CONTEST FILED

BY HEIRS OVER SHAFF ESTATE
FRIDAY NIGHT

Petition to contest the will of Walter D. Shaff has been filed in the circuit court against the findings of the county court. Petitioners to the contest are Charles W. Shaff and Della C. Arkless, who claim they are the sole heirs at law of the deceased, while in the will which is being contested a number of other devisees are named.

The petitioners declare that they secured an order having administrator of the estate. But that later, on August 19 last year, John Bayne, attorney, appeared before the county court with a will which purported to be the last will and testament of Shaff. They state that in proceedings before the county court at the time evidence was adduced which showed that the will was not executed in the presence of witnesses and that they were executed without their signatures as witnesses to a will, and that the will was not properly subscribed. They assert for these reasons the will was null and void.

However, they state, in the face of this testimony the county court went ahead and admitted the will to probate, having George A. Smith removed as administrator, and designating George Keesh as executor, Keesh being named as such in the purported will.

The petitioners ask on appeal that the will be declared a nullity, that George Keesh be removed as administrator and that George A. Smith be reappointed as executor and be permitted to go ahead with the administration of the affairs of the estate.
