

SALEM HIGH AND PORTLAND TEAM TO BATTLE HERE

Tomorrow afternoon the Salem high school and Grant high school football eleven will clash on Sweetland field. The game will start at 2:30. Salem has been handicapped by the lack of games this season, with only four games. They have played two games so far, winning both of them but this is not enough for any team to get into shape. Most of the schools approached by the locals have refused to play the locals to date. In several cases it has been unable to procure games owing to the confliction of dates with the Williamette university.

and Heenan while not sick has not been feeling well. In the Eugene game the locals showed weakness on the offense, several times they were thrown for losses before they could get started. With more than a week's practice to strengthen up in this department they should present a formidable aggregation. Efforts were made to have the date set ahead so as to allow the football fans the chance to witness both the high school game and the annual Oregon-O. A. 2 clash for the championship of the state. The Grant manager refused to listen so the game will be played as scheduled. Hopes for a large crowd are rather slim as most of the fans will journey to Corvallis. The followers of football will have one more chance after the Grant game to see the locals in action. The last game is to be played Thanksgiving day on Sweetland field with the fast Corvallis high eleven.

RADIO IS BLAMED FOR INSANITY OF AUSTRIAN

Vienna.—The establishment of a regular service of radio concerts and entertainments by the post-office department has resulted in provoking the first case of radio insanity on record here.

A 45-year-old laborer, lithographer by trade, went to the police the other day to complain that the whole world was talking about him. He said he was connected with a radio receiver and could distinctly hear people in every part of the world gossiping about him. His pitiful plea ended in an urgent request to disconnect him from the radio.

It developed that the radio had gone to his head and he was placed in an insane asylum for observation.

We are quoting a few prices herewith so that the people can see just about how much they pay for real service. Service, we know is the most abused word in the English language but by service we mean—when it is wet and stormy and really displeasing to go outside you can go to your telephone and give us your order. Our salesmen will make your selections just as carefully as if you were in the store and your groceries will be placed on the kitchen table without delivery charge or any other tax. That's what we mean by SERVICE.
