Chemeketa Delegates Are Chosen

The election of delegates to the state conference in March, the assumption of additional philanthropic work, and an extremely interesting paper by Mrs. John W. Harbison, were matters before Chemeketa chapter, daughters of the American Revolution, at their meeting on Saturday at the home of Mrs. Henry B. Thielen on Court street, with Miss Nell Thielen and Mrs. Cecil Hawley as assistant hostesses.

At the meeting to be called by Mrs. Seymour Jones, state representative in Portland, week from Saturday, the state board will decide the exact time and place of the state conference, Astoria, Meadford and La Grande, being selected for the privilege of entertaining the chapters of the state. As the result of the Saturday meeting Chemeketa chapter will be represented by Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mrs. H. T. Love, Mrs. H. B. Thielen, Miss Ruth Hulifoon, Mrs. A. A. Underhill, Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Miss Lillian Applegate, Mrs. W. H. Hyrd, Mrs. J. G. Heitzel, Mrs. Frances Cornell, and Mrs. C. C. Best.

Chosen as alternating delegates were Miss Marguerite Looney, Mrs. Alton D. Hurley, Mrs. O. P. Hoff, Mrs. Cecil Hawley, Mrs. J. B. Eakin, Mrs. Carl Stelwer, Mrs. Frances Richards, Mrs. Mies Smith, Mrs. E. L. Loose and Mrs. N. H. Looney.

The chapter decided to send a large box of miscellaneous articles of clothing and materials to Anzell Island, the Ellis Island of the Pacific coast, for the use of the women and children in detention there.

During the program hour Mrs. John W. Harbison read an instructive and entertaining paper on "Women of the Revolution."

Mrs. Harbison used as her subject matter the achievements and services rendered by women often overlooked by historians. Beginning with Martha Washington, whom she showed to be the real instigator of the Red Cross movement, Mrs. Harbison gave, in turn, a bit of the heroism and nobility of such women as Emily Fitzgibbon, Lydia Barrard, Emily Geitger, Deborah Samson, Abigail Adams, Elizabeth Martin, Esther Reed, Mrs. David Wright, Rebecca Motte, Mary Redmond, Martha Bratton, Elizabeth Zane, Nancy Van Alstine, Mary Ann Gibbs, Mary Knight and Margaret Corbin.

Dr. and Mrs. M. P. Mendelsohn have returned from an enjoyable trip to San Francisco and Oakland where they spent the holidays.

The annual Epiphany party of the members of St. Paul's church will be held tomorrow evening beginning with a dinner at 6:30. Reports of all church organizations will be given and the Epiphany cake will be cut by the wife of the senior warden, Mrs. F. G. Deckebach.

In charge of the dinner are P. L. Williams and Mrs. C. C. Page—the recipients of the ring and tumbler in last year's Epiphany cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Vick entertained as their guests on New Year's day Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Gilbert and children, Mrs. John Jordan, Miss Hazel Gilbert and Ted, all of Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Stanton visited in Albany last week where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. McMahon.

Judge and Mrs. P. J. Kuntz, Miss Magdalene and Miss Irene Kuntz, were the guests last week of their son in law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Schramm of Corvallis, Mr. Schramm's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Schramm of Salem, were also included in the group.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Thompson had as their house guests for several days of last week, W. S. Walker and Charles Walker of Albany, brothers of Mrs. Thompson.

Among the out of town guests present at the family reunion held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Snook during the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Traver of Corvallis, and Paul Glenn Snook also of Corvallis. Mrs. Traver is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Snook.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headache, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results. Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit. 15c and 30c.

Court Will Install New Officers

The annual installation of officers of the Catholic Daughters of America will be held tomorrow evening, Mrs. E. Eckerling, Sr., will be installed as the new grand regent for 1925. Mrs. A. A. Mickel, the retiring grand regent, has served for two years. Mrs. Albert O'Brien, the first grand regent of Court Capitol City, No. 245, will act as the installing officer with the following committee in charge of the literary program: Mrs. J. Napoleon Roque, Mrs. Joe. Lebold, Mrs. E. A. Thompson, Mrs. J. Suing, Miss Rita Brentano, Mrs. A. Schneider and Miss Leah Suing.

Chairman of the refreshment committee is Mrs. F. M. Alvey, who will be assisted by the other trustees of the local court, Mrs. C. Ringwald, Mrs. Martina O'Brien, Mrs. M. J. Petzel, Miss Elizabeth Petzel and Mrs. P. D. McClain.

Other officers to be installed tomorrow evening are vice grand regent, Mrs. Emory Thompson; prophetess, Miss Leah Suing; historian, Mrs. A. A. Mickel; financial secretary, Mrs. Joseph Lebold; treasurer, Mrs. Sydney Gentakow; monitor, Mrs. Josephine Suing; sentinel, Mrs. Cunningham.

The first business meeting of the new year of the Salem Women's club will be held at the club house on Saturday. The meeting of the executive committee will be called by the president, Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, at two o'clock. The general meeting will open at two thirty.

Mrs. Stuart Parke entertained a group of her pupils at her home Friday afternoon. Christmas music was played, sung and discussed and games occupied the interest of the guests during the remainder of the afternoon.

Miss Jo Wunderli, the guest of Mrs. W. E. Anderson during the holidays, returned to her home in Portland on Saturday.

Mrs. Frank M. Brown, Keith Brown and Mrs. E. L. Lamoureux were the New Year guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Murphy of Portland.

Honoring Miss Vadis Rieselund of Portland, her house guest, Miss Lorraine Fletcher entertained with a merry party on Friday evening. Novel games and stunts entertained the group.

Guests of Miss Fletcher were Miss Rieselund, Miss Ellen Clemens, Miss Kathleen Judy, Miss Edna Davis, Miss Hulda Roth, Miss Violet Judy, Miss Wilma Davis, Chester Liechty, Frederick Judy, Homer Davis, Clifton Clemens, Francis Liechty, William Dunigan, Silas Fletcher, Ernest Roth and Ellsworth Fletcher.

DOCTORS SAY: DON'T NEGLECT COUGH OR COLD

Physicians warn against neglecting coughs and colds and tell of the serious lung complications that may result. Leading physicians now prescribe BALSAMEA for all bronchial affections. BALSAMEA is a pure vegetable preparation made from a newly discovered plant. Dr. Benj. F. Crabtree, Anderson, Mo., writes: "I use it exclusively for my practice and my family... It is quick, sure and safe in its action like nothing else."

Toward the end of the influenza epidemic a government physician noticed that a tribe of Indians in Nevada, by the use of oils from a native plant were immune from the ravages of influenza. He used these oils among his white patients and then in a hospital overflowing with "death" cases. News of the results swept the world and for some time it was not possible to supply the demand.

BALSAMEA has now been standardized and gives uniformly miraculous results in four ways: 1. It soothes the inflamed membranes and relieves irritation. 2. It increases secretion of mucous and permits easy expectoration. 3. It stimulates pores of the skin in throwing off body poisons and 4. It strikes at the cause, checking germ action immediately.

Do not confuse it with ordinary balsam cough syrups that are only soothing syrups and do not go to the base of the trouble. Unlike other cough remedies BALSAMEA is free from coal tar and other harmful narcotics. Pleasant to take and absolutely safe to give to children.

Be sure you get BAL-SA-ME-A with the picture of the Indian on your package. Guaranteed to relieve any cough, no matter from what cause, or your money back. All druggists sell BALSAMEA. In Salem buy it from J. C. Perry Drug store.—adv.

Runyon is Chairman of the Oregon Clubwomen's Share in Preparations for the Quinquennial

The President's club has donated $5 since the last meeting and several other clubs are on the list of contributors. Any organization or individual who contributes $100 is made a voting member of this great conference of women, with delegates from 40 different lands. Seats will be referred to them, which may be transferred to different women, so several may be able to receive the inspiration of this conference by attending different sessions. Money may be turned in at the January meeting of the federation or sent to the treasurer of the city federation, Mrs. Sommers, at the Multnomah hotel.

Regarding reservations for the quinquennial, Mrs. Philip North Moore of St. Louis, Mo., president of the National Council of Women, will be hostess to the international women's body, as written as follows to state chairman: "The beautiful new Washington auditorium is now completed, and will seat 2500 for business sessions, and if necessary 6000 for night sessions. As a result of the happy change, we now have pleasure in stating that reserved seats are definitely assured and not only for delegates, state, district and local chairmen and their aids, national presidents, foreign delegates, life patrons of the national council, but also for the men and women who by payment of $50 become members of the national committee of contributors will be awarded in this order: first preference, delegates, national presidents and quinquennial chairmen; second preference, life patrons; third preference, national committee members.

"Any individual or group or club may become a member of the national or state committee upon payment of the amount designated, and will have a seat reserved by so notifying the committee.

"Will the United States, the richest and greatest country in the world," asks Mrs. Moore, "fall in its obligations to the international council because our groups of organized women will not get the vision of this great international meeting, and will not make some small sacrifice in order that the national council may raise the funds that is necessary for this work?"—Oregonian.

Mrs. Emma B. Wilkinson, deputy supreme commander of the Woman's Benefit association, returned to Portland last week after an extended trip throughout the state of Washington. In company with Dr. Annie Reynolds, assistant supreme medical examiner of the order, Mrs. Wilkinson has been establishing free nursing service throughout the state. In connection with each local review of the order a visiting nurse is now employed, whose services are offered gratuitously to the members. Mrs. Wilkinson and Dr. Reynolds will start during the coming week to establish similar service in Oregon, serving approximately 50 reviews.—Oregonian.

Of interest in Salem where she is well known is the announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Helen West, daughter of ex-Governor Oswald West. On January 24, at the home of her parents Miss West will be married to Ellery Wheeler Stone.

House guests at the William Fleming home during the holidays included Mr. and Mrs. Sherill A. Fleming and children, Elizabeth and Billie of Chehalis, Washington, and Miss Ruth Fleming of San Francisco.

The Kensington club will have the first social meeting of the new year at the home of Mrs. Frank Power Wednesday afternoon.

The Salem district of the Oregon state music teachers' association will meet tonight with Mrs. Elizabeth Levy at her home, 563 Court street.

Mrs. Etta Squire Seelye of Fort Blakely, Washington, is the house guest since Saturday of Mrs. William Sherwood. Mrs. Seelye formerly made her home in Salem.

Clubs which wish to contribute to the entertainment of the quinquennial international conference of women to be held in Washington, D. C. in May, should make their contributions soon, according to Mrs. G. L. Buland, president of the Portland Federation of Women's organizations, who is serving as state treasurer for the fund, Mrs. Charles E.
