CITY CENSUS TO BE TAKEN BY W. U. STUDENTS

The survey of the city of Salem, to be begun next Sunday by some hundred students of Willamette university, working under the direction of the sociological department of that institution, will result in a complete, authentic census of the city, it was said today by Professor S. B. Laughlin, sociological professor in charge of the survey. Nothing more than a rough estimate of Salem's population has been taken in the last five years.

Estimating that there are between five and six thousand houses in Salem, the department has had printed six thousand cards, the intention being to use one for each house. The city has been divided into 20 districts, with a corps of students, under the direction of a captain, assigned to each district.

Information will be gathered at each house having to do with the occupation of the people living there, places of birth and race. Those who were not born in Oregon will be asked, not only where they were born, but where they have lived before coming to Oregon. Information will be collected as to the number of children going to school outside of Salem, how many of the people are college graduates and to what church, if any, they belong.

The cards will be filed at the local Y. W. C. A. office. The Y. W. C. A. originally suggested the idea of the survey.

BEARCATS PLAY MISSIONARIES

Doped to be one of the closest games of the season, the clash between the Willamette and Whitman basketball quintets will occur tonight. The game at Walla Walla between the two teams, played when the Willamette squad took its tour north, resulted in a three-point win by the Missionaries, the final score being 27 to 24.

Whitman has played every school in the northwest conference except Pacific and has been defeated by margins not quite so wide as the games Willamette has lost to the same teams. In a game at Eugene last night, the Oregon team defeated Whitman by a score of 44 to 22, with Okerberg, stellar Oregon center, being closely checked. At Corvallis the night before Whitman was defeated by the Aggies by a safe margin, but at Walla Walla the two teams played a nip and tuck game, the Oregon school finally winning 12 to 11.

INDIAN TEAMS WIN TWO GAMES AT CHEMAWA

Chemawa, Or., Jan. 28.—The second team of the Salem Indian school took a victory from the second team of the Salem high school last night on the Indian floor by a score of 35 to 21. In a preliminary game the Chemawa girls' team won over the Stayton girls by a lop-sided score of 23 to 4.

The high school started out like champions and were leading at the half by a 17 to 12 score, but in the last half the redskins looped the ball in the basket from almost unheard of angles. Rassmussen for the Indians was high point man with 17 points, while Larsen of the high school rolled in seven points.

In the girls' game, Nellie Rinehart for the Indians made 19 of the 23 points. Miss Haworth of the Stayton team made all of her team's tallies. The game was considerably faster than the score indicates and the Indians have made arrangements for a return game at Stayton in the near future.

REPRISALS TO FOLLOW PIERCE COUP

occupying what appears to be an impregnable position; facing him on the other wing is the more or less shattered adverse majority in the senate; in the center is the powerful lobby reserve, ready at a moment's notice to send reinforcements to either wing.

Defending the gubernatorial trenches is but a single force, the senate bloc in opposition to hamstringing the executive, and that of questionable strength.

Yesterday the strategists directing the movements of the defenders first claimed a voting strength of 14 in the senate; later they admitted that they could only count on 12 to stick. Today an impartial survey of their forces fails to reveal more than nine members who can be counted on to stand at their posts through the attacks on the governor's strongholds in the Port of Portland, the prohibition department, the office of the market agent, the state fair board, the bonus commission and other minor points. In some of these skirmish es the governor can logically expect to muster the eleven or even twelve votes necessary to sustain his vetoes in the senate, but only nine appear to be pledged to a consistent opposition to all hamstringing.

They are Senators Joseph, Eddy, Garland, Fisk, Strayer, Tooze, LaFollett, Johnson and Beals.

On certain measures the strength of this lineup may be augmented by votes of Brown, Kinney, Staples or Hare.

There is a growing conviction around the lobby today that instead of accomplishing a diplomatic coup yesterday in announcing the appointment of five commissioners of the Port of Portland who do not take office until June 1, the governor committed a strategical error, and gave to the legislature the opening for which its leaders have been looking. He invited trouble, and unquestionably he will be obliged.

The counter offensive is expected to open tomorrow with the introduction of a bill to remove from the hands of the governor

TAYLOR PLEADS TO MANSLAUGHTER

Klamath Falls, Or., Jan. 28.—John Taylor, admitted leader of the five outlaws who shot and killed Oscar Erickson in a basement gambling house here on the morning of January 4, entered a plea of guilty to manslaughter in circuit court here late yesterday afternoon. He will be sentenced February 10.

It was Taylor's confession which made possible the capture of three of the four other suspects, and in view of this, District Attorney Ganong allowed him to plead guilty to the lesser crime. He will be used as the chief witness against John O'Shea, Pete Sullivan and Sim Pate, whose joint trial for Erickson's slaying will start Friday morning.

the authority to appoint commissioners of the Port of Portland, vesting it in the legislature and reinstating the five commissioners whom were yesterday deposed by Governor Pierce. The sponsors for this bit of legislation assert that they have the necessary 26 votes lined up to pass it over the veto.

Following close on the heels of the port measure the program calls for introduction of a bill transferring the administration of the penitentiary from the governor to the board of control, and there is strong talk of similar action as regards the insurance commissioner and the industrial accident commission.
