FARMERS NEED $1,250,000 FOR RESEEDING GRAIN

The $300,000 appropriation provided for in a relief bill for eastern Oregon farmers whose wheat has been frozen out is utterly inadequate, and about $1,250,000 is needed, according to representations made by farmers and bankers before the ways and means committee last night and before the governor yesterday.

J. M. Kelly of The Dalles declared that 450,000 acres of land in Wasco, Sherman, Morrow, Gilliam and Umatilla counties have been frozen out and will require re-seeding. Unless money is furnished by the state, he said, much of the land will be general in the Portland banks credit for having done all they possibly could to help the farmers, while the small up-state banks had taken farmers' paper to the limit. Some of the smaller banks, he said, would go even further.

Kelly's argument was reinforced by speeches from Senator Ritter, Mrs. Marie Gofore of Wasco and W. H. Ragadale of Moro.

A special committee of the visitors and members of the ways and means committee was appointed to confer with the attorney general as to legality of the state's advancing money secured by mortgages on the crops.

$10,000 SOUGHT FOR HISTORICAL BOARD

Appropriations of $10,000 are sought in two house bills introduced this morning by the committee on horticulture.

Five thousand dollars is wanted for covering cost of inspection of plants and plant products entering through ports of the state or coming across the border during 1925 and 1926.

The other appropriation of $5000 is sought for combatting the alfalfa weevil during 1925 and 1926. A third bill introduced by the committee on horticulture would raise the salary of the state board's secretary to a sum not exceeding $200 a month. The present limit allowed is $100.

STONE FIRM FOR PURSUIT OF WHEELER

Washington, Jan. 28.—Attorney General Stone told the senate judiciary committee today that the justice department was fully determined to go ahead with its new case here against Senator Wheeler of Montana.

Called before the committee to make a statement in connection with the controversy which is delaying his confirmation as a supreme court justice, Mr. Stone declared the case to be brought here in wholely independent of the Montana proceedings in which Senator Wheeler already is under indictment.

The attorney general said the proceedings here involved a case of conspiracy to defraud the government out of oil and mineral lands through the validating of permits held by the Gordon Campbell syndicate.

"The principal acts were performed at the capitol," Mr. Stone said. "Much of the evidence is documentary in character and is located in the interior department."

Numerous "overt acts" the attorney general said, had been committed in the District of Columbia and he added that the evidence could not be reviewed without giving the impression of a possible connection by Senator Wheeler with these acts.

Although the case pending in Montana also involves the Campbell land permits, it was brought under an entirely different section of the law, and charges specifically that Senator Wheeler accepted money to appear before the interior department after his election to the senate, as counsel for Campbell.

Senator Wheeler entered the committee room in the midst of Mr. Stone's statement.

Cross-examined by Senator Walsh, Mr. Stone said the case to be presented to the grand jury here was "not wholly disconnected from the case in Montana, but that it involved new angles, new witnesses and new documentary evidence."

BE CAREFUL SALEM CHOSEN AS BEST FIELD FOR CHILD WORK

Byron Arnold, 510 Madison street, Corvallis, bumped into the back fender of a car driven by Al Bentz of Mt. Angel last night. E. A. Pruitt of 1435 N. Cottage street, drove a car which came in contact with a car driven by J. R. Dickson of 1613 Front street last night. No one was hurt.

"We believe that Marion county is the best place for the purpose," was the statement made this noon by Dr. Walter H. Brown of the Child Health Demonstration program. In explaining why Marion county was selected from among 25 applicants all over the west as the location for the health program, Dr. Brown spoke before the Salem Rotary club at its regular weekly luncheon.

"When I inspected those 25 communities last summer," he said "I concluded that the proper spirit of cooperation and the right class of people to work with, are to be found in Marion county. It is not customary for the Harkness foundation, which he represents, to work in large cities, he stated.

"We are not here to replace local agencies," said Dr. Brown, "we work through and with whatever agencies have already been established. We are here simply to add to what you are already doing. And we expect to pay for the demonstration work we do."

Practically all the attention of his corps of workers will be centered on making and keeping the children healthy, Dr. Brown indicated, little attention being paid to grown persons. "We intend to fix it so that the child will have the best medical care at his command from before the time he is born until he is fully developed," he said. "79 children out of every thousand in the United States die before they are a year old. In New Zealand there are only 40 out of every thousand." One third of the first draft for the World War was found to be unfit for service, he said, with a large proportion of the men disqualified because of things that could have been prevented with the right kind of care during childhood. "You would not tolerate the waste in your business that occurs in human lives in this country. Our program is simply for the purpose of educating the people of the United States. Our work here comes a free gift to help Marion county help itself."

The special dining room at the Marlon hotel, where the luncheon was held, was crowded to capacity every seat being taken.

NURNI BREAKS ANOTHER RECORD

New York, Jan. 28.—(By Associated Press)—Six world records, one of them made by the relentless Paavo Nurmi of Finland, were established last night at the annual games of the Millrose A. A. in Madison Square Garden. Willie Ritola of the Finnish-American A. C. broke four in a three mile race and Harold Osborne of the Illinois A. C. jumped six feet 6 1/2 inches high, erasing the mark set by LeRoy Brown of Dartmouth.

Nurmi's accomplishment, perhaps, was the most remarkable for he conquered Jolie Ray of Chicago and Jimmy Connolly of Washington in a race at three quarters of a mile.

Nurmi, in a field of six, was last to get away climbed steadily in the line until Connolly and Ray were ahead of him and then, with a tap to go, set such a furious pace that the field was ten yards behind at the end. Nurmi was looking over his shoulder as he ran the final 100 yards. His time was three minutes, 3 4/5 seconds.

CONDITION IS ALLEGED DEPLORABLE

(Continued from Page One) brought back. It is alleged, and in the few instances where some sort of punishment was attempted convict sentiment prevailed and forced release of the men from the "bull pen" or other place of confinement. Repeatedly, they say, convicts who have escaped have been brought back, returned to their old places in the yard or elsewhere where they had the same opportunity to escape, and in some instances were put out again as trustees inside of a month.

Inside the prison, it is charged, the guards and associate with prisoners, and even gamble with them, and that gambling among the employees is almost a daily occurrence. Every day and on Sunday, they charge, when the convicts are not at work gambling is going on in the sheds, where guards are set down seen, and that practically no effort is made to break up the practice.

During the baseball season, it is alleged, betting on the games among the convicts and the guards and sometimes between them is generally prevalent, and that one such game last summer was deliberately framed with the result that the deputy warden is said to have won $25, one of the implicated convicts $25, and a guard who was also in on the frame up walked off with another $25. This same guard, it is said, later added to his winnings by annexing $20 in a poker game in the guards' quarters.

Drinking and even drunkenness in a few instances reported among the guards, and in recently one guard was so drunk that no effort was made to break up by another guard who threatened to call in the city police officers.
