Scotch To Celebrate Burns' Day

More than a hundred loyal Scots will gather about a long banquet table in the Marion hotel on Saturday evening to celebrate together on the eve of the birthday anniversary of their great poet, Burns. The affair is being planned under the direction of William McGilchrist, Sr., president of the Salem Burns club.

Scotch songs, recitations and readings from Burns will be given in an impromptu manner. Rev. Ward Willis Long will give the principal oration on Burns and Governor Pierce will be present to give a short talk. James Smart will give his well known impersonations of Harry Lauder and bag pipe solos and duets will be given by Arthur Hutcheons and John Charge. Miss Nellie Hutcheons will dance the Highland fling, Scotch reels, Irish jigs, and Highland dances of all kinds will be joined in by the group following the dinner. The menu will consist entirely of dishes dear to all Scotchmen.

The Salem Burns club, organized more than thirty years ago, has met annually at the homes of various members on the Burns anniversary days. Last year the club and its guests were entertained at a banquet at the William McGilchrist, Sr., home on January 25. This year the club has grown so large that only a hotel dining room would accommodate all the group.

The present officers of the club are William McGilchrist, Sr., president; John Bayne, vice president; Agnes Bayne, secretary-treasurer, and members of the executive committee as follows: George Arbuckle, John Marr, Dan Wilson, George Shand, Robert Hutcheons and William McGilchrist, Jr.

The American Association of University Women cooperating with the plan of the National Picture League are sponsoring two pictures, endorsed by the league, "Jamestown" and "Captain January," which will be shown at the Liberty for three days commencing tomorrow.

The better films committee of the association who are in charge of the details of arranging for the showing includes Mrs. A. M. Chapman, Mrs. George Hug and Mrs. J. Ray Pemberton.

Practically all of the leading clubs and civic organizations are supporting the university women in their efforts to improve the quality of films offered for showing at the local theaters. To continue the good work which has already been accomplished it will be necessary that support be given to the showings as announced.

The west side circle of the Jason Lee aid society will hold a social meeting at the home of Mrs. Lena Hockett, 1603 north Commercial street, on Friday afternoon beginning at 2:30.

The Presbyterian aid society will meet Friday afternoon in the church parlors with Mrs. Willis F. Moore as chairman. This is a postponed meeting.

Included on the musical program which will be broadcast tomorrow noon from KGW, the Oregonian, under the sponsorship of the Portland Music Club, will be a group of songs by Lucile Atkinson, contralto, whom Salem people know as a pupil of Miss Minnetta Magers.

Mrs. Al Krause is entertaining at a bridge in her home this afternoon. Her guests include Mrs. H. J. Weidner, Mrs. Raymond Hartman, Mrs. P. Brock, Mrs. L. Schlosberg, Mrs. H. McDevitt, Mrs. M. P. Mendicino, Mrs. L. Simpson, Mrs. K. W. Heinlein, Mrs. W. H. Prunk, Mrs. E. P. Visko, Mrs. E. Rostein, and Mrs. G. L. Rathun.

A meeting for the purpose of organizing a Salem branch of the National League of Women Voters has been called by Miss Hester Hollingshead, regional director, for tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the assembly room of the public library.

The work of the league, the purposes and aims, will be explained at this time. Attendance at the meeting will in no way obligate anyone to join the league, according to Miss Hollingshead.

Mrs. Ida Babcock and Mrs. Rose Babcock left this morning to spend the remainder of the week in Portland as the house guests of Mrs. Babcock's daughter, Mrs. C. A. Maudling. They will be guests tonight at a meeting of Mt. Hood chapter, Order of the Eastern Star. This will be the official visit of the worthy grand matron, Mrs. Alice Burdette of McMinnville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bernardi entertained at their home guests recently Mrs. S. A. Stewart and Mrs. H. H. Hallock, both of Tacoma, Mr. and Mrs. James Welch of Portland and Mrs. Blaine Hallock of Baker. Mrs. Addie Whitaker of Dallas, spent Monday at the Bernardi home and in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Bernardi, Mrs. J. L. Sweeney and Mrs. H. Hallock motored to Dallas with Mrs. Whitaker.

Merry Go Round Club Last Night

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was an event of last night when Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Shipley entertained the members of the Merry-go-round club, one of Salem's oldest and most exclusive social clubs. Lovely mountain scenery and bright cyclamen were arranged about the living rooms of the Shipley home. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Durbin, Sr., were special guests. High scores at five hundred were won by Mrs. Reuben Boise and Max O. Buren.

Members of the club who were present were Mr. and Mrs. John McNary, Mr. and Mrs. Rollin K. Paik, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Max O. Buren, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Fleming, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Boise, Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Moore, Mrs. Frank Snedecor and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Shipley. Mrs. Frank Snedecor will entertain the club at the next meeting, which will be held February 3.

The wedding of Miss Mary Foltrich and Robert Crawford will be very quietly solemnized at four o'clock today in the parsonage of the Presbyterian church. Rev. Ward Willis Long will officiate.

Only close friends of the bride and groom and immediate relatives have been bidden to witness the ceremony. There will be no attendants. Following the ceremony the young couple will take a short trip north. They will make their home in Salem as Mr. Crawford is head of the flax industry at the state penitentiary.

Her many friends will be happy to hear that Mrs. Ralph White has recovered from the illness which confined her to her home for the past week and that she returned to work in her studio today.

The first meeting of the boys and girls social dancing club which was to have been held last Saturday will be held on the coming Saturday beginning at 2:30.

Pimples

You will be startled how quickly and thoroughly you can stop skin eruptions and beautify your complexion with S.S.S.

PIMPLES are the first thing one notices in another person's face. It is too often cruel in its misjudgment. It judges from what it sees on the outside. Pimples are easy to get rid of. More red-cells! That is what you need when you see pimples staring at you in the mirror. Red-cells mean clear, pure, rich blood. They mean clear, ruddy, lovable complexions. They mean nerve power, because all your nerve are fed by your blood. They mean freedom forever from pimples, from blackhead pest, from boils, from eczema and skin eruptions; from that tired, exhausted, run-down feeling. Red-blood-cells are the most important thing in the world to each of us. S.S.S. will aid Nature in building them for you! S.S.S. has been known since 1825 as one of the greatest blood-builders, blood-cleansers and a system strengtheners ever produced. Start taking S.S.S. today. Its medicinal ingredients are purely vegetable.

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.
