Legislative Sidelights

Indications today are that the legislature will be ready for adjournment for the week-end on Thursday, and the exodus of the lawmakers for Portland is expected to start immediately following the morning session on that day.

A new position created at this session of the senate is that of expert proofreader on the enrolled bills committee, and Fred C. Sefton was named to the place. The office is designed to attain a careful editing of bills and relieve the published volumes of the session laws of the errors with which they are ordinarily replete. Such errors in times past have made necessary the summons, of the state emergency board to appropriate money where the law as enacted failed, through clerical errors, to appropriate. Sefton is a printer and for some years was with the state printing department.

"Jim" Stewart of Corvallis, without whom no legislative third house would be complete, arrived in the lobby this morning and immediately made himself about the person of Sefton in a printer and for some years was with the state printing department.

WOODMEN OF TWO COUNTIES INSTALL OFFICERS

Officers of the Salem and Dallas branches of the Modern Woodmen of America were installed at the meeting held last night in the Woodmen's hall, formerly the Klks temple. Delegates were present from Salem, Dallas, Silverton, Chemawa, Albany and Corvallis, amounting to more than 150 men in all.

John Smith, former warden of the state penitentiary, and now state deputy for the Woodmen, was one of the principal speakers. Geo. H. Jaffrey, district deputy, spoke. A number of musical numbers were given, including several by the band from the boys training school. The business meeting, which began at 8 o'clock, was followed by a banquet. Salem officers installed were as follows:

John E. Mock, consul; H. G. Corby, past consul; A. A. Dear, worthy advisor; Fred E. Mangie, clerk; A. A. Keene, banker; L. H. Nelson, escort; Doctors Mott and Vehr, physicians; Jake Dunlop, watchman; Lloyd Anderson, secretary. Trustees were John A. Wright, Harry T. Caldwell and H. H. Stanton.

The new Dallas officers are as follows:

Charles Cochrane, consul; M. D. Taylor, past consul; Albert D. Sellers, advisor; E. H. Bohie, banker; C. A. Hamilton, escort; C. C. Day, watchman; E. M. Cochrane, secretary; Dr. L. A. Steves, physician; G. W. Curtis, two year trustee and E. E. Glover, three year trustee.

SECRETARY OF Y. W. TENDERS RESIGNATION

Miss Marlon Wyman, for the past two years secretary of the Salem Y. W. C. A., submitted her resignation at a meeting of the board in the Y. W. rooms at noon today. Miss Wyman will go to the imperial valley in California to take charge of the Girl Reserve work in five towns with headquarters in El Centro.

Mrs. John J. Roberts was elected president of the Y. W. at the meeting. She has served on the board for the past year. Other officers chosen today were Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, vice-president; Mrs. W. E. Kirk, recording secretary; Miss Nina McNary, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Harry Hawkins, treasurer.

Because her interest lies primarily in Girl Reserve work, Miss Wyman is giving up her Salem position to enter a field where she can devote all of her energy to work among the younger girls. Her resignation will take effect March 1, and at the meeting today no suggestions for a successor were made. Before coming to Salem, Miss Wyman was Girl Reserve secretary in Lincoln, Nebraska.

During her two years in Salem, Miss Wyman has had active charge of the seven Girl Reserve triangles in the junior high schools, of the one large triangle in the high school, and the four divisions in the girls' training school. She has also supervised the triangles in Woodburn, Stayton and Silverton. The other activities of the local Y. W. show growth and improvement during Miss Wyman's regime.

Mrs. Roberts will announce her committee appointments at the February meeting. The regular standing committees are membership, social, education with its three divisions of general, religious, and physical, house, publicity, finance and girl reserve.

The board adopted a budget of $5000 and set the dates of the campaign to raise this sum. The drive will open January 20 and close four days later. Last year the budget called for $5000 and of this amount only $4000 was collected leaving a deficit which must be made up this year. According to Miss Wyman it is imperative that this amount be raised to carry on the activities of the local Y. W.

DANCE HALL REGULATION TO BE STRINGENT

House bill No. 10 introduced by Swan of Linn county provides for more stringent regulations of dance halls in non-incorporated centers. It would require the signature of 12 residents of a school district on the application for license and also for a bond of five hundred dollars.

Swan also introduced house bill No. 9 pertaining to wills. Under the present law only the wills of unmarried persons who marry are revoked. The bill introduced as an amendment would revoke wills of any person marrying.

A third measure, house bill No. 12 introduced by Swan would make it mandatory for any woman drawn on the jury list and after being notified to service notified within five days if she declines to serve.

The salaries of deputy labor commissioners would be raised under the provisions of house bill No. 7 introduced by Coffey, Multnomah county. The present law makes their maximum salary $150 a month. If enacted, Coffey's bill would make the maximum $200. The bill would also have the effect of allowing the labor commissioner to employ more clerk and stenographic assistance than the present law permits. The existing law permits employment of only two clerks or stenographers. The amendment would place the amount of help employed in the discretion of the labor commissioner.

Trapping or killing of beavers in all counties east of the Cascade mountains would be indefinitely prohibited by house bill No. 8, introduced by Ford, of Grant and Harney counties. Ford explained that destruction of beavers in those sections opened for hunting and trapping has resulted in depleting the water storage supply in eastern and central Oregon counties. "The beavers build dams which hold storage water, keeping the summer supply up and preventing washouts," he explained. "Wholesale killing has stopped the good work of the little animals."

KIMBALL GETS $6000 AWARD

Kimball college of theology was awarded $6000 by the national board of education of the Methodist church, according to an announcement made this morning by President E. C. Hickman of the college, who returned yesterday from a meeting of the board. The meeting was held in New York city. About $8000 more will have to be raised to meet expenses of the present year, according to Dr. Hickman.

Before returning home Dr. Hickman attended a meeting of the Methodist college presidents' association in Chicago. At this convention he met Dr. Doney, president of Willamette university. Dr. Doney was "not altogether optimistic" concerning his health, but held out "some encouragement" that he might return to Willamette next year.

SUSPECTED ROBBER DEMANDS ATTORNEY

Law Ruffe, held in connection with the burglary of Doe's store on Highland avenue, was turned over last night to the sheriff's office and he is now lodged in the county jail pending a hearing Wednesday morning.

Ruffe demanded a hearing and representation by an attorney. Justice B. C. Small appointed Carl Pope to represent the jailed man. Ruffe has no money, but has a car, reports Justice Small. The man gives his residence as Portland, but reference to that city has failed to disclose any persons who know Ruffe.

Two Washington, 1924 license plates, were found in the car when the apartment of Charles and "Jimmy" taken.

Washington, Jan. 13.—Chairman Cummins today called a special meeting of the senate judiciary committee for Thursday to consider the nomination of Attorney General Stone for the supreme court. A favorable report is expected with prompt action by the senate.

No one was injured, according to their report. Neither knew the cause of the accident, though Mr. Edwards says he was somewhat confused by a camp car following the Josephson machine.

INDEPENDENCE MAN HELD FOR GRAND JURY

Dallas, Ore., Jan. 13.—Barro McKenzie, of Independence, was bound over to the grand jury today with bond fixed at $700 on a charge of statutory rape. McKenzie was arrested Sunday at Valsetz, where he was employed. The charge involves a 14-year-old independence girl. McKenzie is a married man, about 23 years of age. His case is the third of similar nature to go before the present grand jury.

SECOND SALE OF PARDON BY DAVIS DENIED

former Governor Davis into the case as the one who took Oswald to Peterson when Oswald, as an attorney, was seeking clemency for Grundy.

At this meeting with Davis, the affidavit states, the governor first told Oswald there was "absolutely no chance in the world" for favorable action in the Grundy case. The affidavit continues: "I then said 'well, then I suppose the only way open to Grundy is the Peterson route.'" "This is Oswald," the governor said to Peterson, and thereupon left."

Oswald relates in the affidavit
