

ZINSER LEAVES TO ACCEPT POST AT SPOKANE, WN.

Possibility of the return of F. Howard Zinsler to the position of Marion County Boy Scout Executive or of the four county merger should that organization decide to continue, went glimmering this morning with the announcement that he has accepted the position of assistant executive for Spokane. Mr. Zinsler will leave within the next few days for his new work, word being received from J. B. Varner, Spokane executive, to report as soon as possible.

During the two and a half years prior to the merging of the Marion County Boy Scout organization with the four-county merger, Mr. Zinsler served as executive of the Marion county unit. With the merging of the four county organizations under the leadership of K. L. Haga, Mr. Zinsler served as assistant.

During recent Scout Conclaves the work of Mr. Zinsler with boys has attracted uniform attention of higher officials. His work in Spokane will be with an organization of nearly 100 troops of Scouts.

The Willamette Valley Boy Scout Council is to meet Thursday evening, Aug. 28, at which time definite plans for the future will be determined.

BLIND STAGGERS HAS GRIP IN CLARKE COUNTY

Vancouver, Wash., Aug. 21.—(Special).—Several cases of "blind staggers" afflicting horses have been reported in this district. One horse is said to have died. The disease gives the horse the appearance of being drunk. Blind staggers is said to be caused from eating ferns which are poisonous to horses. On account of the extremely dry season, which however, has not affected the growth of ferns, some hay is said to have become affected with the same poisonous substance to an extent which will cause considerable sickness among horses this winter, a prominent veterinarian said today. He recommended bringing in hay from unaffected districts rather than to chance feeding hay grown where ferns are prevalent and were mixed in with the hay.

ARTIST PLANS YEARS OF TRAVEL IN WAGON

Seattle, Wash.—Sightseeing in a covered wagon, with "Chicago in two years" as the first goal, is the plan of Louis Dana Johnson, a local artist, who has left here with his family on a journey of five or six years.

In a trim gray prairie schooner, Betty Lou, aged 2, plays under the shelter of the canvas, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and Barbara, aged 11, hike along the highway. Mr. Johnson expects to "hunch off a year" in Chicago to study art. He then will continue to "hit the trail" until he and his family tire of the novelty. The schooner, which he constructed, is fitted with everything for a home and a school.

1000 EGGS IN EVERY HEN

If You Keep Chickens CUT THIS OUT

"The great trouble with the poultry business has always been that the laying life of a hen was too short," says Henry Trafford, International Poultry Expert and Breeder, for nearly eighteen years editor of Poultry Success.

The average pullet lays 120 eggs. If kept the second year, she may lay 100 more. Then she goes to market. Yet it has been scientifically established that every pullet is born or hatched with over one thousand minute egg germs in her system—and will lay them on a highly profitable basis over a period of four to six years' time if given proper care.

How to rear to get 1000 eggs from every hen; how to get pullets laying early; how to make the old hens lay like pullets; how to keep up heavy egg production all through cold winter months when eggs are highest; triple egg production; make slacker hens bustle. These and many other money making poultry secrets are contained in Mr. Trafford's "1000 EGG HEN" system of poultry raising, one copy of which will be sent absolutely free to any reader of this paper who keeps six hens or more. There is big profit for the poultry keeper who gets the eggs. Mr. Trafford tells how. If you keep chickens and want them to make money for you, cut out this ad and send it with your name and address to Henry Trafford, Suite 24 B, Herald Bldg., Birmingham, N. Y. and a free copy of "The 1000 EGG HEN" will be sent by return mail.—Adv.

HOSE SHOW AT FAIR PROMISES TO BE BIG EVENT

With the three far western states as well as Canada represented in the forthcoming night horse shows to be held in connection with the sixty third annual Oregon state fair, which opens in Salem, September 22nd, the outlook is for one of the most noteworthy exhibitions of fine horseflesh ever shown at the local fair. Preliminary classification and prize lists were off the press this week and will be mailed immediately to every owner of show animals in the Pacific northwest and contiguous territory.

Rumor, started early in the season, and gaining a certain ground, had it that there would be no horse show this year at the state fair. This erroneous impression was left, according to fair officials, by persons not in any way officially identified with the fair, and should by now, be consistently suppressed by the activities that are progressing in the horse show department of the fair.

Urred to Register. Entries close for the show September 18th, and exhibitors are being urged to make their entries as early as possible and secure stabling, this allotment being made in the order entries are received.

Many attractive features have been arranged for the entertainment of horse show patrons this fall, including a number of military drills to be put on by the Oregon Agricultural college. The institution will also make a number of fine individual entries.

As heretofore the hunting and jumping class will occupy a conspicuous place in the program, the various divisions to include lightweight and heavyweight hunters, ladies' and novice hunters and hunting pairs. There will be a handy hunter jumping class, a free for all high jump, the Corinthian, Grafton broad jump with cups offered for the best feminine and masculine rider.

Still another class of much interest is that for cow horses, to be shown under stock saddle, with cowboy wearing full regalia. Horses will count forty percent of this, training forty per cent and rider's skill twenty per cent.

Polo Ponies Listed. In the draft horse division many hundreds of dollars will go to the participants in the different classes, which include: best pairs, four in hand, six in hand and driving competition.

Polo ponies occupy a separate place in the program, as do also ponies single in harness, pairs in harness and ponies under saddle.

In the champion classes all horses having taken a first or second prize must compete, unless excused by the horse show manager. Champion and reserve champion ribbons will be presented to first and second prize winners for champion roadster, light harness, champion heavy harness horses, champion three gaited saddle horses, champion five gaited saddle horses and champion hunters.

There is a big class for roadsters, standard or nonstandard, for carriage horses, for saddle horses, featuring three and five gaited horses.

FOOTBALL SEASON AT CALIFORNIA NOW OPEN

Berkeley, Cal., Aug. 20.—With the signing of candidates this afternoon the 1924 football season at the University of California will officially open and will continue until the clash between Pennsylvania and the Golden Bears in the Berkeley bowl. The sign-up today will be for inter-class competition only as a conference ruling prevents the letter and numeral men from active participation in football until September 15.

Beginning September 15 the California team will face the hardest schedule in several years and Coach Andy Smith will have to develop another "wonder team" if the record Bears is to continue unsmirched.

"All indications are that the enrollment of new students this fall term will far exceed any previous year," Mr. Spencer said. Thursday and Friday, September 25 and 26 are set for the regular registration days, although entering students are expected to take physical examinations on Monday, September 22, and the freshmen English examinations will be held on Tuesday, September 23. Classes will begin Monday, September 29.
