

Society and Club News

Edited by Rosalia Keber, Phone 82

Mrs. White Is Hostess At Dance

On the evening of New Year's day Derby hall was the scene of a most beautiful and enjoyable dance when Mrs. Ralph White was hostess honoring members of her senior ballet dancing class.

During the evening Miss Mildred Roberts and Miss Maxine Myers gave a charming snowflake ballet dance and Miss Fay Watson and Miss Lucile Pettijohn received much applause for their Peirrot and Peirrette dance.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Kubo, Mr. and Mrs. James Teed, Dr. and Mrs. Armin Berger, Mr. and Mrs. K. A. DeMarais, Mr. and Mrs. Janz, Miss Anna Belle Golden, Miss Marjorie Helmer, Miss Mable Hunter, Miss Margaret Pierce, Miss Elvira Gould, Miss Grace Quackenbush, Miss Melba Davernant, Miss Irene Larson, Miss Retha Nash, Miss Laura Marr, Miss Cleo Walker, Miss Hattie Brown, Miss Dorothy Swegle, Miss Helen Rameaden, Miss Mildred Roberts, Miss Elvira Boynton, Miss Aida Nash, Miss Gertrude Barkley, Miss Helen Savage, Miss Fay Wolf, Miss Dorothy Holston, Miss Helen Pollock, Miss Betty Hummel, Miss Valerie Briggs, Miss Gladys Stevenson, Miss Dorothy Hinds, Miss Kathryn Savage, Miss Zelma Busch, Miss Catherine Hartley, Miss Margaret Tucker, Miss Molly Schwaubauer, Miss Helen Pettijohn, Miss Grace Naden, Miss Frances Looney, Miss Lorena Geer, Miss Lucile Pettijohn, Miss Anna Winship, Miss Virginia Dorset, Miss Virginia McEntee, Miss Helen Breitenstein, Miss Madeline Heenan, Miss Mary Heenan, Miss Pauline Patterson, Miss Elsie Vitor, Miss Luella Patton, Miss Elvira McElroy, Miss Elizabeth Taft, Miss Odie Matthews, Miss Kreta Janz, Miss Mildred Hauser, Miss Ruby Frazer and Miss Esther Confield.

Robert Rameaden, Elmer Harben, Thomas McAllen, Charles Dinham, Boyd Felber, Wilson J. Witt, Carl Nosseke, Glen Nash, Dennis Heenan, Clark Jackson, Charles Coffey, Morris McKenzie, Carl Charlton, Ronald Fitzrell, Laurence Austin, Darwin George, Frederick Arke, Kermet Thompson, Glenn Gray, Paul Brown, Herbert Darby, Lyman Laycock, Charles Redding, Julian Provost, Kenneth C. Perry, Jack Crawford, Leon Nelson, Lewis Lamb, Ned Strahorn, Wayne Kain, Roland Reinhardt, Jack Luckner, Otto White, John Drager, Irving Duffley, Wallace Carson, Jerome Hinn, Jack Carter, Carl Fischer, Wesley Ellis, Harold Larsen, Joe Lane, Lewis West, Donald Decker, Albert Bayne, Kent Walker, William Marr, Edward Goodenough, Frank Lynch and Russell Donesteele.

Mrs. Henry Meyers will be hostess at a meeting of the Thurs day bridge luncheon club next Thursday.

Among those greeting the New Year at the St. Francis hotel in San Francisco on Wednesday evening were Mrs. Frank Sincolor and Mrs. Charles A. Gray who are spending a month in the south.

Miss Helen Roberts and Miss Dorothy Livesley will return to St. Helens hall in Portland on Monday after spending the Christmas holidays with their parents.

A number of prominent Salem folk will be guests in Albany tonight of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Young, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cullack and Mr. and Mrs. John Pollock at a dancing party. Among those who will motor down for the affair are Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. William Burghardt, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Slade, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Thelen, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Rahn, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley and Carl Gabrielsen.

Mr. and Mrs. George G. Brown, Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Ollinger, Harold Ollinger and Joe Lane were the New Year's guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd W. Schiesler of Harriensburg.

Miss Bert Eckertlin of Portland is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Farmer. Miss Eckertlin will remain until Sunday. Preceding the dance at the country club on Wednesday, New Year's eve, Mr. and Mrs. Farmer were hosts at a charming dinner covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Homer Egan, Miss E. and Mrs. Albert Egan and Mr. and Mrs. Farmer.

The War Mothers will meet on Tuesday at the chamber of commerce. The meeting which will be called at 2:30 is a very important one and a full attendance is desired.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Churchill are entertaining as their guests over the New Year's week end Mr. and Mrs. Carl Goodwin of Portland.

Unveiling of New Flags Thursday

Thursday, January 8, is a date of importance in state house annals for on the evening of that day, commencing at eight o'clock, four new flags, two national and two state, will be formally unveiled in the senate chamber.

The purchase of these flags was delegated by Secretary of State Sam A. Koser to Barbara Friehtle tent, Daughters of Veterans, of which Mrs. P. L. Waters is president. The new flags, made of beautiful hand sewn silk, will replace the tattered and worn emblems that have hung in the senate and the house for the past thirty five years.

The formal unveiling will be attended by impressive ceremonies and an attractive program. Judge George M. Brown will give the principal address. George Griffith, state commander of the American Legion will also speak. Music will be furnished by the high school orchestra and the chorus choir of the First Methodist church.

The committee of Barbara Friehtle who attended to the detail of planning and ordering these flags from Annin company in New York, consisted of Mr. Susan Varty, Mrs. G. D. Brown, Mrs. C. H. Green, Elma Fisher, Miss Grace Babcock, Miss Julia Webster and Mrs. LaMoine Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Copper were hosts at a small party on New Year's eve.

During the dinner hour music will be furnished by Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Miss Ruth Bedford and Miss Ruth Kuhn. Between one hundred and twenty five and one hundred and fifty covers will be laid.

An extensive rummage sale for the purpose of increasing their building fund will be held by the business and professional women's club next week. The sale will be held on north Commercial street in the building formerly occupied by the G. W. Johnson clothing company next to the United States national bank building. It will commence next Saturday, January 10, and will be carried over into the next week. Anyone wishing to contribute articles for the sale is asked to leave them at the scene of the sale after the morning of the tenth.

The child welfare question will be discussed at the meeting of the women's republican study club at the home of Mrs. C. F. Bishop on Court street, Monday afternoon.

The children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beckley gathered at their home on New Year's day at a most enjoyable family reunion. Six of the seven children of Mr. and Mrs. Beckley and their children were present.

Dinner was served at noon at two long tables and attractive Christmas decorations added to the festivity of the affair.

In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Beckley and their children, Irene, Marian, Harriet and John; W. B. Beckley of Waldport; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Beckley of Hood River, and their children, Robert, Dana, Philip and Doris Anne; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Beckley and their children, Eva Louise, Dorothy, Helen and Hulda; Dr. and Mrs. Grover Belling and their children, Groverlee and Lantia; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Albee and John Edward Albee; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fieble and son Russell Carl of Corvallis. In all there were sixteen grandchildren present.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Reese of Moro were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmo S. White over New Year.

Miss Mary West returned to Eugene today where she is a student at the university, after spending several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wharton L. West.

New Year's guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Spang were Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Dalton and sons, Billy and Bobby of Dallas. Mrs. Dalton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Spang.

Charles Kay Bishop spent the New Year's holiday in Portland with his father, Chauncey Bishop of Pendleton.

The Salem Heights Woman's Progressive club held a regular meeting in the club house yesterday. Three separate papers were read during the afternoon. "Good Books for Children," was the topic chosen by Mrs. Myron Von Eppen. Mrs. Willis Caldwell read an interesting paper on "Kinderarten," and Mrs. A. M. Chapman ably handled the subject of "Motion Pictures."

Miss Malda Caldwell gave a delightful piano solo and Miss Mariel Robinson a reading. Plans were formulated for a children's party on January 10 and a story hour on January 17 to be sponsored by the child welfare committee. Mrs. Janet Leigh is in charge.

Country Home Scene of Wedding

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Rowland was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Tuesday when Mr. and Mrs. Rowland's daughter, Miss Sarah Lucile Rowland and James Roland Parker were married by Rev. George Cromley of the Presbyterian church at Croswell.

The wedding was the result of a college romance begun several years ago when both were students at Oregon Agricultural college.

The living rooms of the Rowland home were attractively decorated with a wealth of Oregon grape, ferns and mistletoe with blooming plants adding a color note. The stairway by which the bride party entered the living room was ornamented with ivy vines and Christmas greenery.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

Country Home Scene of Wedding

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Rowland was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Tuesday when Mr. and Mrs. Rowland's daughter, Miss Sarah Lucile Rowland and James Roland Parker were married by Rev. George Cromley of the Presbyterian church at Croswell.

The wedding was the result of a college romance begun several years ago when both were students at Oregon Agricultural college.

The living rooms of the Rowland home were attractively decorated with a wealth of Oregon grape, ferns and mistletoe with blooming plants adding a color note. The stairway by which the bride party entered the living room was ornamented with ivy vines and Christmas greenery.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

Country Home Scene of Wedding

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Rowland was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Tuesday when Mr. and Mrs. Rowland's daughter, Miss Sarah Lucile Rowland and James Roland Parker were married by Rev. George Cromley of the Presbyterian church at Croswell.

The wedding was the result of a college romance begun several years ago when both were students at Oregon Agricultural college.

The living rooms of the Rowland home were attractively decorated with a wealth of Oregon grape, ferns and mistletoe with blooming plants adding a color note. The stairway by which the bride party entered the living room was ornamented with ivy vines and Christmas greenery.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

Country Home Scene of Wedding

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Rowland was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Tuesday when Mr. and Mrs. Rowland's daughter, Miss Sarah Lucile Rowland and James Roland Parker were married by Rev. George Cromley of the Presbyterian church at Croswell.

The wedding was the result of a college romance begun several years ago when both were students at Oregon Agricultural college.

The living rooms of the Rowland home were attractively decorated with a wealth of Oregon grape, ferns and mistletoe with blooming plants adding a color note. The stairway by which the bride party entered the living room was ornamented with ivy vines and Christmas greenery.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

Country Home Scene of Wedding

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Rowland was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Tuesday when Mr. and Mrs. Rowland's daughter, Miss Sarah Lucile Rowland and James Roland Parker were married by Rev. George Cromley of the Presbyterian church at Croswell.

The wedding was the result of a college romance begun several years ago when both were students at Oregon Agricultural college.

The living rooms of the Rowland home were attractively decorated with a wealth of Oregon grape, ferns and mistletoe with blooming plants adding a color note. The stairway by which the bride party entered the living room was ornamented with ivy vines and Christmas greenery.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

Country Home Scene of Wedding

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Rowland was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Tuesday when Mr. and Mrs. Rowland's daughter, Miss Sarah Lucile Rowland and James Roland Parker were married by Rev. George Cromley of the Presbyterian church at Croswell.

The wedding was the result of a college romance begun several years ago when both were students at Oregon Agricultural college.

The living rooms of the Rowland home were attractively decorated with a wealth of Oregon grape, ferns and mistletoe with blooming plants adding a color note. The stairway by which the bride party entered the living room was ornamented with ivy vines and Christmas greenery.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

The bride was charming in a gown of panne velvet of peacock blue. Her lace sleeves were fastened with pearls.

CHURCHES

THE FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL—Corner Church and State streets, Blaine E. Kirkpatrick, minister. Nineteen years in the service of men in the name of Christ. Make a bargain with yourself to begin on the first Sunday of the year and then go to church every Sunday. Class meeting 9:15 a. m. in the northwest corner room downstairs. Free. P. Litchfield, leader. Sunday school 9:45 a. m. H. F. Shanks, Supt. Morning worship 11 o'clock. This is the church of good music. The pastor will preach on the subject: "The Most Significant Resolution." A special New Year's message to the congregation. Every member is urged to be present this first Sunday of the year, but all visitors are welcome. At the same hour as the morning worship, the new program for Junior Church is being launched for boys and girls in the Fourth to the Ninth Grades inclusive. This will be held in the annex and will be in direct charge of Miss Mary Findley, director of the Religious Education. The subject for the sermon for this week will be "Ways and a Way." Epworth League 6:30 o'clock. There is a place either in the First, Second or Third Chapter for every young person in the church and community. Evening services 7:30 o'clock. The pastor's sermon will be on the subject "Spared for Another Year." The service will last just one hour. During the next few weeks the evening services are to be of unusual importance, and you are invited to begin the new year right by being a "twice-er." Union week of prayer services held in four sections of the city during the coming week will be participated in by this church. You are urged to attend the service nearest you.

The Vincent Entertainers are to occupy the evening hour at the First Christian church on Sunday. Banjo, Guitar, Negro and Hawaiian melodies feature their program. Mr. Vincent is a clever cartoonist and enlivens the program by his crayon work. The public is invited. Come and bring your friends. Lecture is free.

CHRISTIAN AND MISSIONARY ALLIANCE—Tabernacle Perry St. Sunday school convenes at 2 p. m. B. M. Soobis, Supt. Afternoon service 3 p. m. Communion of the Lord's Supper will be observed. Evening evangelistic service subject, "First Things First." Tuesday evening special prayer service. Friday evening 7:30 service Saturday 7:30 Young People's service. H. E. Caswell, pastor.

CHURCH OF GOD—1346 North Church street, J. J. West, pastor. Sunday school 10 a. m. Mr. Walker, Supt. Suitable classes for all grades of scholars. Preaching service 11 a. m. Young people's services 6:45 and evening prayer and preaching service at 7:30 p. m. Regular weekly prayer meeting Wednesday evening 7:30. A cordial invitation is given to all to attend the services.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN—On church street, between Chemsheketa and Center streets, Ward Willis Long, minister. 9:20 a. m. Sunday school, H. E. Barrett, Supt. The Men's Bible Class and the Tri-C class meet in Ripdon's Parlor, corner Cottage and Chemsheketa sts. Last entrance, 11:00 a. m. Sabbath worship, sermon "What Shall the Harvest Be?" by the minister. The choir will sing "The God of Abram Praise." Buck, 3:00 p. m. Junior Society, 6:30 p. m. Christian Endeavor societies, 7:30 p. m. Sacred Musicals. The splendid quality of our Christmas music prompted a unanimous request for its repetition and we are deeply grateful to Mr. H. H. Robertson and his chorus for their four helpers for the program to be given this evening. It is a duplicate, with but a few slight changes of the Christmas Vesper service. See complete program given elsewhere in this paper. This church is cooperating in the city-wide observance of the International week of prayer this week.

EVANGELICAL—Chemsheketa street, P. W. Lauer, pastor. Sermon 11 a. m. subject, "The True Message." Sermon 7:30 p. m. subject, "The New Year." Sunday school 10 a. m., O. R. Strausbaugh, has been re-elected as superintendent. Evangelical League at 6:30 p. m.; Vera Martin, newly elected president will have the meeting in charge. Sermon at Auburn at 3 p. m. Prayer services Thursday evening.

COURT STREET CHRISTIAN—Corner 17th and Court streets, R. L. Putnam, minister. Bible school 9:45 a. m. Chris. J. Kowitz, Supt. Graded school with classes for all ages. Music furnished by Miss Turley. Christian Endeavor societies at 6:30 p. m. Always a two groups—Intermediate and Senior. Very interesting meetings for the young people. The newly elected officers will be installed at the close of the meeting. Evangelistic service and sermon 7:30. Sermon: "The Rejected Gift" with those with an original pagan content. The annual autumn and helping. The annual supper and meeting of the church will take place in the old auditorium beginning at 6:30 Monday evening. All members are requested to be present. Thursday is "Church Day." We resume our regular program each Thursday in the future. Women meeting in afternoon with coffee and lunch at 6:30 p. m. Voluntary meeting during lunch hour. Church school 7:30 p. m. Let there be a good attendance. The teacher training class will be started. Friday 7:30 last service of Week of Prayer. Z. C. Mower, minister of the Castle Chapel United Brethren church will be the speaker. We urge you to participate in these services. Always a warm welcome to any and all who will attend.

Next week is the Annual Week of Prayer. At a recent meeting of the Salem Ministerial Union the city was divided and chairmen appointed for each district. P. W. Lauer was appointed chairman of the East Salem churches to arrange for the services in that part of the city. Yesterday at a meeting of the ministers of the East Salem churches the following program was adopted: Tuesday at the Castle United Brethren church, corner N. 17th and Nebraska sts., with P. W. Lauer, of 17th St. Evangelical church, speaker; Wednesday at the First Methodist church, corner N. 13th and Center streets, with C. H. Hopkins of Nazarene church, speaker; Thursday at Nazarene church with A. F. Hillmer of Center Street M. E. speaker; Friday at Court Street Christian church with Z. C. Mower, Castle United Brethren church, speaker. An offering will be taken the last night of the week of prayer. The churches where the services are held will furnish the music. The themes will be along lines of prayer, evangelism, missionary and stewardship. The people of each district in Salem are invited to attend these cooperative meetings among the churches.

The churches of the city are making preparations to hold Week of Prayer services beginning next Monday and continuing through Friday. The churches will be grouped according to districts. Six down town congregations will meet each evening at 7:30. The general topic to be considered by all the churches will be used with local application. The following leaders and speakers have been chosen for the down-town group: Monday—Leader, E. H. Shanks; speaker, Blaine E. Kirkpatrick; Tuesday—Leader, J. J. Evans; speaker, W. C. Kautner; Wednesday—Leader, H. E. Kirkpatrick; speaker, E. H. Shanks; Thursday—Leader, Leader, W. C. Kautner; speaker, Ward Willis Long; Friday—Leader, Ward Willis Long; speaker, C. C. Poling.

NAZARENE—Corner 19th and Marion streets, C. J. West, minister. Sunday school 9:45 a. m. W. B. Hardy, Supt. Morning worship at 11 o'clock. Sermon by the Rev. Mary L. Hopkins, subject: "God Given Strength." Young People's meeting 6:30 p. m., Miss Hattie McGee, president. Evening service 7:30 p. m., subject "After Death What?" Thursday evening 7:30 service. Sermon by Rev. A. F. Hillmer. Everybody welcome. Come, start the New Year right.

SCANDINAVIAN M. E.—15th and Mill streets, Patrick Dahlin, pastor. Sunday school 10 a. m. Gust Anderson, Supt. Morning worship 11 a. m. Epworth League 7:15 p. m. Evening service 8 p. m. Rev. C. A. Cederberg of Portland, who has brought such a great inspiration to us during the past week will conduct the meetings. Do not miss this opportunity to hear Dr. Cederberg. On Thursday night prayer meeting at 7:30 p. m. We extend to all a hearty invitation to worship with us.

BETHANY REFORMED—Corner of Capitol and Marion streets. Sunday school at 10 a. m. and German morning preaching service at 11 a. m. No evening service. M. Deany, minister.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE (First Church)—Sunday school room of new church building, corner of Liberty and Chemsheketa streets. Sunday morning service at 11 o'clock. Sunday evening at 8. Subject of lesson sermon, "God." Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Wednesday evening testimonial meeting at 8 o'clock. Reading room 299 Masonic Temple, open every day except holidays and Sundays from 11:30 to 5:30 p. m. All are cordially invited to our services and to our reading room.

CENTRAL CONGREGATIONAL—Harry W. Johnson, minister. Sunday school and morning worship at 10 a. m. Young people's meeting at 7:30 p. m. Week of Prayer services in cooperation with all East side churches on the following schedule: Tuesday at Castle Chapel; Wednesday at Center Street M.