A. A. U. W. Holds Board Meeting

The executive board of the Salem branch of the American Association of University Women met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George H. Aldin, president, to discuss matters of primary importance to the organization.

It was decided that three trustees would be elected at the next meeting, one to serve for one year, one for two and one for three years, with the vacancy filled each year by a member elected to serve for three years. These trustees to control the scholarship loan fund.

Among the important actions of the board was the division of the educational committee into a better films division becoming a separate committee. Mrs. Aldin appointed Mrs. A. M. Chapman as chairman of the new committee.

Miss Ola Clark was appointed by Mrs. Aldin as chairman of the program committee to succeed Mrs. Downs. Miss Clark announced that musical numbers at the monthly luncheon at the Marion hotel on Saturday would be given by Miss Lena Belle Tartar, Dean Ava B. Milam of O. A. C., will be the principal speaker. Her lecture will cover her "Personal Experiences in China."

Further reports of results of efforts to bring better films to Salem were made before the board. "Jamestown," the second of the Yale university series, will be shown at a local theater before the end of the month. Mr. Still, local theater manager, has given the A. A. U. W. members assurance of his continued cooperation in bringing these pre-viewed films to Salem.

Members of the executive board are Mrs. George H. Aldin, president; Mrs. George H. Aldin, vice president and chairman of the educational committee; Mrs. J. H. Fairchild, treasurer; Mrs. A. M. Chapman, chairman of the better films committee; Miss Ola Clark, chairman of the program committee; Miss Beryl Holt, chairman of the credential committee; Miss Lella Johnson, chairman of the membership committee; Mrs. E. C. Richards, chairman of the scholarship committee; and Miss Frances Richards, chairman of the Washington club house fund committee.

Mrs. Henry Rasmussen (Opal Marie Loran) whose marriage on Saturday came as a surprise to her friends, was the honor guest at a delightful kitchen shower given by Mrs. J. C. Stafford yesterday in her home at Wacounda.

In the Stafford home, the rooms of which were attractively decorated with blooming plants, the guests assembled and presented their gifts to the bride. Late in the afternoon a dainty lunch was served.

In the group were Mrs. Rasmussen, the honor guest, Mrs. Britt Applin, Mrs. J. L. Collins, Mrs. J. C. Stafford, Mrs. Hubbard, Mrs. J. C. Russell, Mrs. Benson, Mrs. Rasmussen of Silverton, Mrs. E. W. Manning, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. C. M. Hall, Mrs. B. F. Felton, Mrs. Robert Cole, Mrs. Ray Barker, Mrs. L. A. Loran, Mrs. Ingram, Mrs. Gladys Fitts, Mrs. Maude Timm, Mrs. W. J. Hagedorn, Mrs. A. W. Nusom, Mrs. R. Patterson, Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. Carl Brown, Mrs. Geo. Lemery, Mrs. Willard Ramp, Miss Laverne Palmer, Miss Mae Hall, Miss Mary Jones of Portland, Miss Minnie Benson, Miss Hazel Russell and the hostess, Mrs. Stafford.

Mr. and Mrs. Rasmussen will use their home in Silverton where Mr. Rasmussen is employed. Mrs. Rasmussen is a former Salem high school and business college student.

House guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Woodry are George Sutherland and daughter, Kathleen, of Sackatoon, Saskatchewan. They arrived Saturday evening and will spend the remainder of the winter in Portland and Salem.

Miss Lena Payne of Portland, representing the St. Helens Pulp and Paper company, is at Mrs. George H. Dunford's, 1415 Saginaw street.

Mrs. Grant W. Day of 645 Chemeketa street, will be at home Friday afternoon to members of the Yo-Mar-Co club.

Concert In Waller Hall Tomorrow

A considerable number of Salem's music devotees motored to Monmouth Tuesday evening to hear Sophie Braslau, noted contralto. Among those who attended the concert was Albert Gillie, secretary of the Apollo club, of Salem. Mr. Gillie gave the following opinion of Miss Braslau's singing:

"To my mind Sophie Braslau sang with a flawless art—with as much perfection in singing as can be attained by only a chosen few of the immortals. I had heard her voice before in records, but seeing and hearing her in person is a matter genuinely different. One fancies her to be endowed with every qualification desirable to an artist; at least she gives abundantly of every effect demanded by a listener.

"She is an enchantress and with her charm of voice and manner carries one up into the clouds. It wasn't easy to come back to earth, and I know that I shall want to hear her again at every future opportunity.

"Aside from a heavy program of fifteen numbers Miss Braslau sang six encores. Every number was a gem, and if there was more of lustre in some than in others one might mention the aria from 'Orfeo,' Gluck; 'Nature's Adoration,' Beethoven; 'Ma Lili' Batasteu, Strickland; 'The Faltering Dusk,' Kramer; 'Water Boy,' Robinson; 'Vocalise,' (sung without words, 'The cry of Russia'), Rachmaninoff; 'Night,' Rubenstein; 'The Old Refrain,' Kreisler; 'Eternal,' Wolff; 'Send Me a Lover, St. Valentine,' Anon.

"Miss Braslau's audience filled the large, normal school auditorium to capacity.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dancy entertained the Capital club at an interesting evening of bridge last night. High scores were won by Mrs. E. L. Baker and O. C. Locke. Additional guests were Mrs. J. E. Flanders of Portland, Mrs. Jessie Jones and Miss Rosalie Jones. Mrs. Dancy was assisted by Miss Jones.

Among the club members who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dancy were Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. George G. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Durbin, Dr. and Mrs. E. P. Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Locke and Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Olinger.

Mrs. Karl Kugel was hostess yesterday to a delightful meeting of the Sweet Briar club. Much of the pleasure of the afternoon was due to the extremely interesting talk on Chinese and Japanese art which was given by Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, member of the Willamette university faculty. Mrs. Dodd illustrated her talk with etchings, prints and embroideries of Japan and China—parts of her personal collection.

Tulips, primroses and pussy-willows were attractive in the living rooms and in the dining room the tea table with its covering of imported lace was centered with a beautiful basket of the willows.

Miss Luella Cutsforth entertained at tea at the Colonial Dame tea shop on Tuesday, the event of her birthday anniversary. Her guests were Miss Cecile Davidson, Miss Dorothy Ellis, Miss Helen Corey and Miss Mae Hall.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Branch of Portland, were the honor guests at a luncheon at the Spa given Tuesday by Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Long. Dr. Branch is secretary of the American Chiropractic association.

Terre Haute, Indiana.—"I was weak and run-down and in such a nervous condition that I could hardly do my work. I was tired all the time and dizzy, had no appetite and could not sleep. I tried different medicines for a year but they did not help me. Then my husband saw the ad. for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and had me take it. I regained my strength and never felt better in my life. It completely restored me to health. I had practically no suffering when my baby boy was born and he is very strong and healthy. I know that the Vegetable Compound is the best medicine a woman can take before and after child birth for health and strength. I would be willing to answer letters from women asking about the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Wm. J. Lee, Route E, Box 648, Terre Haute, Indiana.

Calendar Revision Explained

Completely and comprehensively, J. M. Clifford outlined his plan for the simplification of the calendar at the monthly meeting of the Salem Arts League held in the Woman's club house last night. Mr. Clifford has studied this subject for many years—a fact which was self evident as he presented his material.

Because of the inconvenience of the moving weeks in the system adopted by Pope Gregory XIII in the 16th century, which is used in the majority of the highly civilized nations of the day, the plan of a system that would eliminate the movable element has been the dream of many of the most progressive thinkers of various ages.

Mr. Clifford advocates the Swiss plan which was first published in 1884 by Camille Flammarion, an astronomer. This plan was revived in 1900 by Grouce Claude of Geneva. It is the plan most favorably considered in Europe by the league of nations committee which has made a study of the matter, says Mr. Clifford.

In the plan as presented by Mr. Clifford last night the calendar would be permanently arranged by seasons. The new year would begin on the same day as the solar year begins—that is on our December 22, January, April, July and October would begin always on Monday; February, May, August and November always on Thursday and December always on Saturday. There would be thirty one days in the first group, thirty in the second, and thirty in the fourth excepting only December in which there would be one extra day which could be called Interday. It would occur only in December of ordinary years and in June of every fourth or Leap year.

This calendar plan requires the setting aside of the last day of each year as a special day, not a part of any week, explained Mr. Clifford. It requires changes in the length of only five of our present months, namely, February, March, April, May and August. It may be instituted any year in which the first of January falls on Monday.

In addition to Mr. Clifford's talk the program consisted of musical numbers by Mrs. Harry Hama, soprano, accompanied by Miss Findley, and piano solos by Miss Grace Flynn.

During the delightful social hour that followed Mrs. John R. Sites and Mrs. T. S. Roberts poured, Mrs. W. F. Fargo was in charge. The tea table arranged by Mrs. Sites was most attractive with lovely old candelabras and fernery.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts entertained at a charming fourteen cover dinner last night. A long dining table was laid in the billiard room of their home and red candles and red carnations added a festive touch.

Mrs. T. W. Davies has as her house guests during this week Mrs. A. G. Kron and daughter, Constance Virginia, of Portland. They will remain until Sunday.

Mrs. Roy Hollenberg, Mrs. Harvey Minola and Mrs. Walter Miller were hostesses Monday evening at a pot luck dinner in the Yo-Mar-Co room of the First Methodist church to members of the Yo-Mar-Co club. Covers were laid for fifty at one long table which was centered with beautiful lavender hyacinths.

Col. Carl Abrams was toastmaster of the evening. He called for responses from Rev. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick, B. E. Sison, Ronald Glover and Mrs. Lela Bellinger.

Widespread interest followed the announcement that Byron D. Arnold, well known Salem musician now a member of the faculty of the music department at Oregon Agricultural college, would present a number of his Salem pupils in recital in Waller hall on Friday evening.

Assisting on the program will be Howard Halbert of Corvallis, an eleven year old violinist. He was awarded the Marguerite McManis scholarship last year, and according to Mr. Arnold, is an exceptional musician, possessing a technique and artistic appreciation that would credit a violinist many years his senior.

The complete program follows: Warrior's Song..... Heller Musical Moment..... Scott Gavotte..... Neustadt Cora Mae Febler Violin Concerto No. 23, allegro..... Viotti Howard Halbert Pixie's Good Night Song..... Brown Tante Seuls..... Goerdlich Ruth Palmer Humoresque..... Dvorak-Crocker Melody..... Loth Homer Guley, Jr. Punch and Judy..... MacDowell-Hartmann Minuet..... Porpora-Kreisler Howard Halbert Christmas Pipes..... Goerdlich Gavotte..... Brown Eather Elliott Fable..... Schmolli Boy Scout March..... Gratzold Win Jenke The Brownies..... Rahnhold Ave Maria..... Burgmuller Ann Reed Burns

Mrs. George J. Pearce and Miss Dorothy Pearce, who left this morning for California, and Miss Helen Pearce who will accompany them as far as Berkeley and leave from there for Cambridge, Massachusetts, have been the inspiration for a number of delightful affairs during the past week, and the fore part of this week.

Among the most recent was the one o'clock luncheon on Monday at which Mrs. George G. Brown entertained in her home. Covers were laid for Mrs. Pearce, Miss Helen Pearce, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Mrs. E. T. Small, Mrs. A. L. Brown, Mrs. Cora Hopkins of Albany, Mrs. Enola Meyers and the hostess, Mrs. Brown.

and gay tulips. Mrs. William McCall poured and Mrs. Al Steiner and Mrs. C. C. Page acted the hostesses in evening.

Guests of Mrs. Kugel and the club for the afternoon were Mrs. William Marshall, Mrs. Rose Babcock, Mrs. Frank Brown, Mrs. Ira Darby, Mrs. Earl Daise, Mrs. Albert Smith, Mrs. Nugent, Mrs. Ernest Peterson, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Lillian Hall, Mrs. Wayne Henry, Mrs. Frank Crawford, Mrs. Sarah Patrick and Miss Ruth Young.

A Cough Remedy Without Opium

Many cough preparations contain some one or more harmful drugs which are added to take the place of opium. None of these narcotic substitutes have ever been used in POLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND. The name of every ingredient is plainly printed on every carton. You know what you are taking when you take Poley's. It clings to the throat. Good for old and young. You have a cough, why not try it. Refuse substitutes.—Adv.
