan is now under consideration at the police station of putting the transient sleepers in the basement instead of permitting them to spend the night with other prisoners. In the basement jail they would not enjoy as many comforts as do the men held at the station on criminal charges.

A marriage license was issued yesterday at the Vancouver, Washington, office to Ralph J. Reitenberger, 22, and Gladys Williams, 19, both of whom gave Salem as their home.

Hobart Higgins, who until recently was a member of the Higgins & Cooley grocery firm here, has accepted a position with the Carl & Bowersox firm, where he was employed for nearly two years before entering the grocery business for himself.

Mr. and Mrs. August Carl and family are expected to return this evening or tomorrow from a week's vacation at Newport. Mr. Carl is a local grocer.

N. P. Nys of Route 9 this morning reported an interesting story in connection with his report that he had unknowingly purchased a stolen bicycle. Nys had a young fellow about 17 years of age working on his place picking berries. His services were not altogether satisfactory and so Nys gave the lad his walking papers. The boy protested that he had no money and when Nys offered assistance the boy asked that he accept a bicycle in his possession as bond for the loan of enough money to reach his home, declaring that he would call for the wheel in about a week's time. Nys has agreed and gave the youth $1.50. As the lad left the premises he told Nys his wife's a good cook and he better pain that bicycle 'cause it's a stolen one.' The wheel will be turned over to its owner today by the police.

Leonard T. Devlin and Goldie E. Davis, both of whom live near West Stayton, procured a marriage license from the county clerk this morning and then stepped across the hall where the marriage ceremony was performed by County Judge Downing.

Marriage licenses were issued today to three couples by U. G. Boyer, county clerk. Those who procured licenses were Glen Douglas Bowen, farmer of Silverton; and Layon Heald, farmer of Silverton; and Joseph Porter; and Dewey Lybecker, teacher of Pullman, Washington, and Nell Paake, of 330 South Twelfth street, Salem.

Reverend Lehman will conduct a meeting at the Brush College on Tuesday evening and will also give a short address. Reverend Lehman is connected with the Baptist church here.

Miss Margaret Wann, stenographer in the boy scout office here, is spending the day visiting in Portland.

Funeral services for the late Joseph Miller a former Salem resident who died Tuesday at his home in Oswego will be held Friday p. m. from the Rigdon mortuary. Mr. Miller moved to Oswego about ten years ago. For the ten years prior to his leaving Salem he was employed at the Cramer Hotel. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Joseph Graber of Salem and a brother living in Ohio.

Charles Huddleson turnkey at the state prison and Mrs. Huddleson have returned from a week's vacation at Netarts.

"How General conference Impressed an Overseer" is to be the subject of an address to be given this evening by Dr. E. S. Hammond at the weekly church night services of the First Methodist church.

A number of the members of the Salem Lions club will motor to Springfield tomorrow evening to attend the charter presentation ceremonies of the newly formed chapter at that city. The Salem delegation will be Ray Felker, Lloyd Straubach and R. H. White, who will put on a short vaudeville skit.

With a majority of vacations over the latter part of this week, Robert Boardman of the YMCA is making plans for the beginning of fall activities about next week. This evening he expects to start the series of swimming contests. Considerable interest has been shown throughout the summer, however, Mr. Boardman states, as a number of boys have been training for the YMCA and Junior Red Cross swimming tests.

The effect of the recent rains in the mountains is just beginning to have its effect here on the Willamette river. This morning the reading was exactly two feet below the normal, which indicates a rise of four inches over the reading yesterday. The maximum temperature yesterday was 74 and the minimum was 51.

Mrs. Lloyd Straubach and small son Robert, expect to leave here tomorrow morning for Tacoma where they will visit for a month with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Hoppes and baby are spending the day visiting with relatives living near Eugene.

Harry Mills, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mills of this city, has accepted a position as accompanist for Miss Alice Gentle, Metropolitan singer. His contract calls for a 40 weeks engagement with the Orpheum circuit. Mr. Mills studied in Salem under Professor Churchill, later attending Williamette and the University of Oregon schools of music. He concluded his studying in the east. For a considerable length of time he was master musician in one of the larger Portland theaters and left there last fall to accept a similar position with a San Francisco theater.

Remora which were heard on Salem downtown streets this morning to the effect that William Kaiser of this city, had committed suicide at Marshfield could not be confirmed. Mr. Kaiser was born and raised here and left for Marshfield about five days ago to visit with friends. He is about 23 years of age.

Mrs. M. Schmidt, of Idaho, is in Salem for a short visit with her daughters, Mrs. Thelma Drake, of 1244 Hazel avenue.

Mrs. A. B. Parks, of Aumsville, was in Salem yesterday afternoon on business.

John Kelly, political editor of the Oregonian, was in Salem for a short time this afternoon en route to Rockaway from Medford and Crater Lake. He was accompanied by Mrs. Kelly and they are on their vacation trip. Johnny says that so far as he knows "politics is adjourned" for the time being.

ing, he don't know what plots are brewing and he cares less. "I haven't ever seen a newspaper since Sunday and I'm not bothering my head about anything except having a good time," he said.

All manual training equipment which has been stored at the Salem high school, is being moved to the new Parrish junior high school building. Among the material is a lathe a planer and a machine saw. E. E. Bergman, instructor in the shop, overhauled the machinery before it left the building.

A number of the employees of the Al G. Barnes circus which showed here yesterday were registered as guests of local hotels last night, indicating that Pullman berths as permanent sleeping quarters are not as desirable as might be expected.

Chief of Police Minto left early this morning for a short vacation, leaving word that his destination was unknown as well as the date of his return. Rumor has it that he carries with him a small arsenal and has left orders that he shall be notified if Judge Bingham grants an injunction against the governor's proclamation closing the game season until September 20. The chief is expected to be gone from his office for five or six days.

Yesterday and last night were unusually quiet for circus day as far as the police were concerned. An almost unique record was established. No houses were entered last night and no thefts reported from the grounds. Two officers were on duty at the grounds but found little to draw their attention from the amusement of the show.

In order that patrons of the Salem postoffice may know with whom they are dealing while at the office of the window, a number of introduction cards have been secured and are hung in a conspicuous place, indicating the name of the clerk.

Mrs. Edith Hirt was among the out of town visitors yesterday from Aurora.

EX-GON CLAIMS CLOTHES WERE NOT RESTORED

Harman Smith of Eugene passed out through the prison gates here a free man today after serving ten months for moonshining on a conviction in Lane county, and being once more restored to his right of free expression of his opinions in protesting against an alleged injustice on the part of prison officials.

Smith claims that when he was "dressed" at the prison he was wearing a good suit of clothes which he intended to send to relatives for safe keeping until he had served his term. He declared, however, that prison officials offered to keep the suit for him there and he accepted the offer. Now, he asserts, they have pawned off another and cheaper suit on him and he wants his good suit back.

Officials say that in all probability his old suit was passed out to another prisoner as he was "dressed out" and the prison does not keep clothing separate from men who are dressed in.

PROGRAM FOR BAND CONCERT

The same band concert will be given here Friday evening in Willson park as is being given this evening at Mount Angel, the program including a group of well-chosen numbers. It is as follows:

Next Tuesday evening a requested program will be given, this plan resulting from the many requests for special numbers that have been received by Director Steelhammer. The male quartet and clarinet band recently heard with the band will give special numbers on the program.

WOMAN LEAPS TO DEATH FROM 8TH STORY WINDOW

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 21.—Miss Catherine Ford, aged 51, of Santa Barbara, Cal., plunged eight stories to her death from a window of the Fontenelle hotel here early today. She was dead when her attendants reached her body, clad in a night gown, on the sidewalk below.

Miss Rosa Cavalleri of Santa Barbara, a trained nurse at St. Francis hospital there, was detained at police headquarters pending a postmortem but it was said by police that her story that Miss Ford jumped from the window was correct.

Miss Cavalleri was taking Miss Ford to Independence, Iowa, from Santa Barbara, by order of Miss Ford's brother, Gene Ford, a wealthy farmer of Independence.

ROSE'S NOMINATION CONCEDED IN WYOMING

Cheyenne, Wyo., Aug. 21.—Wyoming voters today considered the only major contest of the state-wide primary election Tuesday—that over the democratic nomination for United States senator—decided, and settled down to await official returns, which are expected in a week.

MRS. FRIEDMAN SPEAKS MONDAY FOR LA FOLLETTE

The LaFollette committee of Salem held a conference yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Esther Friedman of New York city relative to the campaign work in the coming political battle.

Mrs. Friedman alluded to Salem for a few hours yesterday while on her way to Portland to fill several speaking engagements. She will speak here next Monday noon from 12:30 to 1:30 p. m. at the Bligh theater. The subject will be "Why LaFollette for President."

Mrs. Friedman will point out the economic causes—especially the farmers, the working farmers, that gave rise and force to the LaFollette movement.

Since the great world war came to an end Mrs. Friedman has traveled across the country several times, during which time she has addressed numerous labor organizations, farmers cooperatives, women voters leagues and other civic bodies. Mrs. Friedman has filled twenty speaking dates in the state of Washington during the month of July. She is now touring Oregon and then will hasten back to New York city to get into the LaFollette campaign "already thoroughly organized." Mrs. Friedman states and which will be the most strenuous and vital political battle before the American electorate since prior to the Civil war, when the old stand pat whig party was wiped out and the republican party, young, progressive and forward looking at that time, with Abraham Lincoln at the head, was born.

SEEK RELEASE OF FERNE HILLS

Petition for a writ of habeas corpus to secure the release of Ferne Hills, 17, an inmate of the state girls' industrial school, was filed in the Marion county circuit court here this afternoon by her parents, M. L. Hills and Myrtle Hills. The writ, if granted, would require members of the state board of control and Sara C. A. Patten, superintendent of the institution, to appear and show just cause for continued retention of the girl.

The complaint alleges that Ferne was committed to the institution by Judge Jacob Kanzler of the court of domestic relations of Multnomah county upon statements certified in court by H. C. Acton, a juvenile supervisor of Portland, who charged moral delinquency and petty crime. The petition for the writ of habeas corpus denies the allegations made by Acton and asserts that the proceedings were unusual and unlawful in form.

TWO FINED $135 FOR VIOLATING DRY LAW

Fines aggregating $135 were assessed against B. G. Klug and Al Fielder, both of Salem, in the public court today as the result of their arrest last night by Traffic Officer Wilds on Capitol street, near O.C. Klug was fined $100 for possession of liquor and $100 for drunkenness, while Fielder was assessed $25 for driving a car while intoxicated. Both men declared that they were employees of the Ryan Fruit company.

M. J. Carter and W. W. Gilchrist who were riding in the same car were also taken and held at the police station overnight as witnesses to the affair. Following the hearing this morning both were dismissed.

DIETING AND DANCING CAUSES OF DIVORCE

Medford, Or., Aug. 21.—The feminine propensity to diet and dance, looms large in two divorce counter suits filed in Jackson county today. W. A. Black opposes Alice Black's petition for the custody of their children because she alleges she is a diet crank and makes life a burden to all about her, while Bertram Chapman takes identical action against his wife's petition because she dances every night and has often made him dance until late in the morning after a hard day's toil. Both men are willing to lose their wives but want their children.

TWO KILLED WHEN STRUCK BY AUTOMOBILE

Victoria, B. C., Aug. 21.—A. D. MacLachlan and D. T. Ballantyne of Victoria, both about 60, were instantly killed, it was learned today when struck by an automobile near here last night. The bodies of the men were found lying together in a ditch 49 yards from where they were struck. Witnesses said that they were hit by a car driven by Dr. W. E. Boak when he tried to pass another automobile. Dr. Boak was released under $10,000 ball on a charge of manslaughter.

Four different lots of jewels form the basis of the investigation which officers working on the case declare may establish the real motive for the death of Mrs. Mora, who was found in her apartment with a bullet in her brain.

The largest lot is missing. Customs officers, acting on advices from New York, are seeking a dozen described as containing three or four exceptionally large emeralds and a number of diamonds. The value of this, with its sparkling companions in the mystery, is said to run into many thousands of dollars.

The officers declare that these jewels were in the Mora family and they wish to establish the route by which they reached that resting place.

Mrs. Mora is dead and Albert A. Mora, her divorced husband, heir to her estate, fiercely denies any knowledge of the supposedly lost valuables.

The search for the jewels began last June, almost two months before Mrs. Mora was slain, and in July customs officers seized several thousand dollars worth from the Mora strong box.

Lot number three was seized after the death of Mrs. Mora, when the officers visited another strong box rented by the Mora family. The value of this lot, with that previously taken into custody, totaled $30,000, according to the investigators.

Lot number four, valued at $5,000, disappeared the night Mrs. Mora was out down in her apartment. More charged that they had been stolen from her body—a black pearl ring, a ruby and diamond brooch shaped like a quail and a fob watch encrusted with diamonds.

Yesterday lot number 4 was recorded. Attorney for Mrs. John J. Thomas, sister of Kid McCoy, turned them over to the district attorney's office.

Detectives said this lot was given to Mrs. Thomas by McCoy the night Mrs. Mora died.

Both the district attorney's office and the federal officers assert the belief that the clearing up of the jewel mystery will throw much light on the case and may establish the motive behind the sudden death of the anxious dealer's wife.

Jewelry Smuggled

New York, Aug. 21.—The greater part of the jewelry owned by Mrs. Theresa W. Mora of Los Angeles, for whose death Kid McCoy, former pugilist, is held in that state, was smuggled into the United States, according to information in the hands of special treasury agents here.

The federal officials who made this assertion late today said that no further details as to the smuggling could be made public until they had completed an investigation.

Cold and Devilish Plot.

"It was a coldly intellectual plan, devilish in its deliberation," said Mr. Savage.

Mr. Savage quoted Loeb's estimate of Bobby Franks as "just the kind of a cocky kid one would pick out to murder." He pounded so hard that a straw hat tumbled off the bench as he added:

"Just imagine, your honor, how
