Under the decree the defendant is to pay his former spouse $1,000 before September 1, 1925, as permanent alimony, and also $50 a month for support of the child. In addition he is to return to her $300 in stock belonging to her, the stock being that of the First National bank of Tillamook. It was in this case that the wife testified the husband accused her of having mid-Victorian ideas when she protested against his going to Eugene and registering at a hotel with another woman.

Y. W. OFFERS TO WOMEN CHANCE FOR TRAINING

The only facilities for supervised physical exercise available to women in Salem are under the charge and supervision of the local Y. W. C. A. This is a fact that was forcibly brought out in a report made recently to the executive board of the Salem Y. W. by Mrs. William H. Hertzog, chairman of the physical education division of the general educational committee.

Mrs. Hertzog reported that an average of twenty-five or thirty girls report for the gymnasium classes and swimming classes held in the Y. M. gym and tank in the afternoon. The women's classes in the morning have an average enrollment of fifteen and for the classes in the evening arranged specially for working girls, the average attendance is twenty-five.

Mrs. Helen M. Stewart, official nurse for the Metropolitan Insurance company, conducts physical examinations for girls wishing to enter the Y. W. classes, and serves as health director for the members.

Other members of Mrs. Hertzog's committee assist her in the work of chaperoning the classes. Mrs. E. E. Elliott serves as chaperone in the afternoon, Miss Georgia Ellis in the evening, and Mrs. Hertzog herself in the morning. Lessons in Red Cross life saving are given to the junior girls by Miss Mary Erickson, reported Mrs. Hertzog, and the junior tests will be given them within a few weeks.

Lack of suitable quarters and lack of funds with which to finance the work has greatly hampered their plans, says Mrs. Hertzog. Members of the Y. W. are anticipating the completion of the new Y. M. C. A. which will permit the Y. W. to carry on the physical education work as it should be done.

BLACKMAILER HELD FOR TRIAL

London, Jan. 15.—William Cooper Hobbs, one of the prominent figures in the recent Robinson suit involving the Rajah Sir Hari Singh and a so-called blackmailing plot against the Indian potentate, was committed for trial today by a Bow street magistrate on charges of "receiving a check for 150,000 pounds sterling stolen abroad," and with being connected with a conspiracy to mulct the rajah.

The defendant, answering the charges, denied that he had ever attempted to blackmail the East Indian prince and declared the accusations made against him by Montague Noel Newton, who testified in the Robinson case that Hobbs was one of the ring leaders in the blackmailing plot, were false.

Hobbs was arrested November 28 at Gravesend just as he was about to embark on the S. S. Rotterdam.

1925 TAX LEVY FOR DALLAS TO BE 67 MILLS

Dallas, Or., Jan. 15.—The tax levy for the city of Dallas for this year will be 67 mills, the third highest in the county, according to Fred J. Holman, assessor, who has been busy working out the county levies since the adoption of the budget. The tax will be an increase of 7.9 mills over last year.

The principal items in the increase are from the vote of the people and are included in the street improvement bonds, fire apparatus bonds and maintenance levy, and the new high school levy. All three items have resulted in highly necessary improvements in the city—paved streets, a new sigh school and better school facilities and better fire protection.

West Salem as usual leads the county in tax levy with 75.1 mills. Falls City will have a levy of 69.5 mills; Monmouth, 66.8, and Independence, 63.5.

The general fund levy, on all districts in the county alike, is 21.6 mills this year, as compared with 21.4 last year. The general road levy is 3.4 mills this year and was 3.5 last year. The special high school tax in districts having no high schools is 3.1 this year as compared with 2.7 last year.

The school district taxes vary from nothing to as high as 28.6 mills in district 44. Districts 20, 65 and 66 have no levy this year.

The Dallas levy of 67 mills is divided as follows: City, 20.1; general fund, 21.6; general road, 3.4; and school district, 21.9.

In addition one train would leave at 9 a. m., one at 1 p. m. and two at night, he said.
