

WARREN-BAYES BATTLE IS DRAW DEANE WINS OUT

Phil Bayes of Salem and Cracker Warren, of Oregon City, battled ten rounds to a draw before the largest crowd of the season at the armory last night. The decision was popular. Bayes and Warren have fought two six round bouts previous to this meeting one in the other going to a draw and in the other one Bayes pulled down the verdict. Warren and Bayes were both wary for the first few rounds.

The other ten-round go between Deane and Doyle went to Deane of Salem. Doyle and Warren have fought at all times, although he gave many hard blows in return. Deane had him backed into the corner several times but was unable to connect with a knockout punch. Deane tipped the Fairbanks at 141 while Doyle announced his weight at 145. Deane had Doyle at his mercy but Doyle was always back for more, and seemed to flourish on punishment. The Spokane fighter did not show that he had much ability as a fast boxer having had only 25 fights. The fans at the termination of the fight called for a draw decision but Deane was the aggressor. Both judges and the referee voted unanimously for a draw decision on the Bayes-Warren go.

Floyd Hoogedyde and Bennie Roberts went four rounds to a draw in the first preliminary of the evening. Both of these fighters had the names type as they were taking lessons from Deane. The second preliminary of four rounds went to "Kid" Bybee of Vancouver, Washington, on a foul. O'Leary of Portland had all of the best of it and Bybee went to his knees twice in the second round and while down O'Leary hit him in his excitement. The referee gave the decision to Bybee in the middle of the second round. O'Leary should have won the fight as he had Bybee going at all times and when Bybee went to the floor on his knees with both gloves resting on the floor, O'Leary was an excitable fighter and was unable to stop the blow. Bybee was automatically out when he went to his knees. The two are scheduled for a return match on the next card and Bybee promises that he will stand up.

A special 15 piece band provided music before the fight and also between the events. Steve Haines, of Eugene refereed the fight, he has been here twice and the fans have shouted their approval at his decisions. Billy Gardner, challenger of the winner of the Deane-Doyle fight just before the fight and Dale Freeman, former Pacific Northwest champion challenged the winner of Gardner. Harry Harris, of Pendleton challenged the winner of the Hayes-Warren fight.

ABUSES OF AUTOS GENERAL SAYS PACKARD AGENT

If a man were to wake his horse up out of a sound sleep on a cold, wintry morning, stick an icy bit in its mouth, and immediately begin giving it the boot without any warning up period, he would stand liable to arrest for cruelty to animals. Yet an automobile owner, uneducated to motor car care, will go out to a chilly garage and lurch the liver out of his poor, cold, defenseless automobile with choke and accelerator.

A motor car has mechanical parts closely fitting together. Between them an oil film must constantly exist to diminish metal-to-metal wear. Just a minute or two of slow warming up in starting a cold car will give pep to its step for the run.

An owner does not need to baby a car—at least not a Packard, said Fred M. Powell, Packard dealer. But he does have to treat it right. Men and automobiles are alike in that neither is endowed with protecting or feathers. As winter approaches, nature takes care of everything except men and motor cars. When you dig out your red flannels and heavy overcoat, remember that your car is just as cold.

BUYING USED CAR ECONOMY, CLAIM

"The used car buyer saves the high first year depreciation," says Byron Wright of the Certified Public Motor Car Market. "In the California markets, this usually amounts to 40 per cent, but here in Salem we usually estimate it to be about 33 1-3 per cent. This depreciation is imposed even if the car has been driven only a thousand miles or so.

"Many people consider their best investment is money in the bank. However, money in the bank brings only 3 or 4 per cent, while money in the car brings in return all the joy of concerted family recreation and social and business advantages; it brings the country to the city and the city to the country; these are things a man wants more than a bank balance.

"Remember the scenery is just as beautiful and just as inviting from the tounoun of the used car as from the newest Rolls-Royce."

HOME BUILT ON PILING ON GRAND ISLAND UPSETS

Dayton, Or., Jan. 10.—The residence of W. A. Umbanhooker on Grand Island, about 10 miles south of here, upset early Wednesday. The damage in broken dishes, loosened plaster and wrecked pipes was estimated at between $250 and $300.

The house was built on piles about six feet in the air to put it above high water danger. The accident was thought to have been caused by a settlement of the underpinning on one side following the recent heavy freeze. Fires were burning in two stoves when the building slid from its piers, but nothing was ignited and no one was hurt. Neighbors came to the assistance with about 20 jacks and the structure soon was being righted and raised to a new foundation.

What Is a Bargain?

It is a good used car at the right price or is it any car at a low price? Is the final answer in the first cost or in the final cost?

Can used cars be traded in or sold for less than a price that is just to all parties concerned?

Somebody has to pay for everything. What you get for nothing is a gift or it is good for nothing. The prices on my used cars are commensurate with the goods delivered and no higher.

I am in a permanent business. The only way I can live and thrive is to deliver the right goods at the right price. Too much bargain or too much profit would throttle me out of being. You can stop a motor with too little gas or too much. And Reputation, the electric spark, won't fire a dishonest mixture.

I have an exceptional stock of good used cars which may be purchased at right prices for cash or on liberal terms. Why not trade in your old car on a better one. There are several excellent buys in enclosed models which should appeal to you.

One look is worth a thousand words.
