CENSORSHIP OF MOVIES SOUGHT FOR SILVERTON

Silverton, Nov. 13.—(Special)—At a meeting of the Silverton Association of the Lutheran Brotherhood at St. John's church Tuesday night it was voted that the chairman of the brotherhood appoint a committee to investigate the motion pictures at Silverton with a view of getting the city council to pass the necessary ordinances for creating a board of censors. On this committee was appointed S. Ostergard, M. Olsen, L. C. Goplerud, and John Goplerud.

A good fellowship committee composed of Carl Benson, E. Overlund and H. B. Jorgenson was also appointed.

In the early part of the evening a program was given to which the public had been invited. The numbers on this included selections by the St. John's male quartet composed of Rev. S. Lindseth, Oscar Overlund, Leslie Larson and Jonas Iyberg, vocal solos by Miss Marie Corbouse and Selmer Ness, Armistice day addresses by Rev. J. Lindseth and an explanatory American Legion address by Charles Johnson, America by the audience.

MINSTREL SHOW COMES TONIGHT

The Famous Georgia Minstrels are due for an appearance at the Grand Theatre tonight, bringing a company of forty fun makers, musicians, singers and dancers and fifteen vaudeville acts in a program entirely different from anything ever seen in a minstrel performance.

That minstrelsy is again becoming the popular amusement of the American stage is shown by the crowded houses being given all similar organizations.

There must be something to attract people to the theater from the fact that Famous Georgia Minstrels have weathered the storms of over thirty-three years continuous travel—there must be something in a reputation to sustain them so many years—there must certainly be merit back of all this, and while they have the regulation band parade, it is a frequent thing that when the company arrives in town, they find the seats are all sold in advance. The reputation of the company must have a whole lot to do with this.

Five Mentioned As Likely Successors Of Judge Harry Belt

Dallas, Nov. 13.—With election past and all but forgotten, interest in things political is centering somewhat on the question of who will succeed Judge Harry E. Belt on the circuit bench for Polk and Yamhill counties. The well known characteristic of Governor Walter M. Pierce in the matter of political appointments makes the question all the more complicated.

As things now stand five men have been mentioned quite prominently in connection with the place. Among these are J. E. Sibbey, veteran democratic attorney of Dallas, and W. W. Harcombe, also of Dallas, Judge Ramsey of McMinnville, R. L. Conner of McMinnville and Roy Sparks of McMinnville. But which one of these five will get the call, or who else will be named is where the puzzle begins.

Judge Ramsey filled out an unexpired term on the supreme court bench by appointment and his legal talents are in high regard. He is, however, well advanced in age and the duties of a trial judge would probably bear heavily upon him. R. L. Conner is retiring district attorney of Yamhill county, a position which he has held for a number of years. He with Mr. Sibbey and Judge Ramsey are the three older heads among the five mentioned. Should the governor's choice veer to a younger man, Mr. Harcombe and Mr. Sparks are the ones whose names are advanced.

Mr. Sparks is at present the Yamhill county attorney for the soldier's bonus commission. He is a world war veteran who served overseas with Company A. Mr. Harcombe put up a good race in Polk county for the district attorneyship in the recent election.

The matter of selection of a circuit judge to succeed Judge Belt will probably hang over until early January when Governor Pierce will have his hands and mind full with an approaching legislative session.

It also may be said that uneasy lies the head at the present time whose owner holds an appointive county position. For with two new members on the county court, a new sheriff and a new county clerk, there probably will be many changes taking place in the county family about January 1.

When Sheriff Orr retires from office he plans to open a collection agency in Portland and will retain his present stenographer, Mildred Berg, to work with him there. This with Tom Hooker's ascendancy to sheriff from chief deputy will leave two vacancies, and two old deputies whose retention is optional with Mr. Hooker.

Hugh Black has not made any announcement of plans for the clerk's office, other than to say that part of the force would be retained. There will of course be a chief deputy to select, and one or two deputies to be replaced.

The county court has at its disposal a goodly number of part time employees in the road department, the court house janitor and others on the county payroll whose jobs are answerable to him.

DALLAS LEGION POST LAUNCHES ANNUAL DRIVE

Dallas, Nov. 13.—A big membership drive between two teams of Carl B. Fenton post, American Legion, has been launched and it will run from Armistice day till New Year's day. With a big free feed in sight for the losers and the bill for same for the losers, it is pretty certain that all ex-service men in this community will have many opportunities to renew their affiliation with the Legion.

Lonner Ralston captains one side, the Blues, and he is opposed by no lesser opponent than Bill Hines and both are vowing that no banquet will be forthcoming from them or their benches. Each is backed up by a team of 12 men, while members signed automatically all the right and liabilities of their side.

The drive is for 1925 members and it is hoped to bring Carl B. Fenton post to the biggest membership it has ever had by January 1. Due this year, which include subscription to the American Legion Weekly and the Pacific Legion, are $4.50.

Nominations were made at the November meeting of the post for 1925 officers. Those will be voted upon the first Friday in December. Waldo Finn of McCoy was nominated for commander and he has no opponent. William Hines was nominated for first vice commander and will be opposed by Lloyd Plaster. For second vice commander, Ronald G. White of Falls City and S. E. Whitworth of Dallas. ## AFRAID SHE COULD NOT LIVE

Operation Advised, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made It Unnecessary

Glasgow, Kentucky.—"I was run-down, nervous, with no appetite. My side had given me trouble for five or six years. At times it was all I could do to live, but a short time longer without an operation. That was two years ago. My sister-in-law recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She had never used it herself, but she said one of her neighbors suffered just like I did, and it cured her. After I had taken four bottles the pain left my side. I had a fine appetite to eat anything that was put before me, and I began to do all my work and my washing, something I hadn't done for years. I am a dress-maker, and this last fall I began suffering with my side again, so I began taking the Vegetable Compound again. I am on my fourth bottle, which makes eight in all I have taken. I feel so much better when I take it and everybody tells me I look better. My appetite improves and I feel stronger in every way. I am a very nervous woman and it seems to help my nerves so much."—Mrs. MAGGIE WALLER, Glasgow, Kentucky.
