

BRAWNY YOUTH WRESTS TITLE FROM STRANGLER

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 9.—(By Associated Press.)—Wayne "Big" Munn, erstwhile University of Nebraska football player, who tried boxing but couldn't stand up against the punches and whose knowledge of the technique of grappling is that of a novice, is the new wearer of the world's heavy-weight wrestling belt today. Munn, by his prodigious bulk and strength, last night threw off the fearful headlocks of the veteran Ed "Strangler" Lewis and crushed him into submission.

Lewis is in a hospital, suffering probable injuries to his back from a new experience for the "strangler," who, in his long mat career, has seriously hurt many opponents with his famous headlock.

A giant in stature and strength, Munn, despite his meager wrestling strategy, clearly demonstrated his power over the title holder, in the opinion of mat authorities, through a foul which resulted in a "Lewis" maneuver, marring the victory.

The climax came after two minutes of wrestling for the second fall when Munn, twisting free from a headlock, hit Lewis' chest in the air with a body and croch hold, apparently the only weapon at his command, and walking to the ropes, hauled the "strangler" outside onto the uncovered floor of the platform.

Lewis' pounds hit the boards with a thud and the titleholder rolled down to the floor. Chose ensued, "Billy" Sandrow, manager of Lewis, lost his coolness and sprang into the ring crying "Foul!"

The crowd stormed to the platform but police held back the frenzied fans. Munn started through the ropes after his opponent and Sandrow, dancing about wildly, threatened Munn and Referee Walter Hayes.

Then Referee Hayes announced the fall was awarded to Lewis on a foul. Bates gave Lewis 15 minutes in which to return to the ring and announced the match would be awarded to the challenger if Lewis did not appear. Sandrow announced Lewis would continue under protest.

In a limp condition Lewis was borne to his dressing room with a squad of policemen accompanying while the crowd boomed the decision and called for the referee to award the championship to Munn. The allotted 15 minutes passed while physicians worked on Lewis and some semblance of order was restored. In another five minutes Lewis came to the ring, bandaged.

The match was over a few seconds after the men clinched, Lewis offering little resistance. Munn clamped on a body and croch hold and hurled his man to the mat. Lewis lay prone and a new champion had been crowned. It took just 59 seconds for the deciding fall.

Logic helps us to strip off the outward disguise of things, and to behold and judge of them in their own nature.

Poverty is no shame, but being ashamed of it is.

BULLET STUNS HINDU BUT SKULL NOT PIERCED

El Centro, Cal., Jan. 9.—Roam Singh, Hindu rancher of Holtville, near here, was nursing a bruise on his head today as the result of a shooting affray in which a masked highwayman, frustrated in an attempt to hold up Singh and five other men, fired a bullet that struck Singh squarely on the forehead and stunned him for a moment. Opinion was divided as to whether it was Singh's thick skull or a defective cartridge that saved his life.

ENFORCEMENT OF LAW DISCUSSED WITH COOLIDGE

Washington, Jan. 8.—Law enforcement was discussed today around the White House breakfast table.

The president's guests were Judge Elbert H. Gary, John D. Rockefeller Jr., and other members of a special committee representing the national citizens' movement of one thousand and one on law enforcement, which yesterday in New York adopted its annual meeting with the adoption of resolutions for presentation to the president and the governors of the various states.

The resolutions required the president and the governors to urge all officials "of every rank and classification, appointive or elective, to join them by precept and personal example, and, so far as they may, by active participation in all administrative efforts in maintaining among the citizens of our republic the high determination to obey and enforce the law of the land." A second resolution "commends to the people of the United States and particularly to their official representatives the attitude of the president in his obedience to the provisions of the 13th amendment to the constitution in the hope that the example of the first citizen of our country may induce those who are now willfully violating the prohibitory statute to accept his leadership in conduct and to endorse in practice the integrity of his fidelity here to the supremacy of law."

Members of the committee in addition to Judge Gary and Mr. Rockefeller, were Robert Fulton Cutting, S. S. Kresage, V. Everett Macy, George A. Plimpton, William F. Cochran, Frederick A. Wallis, Clifford Barnes, Patrick Henry Callahan and Fred E. Smith, chairman of the national committee.

TWO TEN-ROUND BOUNTS FEATURE TONIGHT'S CARD

Everything is in readiness for the smoker at the armory tonight, according to the announcement made by Harry Plant this morning. The fighters are all in the best of condition and are "raring to go." The card as presented by Plant, is claimed to be the best one yet scheduled for Salem this year and interest is keen.

A double main event of ten rounds each is arranged for this show with two snappy preliminaries to complete the card. The first ten-round bout will be between Phil Hayes and Cracker Warren of Oregon City. Hayes and Warren have fought two six-round bouts to a draw and the go is expected to be a good one. This will be the first time that either of them have fought a ten-round event together. The winner of this will be matched with Harry Harris of Pendleton, and Harris is reported to be able to give Warren a good battle. Harris will be down today to challenge the winner and Dawson will also come from Eugene to get a bout with the winner of the Deane-Doyle mix.

Another ten-round bout will be between well known Deane of Salem and Frankie Doyle of Spokane. This event is claiming its share of the limelight as Deane wants to win so as to get another shot at Dawson as he is not satisfied with the last mix as the decision went to Dawson owing to the poor condition of Deane who had just undergone an operation on his ear. Deane thinks that he can win over Dawson, so if he wins this time he will get the desired chance.
