

LOCALS

ON THE AIR

TONIGHT (Pacific Time)

KGW—9:30 p. m.—Studio program by Consuelo Allee, mezzo-soprano, and Helen Van Houten, pianist, followed by final match in the Oregonian spelling contest by wire telephony from the Public Auditorium.

WOC—7:8 p. m. Palmer school orchestra.

KFSB—7:30-8:11 p. m. Special services, organ and choir, sermon by Almee Sample McPherson.

KHJ—8:11 p. m. J. Howard Johnson and assisting artists program, Baltimore hotel dance orchestra.

KFI—8:11 p. m. Special song recital, Downey chamber of commerce program, Packard radio club.

KGO—8:10 p. m. Play, "Rip Van Winkle," by the KGO players; music by the Arion trio.

KPO—8:12 p. m. Art Weidner's orchestra of the Fairmount hotel.

KNN—8:10 p. m. Musical specialties, dance music.

KSD—9:30-10:30 p. m. Dance program by the Variety club orchestra from the Hotel Jefferson.

WDAF—9:45-11 p. m. Night-hawk frolic.

KGO—10 p. m.—11 a. m. Henry Halstead dance orchestra.

Sunday

KGW—3 p. m. Concert by wire telephony from public Auditorium. Oils, Winkler, and King chorus, Mrs. Fred L. Olson, director, and Frederick W. Goodrich, organist, 6 p. m. Church services provided by United Presbyterian church; Rev. S. Earl DuBois, pastor, 7 p. m.—Dinner concert by the Burns concert orchestra of the Hotel Portland; intermission solos by Dorothy Lewis, mezzo-contralto.

Damages amounting to $4441 are asked of Z. J. Riggs growing out of the same automobile collision on the Pacific Highway for which Andor Junior sued Riggs to recover $30,000 and recovered in the neighborhood of $5000. Janet Wiley is the plaintiff.

She states she was riding in the back seat of Riggs' sedan and sustained permanent injuries because of the accident. She charges Riggs with failure to exercise proper precautions.

Turkey shoot at Liberty; next Sunday. C. T. Stevenson. 299

$5. A most interesting sale of high class hand made pattern hats, 125 models to be sold at $5 regardless of cost or former price. The French Shop, 115 High St., Masonic Temple. 299*

The popular Junior Rotary club quarter of Salem has been engaged to sing before the Portland Rotary club. The quartet is under the direction of Dan Langenberg, local vocal instructor and a member of the Salem Rotary club.

125 hats at $5, all seasonable goods, French Shop quality, French Shop style, distinction, 13 Meadowbrook models will be included at this price. The French Shop, Masonic Temple, High St. 299*

Balloon dance Turner Saturday night Paramount orchestra playing.

Miss Martha Leavenworth, secretary of the Marion-Polk county realtors' association, yesterday presented her resignation to the board of governors. She declared that her studies at Willamette University demanded more of her time. Her successor has not yet been selected.

Oh, boy! Some set that new Splendor Neutralized radio set. Comes knocked down all complete, even soldering iron and phones, and saves from $35 to $65 a set. At Gahlsdorf's store of housewares. 299*

Love The Jeweler, Salem.

The downtown office of the Southern Pacific company yesterday received from Portland a rather unique advertising poster for Christmas railway business. The sign pictures a Christmas tree from which are suspended gift boxes each naming the price of a railway ticket to distant cities.

Men's and boys' overcoats, blankets and robes on sale at manufacturer's prices. Thomas Kay Woolen Mills, 12th street. 299*

Potted plants, cut flowers, funeral designs, Adams' 453 Court.

I. E. Vinson, president of the State Chamber of Commerce, has been secured as the speaker for the noon luncheon Tuesday of the Salem Chamber of Commerce.

Hotel Bligh Arrivals

Portland, H. W. Cowan, P. P. Patton, P. S. Cleaver, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben S. Davidson, Harry B. Mack, Mrs. W. H. Hare, Mrs. John Emling, Roy T. Laine, Miss Rose E. Sweeney, G. C. Read, P. F. Creamer, Mill City, Baird Roberts, Mrs. Dorothy Warner, Harriette, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harris, Eugene, Rev. and Mrs. A. A. Gay, Mr. and Mrs. Louis T. Baine, Miss Juanita M. Baine, Lester F. Martin, Toledo, C. L. Hill, Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Wahl, Bend, Mrs. June V. Willis, Oregon City, Patrick A. Gannon, Venatchee, Wn., Beach, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Larson, Ray W. Metcalfe, Seattle, A. P. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed L. Smith, Miss Robert E. Smith, Spokane, Arthur D. Johnson, Boise, Ida, Clarence B. Walters, Mound City, S. Dak., J. M. Johnston, Los Angeles, P. E. Alford, Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Kohler, Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. DeWitt, Miss Rhea Bruno, Miss Millicent Bruno, Harry Wilson, Raymond F. Dickinson.

been done to his property by enlarging of the mill ditch from the Santiam river, asserts that in 1856 the legislature and the city council empowered the Willamette Woolen Manufacturing company to take water from the Santiam and convey it to Salem, and to enlarge the ditch as it saw fit. The paper company states it has purchased such rights and consequently asks for dismissal of the action. Martin asks for $2,350 in damages.

Make 1924 a merry Xmas electrically. Hallik Electric shop. 299*

Terwilliger undertaker phn 724. 299*

A special meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star, Chadwick chapter, has been called by the worthy matron for Tuesday afternoon at 3:30. Degrees will be conferred.

Oh, Dad, I'll tell you what I would appreciate for Xmas. Maybe you and mother would like it also. A real Splendor Neutralized radio receiver. 299*

Balloon dance Turner Saturday night Paramount orchestra playing.

A 60-ton load was aboard the inland Transportation company river boat "Relief" when it left dock here last night bound for the return trip to Portland. Coming up river yesterday the boat carried a 95-ton load.

Dance, Schludler hall Saturday night. 299

The Home Restaurant reopens Sunday with its regular chicken dinner at 45 cents, commencing this Sunday, December 14. Also chicken every Thursday evening. 299

Adjutant General George A. White, accompanied by Major T. P. Rilea, motored to Portland yesterday to attend a meeting of staff officers. Besides attending the staff meeting the officers will attend a school held for officers of the 41st division.

Lucky Dollar Balloon Dance, Derby hall, Saturday night. 299*

Xmas cards, reduced prices. Buzz, State St. opp. court house. 305*

Judge Harry Belt of Dallas was a Salem visitor yesterday, visiting at the supreme court where he will sit as a member after January 5. Judge Belt will move with his family to Salem Monday.

Dance at Tumble Inn every Saturday night. 299

Free, Free, Free, W. O. W. tonight, 1 lb. box fancy chocolates every half hour. 299*

The choir of the Central Congregational church last night went to Silverton where they presented a concert at the invitation of Rev. Clayton Jody, former pastor of Salem. The program included parts of a concert given about a month ago and special Christmas numbers.

All Star, W. O. W. tonight. 299*

Tickets on sale Grand theater Monday and Tuesday for DeMolay show.

The Salem fire department yesterday answered a call to 1344 Perry street where they extinguished a chimney fire without difficulty. No damage was done by the blaze.

Dance, W. O. W. tonight. Come. 299*

Dr. L. C. Marshall, osteopathic physician and surgeon, 228 Oregon bldg. 299*

A medical paper on "Colitis" by Dr. John H. Fitzgibbons of Portland occupies the principal place on the program of the Polk-Yamhill-Marion medical society for their meeting Tuesday night at the Gray-Belle here. The discussion will be opened by Dr. H. K. Stockwell of Salem. A dinner will be served at seven o'clock.

Dr. Stone, Tyler's drug store. 299*

S. B. A. card party, Mon. Dec. 15, home of Mrs. A. Bailey, 335 Bellevue. 301*

George W. Hug, city superintendent of schools, has consented to play one down in the Christmas football game in Portland Christmas day between Mike Moran's all-stars and a team composed of old U. of O. football men. The game is to be a benefit for Tiny Shields, injured veteran of the Oregon team. It is the plan of those in charge to play nearly fifty of the old Oregon veterans, each to play for only a few minutes.

A Hobby Set for her Christmas gift. Tyler's Drug store, 147 S. Commercial. 299*

The Argo dining room opens Sunday, Dec. 14. 299

R. Hurst paid a fine of $5 in the police court yesterday for a charge of speeding filed against him by Traffic Officer Hickman.

Make the family a present of a Radiola Hi-A for Xmas. Hallik's Electric shop. 299*

Turkey shoot at Liberty; next Sunday. C. H. Stevenson. 299

Mrs. Frank Brown returned last night from Albany where she has been since Monday serving as court reporter in a civil case and in the case of State vs. Clarence Bogels et al.

Balloon Dance Derby Hall, Saturday night. 299*

Take no spinal adjustments until you have a neurological reading by Dr. O. L. Scott, U. S. Nat'l bank bldg.

The Oregon Pulp & Paper company, in answering the action—

for damages instituted by C. A. Martin, for harm alleged to have been done to his property by enlarging of the mill ditch from the Santiam river, asserts that in 1856 the legislature and the city council empowered the Willamette Woolen Manufacturing company to take water from the Santiam and convey it to Salem, and to enlarge the ditch as it saw fit. The paper company states it has purchased such rights and consequently asks for dismissal of the action. Martin asks for $2,350 in damages.

Make 1924 a merry Xmas electrically. Hallik Electric shop. 299*

Terwilliger undertaker phn 724. 299*

A special meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star, Chadwick chapter, has been called by the worthy matron for Tuesday afternoon at 3:30. Degrees will be conferred.

Oh, Dad, I'll tell you what I would appreciate for Xmas. Maybe you and mother would like it also. A real Splendor Neutralized radio receiver. 299*

Balloon dance Turner Saturday night Paramount orchestra playing.

A 60-ton load was aboard the inland Transportation company river boat "Relief" when it left dock here last night bound for the return trip to Portland. Coming up river yesterday the boat carried a 95-ton load.

Dance, Schludler hall Saturday night. 299

The Home Restaurant reopens Sunday with its regular chicken dinner at 45 cents, commencing this Sunday, December 14. Also chicken every Thursday evening. 299

Adjutant General George A. White, accompanied by Major T. P. Rilea, motored to Portland yesterday to attend a meeting of staff officers. Besides attending the staff meeting the officers will attend a school held for officers of the 41st division.

Lucky Dollar Balloon Dance, Derby hall, Saturday night. 299*

Xmas cards, reduced prices. Buzz, State St. opp. court house. 305*

Judge Harry Belt of Dallas was a Salem visitor yesterday, visiting at the supreme court where he will sit as a member after January 5. Judge Belt will move with his family to Salem Monday.

Dance at Tumble Inn every Saturday night. 299

Free, Free, Free, W. O. W. tonight, 1 lb. box fancy chocolates every half hour. 299*

The choir of the Central Congregational church last night went to Silverton where they presented a concert at the invitation of Rev. Clayton Jody, former pastor of Salem. The program included parts of a concert given about a month ago and special Christmas numbers.

All Star, W. O. W. tonight. 299*

Tickets on sale Grand theater Monday and Tuesday for DeMolay show.

The Salem fire department yesterday answered a call to 1344 Perry street where they extinguished a chimney fire without difficulty. No damage was done by the blaze.

Dance, W. O. W. tonight. Come. 299*

Dr. L. C. Marshall, osteopathic physician and surgeon, 228 Oregon bldg. 299*

A medical paper on "Colitis" by Dr. John H. Fitzgibbons of Portland occupies the principal place on the program of the Polk-Yamhill-Marion medical society for their meeting Tuesday night at the Gray-Belle here. The discussion will be opened by Dr. H. K. Stockwell of Salem. A dinner will be served at seven o'clock.

Dr. Stone, Tyler's drug store. 299*

S. B. A. card party, Mon. Dec. 15, home of Mrs. A. Bailey, 335 Bellevue. 301*

George W. Hug, city superintendent of schools, has consented to play one down in the Christmas football game in Portland Christmas day between Mike Moran's all-stars and a team composed of old U. of O. football men. The game is to be a benefit for Tiny Shields, injured veteran of the Oregon team. It is the plan of those in charge to play nearly fifty of the old Oregon veterans, each to play for only a few minutes.

A Hobby Set for her Christmas gift. Tyler's Drug store, 147 S. Commercial. 299*

The Argo dining room opens Sunday, Dec. 14. 299

R. Hurst paid a fine of $5 in the police court yesterday for a charge of speeding filed against him by Traffic Officer Hickman.

Make the family a present of a Radiola Hi-A for Xmas. Hallik's Electric shop. 299*

Turkey shoot at Liberty; next Sunday. C. H. Stevenson. 299

Mrs. Frank Brown returned last night from Albany where she has been since Monday serving as court reporter in a civil case and in the case of State vs. Clarence Bogels et al.

Balloon Dance Derby Hall, Saturday night. 299*

Take no spinal adjustments until you have a neurological reading by Dr. O. L. Scott, U. S. Nat'l bank bldg.

The Oregon Pulp & Paper company, in answering the action—

for damages instituted by C. A. Martin, for harm alleged to have been done to his property by enlarging of the mill ditch from the Santiam river, asserts that in 1856 the legislature and the city council empowered the Willamette Woolen Manufacturing company to take water from the Santiam and convey it to Salem, and to enlarge the ditch as it saw fit. The paper company states it has purchased such rights and consequently asks for dismissal of the action. Martin asks for $2,350 in damages.

Make 1924 a merry Xmas electrically. Hallik Electric shop. 299*

Terwilliger undertaker phn 724. 299*

A special meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star, Chadwick chapter, has been called by the worthy matron for Tuesday afternoon at 3:30. Degrees will be conferred.

Oh, Dad, I'll tell you what I would appreciate for Xmas. Maybe you and mother would like it also. A real Splendor Neutralized radio receiver. 299*

Balloon dance Turner Saturday night Paramount orchestra playing.

A 60-ton load was aboard the inland Transportation company river boat "Relief" when it left dock here last night bound for the return trip to Portland. Coming up river yesterday the boat carried a 95-ton load.

Dance, Schludler hall Saturday night. 299

The Home Restaurant reopens Sunday with its regular chicken dinner at 45 cents, commencing this Sunday, December 14. Also chicken every Thursday evening. 299

Adjutant General George A. White, accompanied by Major T. P. Rilea, motored to Portland yesterday to attend a meeting of staff officers. Besides attending the staff meeting the officers will attend a school held for officers of the 41st division.

Lucky Dollar Balloon Dance, Derby hall, Saturday night. 299*

Xmas cards, reduced prices. Buzz, State St. opp. court house. 305*

Judge Harry Belt of Dallas was a Salem visitor yesterday, visiting at the supreme court where he will sit as a member after January 5. Judge Belt will move with his family to Salem Monday.

Dance at Tumble Inn every Saturday night. 299

Free, Free, Free, W. O. W. tonight, 1 lb. box fancy chocolates every half hour. 299*

The choir of the Central Congregational church last night went to Silverton where they presented a concert at the invitation of Rev. Clayton Jody, former pastor of Salem. The program included parts of a concert given about a month ago and special Christmas numbers.

All Star, W. O. W. tonight. 299*

Tickets on sale Grand theater Monday and Tuesday for DeMolay show.

The Salem fire department yesterday answered a call to 1344 Perry street where they extinguished a chimney fire without difficulty. No damage was done by the blaze.

Dance, W. O. W. tonight. Come. 299*

Dr. L. C. Marshall, osteopathic physician and surgeon, 228 Oregon bldg. 299*

A medical paper on "Colitis" by Dr. John H. Fitzgibbons of Portland occupies the principal place on the program of the Polk-Yamhill-Marion medical society for their meeting Tuesday night at the Gray-Belle here. The discussion will be opened by Dr. H. K. Stockwell of Salem. A dinner will be served at seven o'clock.

Dr. Stone, Tyler's drug store. 299*

S. B. A. card party, Mon. Dec. 15, home of Mrs. A. Bailey, 335 Bellevue. 301*

George W. Hug, city superintendent of schools, has consented to play one down in the Christmas football game in Portland Christmas day between Mike Moran's all-stars and a team composed of old U. of O. football men. The game is to be a benefit for Tiny Shields, injured veteran of the Oregon team. It is the plan of those in charge to play nearly fifty of the old Oregon veterans, each to play for only a few minutes.

A Hobby Set for her Christmas gift. Tyler's Drug store, 147 S. Commercial. 299*

The Argo dining room opens Sunday, Dec. 14. 299

R. Hurst paid a fine of $5 in the police court yesterday for a charge of speeding filed against him by Traffic Officer Hickman.

Make the family a present of a Radiola Hi-A for Xmas. Hallik's Electric shop. 299*

Turkey shoot at Liberty; next Sunday. C. H. Stevenson. 299

Mrs. Frank Brown returned last night from Albany where she has been since Monday serving as court reporter in a civil case and in the case of State vs. Clarence Bogels et al.

Balloon Dance Derby Hall, Saturday night. 299*

Take no spinal adjustments until you have a neurological reading by Dr. O. L. Scott, U. S. Nat'l bank bldg.

The Oregon Pulp & Paper company, in answering the action—

for damages instituted by C. A. Martin, for harm alleged to have been done to his property by enlarging of the mill ditch from the Santiam river, asserts that in 1856 the legislature and the city council empowered the Willamette Woolen Manufacturing company to take water from the Santiam and convey it to Salem, and to enlarge the ditch as it saw fit. The paper company states it has purchased such rights and consequently asks for dismissal of the action. Martin asks for $2,350 in damages.

Make 1924 a merry Xmas electrically. Hallik Electric shop. 299*

Terwilliger undertaker phn 724. 299*

A special meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star, Chadwick chapter, has been called by the worthy matron for Tuesday afternoon at 3:30. Degrees will be conferred.

Oh, Dad, I'll tell you what I would appreciate for Xmas. Maybe you and mother would like it also. A real Splendor Neutralized radio receiver. 299*

Balloon dance Turner Saturday night Paramount orchestra playing.

A 60-ton load was aboard the inland Transportation company river boat "Relief" when it left dock here last night bound for the return trip to Portland. Coming up river yesterday the boat carried a 95-ton load.

Dance, Schludler hall Saturday night. 299

The Home Restaurant reopens Sunday with its regular chicken dinner at 45 cents, commencing this Sunday, December 14. Also chicken every Thursday evening. 299

Adjutant General George A. White, accompanied by Major T. P. Rilea, motored to Portland yesterday to attend a meeting of staff officers. Besides attending the staff meeting the officers will attend a school held for officers of the 41st division.

Lucky Dollar Balloon Dance, Derby hall, Saturday night. 299*

Xmas cards, reduced prices. Buzz, State St. opp. court house. 305*

Judge Harry Belt of Dallas was a Salem visitor yesterday, visiting at the supreme court where he will sit as a member after January 5. Judge Belt will move with his family to Salem Monday.

Dance at Tumble Inn every Saturday night. 299

Free, Free, Free, W. O. W. tonight, 1 lb. box fancy chocolates every half hour. 299*

The choir of the Central Congregational church last night went to Silverton where they presented a concert at the invitation of Rev. Clayton Jody, former pastor of Salem. The program included parts of a concert given about a month ago and special Christmas numbers.

All Star, W. O. W. tonight. 299*

Tickets on sale Grand theater Monday and Tuesday for DeMolay show.

The Salem fire department yesterday answered a call to 1344 Perry street where they extinguished a chimney fire without difficulty. No damage was done by the blaze.

Dance, W. O. W. tonight. Come. 299*

Dr. L. C. Marshall, osteopathic physician and surgeon, 228 Oregon bldg. 299*

A medical paper on "Colitis" by Dr. John H. Fitzgibbons of Portland occupies the principal place on the program of the Polk-Yamhill-Marion medical society for their meeting Tuesday night at the Gray-Belle here. The discussion will be opened by Dr. H. K. Stockwell of Salem. A dinner will be served at seven o'clock.

Dr. Stone, Tyler's drug store. 299*

S. B. A. card party, Mon. Dec. 15, home of Mrs. A. Bailey, 335 Bellevue. 301*

George W. Hug, city superintendent of schools, has consented to play one down in the Christmas football game in Portland Christmas day between Mike Moran's all-stars and a team composed of old U. of O. football men. The game is to be a benefit for Tiny Shields, injured veteran of the Oregon team. It is the plan of those in charge to play nearly fifty of the old Oregon veterans, each to play for only a few minutes.

A Hobby Set for her Christmas gift. Tyler's Drug store, 147 S. Commercial. 299*

The Argo dining room opens Sunday, Dec. 14. 299

R. Hurst paid a fine of $5 in the police court yesterday for a charge of speeding filed against him by Traffic Officer Hickman.

Make the family a present of a Radiola Hi-A for Xmas. Hallik's Electric shop. 299*

Turkey shoot at Liberty; next Sunday. C. H. Stevenson. 299

Mrs. Frank Brown returned last night from Albany where she has been since Monday serving as court reporter in a civil case and in the case of State vs. Clarence Bogels et al.

Balloon Dance Derby Hall, Saturday night. 299*

Take no spinal adjustments until you have a neurological reading by Dr. O. L. Scott, U. S. Nat'l bank bldg.

The Oregon Pulp & Paper company, in answering the action—

for damages instituted by C. A. Martin, for harm alleged to have been done to his property by enlarging of the mill ditch from the Santiam river, asserts that in 1856 the legislature and the city council empowered the Willamette Woolen Manufacturing company to take water from the Santiam and convey it to Salem, and to enlarge the ditch as it saw fit. The paper company states it has purchased such rights and consequently asks for dismissal of the action. Martin asks for $2,350 in damages.

Make 1924 a merry Xmas electrically. Hallik Electric shop. 299*

Terwilliger undertaker phn 724. 299*

A special meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star, Chadwick chapter, has been called by the worthy matron for Tuesday afternoon at 3:30. Degrees will be conferred.

Oh, Dad, I'll tell you what I would appreciate for Xmas. Maybe you and mother would like it also. A real Splendor Neutralized radio receiver. 299*

Balloon dance Turner Saturday night Paramount orchestra playing.