Despondent, ill, alone, she swallowed poison in a hotel in Chicago, she said, but recovered, except from the torturing neuritis, which has kept her in hospitals and exhausted her funds.

Lebanon Wedding Attractive

One of the notable social events of this month in Lebanon was the wedding of Kathryn Gogle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Gogle of Lebanon, to Merrill D. Richmond of Salem, which was solemnized at the Bethlehem Lutheran church at 2:30 Sunday afternoon. Rev. Charles Schulerburg, pastor of the church, officiated, using the impressive ring service.

Oregon grape, ferns and Chrysanthemums were effectively combined in decorating the interior of the church to make an attractive setting for the wedding which was witnessed by nearly one hundred and fifty friends of the bride and family.

Walter Gogle, a brother of the bride, sang "At Dawning." Mrs. Chas. Schulerburg played the wedding march. Little Alice Titus, niece of the groom, was flower girl. She wore a dainty dress made of white organdy. Miss Bertha Chittick of Salem, and Miss Bert Vohrs, a sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and matron of honor. Their dresses were shades of bronze and pink. The bride wore white crepe back satin trimmed with pearls, and a white silk tulle veil fastened with orange blossoms. Edgar Gogle, a brother of the bride, acted as the best man.

Following the church ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. In the evening the bridal couple left for a honeymoon trip to Seattle, Washington, and to British Columbia.

Mrs. Richmond attended the Lebanon high school and a business college. She has been employed in Salem much of the time since taking her business course. Mr. Richmond is a graduate of the architectural department of the University of Oregon and at the present time is employed as a postal clerk in Salem. They will make their home in Salem.

Sigma Tau fraternity entertained as their guests at dinner on Sunday Prof. and Mrs. E. C. Richards, Miss Hollie Wick, Miss Wilma Giese, Miss Helen Arpke and Miss Louise Findley.

Most delightful was the musical tea given on Sunday afternoon to a large group of their patrons and friends by Miss Lena Belle Tartar and Miss Elma Weller in Miss Weller's residence studio.

The studio rooms were unusually attractive with pussy willows, mountain greenery and freezing. Two of Miss Weller's pupils, Claudia Lewis and Dorothy Hutchason, gave piano solos and Miss Melba Davenport and Ronald Craven, pupils of Miss Tartar, sang to the delight of the assembled group.
