PUTS TRAFFIC OFFICIALS UNDER KOZER'S OFFICE

Three bills were dropped into the senate hopper today by Senator McGladrey, one of which promises to bring a clash of opinion on the roads and highways committee if present indications prevail.

This bill will centralize control of all state traffic officers under one chief in the secretary of state's office, remove the limitation on officers to be employed in that division and leave the secretary of state free to fix the salaries of these men. It will take from the highway commission its present authority to hire an unlimited number of traffic officers.

"It is no more than fair," said Senator McGladrey, "that control of the traffic squad should be vested in the secretary of state, who has to administer all of the funds used for this purpose."

A second bill will provide for compulsory sanitary inspection of public camp grounds, placing them under the supervision of the state board of health and designating county health officers to make regular inspections of such camp grounds. The service would be supported by fees, with additional compensation allowed the health officers for such inspections.

Senator McGladrey's third bill asks appropriation of $30,000 for an armory at Cottage Grove, and is said to carry the approval of both Governor Pierce and Adjutant General White.

SALEM TO PLAY INDEPENDENCE HERE TONIGHT

Tonight the Salem high basketball five will meet the representatives of the Independence high school on the local floor. Independence is reported to have a strong defensive five but are weak on the offense.

The game ought to be a victory for the locals as they are going strong now since they have been able to locate the hoop. Heenan for the locals is hitting the basket nearly every time he is near it and Hill is also scoring with regularity. Heenan is going good this year and bids fair to be high point man before the season closes. He was ferred out of the game last year on account of injuries.

The game will more than likely be full of pep as the Independence five protested Salem's chances in the state basketball tournament last year. There has been a hard feeling between the two teams and Salem will be out for blood. The locals have lost two games this season, both of them by one point margins. They lost to the fast Indiana five on the Indiana floor by a score of 24 to 23 and to the Franklin team by a 15 to 14 count.

The red and black schedule is the heaviest in years according to athletic manager Heenan. They have 27 games on the schedule meeting some of the best teams in the state. The games lost do not count against them and has furnished a great deal of experience that they needed. Before this they have had weak teams to meet and have not had any tough competition until they struck the state tournament. With the Portland high schools eligible to play, Salem has a chance to get tough games before the season officially opens. Tonight's game will start at 7:45.

FRENCH MEDIATE IN OPIUM CRISIS

Geneva, Jan. 21.—(By Associated Press)—The crisis in the international opium conference threatened through failure of the British and American delegates to agree on a proposition for the suppression of opium smoking in the Far East, seemed somewhat tempered at the conclusion of this morning's session as the result of mediation by France.

This took the form of a new proposal by Edouard Daladier, French minister of colonies that the various countries engage to abolish opium smoking within 15 years after the council of the league of nations has officially found that the growth of opium in the producing countries had shown an appreciable reduction.

The French plan gives China two years to curb her production and provides for the league council making an investigation the third year to determine whether the reduction was appreciable.

MORE PAY ASKED FOR COOS CNTY OFFICERS

A bill to increase the salaries of the county clerk, assessor and sheriff of Coos county will be introduced in the house shortly by King of Coos. King's bill would place the salaries of the three officers at $2700 a year. The present salary of the county clerk is $1500 a month. The clerk is forced to pay his deputies $175 a month to obtain competent help, King points out.

THRIFT WEEK TALKS

Every true American thrills at the mere mention of independence. It is the bone and sinew, the heart and soul of our democracy.

We celebrate with great rejoicing each year when Independence day comes around and we are particularly proud of the Declaration of Independence as the greatest American document.

But that is only one kind of liberty, one form of independence—political and religious freedom.

There is another and exceedingly important kind of independence that is directly related to the daily lives, the well-being, comfort and happiness of each one of us—an independence that is vital to the preservation of our national integrity. This is economic independence; the assurance of being able to provide for the material needs of life; the physical comforts and even luxuries that can make living today so thoroughly enjoyable.

That is why we celebrate "Thrifty" week each year. Thrifty living will enable you in later years to look upon "Thrifty" week as a holiday week to show your happiness at having achieved financial independence.

How can you do it? By starting now to save something systematically each week out of what you earn. Put these savings in the bank at interest and make your money work for you. When a man and his dollars work together the result is prosperity. It is not alone what you make, but how you spend, and what you save that counts in the end.

To get for a moment think that this is an easy thing to do. It is in an atmosphere of prodigal expenditure and culpable waste that you are to practice thrift. To save money is to be termed "stingy" or a "tight-wad" by your fellows. But if you are willing to endure to pay the price, a peaceful and contented life is ultimately assured you.

The saving of a surplus, however small, is the first step toward economic independence and success. For saving is simply the buying of a greater future good by a smaller present sacrifice.

Savings are not only insurance against the turns of fortune, but also a means of seizing golden opportunities which are so often lost through the lack of small capital; of the owning of your own home; the education and equipping of your children for the battle of life; the providing for your old age that you may be independent rather than dependent when your earning time of life is a thing of the past.

BEST 10 ROUND BOUT OFFERED FRIDAY NIGHT

Much interest is being taken in the coming ten-round bout between Charlie Dawson of Eugene and Billy Gardeau of Portland and the match is expected to be the best ten-round event yet put on by Harry Plant, matchmaker. Both boxers are in the best of condition or will be by Friday night. They are both well known by Salem fight fans and are well liked for their sportsmanship.

Gardeau is slated to meet a tough customer in Dawson and he will have to extend himself to get a win, although he will more than likely be the favorite in the betting. Gardeau is always ready to mix and is not the kind who wants more than the total gate receipts. He is willing to give anyone a chance and in that he is always in the best of shape. Gardeau is to box Thursday night in Portland with McCormick of Spokane. The first of the fight fans are a bit pessimistic as to his chances here on the following evening. Gardeau promises that he will be fit and says that he will be able to stand two fights in as many nights. Several times he has fought three and four times a week and given good showings. One fan in Salem reports that he has seen Gardeau fight three times in one week and he was as fresh the last night as the first.

A six-round bout for the semifinals between Spike Crossan of Salem and W. Hennings of Portland will be one of the classiest fights yet, according to dope, as both of these boys are fast and willing to mix. A four-round bout has also been arranged by Plant between O'Leary of Portland and Perry of Portland. O'Leary fought on the last card and although he lost on a foul he showed that he is good and Plant wants to give him another chance. Perry has been fighting four-round bouts in Portland so he ought to be pretty good. O'Leary was originally scheduled to meet Bill Byers of Independence, but Byers has quite the tight game and Perry was substituted. The Fox twins have also been matched for the benefit of the ladies. Plant has arranged to have Scotty Inkster, a fast stepper of Portland, meet Dawson in case anything happens to Gardeau, but Gardeau is clever and he will be here ready to give a good account of himself.

Palmer also made his home at Salem for a number of years. Funeral services will be held Wednesday at Oak Grove, Oregon, and interment will be made at the Miller cemetery at Silverton.

Troop No. 2 of the Girls Scouts held a food and handicraft sale Saturday at the N. Digerness store which netted them $10. This troop is under the supervision of Mrs. A. O. Nelson.

Funeral services will be held from the chapel at Silverton, Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Johnson has been a resident of Silverton for 32 years. She is survived by two children, Mrs. A. F. Hobart of Silverton and G. E. Johnson of Salem, nine grandchildren and one great grandchild.

According to the indictment returned by the grand jury the Lawrence brothers caught Ralph Harvey near Ironside, which is 30 miles from a railroad in the north part of Malheur county and throwing a rope around his neck and towing the end over a limb pulled him up until he swung free from the ground. Vanity and not a desire to boost credit, caused some other persons to increase their income tax payments since publication of the figures, he said.
