Society Dances At Club House

When more than sixty couples gathered at the Illahes country club last night for a formal dance the New Year received a welcome that was fervent and hearty. The club house was attractively decorated with fir boughs, mistletoe and holly, forming a lovely background for the many beautiful gowns worn by the matrons and maids.

The country club dance occupied the leading place among the social affairs given last night. Several charming dinners preceded it but many of the smaller watch parties which were half planned several weeks ago were dropped when the announcement of a dance at the Illahes country club was made.

This was the second formal dance of the season. The committee in charge of the arrangements consisted of F. D. Thibelen, Broyman, Holes and Carl Gabrielson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Farmer were hosts at a charming twelve cover dinner last night preceding the dance at the Illahes country club. Lovely Christmas greenery with tall red candles formed an attractive centerpiece with covers placed for Mr. and Mrs. Joe Knapp of Portland, Miss Constance Sawyer of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Roberts, Mrs. Frances Cochrane of Portland, Dave Dube of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. McMichael, Jack Elliott and the hosts Mr. and Mrs. Farmer.

Members of the intermediate league were entertained at a charming watch night party at the M. C. Findley home last night. Various games were enjoyed by the guests during the evening and at the midnight hour the new year was ushered in with joyousness and hilarity.

Among the delightful watch parties was the "dumbar" party given by Miss Alice Moore at the W. R. Bush home. Among Miss Moore's guests were the Misses Eloise, Ruth and Evangeline Heinick, Miss Sevilla Ricks and Miss Laura Pemberton.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Max Gehlar on the Kingwood Heights road was the scene of a delightful Christmas day gathering. The guests included Mrs. Gehlar's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Echnello, and her brother, Lawrence Schnuelle, and Miss Kibby, Arnold Springer, Miss Louise Manning, Miss Dorothy Manning and Mark Gehlar.

The afternoon was spent in playing novel games. Among the prizes offered to the victors, the best was won by Miss Kibby and Lawrence Schnuelle.

Ensign Ralph Wilson, who has been the guest for ten days of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilson, left this morning for San Pedro to return to his post on the U. S. S. California. Ensign Wilson graduated from the naval academy in Annapolis with the June, 1924, class.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bross have as their guests today Mr. and Mrs. A. C. F. Perry and Miss Eleanor and Charles Perry, and Mrs. Joelle Robertson and daughter, Katherine.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Brewer of Stayton are the dinner guests today of Mrs. J. H. Brewer.

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Robertson have as their guests today Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Apperson, Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Apperson and Miss Mildred Apperson, all of McMinnville.

Mrs. George H. Alden spent Tuesday and Wednesday of this week visiting in Portland.

One of the most delightful New Year's eve gatherings was held in the Morningide country home at Mr. and Mrs. Lester L. Laws when they entertained the members of the Fairmount Hill club and their husbands.

Five tables of guests occupied the interest of the festive first part of the evening. As the New Year dawned the playing ceased and 1925 was greeted in a fitting fashion.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Laws were Mr. and Mrs. M. Gregory, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. B. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin M. Hoffnail, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Huffman, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Schur, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence E. Oberer, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Percy, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Stockwell, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Grabenhorst and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Grabenhorst.

Mrs. John Caughell and Mrs. J. C. Evans will leave tomorrow morning for California where they will spend a month. They will visit in San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego.

Confetti, serpentine and gay music, aided in the festivities accompanying the welcoming of the New Year at the Al Krause home last night. It was a joyous occasion and the twenty people present enjoyed it to the utmost. At midnight a delicious supper was served.

In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Linnie Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Schloberg, Mr. and Mrs. Melvitt, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Ohling, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Daise, Miss Mable Victor, Ernest Bonesteel, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Krause of Toledo, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Al Krause.

Mrs. E. Manning was hostess in her home on the Kingwood Heights road last week to members of the Book and Thimble club. Because of the unfavorable weather conditions prevailing the preparations for a community Christmas party were discontinued.

The club members met around the large open fire in the living room of the Manning home. Christmas decorations added to the enjoyment of the guests. Mrs. Beaver read an interesting article on farm laws which was followed by round table discussion. This was followed by a reading by Mrs. E. Patterson and the singing of Christmas carols by the group.

The following members were present: Mrs. F. H. Bentley, Mrs. Charles Adams, Mrs. Charles Schwartz, Mrs. Max Gehlar, Mrs. Mary Beaver, Mrs. E. Patterson, and the hostess, Mrs. E. Manning. Bobby and Danny Adams were special visitors.

Mrs. Beaver will be the next hostess. Mrs. E. Manning and Mrs. Max Gehlar will have charge of the program at this meeting.

T.H.D. Club Dance Given On Tuesday

A charming affair of Tuesday evening was the dance at the country club sponsored by the members of the T. H. D. club. Lovely Christmas decorations of fir boughs, mistletoe, holly with touches of red were used effectively. A clever feature dance was given by Miss Frances Martin.

Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Cal F. Pitton, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Elkins and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bragg.

Club members and their guests present were Miss Ruth Walker, Miss Edna Worden, Miss Irene Boje, Miss Bertha Miller, Miss Marlow Miller, Miss Doris Bowden, Miss Olive Casto, Miss Reta Claggett, Miss Pauline Patterson, Miss Elsie Boynton, Miss Bernice Victor, Miss Elsie Victor, Miss Evelyn Himmis, Miss Frances Plov, Miss Eva Roberts, Miss Theresa Albrich, Miss Katherine Savage, Miss Hattie Brown, Miss Irene Larson, Miss Esther Campbell, Miss Melba Robinson, Miss Mizpah Palmerton, Miss Virginia Wilson, Miss Loretta Miller, Miss Florence Walker, Miss Gladys Haffety, Miss Genevieve Elkins, Miss Leah Sullivan, Miss Emma Hewlett, Miss Grace Hunt, Miss Anna McIntyre, Miss Helen Ficke, Miss Mildred Spang, Miss Della Amaler, Miss Maxine Glover, Miss Frances Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Willett will be hosts at a seven o'clock dinner at the Grey Belle this evening. Covers will be laid for six.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Bishop and son, Arthur, of Portland, were the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Clough and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bishop.

Miss Mary and Miss Clara Stitz, students at St. Mary's academy in Portland, are spending the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wenzel. They will return to Portland Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason Bishop are entertaining as their dinner guests today Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Elgin and Katherine, Clifford and Jimmie Elgin.

Mrs. Lawrence Imlah entertained twelve of her Sigma Kappa sorority sisters at a delightful one o'clock luncheon and an afternoon of bridge on Tuesday. A large bowl of flowers formed the centerpiece and about the luncheon table were seated Miss Florence Ingham of Portland, Miss Mae McDonald and Miss Alice Krider of Dallas, Mrs. Reed Rowland, Miss Mabel Marcus, Miss Marjorie Brown, Miss Agnes Durette, Mrs. Arthur Borgenson, Miss Jessie Gibson, Miss Bertha Vick, Miss Marjorie Blake, Miss Bernice Kirkwood and hostess, Mrs. Imlah.

High score at bridge was won by Miss Mae McDonald and consolation went to Miss Florence Ingham.

Mrs. Reed Rowland will entertain the Sigma Kappa girls early in January.

Only Woman Diver in America.

MISS HILDA JOHNSON

One of the largest wrecking and salvaging companies of the country, with headquarters in New York City, has employed Miss Hilda Johnson as a deep sea diver, the first woman to undertake such hazardous work in America.

Wedding bells rang out at midnight to greet the new year and to announce the marriage of Miss Ciella Curtis and Richard Fish who were united as the clock struck the last hour of 1924 at the Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. L. Putnam, pastor of the Court street Christian church. Miss Nellie Curtis, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Tom Allen was best man.

Only the immediate relatives of the couple were present for the ceremony. Following a wedding supper the couple left for a motor trip to Seattle where they will spend their honeymoon.

Mrs. A. V. Davidson is spending the holidays with her son, R. R. Davidson, and his family at Dillard, Oregon.

Mrs. Claude Burch (Viola Ash) who has been visiting with her father and brother during the Christmas holidays was the dinner guest of Dr. and Mrs. John R. Siten on Tuesday. Mrs. Burch will leave on Saturday for her home in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Henry B. Thibelen, Miss Nell Thibelen and Mrs. Cecil Hawley will be hostesses in the Thibelen home on Court street at a meeting of Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution on Saturday.

Mrs. J. W. Harbison will read a paper on "The Women of the Revolution." A business meeting will follow the program.

All club women have become interested in the showing of better films and this interest is concentrated tomorrow in the showing of the Yale university film, "Columbus," which will be shown both afternoon and evening at the Liberty theater.

The educational committee of the American Association of University Women is directly responsible for the showing in Salem and they have received the hearty support in their enterprise of all of the leading women's clubs of Salem.

Two Iowa Banks Close
Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 1.—Two Des Moines banks, the Mechanics Savings and the Commercial Savings, closed their doors today and were taken over by the state banking department, the cause in each case being given as prospective or actual heavy withdrawals of public and private funds.

Far from taking away its value, everything which makes virtue accessible, simple, familiar and companionable, makes its use more frequent, and its reality a great deal less doubtful.

WOMAN SO ILL WASHED DISHES SITTING DOWN

Mrs. Ashcroft's Remarkable Recovery After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Covington, Ky.—"I was so weak and nervous I could hardly do my household work and could not stand because of the bearing-down pains in my back and abdomen. I sat down most of the time and did what I could do that way—washing dishes, etc. One day a book describing Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine was put in my mail-box. I saw how the Vegetable Compound had helped others so I gave it a trial. I had to take about a dozen bottles before I gained my strength but I certainly praise this medicine. Then I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood medicine for poor blood. I was cold all the time. I would be so cold I could hardly sit still and in the palms of my hands there would be drops of sweat. I also used the Sensitive Wash and I recommend it also. You may publish this letter and I will gladly answer letters from women and advise my neighbors about these medicines."—Mrs. HARRY ASHCROFT, 652 Beech Avenue, Covington, Kentucky.

A Pledge of Greater Service for the New Year

THIS Store ever looks forward. What it may or may not have accomplished has no bearing on the future.

Looking toward the New Year we have every confidence it will be the greatest test of our career, but you will not find us wanting. The Miller reputation for quality, at consistently lowest prices possible, is built upon the solid rock of dependability, for the merchandise offered must give satisfaction, no matter what the price.

We—Miller's—believe in Salem. We are proud of the city's past, and we forsee for it a great future. Civic pride and a spirit of fair dealing together with our wonderful natural advantages assure steady growth.

It is deeply gratifying to us, and perhaps interesting to you, that we handled the largest holiday business in our history. We are fully aware that it is the hearty support of the people of this city and vicinity, that made possible this splendid success.

And so we wish to express our heartfelt thanks to you, our customers, and to pledge to you a store of greater service for the year of 1925 and ever afterward.

We wish you all the best of everything for the New Year.
