P. E. O. Inspection Tomorrow

Salem's two P. E. O. chapters, chapter G and chapter AB, will be primarily interested tomorrow in their official inspection by Miss Marthine Grimsby of Portland, state inspector. In the afternoon Miss Grimsby will inspect chapter G, the older of the two chapters, a no-host banquet will be given in her honor at the Gray Belle at six o'clock, and in the evening chapter AB will honor Miss Grimsby.

The official inspection at this time is significantly appropriate in that it focuses attention upon the organization which celebrated the anniversary of its founding only three days ago. The P. E. O. sisterhood has grown from its humble beginnings at Iowa Wesleyan university at Mount Pleasant, Iowa, on January 20, 1869, to its present membership of more than 35,000 scattered in 36 states and in Canada in more than sixty chapters.

Chapter G was organized on September 4, 1911, and at present has a membership of thirty, many of whom are charter members. Mrs. D. N. Beechler is president this year. The members will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. P. J. Kuntz for Miss Grimsby's inspection.

The second chapter was organized here on May 22, 1922, under the sponsorship of chapter G. It has a membership of seventeen. Inspection will be held in the evening at the home of Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith on Center street.

Any visiting P. E. O.'s who are in town tomorrow will be welcomed at the six o'clock banquet at the Gray Belle. Additional details may be secured from Mrs. Beechler at 863W.

Child Is Convicted of Murder

WILLIAM CAVALIER

William Cavalier, only fourteen years old, has been convicted of murder in the first degree by a jury at Pottsville, Pa., for the cold-blooded killing of his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Cavalier, whom he shot several times last September and robbed. The jury was out more than twenty-four hours.

A number of prominent women of the legislature were the guests last night at a meeting of the business and professional women's club in the chamber of commerce rooms. In keeping with the spirit of Thrift week, a talk on budgets and budget making was given by Mrs. C. A. Kells. Fifteen minutes of discussion followed Mrs. Kells talk in which the investment as well as the protective value of insurance was argued and the necessity of making careful investments of savings was stressed.

Mrs. Josephine Forney, state publicity chairman and formerly president of the Portland business and professional women's club, gave a short talk on the value of budgeting time for the club and the necessity of allowing for playtime. Mrs. Northrup, of the Portland club, gave a short talk also.

Mrs. C. B. Simmons, Multnomah representative during the 1923 session, who is in the lobby during this session, was called upon for a short talk, which followed Thrift week lines.

The play, under the direction of Mrs. Haley, was not given as was first announced, but will be presented at the next meeting.

Recent Writings Given

Veree and prose by Salem writers, practically all of which has been written or completed within the last two weeks, was read at a meeting of the Modern Writers at the home of Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith on Tuesday evening.

In the absence of the leader, Mrs. Gertrude Robleon Roes, Prof. Morton E. Peck presided during the evening. The program opened with a very recent poem by Perry Reigelman entitled, "The Child Outside the Gate." Charles J. Lisle read a new article, a cougar story, entitled "Velvet Foot, the Outlaw."

Mrs. F. S. Barton gave two of her newest poems. The first, "The Cloud Goose," was a delightful bit of fantasy delightful to both young and old. The second was called "Dream Smoke." Mrs. Blanche Jones gave two of her recent efforts. The first was a poem, "Empty Nest," and the second a short paragraph of prose in the philosophic vein was called "The Soul of the Mountain Top."

The next to appear on the program was Mrs. W. F. Fargo who delighted the group with her poem, "Perfection." Mrs. F. G. Franklin then read Miss Edna Garfield's tribute to John Hotchkiss, founder of the northwest poetry society, who was honored at a farewell banquet in Portland on Saturday prior to his departure to Chicago. This tribute appeared in a recent issue of the Albany Democrat.

The most important contribution of the evening occupied the writers the remainder of the meeting. This was a complete play written by Robert Paulus at which he has worked for more than a year. It was read by Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith, Mr. Paulus has called it "The Alabaster Box," and according to those who were privileged to hear it the other evening, it is exceedingly valuable both as to its dramatic quality and the veracity of its historical background. It contrasts life in the lower Nile districts in the days of the great Rameses with twentieth century living.

The rooms of the Smith home were attractively decorated with begonias and wandering jew. Miss Smith was assisted by Mrs. Ray Smith and W. E. Smith. Special guests of the hostess were Mrs. A. M. Reeves, Mrs. Harold Archer, Mrs. Ray Smith and W. E. Smith.

Among the writers in the group were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith, Prof. and Mrs. M. E. Peck, Mrs. F. G. Franklin, Mrs. W. F. Fargo, Miss Marie Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paulus, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Lisle, Mrs. Blanche Jones, Mrs. F. S. Barton, Perry Reigelman and Miss Edna Garfield.

The members will meet in two weeks at the Robert Paulus home.

The Jolly Sixteen club met last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keene with Mrs. Keene and Mrs. H. G. Coursey as hostesses. The living rooms were attractively decorated with lovely baskets of carnations and roses in the pink and white. Miss Wilma Coursey and Miss LaVelle Keene assisted.

High scores were won by Mrs. Charles Kluzer and John Spong. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Keene, Mrs. G. H. Kaylor of Portland, Miss Wilma Coursey and Miss LaVelle Keene.

Club members present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Busey, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keene, Mr. and Mrs. John Spong, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hechtel, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kinzer, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Davies and Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Coursey.

The club will be entertained in two weeks by Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Davies.

WOMEN BORN 1873 TO 1881

Now Is the Critical Time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will Help You Safely Through

Convoy, Ohio.—"During the Change of Life I was weak and run-down and could hardly do my work. By reading your advertisements I found out about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has straightened me right out and made me feel like a new woman. By the time I had taken eight bottles I was well and could do my housework on the farm without trouble. I recommended it to my daughter-in-law after her second baby was born and it did her a wonderful lot of good. I told her to try it and if it didn't help her I would pay for it, and before she had taken one bottle she said to me, 'You won't have to pay for it! It is helping me wonderfully!' And she took three bottles of it. You can use my testimonial if you wish." —Mrs. ELSIE ACKERMAN, Convoy, Ohio.

Consider carefully Mrs. Ackerman's letter. Her experience ought to help you. She tells of the trials of middle age and the wonderful results she obtained from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The cast has been chosen and a number of rehearsals have been held in preparation for the presentation of a four act comedy by the Salem Heights Community club, the dates of which will be announced later. The play is "Down in Maine," and Lloyd Waltz of Willamette univerelty is coaching the players.

The characters are as follows: Zeph Cummings, a New England farmer, A. N. Fulkerson; Ralph, his brother, a New York millionaire, P. F. Stolzheise; Neil Wentworth, a young inventor, Edward Burnside; Bingle, an old fisherman, Harry W. Burnside; Tompe, the hired man, Mr. Morgan; Mr. Holden, a lawyer, King Bartlett; Jimpsey, a "fresh air kid," Rodney Hartman; Mose Cosein, a stuttering lover, William Trudgen; Sussie Cummings, Ralph's daughter, Mrs. King Bartlett; Mrs. Cummings, Zeph's wife, Mrs. Charles Sawyer; Keziah, "forty three and desperate," Mrs. Len Farrington; Betsey Tampe, the hired girl, Mrs. Darrell C. Washburne. Musical numbers will be given by Edward Burnside.

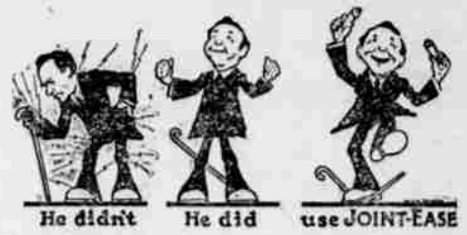
Ask for Joint-Ease and Get Rid of Stiff, Swollen, Painful Joints

It was a high-class pharmacist who saw prescription after prescription fail to help hundreds of his customes to get rid of rheumatic swellings and stiff, inflamed joints.

And it was this same man who asserted that a remedy could and would be compounded that would make creaky, swollen, tormented joints work with just as much smoothness as they ever did.

Now this prescription, rightly named Joint-Ease, after being tested successfully on many obstinate cases, is offered through Daniel J. Fry and progressive pharmacists to millions of people who suffer from ailing joints that need limbering up.



Swollen, twingy, inflamed, stiff, pain-tormented joints are usually caused by rheumatism, but whatsoever the cause Joint-Ease soaks straight in through skin and flesh right down to the tendons and ligaments of the joints—right where all the trouble starts and then blessed relief comes quickly.

Remember Joint-Ease is for ailments of the joints, whether in ankle, arch, knee, hip, elbow, shoulder, spine or finger, and when you rub it on, you may expect speedy and gratifying results.

Always remember, when Joint-Ease gets in joint agony gets out—and only 60 cents a tube.
