Silver Tea To Increase Loan Fund

The Salem Woman's club, an active member of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, is making extensive preparations for the silver tea which it will sponsor on Thursday, the day following Red Letter day because Wednesday offered conflicting attractions in the clubhouse on north Cottage street.

It is through the silver tea that the Salem club hopes to effect a generous contribution to the scholarship loan fund maintained by the Oregon federation. All of the women of Salem are bidden to the affair. The educational and student loan committees have been placed in charge of the arrangements by the club president, Mrs. C. E. Spaulding.

Since the establishment in 1905 of "Red Letter day"—the day on which every club in the state is asked to do something to increase the fund which is loaned to young women to assist in their education—almost phenomenal results have been obtained. According to the report made by Miss Jessie McGreggor of Portland, chairman of the board of trustees of the scholarship loan fund, at the beginning of the last club year 356 girls had been given loans thus enabling them to complete their education. Last year seventy three loans were made averaging $120 each. During the past year also, thirty girls who previously received loans repaid completely $2029. Thirty four girls made partial repayments to a total of $2841.

The fund is available generally only to girls in Oregon institutions. Of the seventy three girls assisted last year seventeen were students at the university at Eugene, eight attended O. A. C. six each at Willamette and Pacific universities, and twenty seven were enrolled at Monmouth normal. Others assisted were enrolled at Linfield college, Reed college, one in a business course, two at the medical school, and one was studying music in New York.

This report shows the scope of the work that is done with the funds sent in by the clubs in all parts of the state that are joined to the central organization. Some of the clubs choose food teas, others shows and entertainments, to furnish their contribution to the fund. According to Miss McGreggor's report the Medford club last year sent a check for $165. Salem women have chosen the silver tea and they ask the women of the city and the county to support them.

Mrs. W. H. Moon entertained the Valley View club at her home on Thursday afternoon at a festive business meeting followed by several hours of sewing and visiting. During the social hour a dialogue was given by Mrs. Guy McDowell and Mrs. James Best.

Special guests were Miss Alma Churchill, Mrs. Joe Delap, Mrs. J. B. Ashby, Mrs. H. D. Landon and Mrs. J. H. Kennedy. Mrs. Kennedy joined the club yesterday.

Club members present were Mrs. Chester Fisher, Mrs. Cash Roberts, Mrs. William Knorr, Mrs. Guy McDowell, Mrs. Roy McDowell, Mrs. John Simmons, Mrs. James Best, Mrs. Frank Wilson, Mrs. Vernon Southwick, Mrs. Amon Grice, Mrs. G. G. Gibson, Mrs. Ernest Anderson, Mrs. Fred Gibson and Mrs. W. H. Moon.

The club will be entertained on February 5 at the home of Mrs. Amon Grice.

A joint installation of the officers of the Woodmen of the World and of Silver Bells, a circle of neighbors of Woodcraft, was held recently when the officers of Silver Bell circle who served during the past year were re-installed for another year. Mrs. Sarah McDowell was the installing officer. Her assistants were Mrs. Stella Blackaby, Mrs. Mina Olinstead and Mrs. Jepson. Officers of the Woodmen were installed by C. D. Ross.

Following the ceremonies the officers presented Mrs. McDowell with a lovely gift. An old fashioned dance occupied the group during the remainder of the evening.

A unique and extremely enjoyable evening was spent last night by the forty two members of the Adelante literary society. The affair was a surprise to all but the officers who planned it and after calling the group to order in the Adelante room on the campus the president asked all to follow her. The destination was the blue room of the Gray Belle where a delightful Dutch program was given.

The long table was attractive with favors of Dutch shoes and tiny windmills. Miss Louise Kausman gave a reading and Miss Alaine Smith a Dutch dance and song. Then came the "Dutch treat" lunch with wooden shoes passed to receive the contributing of silver which each member was asked to bring to the meeting.

On Tuesday evening, February 3, the Knights of Columbus and the Catholic Daughters of America will entertain the members of St. Joseph's parish and their friends at the second of a series of card parties being held before Lent.

Mrs. B. Cunningham, Mrs. S. Gentskow, Mrs. J. Napoleon Rocque and Mrs. E. Petzel comprise the committee in charge of the refreshments and general arrangements for the next affair.

Chapters Officially Inspected

The Monday bridge club was entertained at the home of Mrs. H. E. Polak early in the week. Mrs. A. F. Marcus, Mrs. W. H. Dancy and Mrs. Will Babcock were special guests. High score was won by Mrs. A. H. Moore.

MacDowell Club Concert On Friday

Frederick W. Goodrich, organist, Frances Virginia Melton, pianist, Nellie Schwab, soprano, and Leslie Springer, baritone, are the four musicians secured by the MacDowell club for the third concert in the MacDowell club series to be given next Friday, January 30, in the First Christian church.

Professor Goodrich needs no introduction to Salem music lovers. His reputation as an artist of the highest type and a player of great ability has been established in the northwest for many years. With the introduction of the Sunday afternoon concert by the Oregonian broadcasting station KGW, his remarkable playing has delighted a constantly growing audience. Mr. Goodrich is a member of the American Guild of Organists and dean of the Portland chapter, he heads the music department in the Portland extension center of the University of Oregon, and is organist at St. Mary's Pro-Cathedral in Portland. All the explanatory notes for the Portland Symphony orchestra are the work of Mr. Goodrich.

Although Miss Melton has spent several months in Salem—she accepted a position in September as professor of piano and director of the piano and theoretical department of Willamette university—this is her first formal appearance before a local audience. Miss Melton has had special training as a pianist and unusual opportunities to prepare herself for her work. She is a pupil of William Sherwood of Chicago, Wager Swaine and Harold Bauer of Paris, Severin-Eisenberger of Berlin, and Theodor Leschetzky of Vienna. Miss Melton has given many concerts in Japan and other parts of the Orient. She taught for some time in Tokyo.

Miss Schwab is a favorite soloist of the MacDowell club and her work is always well received. She is one of the best loved of the local soloists.

Although he studied extensively for a number of years Mr. Springer is a baritone who is little known as he has always avoided concert appearances. He is said to possess a voice of quality, excellently handled and his numbers will be awaited with interest.

This is the third concert of the year under the sponsorship of the MacDowell club. The first was given by Lucien E. Becker, a popular Portland organist, who recently returned from a tour and made many new friends, and the second was the annual Christmas concert by the two choruses.

Mrs. Phil Newmyer, in charge of arranging the music for the silver tea which the Woman's club will sponsor on Thursday for the benefit of the student loan fund maintained by the Oregon State Federation of clubs, has announced a tractive number which will be given during the afternoon.

Mrs. Martin Ferrelletian will sing several solos. The MacDowell club quartet, composed of Ada Miller Harris, first soprano, Ruth Emory Riddell, second soprano, Blanche Chamblin, first alto, and Margaret Hodge Roegerans, second alto, will give "Sylvia" and "Roses of Picardy." A stringed instrument trio will also give several numbers. Members of the trio are Maxine Glover, Elgen Adolph and Henry Wesley Thielson.

Mrs. Joe Beck entertained at a charming one o'clock luncheon yesterday, the event being her birthday. Carnations in the pink and white were attractive on the luncheon table with a beautiful birthday cake in the center.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Anna Wolf, Mrs. Fred Woodcock, Mrs. Tumbelson, Mrs. Leona Demaree, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Reta Gamble, Mrs. Bart Smith and the hostess, Mrs. Beck.

Mrs. Harry Lucas and Mrs. Junior Eckley were joint hostesses Thursday evening at the Lucas home at a miscellaneous shower honoring Mrs. Harry Oldenburg (Ida Vogt) whose wedding was a surprise to her friends, was an event of January 14. Mrs. Oldenburg received many lovely gifts.

The guests were Mrs. Harry Oldenburg, Mrs. Lucile Oetrand, Mrs. Arthur Oldenburg, Mrs. R. B. Gagnon, Mrs. Willie Vogt, Mrs. Carl Miller, Misses Alice Woods, Miriam Lovell, Violet Peters, Ruth and Lena Stover, Margaret Thompson, Bernice and Margaret Ulrich, Ester Lamkin, Melissa and Odley Pearsons, Luella Rhoten, Ida Hilliker, Bether Leaning, Elder Reese and the hostesses, Mrs. Harry Lucas and Mrs. Junior Eckley.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spaulding will entertain at a family dinner tomorrow honoring the birthday anniversary of C. K. Spaulding. Members of the Spaulding family in Newburg and the Mills family in Portland will motor down for the day.

Scotchmen to Honor Burns This Evening

The Monday bridge club was entertained at the home of Mrs. H. E. Polak early in the week. Mrs. A. F. Marcus, Mrs. W. H. Dancy and Mrs. Will Babcock were special guests. High score was won by Mrs. A. H. Moore.

Tonight will be a gala night for all those loyal Scots who each year, on the anniversary of the birthday of their great poet, Robert Burns, gather together to celebrate the event in a fitting manner. Salem Scotchmen have been busy in an attractive manner. Art baskets filled with carnations, frezias and narcissuses will center the long table.

The Burns oration will be given by Rev. Ward Willis Long and Governor Pierce will give a short talk. Scotch dances, jigs, and reels will be joined in by the guests after the banquet.

Bagpipe solos, duets and trios will be given by James Smart, John Charge and Arthur Hutcherson. Mr. Smart will also give his popular Harry Lauder impersonation. Miss Nellie Hutcherson will dance the Highland fling. Lyman McDonald will sing a group of Scotch songs, and Mrs. W. J. Linford will also sing melodies dear to the heart of a good Scotchman.

Musical Reception Last Night

The Cecilia Music club members were hostesses last night at a delightful reception and musicale given in the home of Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts. Nearly a hundred cards were issued for the affair.

Miss Lena Belle Tartar, adviser of the club, Miss Lorraine Pierce, Miss Rovena Eyre, Miss Faye Wasson and Miss Virginia Dorcas formed the receiving line. During the first hour Miss Beryl Holt and Mrs. Brazier Small poured. Their places were taken later by Miss Ada Rose and Miss Mary Eyre.

During the evening a musical program was given consisting of vocal solos by Miss Helen Marcus, Miss Josephine Albert and Miss Maude Gwynn, several piano solos by Miss Mary Cupper and a reading by Miss Florence Power.

Lovely yellow blossoms and yellow candles were used through out the reception and the dining room.

The hostess group included Miss Helen Marcus, Miss Jean Shipp, Miss Mildred Gilbert, Miss Royena Eyre, Miss Virginia Dorcas, Miss Maureen Styles, Miss Mildred Pugh, Miss Doris Nye, Miss Florence Power, Miss Josephine Albert, Miss Carolyn Lambirth, Miss Rosalind Van Winkle, Miss Maude Gwynn, Miss Mary Drager, Miss Mary Cupper, Miss Lillian Scott, Miss Faye Wasson, Miss Rosalie Buren, Miss Dorothy Kezar and Miss Lorraine Pierce.

An unusually interesting meeting of the Highland parent teaching association was held at the school on Tuesday evening with the majority of the members and a number of guests in attendance. The musical program also pleased the group greatly. Specially enjoyable were the numbers by T. S. McKenzie who sang first "Mother Macbride" and "You Along O' Me." Later in the evening Mr. McKenzie sang "A Wee House in the Heather," and "The Reason Why We Wear the Kilts." For an encore he sang "Roamin' in the Gloamin'."

A surprise feature of the program was a ukelele and steel guitar duet by Miss Florence Lake and Miss Isabelle Bartlett.

During the business meeting reports were given by the soup kitchen and branch library committees. Mrs. F. M. Yates is in charge of the kitchen at the school and it was reported that an average of more than seventy bowls of soup or cups of cocoa are served each day. It was also disclosed that more than one half of the younger children take milk during the recess period. The fact that only the best materials are used in the preparation of the food was stressed again.

The branch library committee reported that a total of 1755 books were loaned during the past year. A number of the members also volunteered at the meeting to assist in the Red Cross work.

A silver tea for the benefit of the library fund will be given on Thursday, at the home of Mrs. George Wenderoth on Water street.

The picture was won this time by Miss Ellen Curran's primary room.

Mrs. Frank Sneider was hostess today at a ten cover luncheon honoring Mrs. F. M. Jordan of Seattle.

Mrs. Ed Baker, Mrs. Victor McKenzie and Miss Alta Jones motored to Portland yesterday for the week end.

Mrs. D. X. Beecher has as her house guest Miss Marthine Grimby of Portland, state officer of the P. E. O. sisterhood who made the official inspection of the two Salem chapters yesterday.

Father And Son In Concert

A very unusual service will be conducted at the First Methodist church tomorrow evening. Assisted by the choir, under the leadership of Professor Hobson, Dr. E. C. Hickman, president of Kimball school of Theology, and his father, Reverend G. W. Hickman of Aberdeen, South Dakota, will give a concert of sacred songs. Rev. G. W. Hickman, although having passed the three score and ten mark, possesses a lyric tenor voice of unusual richness and power. The strong full baritone of the son blends into perfect harmony with the sweet clear tenor of the father. Father and son have sung together for many years to the delight of many audiences. Their singing aroused great enthusiasm at the world centenary celebration at Columbus, Ohio, where they appeared repeatedly before audiences of fifteen to twenty thousand people.

A unique feature of the Sunday evening program will be the dramatic presentation of the famous Sankey hymn "The Ninety and Nine," by Rev. G. W. Hickman. A beautiful hymn written by the father will be sung by father and son. Dr. D. W. Riddle of Kimball will accompany them on the grand piano.

New League Head Names Chairmen

Mrs. J. A. Churchill, first president of the Salem branch of the National League of Women Voters which was formed on Thursday, has named the chairmen of the standing committees which will serve during the year. Mrs. Frank Spoons is chairman of the membership committee, Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., heads the finance committee, Mrs. E. E. Fisher will take charge of the program committee and the publicity will be handled by Mrs. Henry E. Cornoy. The organization will be completed before the next meeting, according to Mrs. Churchill.

The league which has as its primary object the education of women voters so that they may vote intelligently, follows a definite course of study taking in turn the study of local, county, state, and national government. To facilitate the study work study groups of less than twenty, each with a group leader, will be formed with meetings held weekly or semi-monthly. All enfranchised women will be welcomed to these study meetings—the membership will not be limited to league members.

Once during each month a general discussion and open forum meeting will be held with all the study groups meeting together to take up a question of general interest.

Definite courses of study are furnished through the central headquarters of the national league. The Salem branch will begin its work with a series of ten lessons under the general title of "Know Your Town." A week of study will be devoted to each of the ten lessons under the following headings: history and population; homes and living costs; health; education; industry and workers; recreation and social hygiene; care of dependents and delinquents; streets, transportation and public utilities; courts and juries; and local government.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Capell and small daughter, returned yesterday from a visit of several days in Corvallis with Mrs. Capell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Jackson.

Mrs. Phil Newmyer entertained at bridge on Thursday afternoon. Lovely spring flowers were arranged about the rooms with four tables placed for the players. High honors were won by Mrs. Walter Spaulding and consolation went to Mrs. Frank Myers.

Guests of Mrs. Newmyer were Mrs. C. E. Bates, Mrs. Elliott Colony, Mrs. R. J. Valiton, Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mrs. Max Page, Mrs. Bess Darby, Mrs. F. W. Poorman, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mrs. C. B. Webb, Mrs. Frank Myers, Mrs. Walter Kirk, Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mrs. Warren Powers, Mrs. Wilson Darby and Mrs. Prince Byrd.

One of the most delightful bridge luncheons of the week was given on Tuesday when Miss Zoe Stockton honored Mrs. Frank G. Myers at a one o'clock luncheon followed by several hours of cards.

A lovely crystal bowl filled with pink sweet peas and maiden hair fern formed the centerpiece on the long table with covers placed for Mrs. Frank G. Myers, Mrs. Carl B. Webb, Mrs. Henry A. Cornoy, Mrs. Max Page, Mrs. Kari Kugel, Mrs. Sam Butler, Mrs. Walter Kirk, Mrs. Grant Bonnell, Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mrs. Leland S. Geer, Mrs. Tom Galloway, Mrs. Paul V. Johnson and the hostess, Miss Stockton.

High score at bridge was won by Mrs. Walter Spaulding.

Mrs. Sam Gariand, Mrs. Charlie Shelton, Mrs. A. R. Hunter and Mrs. C. A. Hunter motored to Monmouth on Wednesday where they spent the day.

Representative and Mrs. Chas. Shelton are spending the week end in Portland.

Grace E. Hall, well known Oregon poet, read several verses from her volume "Homespun" at a recent meeting of the Philodanlian literary society on the Willamette university campus yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Cappanah of Canyon City, have been spending a week with the L. F. Griffith, Joseph Albert and W. H. Dancy families. They plan to leave for Portland on Monday.

Chapter AB of the P. E. O. sisterhood will meet Monday evening at the home of Mrs. W. D. Smith, 1765 Center street. All visiting P. E. O.'s are cordially welcomed to this meeting.

Sandifer Goes AS RESULT OF PIERCE ARREST

Portland, Jan. 24.—Laronda Pierce, storm center of many a bitter controversy concerning State Prohibition Commissioner Cleaver's office and who is now a star witness against Cleaver at the legislative investigation of the dry chief's official conduct, called at police headquarters yesterday and arranged to pay a $50 fine levied against him last May.

It was because of this fine that Pierce was arrested by J. C. Weaver co-horts Thursday night and sent to police headquarters. Because C. E. Sandifer, who has also been in the limelight more or less because of liquor enforcement work in Marion, Jackson and other counties, and who recently was employed as a police "stool pigeon," had become involved in the mess, Chief of Police Jenkins, acting on orders of Mayor Baker, unceremoniously dismissed him yesterday. With Sandifer went four others of his firm, also hired to ferret out crime.

"We have tried to keep the police out of the kind of politics charged to the state prohibition commissioner," said Chief Jenkins, "and when we learned that Sandifer was involved in the arrest of Pierce, an act that savored of politics, we simply fired Sandifer."

MRS. WM. BUTTS WAS VERY SICK
Gives Full Credit to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for Remarkable Recovery
Wellston, O.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to make me strong. I was troubled with my back and sides hurting me till I could not do my work, and whenever I caught cold it made me irregular. Since I have taken the Vegetable Compound my sides and back don't bother me and I can do my household work and care for my children now, where before I did not feel like doing anything or going around. After my first child was born about four years ago I saw an advertisement in the paper about the Vegetable Compound. I knew it would help me, but I was afraid to try it because people said it would help you to have children and I knew I was having children fast enough. But I thought if it would help me it would be better to have a whole house full of children and have good health. I became stronger from taking it and my husband says I look like a live woman instead of a dead one. When Spring comes I am going to take your Blood Medicine as I am very thin. I will answer letters from any woman who wishes to ask about your medicine."—Mrs. WILLIAM BUTTS, Wellston, Ohio.
