SOCIETY DAZED AT RHINELANDER ELOPEMENT.

MRS. LEONARD KIP RHINELANDER

A bombshell was thrown into the aristocratic ranks of the blue bloods of New York and Newport by the announcement that Leonard Kip Rhinelander, twenty-two-year-old scion of one of America's oldest and richest families, had eloped in New Rochelle, N. Y., with Alice Beatrice Jones, daughter of a former hack driver. The girl bitterly denied statements that she is a negress. Her father is a West Indian Appearing on the programs arranged for the two day convention of the home missionary societies of the Methodist churches which opened in Oregon City yesterday are the names of a number of prominent Salem women who are active in the work of the local society.

During the session yesterday morning Mrs. A. A. Underhill reported on missionary education, Mrs. H. M. Durkheimer on the mite box, and Mrs. G. H. Alden on training schools. In the afternoon Mrs. J. L. Brady spoke for fifteen minutes on migrant work in the northwest; and Mrs. F. W. Selee for the same length of time on the Old People's home.

Among the speakers this morning were Mrs. A. C. Bohrnstedt on the topic of thank offerings and Mrs. H. H. Vandevort on young people's work. This afternoon Mrs. F. L. Utter, as corresponding secretary for the Salem district, gave her report.

Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., were hosts at a charming dinner on Monday evening at their home. Covers were prepared for Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Pound, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bauer, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Smith, M. Bauer of St. Joe, Missour, Miss Grace Savage, Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Harding and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. McGilchrist.

The Kensington club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. I. M. Doughton where several hours of sewing and social conversation were enjoyed. The rooms of the Doughton home were attractively decorated with bronze and yellow chrysanthemums. A feature of the afternoon was the clever guessing game which occupied the interest of the guests.

Mrs. Charles Hudkins and Mrs. W. L. Pemberton were special guests for the afternoon. Members of the club are Mrs. Otto Wilson, Mrs. N. C. Kafoury, Mrs. I. M. Doughton, Mrs. R. E. Morris, Mrs. Herbert Hauser, Mrs. F. F. Anusson, Mrs. George M. King, Mrs. Albert C. Smith, Mrs. Paul Hauser, Mrs. C. S. Pratt, Mrs. George B. Griffith and Mrs. C. Elmo Grandall.

Mrs. Anna Bonham of Tyler, Washington, who has been the house guest of her sister in law, Mrs. W. H. Byrns, and her niece, Mrs. Ronald Glover, for the past month, has been widely entertained by relatives and friends in and about Salem. Jefferson, Mehama and Macleay.

Writers to Give Club Program

At the November social meeting of the Woman's club, which will be held in the Woman's club house tomorrow afternoon, a program will be given which promises to be one of the, if not the, most interesting programs of the entire year. The original prose and verse of Salem's own writers, some of it published and some of it read to an audience for the first time, will be read before the club members.

Mrs. W. F. Fargo, chairman of the committee in charge, has arranged a program which includes the work of members of the Salem Writers' Club. Among these are Gertrude Robison Ross, Isabel Gray Clifford, Clara J. Lisle, Odell Savage Ohling, Anna Van Horssen Nelson, Viola Price Franklin, Molly Brunk, Edna Scofield Daily, Grace Elizabeth Smith, Clara Virginia Barton, Andrew Bunch, Edna Garfield and Perry Prescott Reigleman. Musical numbers will be given by Mrs. T. R. Galloway, Mrs. Carl Webb and Dan Langenberg.

Members of the social committee for this meeting are Mrs. Max O. Buren, Mrs. W. H. Steusloff, Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Mrs. Ralph White, Mrs. W. D. Clarke, Mrs. J. C. Currie, Mrs. Rhea Luper, Mrs. H. V. Compton, Mrs. L. O. Clement, Mrs. Earl Anderson, Mrs. Winnie Pettjohn, and Mrs. J. O. Goltz.

The complete program as arranged follows:

Huckestein, Mrs. Clair Inman, Mrs. Clyde Johnson, Mrs. Ernie Kappahn, Mrs. Charles Knowland, Mrs. W. I. Needham, Mrs. Cal Patton and Mrs. J. R. Sites.

Mrs. C. M. Inman will be hostess to the club at their next meeting.

The announcement made recently at the Lambda Phi Delta house in Corvallis of the engagement of Miss Helen Frey to H. A. Moomaw, '23, is of interest here as Miss Frey is a former Salem high school student. Mr. Moomaw is doing graduate work in the school of vocational education at Oregon Agricultural college and Miss Frey is a sophomore in home economics.

Copper Shield Flash By, by Clara Virginia Barton; Hazel Hall, a tribute, by Andrew Bunch; Yellowstone Park, by Edna Garfield; Le Pont Mystique, by Perry Prescott Reigleman.

Chadwick chapter of the East ern Star was hostess to Evergreen chapter of Woodburn, and to the officers of Sunnyside chapter of Portland, at the social meeting on Tuesday evening.

An interesting program of bagpipe solos and duets, and Scotch songs was given by John Charge, Arthur Hutchcoone and Jas. Smart who were attired in genuine Scotch "kilts." Miss Ruth Hedford accompanied Mr. Smart who gave several solos. Several readings were given in Swedish dialect by A. H. Bunn. Miss Virginia Page also gave an interesting reading.

Mr. Charge and Mr. Hutchcoone, while playing a merry tune on their pipes, led the way to the banquet room; followed by the guests and their hostesses where a delightful banquet was served. The large hall was decorated with paper turkeys and other Thanksgiving novelties and lovely baskets of chrysanthemums were placed on the tables.

Wednesday evening the Merrie Thymers club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen J. Cleveland for an enjoyable evening of five hundred. Yellow snap dragons in dainty baskets were placed about the living rooms of the Cleveland home.

Mrs. Clifford Elgin and Irwin W. Lewis turned in the highest scores at the end of the evening. The consolation prize was awarded to Mr. Elgin. Club members who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland were Mr. and Mrs. Irwin W. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Gillette, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haberman and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Elgin.

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was given at the home of Mrs. C. C. Page on Wednesday afternoon when the Sweet Briar club invited the Brush College Helpers club to spend the afternoon as their guests. In addition to their club guests each Sweet Briar member brought a personal guest. Yellow marigolds were attractively placed about the living rooms of the Page home.

Professor Fairbanks, teacher of art in the Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis, gave an extremely interesting talk during the afternoon in which he outlined the influence of art in the smallest details of everyday life and the possibility of making even the humble task an artistic accomplishment. Mrs. M. C. Petteys presided at the charmingly appointed tea table and Mrs. Page was assisted in serving by Mrs. Arthur Utley, Mrs. Wallace Bonesteel, Mrs. Nina Adams, Mrs. Corydon Blodgett and Mrs. Ed Pratt.

The birthday anniversary of Miss Lucille Hixon was delightfully celebrated on Saturday evening when Mrs. Allen J. Cleveland entertained at dinner in her honor. Candles and a lovely birthday cake with burning tapers were attractive on the table with covers placed for the honor guest, Miss Lucille Hixon. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hixon of Solo, Miss Loraine Hixon, Miss Lucille Ward, Miss Peggy Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bauer have as their house guest Mr. Bauer's father, M. Bauer of St. Joe, Missouri.

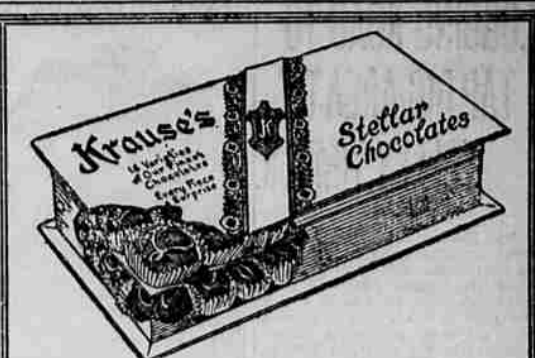

Tomorrow evening the Community bridge club will meet at the Ernest Peterson home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Lunsford will entertain the Friendly Five Hundred club at their home on Fairmount avenue this evening.

Mrs. George Dunford was hostess at an all day meeting of the Salem Daughters of the Nile club on Wednesday. The entire day was spent in sewing for the children of the Shrine hospital in Portland and twelve garments were completed during that time.

A business meeting and program were followed by a taffy pull at the home of Harmon Garrett on Wednesday evening when the Corona club of the high school met there. Gladys White and "Ted" Shanks were awarded the prize for the best taffy.

He laughed at Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

Now read this letter of thanks from Mr. Kane. It speaks for itself. Remember, it is because Kellogg's is ALL BRAN that it was so effective in his case—just as it has been in thousands of others. Only ALL BRAN can produce 100 per cent results.

My dear friend:
Imagine a young man weighing 145 pounds in the course of a few months parked in bed, a weakling weighing 94 pounds. An elderly lady whom I knew since I was a kid paid me what she thought was a last visit. Upon being told of my plight she immediately mentioned your product for such an ailment. Maybe some of us didn't look upon her views very lightly. . . . I was to laugh!

My dear friend, I am still laughing; . . . not at your product, but because I am able to. I am telling you and the world at large, "Eat Kellogg's 'Krumbled Bran'!" It should be called "Constipation's worst enemy." I owe you my heartfelt gratitude. I can talk, and whenever the opportunity presents itself, my mouth is always full of praise—Kellogg's 'Krumbled.' Wishing you countless days of progress, I am

Yours for success,
John M. Kane,
228 Salem St., Woburn, Mass.

Eat Kellogg's ALL-BRAN regularly to relieve constipation permanently. Two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. It is guaranteed to bring results, or your grocer will return your money. You will like the delicious nut-like flavor. Sold by all grocers.
